The Permanent Committee on Commissions also reported recommending the enrollment of Rev. John Hood Laughlin as a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Chinan. A letter from the Moderator and Stated Clerk of said Presbytery to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly sets forth that at the annual meeting of the Presbytery it was not anticipated that representation at the Assembly was possible, that on account of distance to be traveled called meetings were impracticable, and that it was the unanimous desire of the Presbytery, expressed by the signatures of its members, which had been secured, that Mr. Laughlin represent it at this meeting. The Report was adopted.

Speeches nominating candidates for the Moderatorship were limited to ten minutes each, and speeches seconding to five minutes each; two speeches only being allowed in behalf of each nominee.

Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, was unanimously elected Moderator.

Upon the nomination of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, the following were chosen as Temporary Clerks: Rev. Thomas L. Sexton, D.D., of the Presbytery of Nebraska City; Rev. James Todd, D.D., of the Presbytery of Boston; Rev. Richard M. Campbell, of the Presbytery of Huntingdon, and Prof. W. A. Edwards, LL.D., of the Presbytery of Los Angeles.

The General Rules for Judicatories and additional Rules for business as contained in the Manual were adopted.

An Address of Welcome was delivered by Rev. William Y. Chapman, D.D., pastor of the Lafayette Avenue Church, Buffalo, who also presented to the Moderator a gavel made of several pieces of wood of historic associations. The Moderator responded to the address of welcome and presentation.

The Committee of Arrangements respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

1. It is recommended that the hours for the sessions of the Assembly be from 9 A.M. to 12 M., and from 2.30 to 5.30 P.M., excepting on Saturday, May 21, when the hours of session shall be from 9 to 11.30 A.M. It is also recommended that the time from 9 to 9.30 A.M. be given each session to devotional services.

2. A reception to the General Assembly is tendered at the Twentieth Century Club on Thursday evening, May 26, from 8 until 10.30 P.M.

An excursion has been arranged for Saturday afternoon, May 21, to Niagara Falls, by special train via the Erie Railroad. It is recommended that these appointments be accepted.

3. The following meetings additional to the regular popular meetings of the Assembly have been arranged:

Popular meeting in the interest of Evangelistic Work, in the Lafayette Avenue Church, Saturday evening, at 8 P.M.; and also in the Central Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening, at the same hour.

Attention is drawn to the fact that, by order of the Assembly, the popular meeting in the interest of the Woman's Board of Home Missions will be held in the Lafayette Avenue Church on Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

Respectfully submitted,

W. Y. CHAPMAN, Chairman.

The following Orders of the Day were fixed:

The Report of the Special Committee on the Assembly Herald, the first Order for this morning.

The Report of the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, the first Order for this afternoon.

The Report of the College Endowment Commission, the second Order for this afternoon.

The Report of the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, the third Order for this afternoon.

The Report of the Special Committee on Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, the second Order for Wednesday afternoon.

The Report of the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, the first Order for Thursday, as much time as is necessary to be given continuously to its consideration.

The Report of the Special Committee on Judicial Commissions, the first Order for Friday next.

Addresses by Rev. John Fox, D.D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, and Rev. George L. Shearer, D.D., Secretary of the American Tract Society, the second Order for this morning.

The matter of the reception of a delegation from the Presbyterian Church in Canada was referred to the Standing Committee on Correspondence.

The following was adopted with one dissenting vote:

WHEREAS, It is known to this Assembly that the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session at Mobile, Ala., has before it Overtures from several of its Presbyteries looking to closer relations with this Assembly; and

WHEREAS, We earnestly desire to remove all obstacles to such relations, now therefore be it

Resolved, (1) That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America hereby removes all aspersions and charges of any and every kind made by previous Assemblies, reflecting on the Christian character of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and is ready at any time to confer on the subject of closer relations, whenever such conference shall be agreeable to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Resolved, (2) That the Moderator and Stated Clerk be instructed immediately to communicate this action to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Special Committee on the Assembly Herald, through its Chairman, Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Assembly Herald beg to submit their Annual Report, as follows:

It is with satisfaction that for the first time we are able to present a financial statement showing a profit for the year. The books were closed December 31, 1903, with a balance on the right side of the ledger amounting to $98.88.

More gratifying still is the increase in the number of subscriptions, 3823 being the net gain from April 30, 1903, to May 1, 1904, when the present management took charge. The total paid subscription list is now 40,595.

The problem of the year has been to furnish a more attractive and helpful magazine and to increase the number of subscribers. More and better illustrations have been given, a greater number of editorial pages used, and a general change made in typography.

The following quotations, taken from a long list of similar expressions from subscribers, encourage your Committee to feel that success has been to some extent at least achieved in the former respect:

"The Assembly Herald has improved very much of late, and I have far more confidence in seeking subscribers than I used to have."

"The Assembly Herald is vastly improved over what it used to be. Think we shall send in more subscriptions, etc."

"I am glad to see you increasing the illustrative work in the Assembly Herald. That letter of Rev. G., of Marshall, N. C., in December number, was a great stroke for the Assembly Herald, as well as for Home Missions. Everybody will read such articles as readily as those in the popular magazines."

"Mr. O. is a M. E. minister and volunteered his subscription . . . . The magazine is a marvel of cheapness as to price and excellent as to quality."

To many pastors and lay workers we are indebted for a hearty response to our request for subscriptions, and our regret is that we cannot possibly take the time to give the names of these faithful ones who by their aid and encouragement have so greatly assisted in the work of our Church as it is represented by the publication of the Assembly Herald, and who in so doing have been the means of stimulating interest in things missionary.

The subscription price of the Herald, wisely, we think, placed at a very low figure, and the absolutely necessary expenses of publication make larger and more forceful subscription work impossible, and so we have double cause to appeal to pastors and people, through this General Assembly, to lend their aid that the circulation and influence of the Assembly Herald may be greatly extended.

There is no good reason why there should not be a hundred thousand subscribers, and it only needs the interest and support of our pastors and Sessions—the actual work can be done by the church members—to accomplish this result.

Respectfully submitted,

A. W. Halsey,
John Dixon,
Wm. H. Scott.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the American Bible Society, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of said Society. A communication of its Board of Managers to the General Assembly was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for their consideration, in connection with the fourth section of the Report of the Special Committee on Statistics.

Rev. George L. Shearer, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the American Tract Society, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of said Society.

The Assembly took recess and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 20, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Report of the Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce was made the second Order for Monday morning.

The following, presented by the Stated Clerk, was adopted:

The Stated Clerk was directed by the last General Assembly

(see Minutes, p. 84) to arrange a meeting or meetings for the adequate presentation of the combined College interests at the next General Assembly. In accordance with this instruction, arrangement has been made for the presentation of the interests of the Colleges on Tuesday afternoon, May 24, immediately following upon the presentation of the Report of the Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges. The Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., the Moderator of the last Assembly; Rev. Louis E. Holden, D.D., President of Wooster University; Rev. S. B. McCormick, D.D., President of Coe College, Iowa, and Rev. F. L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., President of Princeton Theological Seminary, have consented to address the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Special Committee on Editions of the Constitution presented a Report, which was accepted and approved, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution respectfully report that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, during the past year, and under the supervision of the Committee, issued a new edition of the Constitution, with the amendments of and additions to the Confession of Faith inserted in their proper places, and also with the Declaratory Statement at the end of the Confession.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
E. R. CRAVEN,
WM. B. NOBLE.

The Special Committee on the Digest presented a Report, which was accepted and approved, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on the Digest of the Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly would respectfully report that the work of compilation, with a view to a new edition, is being carried forward in the office of the Stated Clerk, according to the directions of the Assembly.

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE.

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes, consisting of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, respectfully reports that the work entrusted to its members some years past has been completed by the publication of a new edition of the volume entitled Records of the Presbyterian Church with the addition of a long-needed Index. Previously the Committee had supervised the republication of the Minutes of the Old and New School General Assemblies. As a result of the work done, the Records of the Supreme Judicatories of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., from 1706 to 1869, with accompanying statistics and full indexes, have now been issued in nine volumes as follows:

a. Records of the Presbyterian Church, viz., Minutes of the General Presbytery, 1706 to 1716; Minutes of the General Synod, 1717 to 1758; Minutes of the Synod of New York, 1745 to 1758; Minutes of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia, 1758 to 1788. One vol., 8vo.

b. Minutes of the General Assembly, 1789 to 1837. Two vols, 8vo.

c. Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., 1838–1869. (Old School.) Four vols., 8vo.

d. Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., 1838–1869. (New School). Two vols., 8vo.

The Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work met the entire expense of printing and publishing the above Records and Minutes, and has named moderate prices for them as follows: The Records, $1; the volumes of the Minutes, $1.25 each. The cost, therefore, of the entire set is $11.00.

The Committee has also edited and the Board issued, as a part of the Records of the Presbyterian Church, the important historical document entitled The Minutes of the Convention of Delegates from the Synods of New York and Philadelphia, and from the Associations of Connecticut, held annually from 1766 to 1775 inclusive. As stated last year, this Convention was proposed by the General Synod of this Church "in order to secure a general agreement for measures which may be adopted to preserve our religious liberties against all encroachments, and to bless the benighted heathen on our borders with the glorious light of the Gospel."

The following recommendations are offered for adoption:

1. That the thanks of the General Assembly are hereby tendered to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for the printing and publishing of the entire series of the Records and Minutes of the Supreme Judicatories of this Church from 1706–1869.

2. That the Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes be continued with directions to inquire as to the existence of other early documents which may be of value in connection with the Records of the Church. The Committee is also authorized to distribute twenty-five copies of the Minutes of the Convention of Delegates, held from 1766 to 1775, to the libraries of theological seminaries and colleges.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE.

By authority of the Assembly the following message was sent to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at Dallas, Tex.:

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Dallas, Texas:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. sends most cordial fraternal greetings. See Ephesians, chapter four, verses four to six.

J. ADDISON HENRY, Moderator.

The Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, through its Chairman, John H. Converse, LL.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. R. F. Coyle, D.D., Rev. Edgar F. Hill, D.D., and Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

This Report marks the close of the third year of the existence of the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, appointed by the General Assembly at Philadelphia, and reappointed in New York and Los Angeles.

From the 1st of May, 1903, until the middle of October, the offices were at Winona Lake, Ind.; from the middle of October until the 1st of February, 1904, the headquarters were in New York; and during February, March and April they were transferred to Chicago. These changes were made in order that different sections of the country might be cared for more thoroughly. In every way, in the estimation of the Committee, this has been the best year of the three. The tide of evangelism has been rising from the first, the spirit of criticism, if indeed it existed at all, has almost entirely disappeared, and so far as can now be seen, the general spiritual condition of the Church is greatly improved.

The amount expended in the prosecution of the work from May 1, 1903, to May 1, 1904, has been $59,713.72; the greater part of which has been contributed by individuals, the balance by free-will offerings at evangelistic services.

The attempt has earnestly been made to carry out the instructions given to the Committee by the last Assembly. Primarily the instructions were to encourage in every legitimate way the spirit of evangelism, and this it has been attempted to do.

First.—By means of the dissemination of literature. The number of booklets distributed up to date is more than 300,000, and in addition 5000 copies of "The Gospel Message" were sent out each week for three months to pastors of churches. Concerning this branch of our work, Rev. S. R. Ferguson, of the Synod of Iowa, writes: "A pastor in this Synod told me last Sabbath that the revival which they had had in his own town, where they had about 300 converts, was the fruit of the literature sent to him by the Committee."

Second.—Personal visits to Synods, Presbyteries and conferences have been made by members of the Committee and others chosen to do this work, for the purpose of deepening the spiritual life of the individual and securing a better understanding of the need of the spirit of evangelism throughout the Church.

Third.—Constant correspondence has been carried on with the different Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, and in very many instances directly with the pastors. Your Committee recalls no instance at the present time where the suggestions made have not been heartily welcomed, and in very many cases perfectly carried out.

Fourth.—While not so many conferences have been held this year as last, this from the nature of the case has been an encouragement, for the special meetings held in different sections of the country, the number of which is greatly in excess over that of other years, would indicate that the conferences previously held are bearing fruit in real service. Several conferences have, however, been held in the theological seminaries. Princeton Seminary made special application through the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly for a course of lectures on Evangelism. This was in accordance with the recommendations of the last Assembly, and the Corresponding Secretary of the Committee had the pleasure of visiting Princeton for this purpose. The students in a body attended all the lectures given, several of the members of the Faculty were present, and Dr. Patton, the President of the Seminary, commended in the most cordial and hearty way the work of the Committee, saying to the students, "God forbid that any Princeton student should, at any time, in any place, or under any circumstances be anything less than such an evangelistic or soul-winning pastor as has been described."

The Committee has had direct control of the time of twenty-one singers and twenty-six evangelists, and twenty-seven additional evangelists and singers have been employed by the different Synods.

While the Committee is not prepared to give the number of converts reported in these meetings, nor the number of those who have joined the Church as a result of the services held, yet every evangelist who has been heard from reports this to be the best year of service he has ever had.

During the year no less than 1200 applications have been received for the services of evangelists. These requests it has been utterly unable to meet. In such cases the applicants have either been referred to neighboring pastors of evangelistic ability, or suggestions have been sent as to the conduct of meetings in general, and the pastor has been urged himself to do the work of an evangelist.

The Synods.—Practically every Synod in the Church has been visited by some member or representative of the Committee. Without an exception the greatest interest in evangelistic work was reported, and a special desire was everywhere manifested to carry out the plans and purposes of the Assembly's Committee. A special feature of our work this year has been the granting of aid to certain Synods and Presbyteries where application has been made. In every instance this aid has been given with the understanding that a like sum or larger amount should be contributed by the Synod or Presbytery, and that every effort should be made to conduct the greatest number of meetings possible.

The following Synods received assistance from the Committee: North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Tennessee, Kansas, Indian Territory, Utah, California and Oregon.

Special mention should be made again of the work in Indiana under the able and consecrated direction of the Rev. George Knox, D.D., the Superintendent of Home Missions and Synodical Chairman of the Committee on Evangelistic Work. Dr. Knox reports the best year the State has ever known. Evangelists have been kept busy, pastors have gone from church to church, and results are most gratifying.

In connection with the Rev. R. A. Walton, the Corresponding Secretary visited the Synods of California, Oregon and Washington, and found that the Western coast of our country presents an opportunity for service such as he has rarely seen. The work should be pushed there this coming year. The Synod of Oregon is ready for a great Forward Movement, and it is believed by many that thousands of people could easily be won to Christ.

In the Synod of Montana, when it was found to be impossible to send an evangelist to the assistance of the brethren there, they determined to make a special effort to do the work themselves. A number of pastors were set apart for the service, meetings were held in many churches and the Synodical Superintendent reports the best year he has ever known.

The Synod of Kansas presents, possibly, the most encouraging Report of any Synod in the Church. Here an effort was made along special lines. Rev. W. E. Biederwolf has practically spent the season in the Synod. Too much cannot be said in praise of his work, nor of his general direction of the different evangelists under his charge. The labors of such evangelists will lead pastors to recognize the place of the evangelist in the work of the Church, and will make it possible and creditable for other men to enter this great field, which seems now to be white unto the harvest. In the Synod of Kansas 100 different cities and towns were visited, 1500 services were held, and 4975 conversions were reported. In Emporia alone, in connection with meetings held by Mr. Biederwolf, more than 1000 people came to Christ and 750 persons joined the Church on a single Sunday.

There have been special features in the work this year which call for particular notice.

1. Bible Study.—The Committee has had in its employ during the past year the Rev. James M. Gray, D.D., of Boston, Mass. He has conducted conferences and addressed great assemblies of ministers and Christian workers throughout the middle West and Eastern States with unusual success. The highest testimonials have been received as to the value of Dr. Gray's work. He was recalled to Pittsburg after the simultaneous movement there, and his second visit was more fruitful even than his first.

2. The Simultaneous Movement.—It was recommended by the Committee that the months of January, February and March be given up to special evangelistic effort. The pastors were urged to conduct the meetings in their own way, to secure an evangelist if that seemed best, and to coöperate with other denominations if local conditions seemed to indicate that it was wise. It was recommended that January be given to prayer, February to personal evangelism, and March to the more public services of the churches. More than 2500 churches were quickly pledged to this movement. The most gratifying results have been reported. As a result of the recommendation of the Committee and the success of the movement, several of our large cities are now organized on a common basis for a great forward movement this coming year.

3. City Campaigns.—From the very first of the year it has been the hope of the Committee that special emphasis might be laid upon city work. It is a pleasure to report campaigns conducted in New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Columbus and Chicago.

The Pittsburg work grew out of the suggestions made by the Committee for a simultaneous movement. Other denominations immediately requested the privilege of uniting with the Presbyterian Committee in that city, until seventeen different denominations were represented in the work and more than 500 churches formed a union for service. More than 3000 people have joined the churches as a direct result of this work, and the number is increasing each week.

In Chicago great numbers were won to Christ as a result of the evangelistic campaign. The noonday meetings were really remarkable. For three weeks an average of 700 business men gathered each day at twelve o'clock for the preaching service, conducted by Dr. Chapman and others associated with him, and 218 conversions were reported from this part of the work alone.

The campaign in Columbus lasted ten days. The district meetings were held there as in other cities; the churches were crowded; each night great numbers accepted Christ. On the last Sunday 6000 men met in one auditorium for service, hundreds were turned away, and in this meeting alone more than 400 men definitely committed themselves to Christ.

These city campaigns have exceeded the highest expectations. It is believed the problem has been solved of moving the cities for God. Instead of a great central meeting under one evangelist, it is believed to be absolutely essential that district meetings be held in every city of fifty thousand inhabitants and over, and that a number of trained workers be used instead of one special leader.

4. College Visitation.—One of the most encouraging services rendered has been that of college visitation, which was undertaken at the suggestion of Dr. Ray, of the Board of Aid for Colleges. Assisting in this work have been the following special workers: Messrs. Thornton B. Penfield and A. B. Williams, Misses Frances Bridges and Elizabeth Cole. They have visited forty-two of our Presbyterian institutions of learning, and without a single exception the reports received from their work have been most enthusiastic and inspiring. Eternity alone will reveal the true worth of this work.

Encouragements.—There are many encouraging features this year which might be mentioned.

First.—The increase in correspondence. Last year 10,000 personal letters were answered; this year more than 16,000 have been received and answered.

Second.—There has been more general inquiry concerning the work than ever before. This inquiry has come not only from our own Church, but from all denominations, and not only from our own country, but from all parts of the world.

Third.—The applications for services to be held in the different cities have simply been amazing. From the Atlantic to the Pacific it would seem as if the cities were now open for the best sort of evangelistic effort.

Fourth.—The interest has been quickened in other denominations. There is hardly an Evangelical denomination which is not studying the methods of this Committee or adopting the suggestions made. It would seem as if we were coming to a sweeping work of grace, in which all the Evangelical Churches are to participate.

The following letter, received by our Chairman from Bishop Foss, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is an indication of the attitude of other denominations to our work:

PHILADELPHIA, February 11, 1904.

Mr. John H. Converse:

MY DEAR MR. CONVERSE:—I have long since intended to express to you in person or by letter my sincere and cordial appreciation of the evangelistic work of the Presbyterian Church. I thank God for the abundant evidences in that Church of an earnest, concerted, laborious and persistent effort to arrest the attention of ministers and laymen, and hold it to a careful, prayerful consideration of the great business of getting men converted to God and built up in the holy faith of the Gospel.

God bless you and all who are interested to work with you in this great endeavor, and give large success.

I shall be glad if you will read this brief word of appreciation and sympathy to the Committee of which you are Chairman, at some convenient time. Yours very truly,

(Signed) CYRUS D. FOSS,
Bishop Methodist Episcopal Church.

May we say in conclusion that it would certainly seem that the work of the Committee is hardly yet finished; indeed, in some respects it has only begun. Evangelism will never be at its best in any denomination until it is constantly controlled and guided by the highest court of the Church. It would be, in the judgment of the Committee, a great mistake if now the cause were allowed to drift again and possibly drift into disrepute, when to-day there is a general disposition in all parts of the Church to look with favor upon the movement as a whole.

The following reasons suggest themselves for believing that the work is not yet finished:

First. The evident indications in all parts of the world of God's willingness to bless His people, notably seen in the great Torrey-Alexander meetings in England, but also strikingly manifested in different parts of our own country. In one of our churches in Newark, N. J., at the close of a two-weeks' series of meetings, it was found that 267 people had signed inquirers' cards and expressed their determination to live for Christ. The pastor writes, "The work was good and genuine, and the results will be lasting." In Emporia, Kan., more than 700 people united with the churches at the close of a three-weeks' campaign. In Sterling, Ill., 1115 people were added to the churches on a single Sunday at the close of one month of work. These cheering words could be multiplied almost indefinitely. May not these blessings be but the first droppings of a gracious shower?

Second. The interest in evangelistic work which is being quickened in other denominations is significant, and suggests the possibility of a great religious movement in our land, in which our Church, in the providence of God, may easily have a large share in the leadership.

Third. The evident interest awakened in the cities of our land by the work of the present year opens up before us a wide field of service. No less than fifty cities might be moved for God another year if the work be well organized.

Fourth. The assistance which a Committee, similar to the present Evangelistic Committee, is able to render the pastors in the smaller cities and towns, as well as in the rural districts, in itself justifies the continuance of such a work.

Fifth. The fact that the interest in evangelism is widespread calls for the continuance of such a Committee, that the work may be carefully guided and controlled. Encouraging as may be the conditions in the Eastern and Middle Western States, it is in a most remarkable way true that our great Western country at this time demands the most effective evangelistic effort. There is peculiar danger to this field if anything but the best sort of evangelism should be encouraged. To allow the work to drift now would be to seriously imperil the Church in the West. Inasmuch as evangelism is in favor, the evangelist is looked upon as an effective helper to the pastor, and the evangelistic pastor has before him a wide-open door of usefulness. Unless proper control can be exercised, unsafe and unwise men may occupy the field, and the last state of our Church be worse than the first.

Sixth. The Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis., Mo., is just now being opened, and a special request has been made by the representatives of all branches of the Presbyterian Church in St. Louis for the General Assembly's Committee to assume control of the World's Fair Campaign.

Seventh. The entire Western Coast presents at this time, in the judgment of many who either live in that part of the country or have visited it recently, the most hopeful conditions for service ever known there. A special and urgent request is made, through this Committee, to the General Assembly for the carrying forward of an evangelistic campaign in the Western Synods. To fail in this would be an almost irreparable mistake.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption by the General Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That a Committee of twenty, ten ministers and ten elders, be appointed by the Moderator to promote evangelistic work in the churches. This Committee shall coöperate with the Presbyteries and Synods, and shall have power to select such advisory members, consisting of both ministers and elders, as may, in the judgment of the Committee, seem necessary; and to form an Executive Committee of not less than five members for the transaction of business in the intervals between regular meetings of the General Committee; and shall report to the next General Assembly. The expenses, except for the attendance of members upon the regular meetings, shall be met by voluntary contributions.

Resolved, 2. That each Presbytery and Synod be requested to appoint Committees on Evangelistic Work, and that in the appointment of their Evangelistic Committees for the coming year, the Presbyteries be requested to reorganize their Committees so as to include, wherever necessary, and as far as possible, those who have shown special interest and had useful experience in evangelistic work.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly emphasizes the primary responsibility for evangelistic effort as resting upon pastors and Sessions; at the same time the Assembly again, as heretofore, recommends the use of accredited evangelists, and therefore authorizes the Committee to pass upon the qualifications of evangelists, and to promote their employment, so far as their services may be needed, and only such evangelists should be commended to the Church at large as have the proper endorsement and approval of their brethren and the seal of God's approval upon their ministry.

Resolved, 4. That in addition to the lines of work indicated by preceding Assemblies, the special work of the Assembly's Committee for the coming year be the conduct of evangelistic campaigns in the cities, the holding of conferences for quickening the spiritual life of the Church, and for that study of the Word of God which may encourage a spirit of evangelism, and also for the presentation of such general methods of work as may inspire pastors, elders and members of the Church generally to earnest effort in behalf of the unsaved.

Resolved, 5. That this year upon which we are now about to enter be signally and prayerfully set aside by this Assembly as a year of aggressive evangelism; that the Presbyteries be advised at their fall meetings to pray and plan for a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and that the Synods be urged to emphasize the same great need which now seems to be imperative. In the setting apart of this year for such special service, it is suggested that emphasis be laid upon the following phases of the work:

a. That such coöperation with the Board of Foreign Missions be advised as may stimulate the Church to greater liberality and enthusiasm in the work for Christ throughout the world.

b. That such coöperation be suggested with the Board of Home Missions as may encourage the work in Home Mission territory, and be the means not only of leading many to Christ, but also of bringing some of the churches to self-support, both because of the spiritual uplift which may come to them and the consequent numerical additions to the membership of the Church. In both of these suggestions, keeping in mind the fact that greater liberality on the part of the Church will doubtless be the secret of greater spiritual blessing, the bringing in of the tithes into the storehouse will certainly open the windows of heaven above us.

c. That inasmuch as many baptized children in our Christian households have not yet become communicant members of the Church, the parents of our children be urged at once to fulfill their vows to God and their obligations to their children, by bringing to their attention the claims of Christ and the Church. A better home life, restored family altars, and consistency in this direction on the part of parents would in themselves mean a great spiritual awakening. We rejoice in the interest in these matters on the part of pastors and Sessions, as evidenced by the increase of communion classes, and similar plans for bringing children and youth to an enlightened public confession of Christ.

d. That inasmuch as many members of our churches, in changing their places of residence from one part of the country to the other, for various reasons, fail to identify themselves with churches where they reside, and because of this fact frequently become derelict in their duty to Christ and the Church, and thereby are in part the cause of the lowering of the spiritual tone of the community, it is recommended that during this year a special effort be made to reach all such Church members and persuade them to identify themselves actively with the churches where they live; and that the General Assembly urges upon all pastors the importance of this work, and upon all such Church members their responsibility to Christ in faithful, loyal adherence to the Church.

e. That in view of the fact that there is a decrease in the number of students for the ministry and that the Church in this respect seems to be face to face with a crisis, it be the constant aim of pastors and Sessions, evangelists and teachers, to present to our young men, in public service and private conversation, the claims of Christ upon them for this great service.

Resolved, 6. That again the importance of the work of the Church and Sunday-school in behalf of the youth be emphasized; that pastors and Sessions be urged to use every legitimate means, such as the observance of Decision Day and the adoption of other methods, to bring the children to a saving knowledge of Christ.

Resolved, 7. That special attention be given to those who are now in training for the ministry in our theological seminaries; and that in addition to the instruction which may be given to the student by means of special lectures and classroom work concerning evangelism and evangelistic work, which is strongly urged upon those in authority in our theological seminaries, some special time during the year be given up to the students for conference and prayer, when, with classes discontinued for a period, they may devote their time under wise leadership to prayer and such study of the Word of God, together with such consideration of methods of Christian work, as may lead them to a complete consecration of themselves to Christ; and, further, that the students in our collegiate and academic institutions, by the continuance of such special visitation, as in the past year has been so helpful, have presented to them the claims of Christ and the Church, as well as their responsibility to their fellow-students to lead them to Christ.

Resolved, 8. Inasmuch as a cordial and hearty invitation has been presented by the Presbyterian Ministerial Association of St. Louis, through this Committee, to the General Assembly, that to an Evangelistic Committee which may be appointed be committed the conduct of a special evangelistic campaign in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, it is recommended that such a campaign be a part of this general movement inaugurated in our Church.

Resolved, 9. That the General Assembly hereby authorizes such coöperation with other Evangelical denominations as may make it possible to move in a more marked way the cities of our land.

Resolved, 10. That the Committee be authorized to appeal to the churches for financial assistance in this all-important work.

Because of the great need which is apparent on every side and the evident willingness of God to bless us at this time, the Assembly advises and urges upon the Church the importance of this great movement, and asks that it may be inaugurated at the earliest possible date. That the work may be more effective and more sweeping in its influence, it is suggested that the number of advisory members of the Assembly's Committee be so increased as to give at least one representative in every city of 50,000 inhabitants and over; and it is further suggested that in the late summer or early fall, at some convenient point, a Conference be called, in which there may be represented all the interests presented in this Report, and as a result of which the work may be speedily and enthusiastically organized. The fields are white to the harvest, the needs are imperative, the opportunities have never been greater. To fail here may be to greatly retard the work. To succeed this year means great blessing to our beloved Church.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CONVERSE, Chairman;
J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, Cor. Secretary.

The following resolution, presented by Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., was adopted by a unanimous and rising vote:

Resolved, That this Assembly records with profound gratitude to Almighty God, the consecrated and faithful work of the Evangelistic Committee, and expresses its sincere and hearty appreciation of the invaluable services which have been rendered to the cause of aggressive evangelism by its honored and devoted Chairman, Mr. Converse, and its efficient Secretary, Dr. Chapman.

The College Endowment Commission presented its Report, which was accepted and referred to the Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, through its Chairman, Mr. James Yereance, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. Frederick J. Stanley, D.D., Secretary of the American Sabbath Union, and Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance respectfully submits to the General Assembly the following Annual Report:

The Church of Jesus Christ, of which we form a part, rests on the three great Pillars—God's Word, God's Day and God's Son.

Enemies have sought to break down the first, but without avail; they have recoiled from the attack, and that Pillar stands firmer and more secure than ever. So also have the attempts to undermine the third, by preaching and teaching principally of the Man Christ Jesus, proved unavailing, "for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." Against the central Pillar, God's Day, the enemies of the Church have concentrated their attacks, well knowing that if it should be broken down the structure would be weakened and in time fall.

It is well to be reminded of what saith God's Word as to God's Day:

Lev. xix. 30: "Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the Lord."

Ex. xxxi. 13: "Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you."

Isa. lvi. 6: "Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the Lord, to serve him, and to love the name of the Lord, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

Isa. lvi. 7: "Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called a house of prayer for all people."

Isa. lviii. 13: "If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

Isa. lviii. 14: "Then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

Neh. xiii. 15: "In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals."

Neh. xiii. 18: "Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath."

Neh. x. 31: "And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day."

Mark ii. 27: "And he (Jesus) said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath."

Ex. xx. 8: "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy."

Thus spake the Lord to Israel of old, and the bugle call needs to be sounded to-day both in and out of the Church to arrest the desecration of the Lord's Day, and to lead the people to rightly esteem the duty and privilege of safeguarding the Sabbath.

In heathen lands the conviction that leads converts to acknowledge Jesus Christ is so deep, that with them the Sabbath is more strictly observed, though their heathen neighbors know no Sabbath. Our prayers should continually be offered for these converts in their trying position.

In our own land, so richly blessed with material prosperity, our Christian Sabbath is being undermined by the commercialism of the day, and the abuse of the day in so-called recreation. Sunday Baseball Games, with charges for admission to the grounds, are prohibited under the laws of New York and some other States. Recently the law has been evaded by making no admission charge, but by selling programs or score-cards at twenty-five, fifty and seventy-five cents each, the holders of these programs being entitled to seats in the more or less desirable portions of the stand, according to the price paid. This is being fought in the Courts.

Legislatures.—As usual, various bills affecting the Sabbath Day have been introduced during the recent session of the New York Legislature. The Chairman of this Committee is provided with a copy of each of such bills as soon as introduced, and is in constant touch with influential members of the Legislature ready to respond to calls to appear or have representatives before the Committees of that body to argue against their passage. It is an encouraging sign of the times that the sentiment of the legislators, especially of the up-State members, is decidedly against any breaking down of the barriers against violations of the Lord's Day, and consequently not a single such bill has been reported by any of the Committees, nor have we been called to make any argument against them.

Social.—For some years a number of the Foreign Embassies in Washington have held receptions, teas and dinners on Sabbath afternoons and evenings, at which fashionable society has more or less attended. This innovation on the quiet of our American Sabbath has extended not only to a considerable extent in our Capital City, but with its pernicious influence to many other large cities. Some months ago, at the Ministers' Meeting in Philadelphia, the pastor of one of the prominent churches in that city said publicly that his staid and quiet congregation were so influenced by this custom that four-fifths of his prominent families were accustomed to give dinners on Sunday evening and their empty pews stared him in the face; and that such was a lamentable fact, for the younger generation would not realize the sanctity of the Sabbath when reared in such homes. Will not our Christian women unite with us in putting a stop to this form of Sabbath desecration and support the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance and its auxiliaries throughout the country to this end?

Student Life on the Sabbath Day in our Christian colleges, universities and theological seminaries needs prayerful attention. Within a few days a leading clergyman, in a neighboring State, informed us that a Christian student in a Christian college in that State told him that ninety-five out of a hundred students had very little idea of the sanctity of the Sabbath while connected with the college. They attended service somewhere on Sabbath morning because they were compelled to do so and report on Monday. As for Sabbath evening, they never thought of attending a church service, but used that holy time for study, having used the afternoon for recreation and quasi desecration in various ways; and, added the minister, the theological students even were not exempt from such habits.

Laboring Men, and the Railroad men especially, are urging Christians and the Churches to lessen the demands upon them for Sunday work by individuals and corporations. Shall not the Church heed this cry, and unitedly resist the encroachments upon the sacred day by the greed for gain?

Will not all pastors herald it forth that

A Restful Sabbath is a hygienic necessity;
A Civic Sabbath is the strongest pillar in the temple of liberty;
A Sacred Sabbath is the mightiest police force of the land
A Worshipful Sabbath is indispensable to spiritual power;
A Christian Sabbath is the bulwark in defense of all righteousness;
A Secular Sabbath is destructive of all good?

And enforce it by the further truth:

"A Sabbath well spent
Brings a week of content,
And strength for the toils of the morrow;
But a Sabbath profaned,
Is a certain forerunner of sorrow."

California.—As a result of our attendance at the General Assembly last May, California has had a State Sabbath Association organized and at the next biennial session of its Legislature will have presented to it and doubtless will pass a Sabbath law. At present it is the only State that has no Sabbath law on its statute books.

St. Louis Exposition.—It will be remembered that largely through the instrumentality of your Committee, acting with the several Sabbath Associations, the following provision was incorporated in the grant by Congress of $5,000,000 for the St. Louis Exposition, which will be open from May 1 to November 1 this year: "As a condition precedent to the payment of this appropriation the directors shall contract to close the gates to visitors on Sundays during the whole duration of the Fair."

A Sunday Rest Congress in connection wi h the St. Louis Exposition has been arranged to be held on October 11, 12, 13 and 14, 1904, at which papers on various phases of the Sabbath question, at home and abroad, will be presented and discussed by eminent leaders of thought and experience on the subject and to which representatives from all parts of the Church are invited and urged to attend.

Lewis and Clark Exposition.—All the United States Government is to do at Portland is to make an exhibit, which does not carry the right to dictate the Sunday policy. The battle for closing the gates is transferred to the people of Oregon.

In Memoriam.—During the past year the Committee and the cause of the Sabbath have sustained a severe loss in the death of one of its members and its Secretary, Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., the General Secretary of the American Sabbath Union. The members of the Assembly last year will remember his eloquent address before the Assembly and in the great public meeting in Los Angeles in the interests of the Sabbath. He died in the hospital at Pasadena, Cal., on June 16 last, honored of God and beloved throughout the Church. He rests from his labors, but the responsibility is upon us to redouble our efforts in behalf of the Sabbath.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the authority of the Christian Sabbath is found in the Law of God and confirmed by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly expresses its strong conviction that the sacred character of the Sabbath must be carefully and strenuously maintained, and to this end enjoins all ministers, officers and members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to exercise special care and faithfulness.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly reiterates its strong and emphatic disapproval of all secular uses of the day, all games and sports all traveling for pleasure, all excursions; and urges upon all employers of labor and captains of industry to recognize the need of the laboring man for his weekly rest day, and thereby insure his greater efficiency and happiness and the greater prosperity of both capital and labor.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly hereby reiterates its emphatic condemnation of the Sunday newspaper, and urges the members of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America to refuse to subscribe for or read, or advertise in it.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Presbytery, to coöperate with similar Committees of the other denominations within its bounds in aiding the work of local Sabbath Associations, and where such organizations do not exist, to promote the formation of such Associations in connection with the national organization, the American Sabbath Union.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Synod, of which the Chairman of each Presbytery's Committee on Sabbath Observance shall be at least a corresponding member, and that the Synod's Committee shall coöperate with the State Sabbath Associations.

Resolved, 7. That we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, 8. That we earnestly recommend that each pastor of our communion preach a sermon in the month of April next on the subject of the Sabbath, and that at that time an offering be made for the work of the American Sabbath Union (which is the Association organized by the coöperation of the General Assembly in 1888 and which represents the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in this department of Christian work); or in lieu of an offering, we recommend that the Union be placed upon the list of benevolences of the Churches, contributions to be sent to Col. A. S. Bacon, Treasurer, 37 Liberty street, New York City.

Resolved, 9. That the Assembly's Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued; that Rev. Frederick J. Stanley, D.D., late pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlantic City, N. J., and recently elected Secretary of the American Sabbath Union, be appointed a member of the Committee in place of the Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., deceased, and that the Secretary of the American Sabbath Union, 203 Broadway, New York, be requested to furnish copies of these resolutions to all pastors, for such uses as may arouse the people on the subject.

Resolved, That the General Assembly places on record its grateful appreciation of the faithful devotion of the late Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., to the cause of the Sabbath, and our deepest sympathy with his widow and family who have during the past year been so deeply bereaved by his death.

The Report of the Special Committee on Forms and Services was made the second Order of the Day for Monday afternoon.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 20, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and addresses were delivered by Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Rev. G. T. Dillard, D.D., P. Nardi and R. F. Sulzer.

SATURDAY, May 21, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read, and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the names of Rev. Albert Robinson, of the Presbytery of Portland, and Elder F. G. Smedley, of the Presbytery of New York, who were duly enrolled.

The Special Committee on the Omaha Theological Seminary presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and the Committee was discharged with thanks. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee on the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, Neb., would present its Annual Report.

The Seminary is doing as well as can be expected with its record of honorable poverty. It is doing more. It is already in the front rank of educational institutions, and notwithstanding its poverty, promises to become one of the most necessary of the parts of our great Church's equipment in winning this country and the world for Christ.

One of the very valuable assets of this young institution is the new building situated in Kountze Place, Omaha, an attractive residence portion of the city. This building is accessible by three lines of street cars, is surrounded by paved streets, and other modern improvements, provides rooms for forty students, and has besides a chapel, library, reading-room and classrooms. It is heated with steam, is provided with electric light and gas, baths, and such rooms of convenience as help to make the building complete. The campus covers two blocks of the city's territory.

The course of study of the institution is very complete, and includes Didactic and Polemic Theology, History of Doctrine, Apologetics, Ecclesiastical, Homiletical and Pastoral Theology, Old Testament and Ecclesiastical History, New Testament Literature and Exegesis, Old Testament Language, Literature and Exegesis, Missions, the English Bible, Elocution and Sacred Music, and also special courses by lecturers outside the Faculty. The institution has also provided facilities of study for Bohemian students who will labor among Slavic peoples. This department is under the care of the Rev. Jaroslav W. Dobias. The spiritual life of the student-body is nurtured by chapel exercises, prayer meetings and conferences.

of the late Enoch I. Davies, Tecumseh, Neb. The library now has 5000 books, is indexed according to modern methods, and catalogued. Besides this there is a large public library in Omaha open to the students.

Now what of the need of this seminary? Your Committee think that facts tell the need, and that they need no arguments to support them. For instance, there is no theological seminary of our faith between Chicago and San Francisco, except this one at Omaha. The institution is in the midst of the great Home Missionary field, and comes into competition with no other seminary. It supplies timber for our pulpits taken from the surrounding country, and therefore well seasoned for the religious climate. Moreover, many of these students have no means to go so far away as the nearest point, which is Chicago. And the McCormick Theological Seminary, at the latter city, has had only the kindest words of commendation for Omaha, not thinking that Omaha in the slightest degree is a trespasser on territory belonging to McCormick. Moreover, till this seminary was organized the great field now covered by it was very indifferently supplied with ministers. It is now being well supplied from Omaha.

But this seminary has practically no endowment at all. The most valuable asset that Omaha has is the indefatigable Rev. Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., who has tramped the East and the West for years, gathering in the scattered dollars that he could find here and there. By his wisdom, industry and energy this institution has been kept going, and has been kept out of debt. There is no debt, but that achievement is not a credit to the great Church at large. It is a credit to the President of the institution and to the Faculty of godly men who have labored in it, and felt the pinch of inadequate support more than a score of times. Who has yet heard a complaint from that noble company of martyrs? They "rejoice in their tribulations." But the Church should not rejoice in them, rather lend a hand at once and put now one hundred thousand dollars into an Endowment Fund, and when the Faculty has felt the exhilaration of that easement for two or three years, and the work expands as it must, let the Church put in a quarter of a million more. These figures are not imaginary nor impossible, nor are they unnecessary, as our better-endowed Eastern institutions can testify in their ampler means. We do not want less money for the East, but more for the West. "Money is power," they say; well, brethren, let us pry up the western edge of the setting sun with the lever of that power. Lend a hand, and lift!

One of our Committee, the Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., has died during this last year. Another, the Rev. James D. Paxton, D.D., is located at Lynchburg, Va. The Chairman has moved to Philadelphia, and feels that his added duties interfere with his usefulness in this great cause, and hence he resigns, though with expressions of regret, and also of the deepest appreciation of the honor conferred for several years in keeping him on the Committee. Three vacancies, therefore, are to be supplied by the Assembly in this Committee. It is to be hoped that the Assembly will reorganize this Committee with the view of securing the largest ability in providing the needed endowment.

On behalf of the Committee,

E. Trumbull Lee, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Presbyterian Building, New York City, Rev. R. S. Holmes, D.D., Chairman, reported the completion of its work so far as practicable, and was discharged with thanks.

The Special Committee on Christian Work among Seamen, presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Christian Work among Seamen, appointed by the General Assembly of 1903, respectfully reports to this General Assembly.

The action appointing the Committee reads:

"The Assembly heartily commends this work on the part of our self-denying chaplains, missionaries and sailor-pastors, also the work of the American Seamen's Friend Society and kindred organizations, and appoints the following Committee of five to consider the subject and bring in a report to the next Assembly: Ministers—E. R. Craven, D.D., W. C. Stitt, D.D., Henry F. Lee; Elders—Richard H. Wallace and Homer L. Pound."

Your Committee has been unable to prepare a Report on the matters entrusted to it because of the much-lamented death of one of its members, Rev. W. C. Stitt, D.D., and the severe and protracted illness of the Chairman, Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D.

At a meeting held November 21, 1903, Dr. Stitt was appointed to collect facts about missions and other work for seamen, to report to a later meeting. In the midst of that work our brother died, January 2, 1904, and Dr. Craven became ill December, 1903. Therefore at this Assembly we can only report progress.

We are convinced that the work for seamen is relatively neglected. Yet there are excellent Seamen's Missions in most of the ports of our land. We commend these to the study of our brethren in their vicinity, with a view to help, strengthen and improve them. We ask that our Committee be continued, that Rev. John H. Edwards, D.D., be added in the place of Dr. Stitt, and that the Committee be directed to report to the next General Assembly. It is also requested that the Stated Clerk be author ized to pay the necessary expenses of a member of the Committee in attending the meeting of the Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

E. R. CRAVEN, Chairman.

The Committee on Evangelistic Work was announced by the Moderator, as follows: Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly, ex-officio member of the Committee; Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, Recording Secretary for the Committee; Members: Elder John H. Converse, LL.D., Chairman; Ministers—J. P. Calhoun, D.D., John F. Carson, D.D., J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., R. F. Coyle, D.D., Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., E. P. Hill, D.D., John S. MacIntosh, D.D., C. B. MacAfee, D.D., S. S. Palmer, D.D., John Balcom Shaw, D.D.; Elders—John Willis Baer, Dr. George W. Bailey, S. P. Fenn, E. A. K. Hackett, S. P. Harbison, J. P. Hartman, W. M. Ladd, L. H. Severance, Arthur B. Wheeler, Esq.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles S. Richardson, D.D., presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Correspondence would recommend:

1. That Rev. Henry S. Little, D.D., Synodical Missionary of Texas, be appointed Fraternal Delegate to bear the Christian greeting of this Assembly to the Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly, now in session at Dallas, Texas.

2. That the Christian salutation of this Assembly be sent to the Quadrennial Convention of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session at Los Angeles, Cal.

3. That Thursday, May 26, at 9.30 to 10 A.M., be the time for receiving delegates from corresponding bodies.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles R. Erdman, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board and the Chairman, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully submits the following Report:

The printed Report of the Board and its manuscript volume of Minutes for the year ending April the first, 1904, were presented to your Committee, examined and approved.

The Report is careful to define the aim of the Board as being the relief, not of the needy, but of needy ministers, and of dependent widows and orphans of ministers: "The basis of the work is not need, but service to the church." On the other hand, the scope of the work is limited by the need of those who have served.

The Board is able to give no pension for the longest service, but aims to relieve those who, having served, are in want.

The necessity for the Board is shown to be in no fault of improvidence on the part of ministers, but in the meagreness of salaries which in so many cases have made provision for the future impossible to these servants of the Church.

The embarrassment of the Board is evident from the fact that while a number of applicants for aid and of actual beneficiaries has steadily increased, the income of the Board during the past year has decreased. In comparison with the preceding year there has been a falling off along every line of revenue. Less has been contributed by the churches, less has been subscribed by individuals, very much less has been received in legacies.

The entire amount received by the Board in the year 1902–1903 was $232,315. In the year 1903–1904 it was $197,008, a shortage of $35,307, or fully 15 per cent.

It is sometimes strangely supposed that the Board of Ministerial Relief has no particular need of contributions. It has even been said, most surprisingly, that "the Board is rich," because of its Endowment Fund. The Report indicates that the income from endowments amounts to no more than one-third of the annual expenditure upon beneficiaries.

The Board is therefore absolutely dependent upon the churches represented here; and we are thus reminded that such a reported decrease in our offerings as is this year reported means a possible denial of food and clothing and shelter to certain worthy and faithful but helpless servants of the Church.

The appeal of the Board is therefore peculiarly personal and urgent and pathetic. It is made eloquent, not by sounding rhetoric, but by the tears and sighs and prayers of widows and orphans, of the aged and helpless and forlorn. It comes, not so much to the 3000 churches which have not contributed, as to the 4000 churches the gifts of which are represented in the Report of the Board; for only the latter are found to be self-supporting and are therefore better able to give. The call is therefore to the larger churches and to the stronger Synods to seriously undertake and to immediately secure that more generous support of this sacred work which is demanded by our enlightened sympathy, by the honor of our Church, by our loyalty to Christ.

The administration of the Board is heartily commended for its economy, justice and efficiency; and we gratefully recognize the untiring and devoted services of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board, and also the generosity and fidelity shown by the Directors in the administration of their important trust.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following recommendations:

1. We recommend the approval of the Minutes, which we find neatly and accurately kept.

2. The term of the following Directors expires at this meeting of the Assembly, viz., the Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D.D., the Rev. W. W. McKinney, D.D., Charles Barclay, Esq., H. S. P. Nichols, Esq. It is recommended that they be reëlected. The place of the Rev. John H. Munro, D.D., of the Class of 1906, has been temporarily filled by the Rev. Philip H. Mowry, D.D.; it is recommended that he be elected to fill the unexpired term.

3. It is recommended (a) that Rule 7 be amended by the addition of the words "and his need, as determined by his income and circumstances," so that the sentence will read:

"When such a minister shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need, not exceeding $300 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his endorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field or fields of labor, with the term of service in each, and his need, as determined by his income and circumstances, and also to certify that the same has been reported to the Presbytery and is recorded upon its Minutes."

(b) That a rule be added as follows:

"10. Ministers from other denominations, coming into our Church, or their widows or orphans, shall not be placed upon the roll of this Board as beneficiaries unless said ministers shall have rendered active service in this Church for at least five years."

(c) That the "Rules and Forms of Application of the Board," as printed in the Annual Report, together with these amendments, be adopted.

4. It is recommended that Presbyteries exercise all possible care in examining applications and in recommending appropriations for relief.

5. It is recommended that every Presbytery be hereby directed to adopt some practical plan for increasing the present contributions of its churches to the Board of Ministerial Relief.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. R. ERDMAN, Chairman.

It was ordered that a meeting be held at 5 P.M. Tuesday, wherein addresses shall be made on the Russo-Japanese war, from the point of view of the Kingdom of God, by Rev. Drs. Hykes and Laughlin, of China.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly has heard with deep interest the Report of the work of the American Tract Society, which it commends for its fidelity to the teachings of the Bible as held in common by all Evangelical Churches, and for its world-wide dissemination of these truths in 160 languages and dialects.

The Assembly makes special mention of its providential preparation of a very large body of Christian literature for the immigrants in their several languages, its prosecution of colportage among them for sixty-five years, and its liberal grants of this literature for distribution by pastors, colporteurs and other Christian workers among the immigrants.

It also gratefully recognizes the invaluable aid rendered by the Society in the production and circulation of a Christian Vernacular Literature in the foreign-mission field, to meet the increasing necessity and opportunity for the use of the press, both in conserving and building up the foreign church and in aggressive work by native pastors, evangelists and colporteurs.

The Assembly again renews its commendation of the American Tract Society, and its recommendation that each Presbytery appoint a Standing Committee on its work and that each church be urged to make an annual offering for its support.

The Assembly adjourned until Monday at 9 o'clock, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 21, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Evangelistic Work was held, and addresses were delivered by John H. Converse, LL.D., Rev. Thornton B. Penfield, Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., and Rev. J. P. Calhoun, D.D.

MONDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the name of Elder Herbert P. Bishop, of the Presbytery of Grand Rapids, who was duly enrolled.

John H. Converse, LL.D., announced that upon request of the Evangelistic Committee, Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D. Moderator of the Assembly, had consented to be a member of said Committee.

The following resolution was referred:

Resolved, That the Assembly take steps to erect a Synod of West Virginia, and that all papers connected with the subject be referred to the Committee on Polity.

General Assembly Presbyterian Church U. S. A.:

Acknowledging your kindly greetings, the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly cordially salutes you as brethren in the Lord. See John seventeen and twenty-one.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, through its Chairman, the Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. Henry T. McClelland, D.D., Field Secretary of the Board, Rev. William M. Hargrave, D.D., Rev. Henry C. Mabery, D.D., Rev. J. W. Holley, and Elder L. P. Berry, was adopted, and is as follows:

The work of the Board of Missions for Freedmen during the past year has not been signalized by unusual incident or notable feature. It has been a year of careful planning and persistent effort, a year of close economy and freedom from debt at its close, a year of faithful sowing and of grateful gathering. The Minutes of the Board's meetings have been carefully examined and found correct.

There has been a shortage of over $2300 in the church collections as against the previous year; while from the other regular sources of income, including Sunday-schools, Young People's Societies and Women's Societies, over $3600 less was received than the year before. On the other hand, some $700 more came in from legacies, while from individual gifts and in interest from invested funds there was an increase of $5283, thus bringing the grand aggregate of receipts for the year up to $60.36 beyond the last year. This showing is very disquieting, inasmuch as if it had not been for the legacies from those who will not be here to help the work in the future and for special gifts from individual friends of the work, the Board would have been compelled to close its books with a considerable debt. It is evident that our pastors and people are not awake to the needs of this work as they must be, if the work is to go forward with vigor.

The expenditures for the year were exceptionally heavy. For example, over $5000 was paid out for renewal of insurance on the Board's property, an outlay occurring only once in three years. Four distinct and important improvements have been completed. A new wing has been added to the Ingleside Seminary at Burkeville, Va., a new Institute building has been erected at Brainerd Institute, Chester, S. C., while a large annex has been added to one of the old buildings there; and perhaps most important of all, a new Industrial Building has been completed at Biddle University, affording facilities for the various trades that are taught there, including painting, printing, carpentering, shoemaking, etc. These improvements have called for $40,000. This amount did not come out of the receipts for this year, but from special funds received for the purpose and set aside until the needed amount had been accumulated. In this special work the Board's report makes grateful and honorable mention of the generous aid of the Woman's Department of the Freedmen's Board, without whose devoted and untiring efforts the results could not have been achieved.

The Board is maintaining ninety-one schools, five more than last year. Two schools have been acquired during the year, one an independent undenominational school at Blackville, S. C., with a property consisting of 100 acres of land and several buildings. A generous ruling elder whose name is withheld furnished the means for purchasing this plant, although he holds a small part of the land in his own name, but for the use of the school. The other work made over to the Board is the Camp Nelson School in Kentucky, costing in all $10,000, an arrangement which was strongly urged by our churches in Kentucky, and which it is hoped they will generously support as in a certain sense their own.

In all the schools there have been 11,763 pupils. In these girls are taught practical housekeeping, cooking, sewing and laundry work, and boys are taught all the various trades and trained in agricultural pursuits; and both girls and boys are taught the Bible and the Shorter Catechism. The church work is more difficult than that of the schools and its results are far less capable of being definitely tabulated. Peculiar difficulties beset this work, and yet the report states that the annual ingathering into these churches on confession of faith is at a much larger rate than that obtaining throughout the rest of our Church. Some of these churches among the Freedmen are now self-supporting and others are coming up to self-support. Three churches during the year voluntarily dispensed with all aid from the Board. There is a steady advance year by year in the amount raised for the support of their own ministry, last year showing an advance of over $2000 on the year before and $8000 over that of five years ago. During the year the Rev. H. N. Payne, D.D., who had been for eleven years Field Secretary of the Board and for the seven following years President of the Mary Holmes Seminary, died, and in his death the Board lost one of its most devoted friends and efficient servants.

On account of the inevitable growth of the work of the Board in the future, and, moreover, on account of the decline, though not large or alarming, in the amount received last year from the congregations, the Board has felt it necessary to take some steps toward a deepening and quickening of the interest among the churches. With this in mind the Rev. Henry T. McClelland, D.D., has been appointed Field Secretary, with the understanding that it shall be his special work to stir up the churches and increase the resources of the Board. Dr. McClelland is peculiarly fitted for the work, having been for twenty years a member of the Board and for twelve years its President.

The Woman's Department of the Board is very efficient, and its efforts and assistance are indispensable to the work, which could neither have been accomplished nor undertaken except for their faithful and generous support.

The report records that $300,000 was called for by the General Assembly of 1903 as the smallest amount with which the Board of Missions for Freedmen should be furnished by the churches for the work of the year. The Board, however, was too wise and knew too well the ephemeral value of resolutions, however enthusiastically voted, to take the Assembly too seriously in this, and accordingly refrained from scaling its work according to the terms of this call. Nevertheless, the year's experience has proven that the Assembly was better endowed with wisdom to measure the need than with liberality to meet it. It was because the Board conducted its work upon the basis of the Church's giving rather than of the Assembly's voting that it is not embarrassed by a large debt to-day. And yet the amount named was not a dollar too great. If the churches would make good that resolution in the coming years the Board, with its growing work and increasing demands, could employ it economically and with the best of results in this promising field for the preaching and the teaching of the Gospel of Christ among the poor.

We respectfully present the following recommendations for adoption by the Assembly:

1. That the Assembly approves the appointment of Rev. H. T. McClelland, D.D., as Field Secretary of the Board, and cordially commends him to all the churches in the interest of this work.

2. That the Assembly expresses its grateful appreciation of the valuable services of the Woman's Department of this Board, and wishes these consecrated women Godspeed in their good work for the Master.

3. That the call of the last Assembly is repeated to the churches for $300,000 as a sum all too small for the great and growing and evermore fruitful work of the Board.

4. That the Rev. W. L. McEwan, D.D., Rev. D. R. Breed, D.D., Mr. George B. Logan, Mr. Samuel P. Harbison, and James C. Gray, Esq., whose terms as members of the Board have expired, be reëlected.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee,

HENRY COLLIN MINTON, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by the Chairman, was made the third Order for this afternoon.

Adopted.

It is recommended that on Overture No. 49, from the Presbytery of Erie, asking the Assembly to define and limit the tenure of office of the Stated and Permanent Clerks; on Overture No. 50, from the Presbytery of Utica, asking that a Department of Church News be added to the Assembly Herald; on Overture No. 53, from the Presbytery of Portland, on the early publication of the Minutes and Reports, and on Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Lake Superior, on the Blanks for Narratives, no action be taken. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

R. F. Coyle, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education, through its Chairman, Rev. A. Edwin Keigwin, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, by Rev. E. B. Hodge, D.D., Corresponding Secretary; William A. Alexander, D.D., and Rev. E. Yates Hill, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Committee would respectfully report that it has carefully examined the records of the Board of Education and has found them neatly and accurately kept. The permanent funds are safely invested, and the members of the Board have attended to their duties with conspicuous and commendable care and fidelity.

The attention of the Assembly is called to the Report of the Board as containing information and suggestions of vast importance to the future of our beloved Church.

First of all, we note with gratitude the splendid financial condition which is indicated by the opening paragraph of this Report. The total amount of gifts from churches, Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies and individuals has been $49,344.50, an increase of $293.19 over the contributions of last year. The Board has paid out to candidates $57,956.44. But from these figures it will be seen that the contributions during the year have not been sufficient by $8611.94 to meet the demands which have been made upon the Board by its 608 students. Consequently it became necessary to draw upon the reserve fund, held for such emergencies, to the extent of $3000. An even larger amount must have been drawn had it not been for the receipts from the legacies. From all of which it will appear that notwithstanding the slight increase in the contributions during the year, the churches must respond more generously to the demands of this important work, if the Board is to satisfactorily carry forward the effort of recruiting the ministry.

Your Committee regrets that the benevolence of the Church has not been sufficiently attracted to the needs of this Board. It is appalling to reflect what would have been the deficit reported to this Assembly by this Board if the great Head of the Church had answered our prayers for an increase in the number of candidates for the Gospel ministry. In 1896, the high-water mark year, the Board had under its care 1037 candidates, whereas at present they are aiding but 608 candidates.

Presbyterianism has always been synonymous with intelligence, and brains are not always associated with wealth. Our Church ought to be alive to the fact that the call of God to the ministry is not limited to those who are able to secure an education solely by their own resources. It would be a lamentable era for our Church when only the sons of the wealthy could enter her ministry. Our Church must always keep near to the poor and the lowly. We need and must now have consecrated sons from that rank of life where men are poor in this world's goods but rich in faith. There does not seem to be a fair conception of the value of such young men or there would be more liberal provision for their education. There is a fallacy in the expression, so often used in our Church, in speaking of some of its agencies as the important Boards. No one is more important than another. The Board of Education does not require as much money for the prosecution of its work, but it does require more than it now receives, and it ought to receive all that it needs. This cause lies at the foundation of all our great missionary enterprises, as well as the efficiency of the work in our self-supporting churches. A parsimonious economy in the foundations will impair the permanency of the superstructure, however ornate and expensive. The Presbyteries and Sessions should see to it that this cause is fully represented and its importance duly emphasized in our pulpits.

Your Committee would also call attention to the suggestion made in the Report of the Board, that there be a closer and more detailed supervision of the education of those who are to occupy places in the ranks of the Presbyterian ministry. We cannot close our eyes to the fact that there are widely divergent lines in both secular and religious education in these days, and that many of our young men are being unsettled in faith and their influence greatly impaired by the rationalistic trend of thought in many educational institutions. None of our candidates for the ministry should be left to pursue their education without the advice of their Presbyteries. A closer supervision is needed than ever before. The Presbyteries should maintain a closer and more helpful relationship with candidates under their care, should watch over their progress, supervise their course of studies and at regular intervals examine them as to their proficiency. The Board has drawn attention to this matter in the following words:

"The Board takes this occasion of calling new attention to the great responsibility which rests under our system upon Presbyteries, and in particular upon their Education Committees, to whom largely the care of candidates for the ministry is entrusted. May we suggest that it is of the utmost importance that the provisions of our Book with regard to constant oversight of their education should be religiously observed. We find that many candidates are not in close touch with those who are supposed to be overseeing their work. We call attention to the efforts made by such Presbyteries as Pittsburgh and St. Clairsville to devise and carry into execution effective regulations by means of which they can satisfy themselves that the candidates under their care are getting the training required, electing the right studies in the college course, becoming proficient in these studies, and devoting themselves seriously to the prescribed course in the theological seminary. The Education Committees of such Presbyteries as these will doubtless be glad to explain their methods and give the results of their experience."

Your Committee calls especial attention to the note of warning regarding our foreign populations found in the Report. Among the matters of most pressing importance at this time is the effort to provide a sufficiently numerous, well educated and efficient ministry for the foreigners who are coming to our shores every year by hundreds of thousands. The motive of those now seeking homes in this country has changed from the desire for liberty of conscience to a mere commercial object. In one respect this population is desirable, the country needs their help; but the foundations of the Church, the home and the State are threatened because of their general ignorance, and especially their irreligion. It behooves us, from the low motive of self-preservation, to mould this new element of our population in mind and morals, but the higher motive of loyalty to Christ demands that we should devise some plain and practical method of ministering to their needs.

The people we once sought over seas and in strange lands are now seeking us, and we are almost wholly unprepared to receive and assimilate them. We have few schools where their young men can be educated and trained for the Gospel ministry. There is urgent and immediate need for men who can preach to the Hungarians, Bohemians, Italians and other races in their own tongue. A special Committee of the General Assembly has this matter under advisement and has asked the Board of Education to inform them in what way and to what degree they can afford assistance in educating ministers to serve these exceptional peoples. In response to this request, it appears from their Report that the Board has two suggestions to make to this Assembly. The first is embodied in a request that the Board be allowed to use a measure of discretion in the application of their rules in the case of candidates of foreign extraction, with the understanding that the exceptions shall be such only as relate to the peculiarities of students in preparation for this particular work, and that no vital principles shall be infringed. The second suggestion is that in cases where the education of candidates of foreign extraction in our institutions involves special expense, or where other considerations make it necessary, in the opinion of the Board, that authority be given the Board of Education to make a somewhat larger allowance than is customary in such cases.

Your Committee has carefully considered the recommendation of the Board with reference to a change in Secton 1 of Constitutional Rule No. 3. The Rule as it now exists is scarcely flexible enough. After several years of trial, some practical difficulties have been found which might be obviated by certain slight modifications which the Board ventures to suggest, and your Committee heartily approves. As there is no principle involved, we feel satisfied that the Overture will meet with a favorable response from the Presbyteries.

The year has been marked by a great sorrow. The beloved and experienced President of the Board, the Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., died on December 17, 1903. He had been a member of the Board since March 8, 1886, and was elected President, June 17, 1889. He was punctual and faithful in the discharge of the duties of his office, and showed always a due sense of the importance of his position, giving conscientious attention to every detail. Dignity and courtesy marked him as a presiding officer. He was properly jealous of the prerogatives of the Board, formed his own opinions with clearness and held them with tenacity, while lending a ready ear to opinions which did not coincide with his own.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Minutes and other records of the Board be approved.

Resolved, 2. That in the opinion of this Assembly there is an imperative need for an immediate and large increase in the contributions for the cause of ministerial education.

Resolved, 3. That the Assembly commends the steps taken by some of the Presbyteries, for maintaining a more vital relation with candidates under their care, and a closer supervision of their studies, and that this Assembly directs the Presbyteries to exercise the utmost vigilance in all such matters.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly calls attention to the judgment already frequently expressed, that candidates for our ministry should be educated, so far as possible, in institutions of our own Church, or those in hearty sympathy with it, and in particular hereby direct all Presbyteries to require that the theological course be taken in institutions approved by the General Assembly.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly hereby expresses its sense of the extreme importance at the present time of seeking out and training an efficient ministry for the many thousand foreigners, speaking strange languages, yearly coming to America; that it recognizes the success which has attended the methods pursued in educating men for work among Germans, and expresses its belief that this success suggests the method by which a similar work may be done for candidates of other foreign races. And it requests the Directors of the German Theological School of the Northwest and the German Theological School of Newark to take into consideration the possibility and propriety of so enlarging the scope of their work as to accept additional candidates other than German.

Resolved, 6. That the Board of Education be hereby authorized to use a measure of discretion in the application of its rules in the case of candidates of foreign extraction, with the understanding that the exceptions shall be such only as relate to those in preparation for this particular work, and that no vital principle shall be infringed.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly recommend the observance of the last Thursday in January, 1905, as a day of prayer for schools and colleges.

Resolved, 8. That the Assembly hereby proposes to the Presbyteries in amendment to Constitutional Rule No. 3 in the following form. Section 1 of Constitutional Rule No. 3 now reads:

"Section 1. Every applicant seeking to be taken under the care of Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry shall file his application with the Stated Clerk at least three months before the meeting of the Presbytery, during which time a careful investigation shall be made as to his Christian character, physical and mental qualifications, and his previous education; and no person shall be received by Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry who has not been recommended by the Session of the church of which he is a member, under whose care he shall have been for a period of at least six months." Shall said section be amended so as to read:

"Every applicant seeking to be taken under the care of Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry, shall file his application at least three months before the meeting of Presbytery, addressing the same to the Chairmen of the Education Committee of the Presbytery, in the care of the Stated Clerk, in order that the Committee may have ample time to make a careful investigation of his Christian character, physical and mental qualifications and his previous education; and no person shall be received by Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry who has not been recommended by the Session of the church of which he is a member, under whose care he shall have been for a period of at least six months. And no exception shall be made to this rule without a unanimous vote of Presbytery."

Resolved, 9. That the election of the Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., to fill the unexpired term of Rev. George D. Baker, D.D., deceased, be approved. Also, that Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., Rev. J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., Rev. Hughes O. Gibbons, D.D., and Elders George H. Stuart, Jr., A. A. Shumway and John B. Gest, Esq., whose terms of service expire at this time, be reëlected for the term of three years.

All of which was respectfully submitted,

A. Edwin Keigwin, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Forms and Services, through its Chairman, Rev. Henry van Dyke, D.D., presented its Report, and after addresses by its Chairman, and by Rev. F. L. Patton, D.D., the following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee on Forms and Services is hereby approved, so far as presented, and that the Committee is continued, and is instructed to prosecute and complete its work, in accordance with the instructions given in the resolutions by which it was appointed.

The Report is as follows:

Your Special Committee on Forms and Services, in presenting their Report, beg leave to call your attention to the nature and conditions of the task committed to them.

The General Assembly of 1903, in answer to Overtures from the Presbytery of Denver and the Synod of New York, on the recommendation of the Commit ee on Bills and Overtures after consultation with representatives of the Board of Publication, unanimously passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, 1. That a Committee of eleven be appointed by the Moderator, in conference with the Editorial Committee of the Board of Publication, to take into consideration, and if possible to prepare, in harmony with the Directory for Worship, a Book of Simple Forms and Services, which shall be proper and helpful for voluntary use in Presbyterian Churches in the celebration of the Sacraments, in marriages and funerals, and in the conduct of public worship.

"Resolved, 2. That in the preparation of these voluntary services the Committee be instructed to draw from the Holy Scriptures and the usage of the Reformed Churches; to avoid those forms which savor of ritualism; to embody sound doctrine in the language of orderly devotion, and to keep ever in mind the end of Presbyterian worship, which is that all the people shou'd join in the service of God as He is revealed in Jesus Christ.

"Resolved, 3. That this Committee shall report to the next General Assembly, and shall submit whatever work they have been enabled to complete to the Assembly for approval and disposition" (Minutes, 1903, p. 113).

We desire you to read these resolutions with special care: first, in order to guard against any misunderstanding of the work which has been undertaken; and, second, in order that you may have full knowledge of the principles which have guided and controlled your Committee in endeavoring to carry out the will of the Assembly. Thus only can we hope to have the practical sympathy of our brethren in a difficult and laborious task, and to accomplish, in the spirit of fellowship, something which may be of real use to the Church which we all serve.

We have read our instructions as follows, and have endeavored to obey them faithfully in all that we have done:

NEGATIVELY.—1. We are not empowered, (nor should we be willing,) to prepare a required liturgy, to be imposed upon our churches by authority. The liberty of worship which now exists is not to be abridged. All that may be done in the preparation of forms is to be offered for "voluntary use."

2. We are forbidden to work in any way which is not in harmony with the Presbyterian doctrine of worship. We are not to follow other Churches (which may hold a different doctrine), nor to borrow forms in which sacerdotal or prelatic theories are embodied or implied. We are to make "a book proper for use in Presbyterian churches."

3. We are forbidden to use "those forms which savor of ritualism." All rites and ceremonies which are unscriptural in spirit or artificial in form, as well as those which seem to lay the chief emphasis of worship upon certain outward acts, or to disregard the spiritual priesthood of all believers in Christ, are to be avoided.

These negative conditions, setting bounds to our work, we have gladly recognized and scrupulously observed. Even in regard to words which are in familiar use, such as "absolution," "altar," and the like, we have preferred to avoid those which are open to an interpretation not in harmony with the Reformed Faith and practice.

Positively.—We find in our instructions two things which are to be done: First, the general subject of Forms and Services in our Church is to be considered. Second, if possible, a Book of Simple Forms and Services is to be prepared, along certain lines, and submitted to the General Assembly for approval and disposition. On the first of these points we are ready to present a full Report. On the second point we have to present a partial Report.

I. The general consideration of the subject of methods and forms of public worship in the Presbyterian Church must include, first, an historical study, and second, a careful investigation of present conditions and needs.

1. Historically, we observe, what every intelligent Presbyterian knows, that the use of forms of service was practically universal among the early Calvinistic or Reformed Churches. In Switzerland, in Germany, in France, in Italy, in Holland, in Scotland, and in England service-books were prepared for the use of the various congregations by the leaders of the Reformation. In these books are found directions for the order and conduct of public worship and the administration of the Sacraments, and prayers expressing, in language drawn for the most part from the Holy Scriptures and the fathers of the primitive Church, the desires and petitions of an assembly of Christians holding the Reformed Faith. The Genevan Liturgy of John Calvin, the "Book of Common Order" of John Knox, the Calvinistic Liturgy of the Church of Strasburg, the Christian Ordinances of the Netherlands Congregations, the Liturgy of the Palatinate, the "Prayers on the Psalms," published in the Scottish Psalm-book of 1595, "Hermann's Consultation," compiled by Bucer and Melanchthon —these and many other books of like character afford ample proof that the use of orderly forms and services, not only for the conduct of public worship, but also for the guidance of families in their daily prayers, is historically in harmony with Presbyterian principles. It was with such a form that Calvin celebrated his last communion; the reading of such a prayer cheered John Knox in his dying hour; and Admiral Coligny was engaged in repeating the beautiful liturgy of the Reformed Church in France when he was murdered on the morning of St. Bartholomew's Day.

In most of the Reformed Churches, holding the same faith and order with us, the use of these ancient service-books, modified to meet present needs, still continues. The chief reason why a Directory for Worship was substituted for "the Book of Common Order," at the Westminster Assembly, was "to meet the preferences of the English Puritan divines," which the Scotch Presbyterians were willing to do on all points not essential to the faith.

The Directory for Worship, adopted by our Church in 1788, and amended in 1789 and in 1886, while it disapproves "of confining ministers to set or fixed forms of prayer," says nothing against their voluntary use, or the preparation of an order of service which shall be helpful to the congregation in public worship. On the contrary, it protests against "mean, irregular and extravagant effusions" (Chap. I, 4); it speaks of prayer and praise as "the more important duties" not to be interfered with by unduly long sermons (Chap. VII, 4); and it gives such careful directions for the conduct of public services in an orderly manner, as naturally to suggest that a collection of good and proper forms would be helpful in the carrying out of these directions.

2. Coming now to the consideration of the present condition and needs of worship in our Presbyterian Churches, your Committee desired first of all to know the facts, and, second, to come into touch with the general feelings and wishes of the whole Church, as far as possible.

The opinion is prevalent that there has been a movement among Presbyterians in the direction of a more thoughtful and beautiful worship; and that this movement, beginning in the Sabbath-schools with various "exercises," and proceeding among the churches with "orders of service" and more or less elaborate forms, has become so widespread as to need recognition, wise guidance, and perhaps some measure of prudent restraint. This prevalent opinion your Committee shared. But we wished to know certainly whether the opinion was in harmony with the facts.

Therefore we sent out a letter of inquiry to the churches, including as many as the facilities at our disposal would enable us to reach without laying too heavy an expense upon the Assembly's fund, and covering as far as possible the different regions of our country. To this letter a great number of valuable replies have been received. By the diligence and skill of the Stated Clerk, Dr. Roberts, these replies have been tabulated, and we are enabled, for the first time in the history of our Church, to present you with facts instead of impressions, in regard to the present condition of public worship among Presbyterians.

		Per cent. over
Sunday-schools:
Using Responsive Service	1673	83
Using Lord's Prayer	1740	86
Using the Creed	746	37
Churches:
Using Lord's Prayer	1432	71
Using Psalter responsively	1377	68
Using Creed regularly or occasionally	1017	51

Furthermore, of these 2001 ministers, 1774, or 88 per cent., say that "there is room for improvement in the orderly and reverent conduct of worship generally." 1888, or 94 per cent., say that "the people should participate." 1752, or over 87 per cent., say that "a more general, voluntary agreement in regard to the parts of public worship and their order would be a help in this direction." A book of forms is used as follows: marriages 1627, funerals 1619, baptisms 1503, Lord's Supper 1457; and 1634, or over 81 per cent., say that they "feel the need of such a book."

These figures show beyond question: first, that the movement toward an order of service with responsive features is already going on in three-fourths of our churches; second, that nine-tenths of our ministers desire improvement and better order in the conduct of worship generally in our Church; third, that almost all of our ministers wish the people to take part in the service; fourth, that more than four-fifths of our ministers wish for more unity in Presbyterian worship, if it can be voluntarily brought about; and finally, that all but about fifteen per cent. feel the need of a book of forms.

Another set of statistics, drawn from the same documents, refers to the actual orders of service used in the different churches. Here only the returns from the three large Synods of Illinois, Pennsylvania and New York have been tabulated, because from them we can easily understand the state of affairs in the whole Church.

The Report includes 150 churches in Illinois, 427 in Pennsylvania, and 450 in New York—about 1000 churches in all.

873 open the service with the singing of "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow." 947 use an invocation. 722 use the Psalter responsively, 494 use the Lord's Prayer, 51 use the Ten Commandments, 908 regularly have an offering, 683 sing an anthem, 985 close with the Benediction.

A bewildering variety prevails in the arrangement of the different parts of the service. It is evidently difficult for the stranger within the gates of one of these Presbyterian churches to know when to rise up and when to sit down. To meet this difficulty the orders of service are usually printed from week to week, in the form of a time-table, and distributed in the pews on Sunday. The expense of this printing, the rustling of these papers, and the confusing variations of these services might be avoided (at least for a considerable number of churches,) if a book could be prepared that would embody the different parts of worship in common use, arranging them in a logical order which would be generally acceptable, and leaving a reasonable freedom of choice in regard to certain elements of the service. At the same time the book would not in any way interfere with those churches which still preferred to print a separate order of service. It seems perfectly clear to your Committee that such a book is greatly needed at the present time. In our judgment there is no reason why it should not be prepared and offered to the Church. We have therefore felt encouraged to go forward with the second part of the task which you have committed to us.

II. The preparation of "a Book of Simple Forms and Services, which shall be proper and helpful for voluntary use in Presbyterian Churches in the celebration of the Sacraments, in marriages and funerals, and in the conduct of public worship."

In entering upon this task we were careful to follow the guidance of the Assembly's resolution in regard to the method and purpose of our work. The positive instructions given to us embrace three points:

(1) We are "to draw from the Holy Scriptures and the usage of the Reformed Churches" in the preparation of the forms of service. Here we find not only a guide for the spirit and manner of our work, but also a rich treasure-house of materials lying ready to our hand.

The doctrine of the Reformed Churches in regard to worship has always been distinctively Scriptural. Our Catechism teaches that the Scripture "forbids the worshiping of God by images, or in any other way not appointed in His Word" (Shorter Catechism, 51). The Confession of Faith, while conceding that "there are some circumstances concerning the worship of God . . . . which are to be ordered by the light of nature and Christian prudence," insists at the same time that this should be done "according to the general rules of the Word, which are always to be observed" (Confession, I, 6).

We turn, then, to the Bible to learn what are the proper parts of common worship, there recognized and appointed. We find clear warrant for certain great features of divine service by assembled worshipers.

The singing of praise, either with or without the accompaniment of instrumental music (Eph. v. 19; Col. iii. 16; Ps. xxxiii. 2-3, lxxxi. 1-2).

The offering of prayer, either in set forms or in free utterance (Deut. xxvi. 5-15; Matt. vi. 9; 1 Kings viii. 22-53; Acts xx. 36).

The repetition of sentences of adoration, thanksgiving, or supplication, either in unison or responsively, and the consent of the people in prayer or praise by the audible Amen (Acts iv. 24; The Psalms, passim, cvi. 48; 1 Chron. xvi).

The reading of Holy Scripture (Deut. xxxi. 10; Jer. xxxvi. 8; Col. iv. 16; Luke iv. 16).

The public confession of faith in God and Christ (1 Kings viii. 33; Luke xii. 8; 1 Tim. vi. 12; Heb. x. 23).

The bringing of offerings to God for His service (1 Cor. xvi. 1-4).

The preaching of the Word (Neh. viii. 8; Acts xxviii. 23, xx. 7; Luke iv. 21–22).

The pronouncing of a blessing upon the people in the name of God (1 Kings viii. 14; 2 Cor. xiii. 14).

The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Here we have the great and permanent elements of Christian Worship; and out of these elements, with due allowance for the minor circumstances "which are to be ordered by the light of nature and Christian prudence," we are to prepare our book of forms and services according to the usage of the Reformed Churches.

Turning to the records of that usage, past and present, in England, Scotland, Switzerland, Holland, France, Germany and America, we find a vast and precious store of forms, rich in sacred associations, breathing the spirit of perennial devotion—prayers and praises uttered in the language of Holy Scripture, or compiled from the service-books of primitive Christianity, or composed by the fathers of the Reformation and other men of like faith under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. These treasures of the devout congregation, these memorials of saintly fellowship and communion, are ours to use. This example of free harmony and orderly liberty in the service of the sanctuary is ours to follow. Under such influences, and in spiritual regions so abundantly filled with all manner of things that are pure and lovely and of good report, your Committee have labored with inward joy and a deepening sense of the rich inheritance of the Church to which we belong. We have had no temptation nor desire to wander into strange territories or to follow unfamiliar guides. And we are confident that from such great wealth of precious things, too long forgotten and too little used, it must be possible (even for hands that have but common skill and a desire to serve) to bring back something which will be profitable and helpful to many of our churches.

(2) We are instructed also "to embody sound doctrine in the language of orderly devotion." The importance of this injunction has impressed us greatly. The manner in which the services of religion are conducted has an immense, unconscious, and continual influence upon the vital elements of belief in the hearts of the worshipers. The great truths and historic facts of Christianity may be expressed in statements of doctrine; but unless they come to expression also in the common exercises of devotion, they are almost certain to sink out of the living consciousness of the Church. It is true that the language of devotion is different from the language of definition: it is simpler, warmer, less intellectual and more emotional. It falls naturally into an utterance reflecting the deep colors of experience, and moving rhythmically under the impulses of the quickened heart. But the facts which enter into this experience, and the truths which quicken the heart to penitence, prayer, and praise, are none other than those which enter into the body of the faith. Devotion, in order to be sincere and helpful, must translate the elements of our belief into the music of confession and petition, adoration and thanksgiving, intercession and benediction, joyful vow and solemn sacrament.

Consider how necessary it is that the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper should be administered in forms which will always remind the participants of the true meaning of these "outward and sensible signs of inward and spiritual grace" (Larger Catechism, 163). How can we hope to keep alive the interest and faith of the people who follow the Presbyterian order in these sealing ordinances, unless we use a service in which the faith of our Church is embodied? Services arranged under merely æsthetic influences, to gratify the craving for outward beauty,—services carelessly conducted, under the impulse of varying moods and altogether at the mercy of circumstances,—may easily bring the Sacraments, on the one hand, into neglect and contempt; or, on the other hand, into an artificial and superstitious method of observance.

The same thing is true of the parts of common worship on the Lord's Day. Take, for example, the public Confession of Sin, which our Directory for Worship enjoins. It is the faith of our Church that sin is not a mere mistake, a chance error, an occasional wandering from the right way, but the fruit of a sinful nature which is in us all. This belief is fundamental to our conception of Christian doctrine. Unless it is to die out of our religious life it must find expression in our worship. In a Church like ours Confession of Sin must include, at some time, in some place in the great service of the Lord's Day, a clear utterance of the deepened penitence which comes from the sense of a sinful nature, and of our absolute dependence upon the grace of God in Christ for our salvation.

Thus we have felt in our work as a Committee the responsibility of the task laid upon us; and we have tried faithfully to perform it in a way which shall be true at all points to the faith which is sincerely held by the disciples of Christ in the Presbyterian Church.

(3) We are further instructed to keep ever in mind in all our deliberations and decisions, "the end of Presbyterian worship, which is that all the people should join in the service of God as He is revealed in Jesus Christ."

The needs, the convenience, the natural and reasonable preferences of the people, in matters where there is room for choice in method and arrangement—these are the things to be remembered, if an order of service is to be prepared for worship which is designed to be popular, in the right sense of the word. A service, however bare, which is adapted to the use of the minister and choir only, answering one to the other in antiphonal grandeur, though it may have prevailed for a season in many of our churches, does not in our judgment promote the end of Presbyterian worship.

In regard to the forms for the Sacraments and for marriages and funerals, there will be litt'e opportunity for variations. But in the longer forms, especially those for morning and evening service on the Lord's Day, it is most desirable that the people should have, first, a more general agreement in regard to the parts of the service, and their order; and, second, as much freedom of choice as possible in regard to the material of the different parts. Of course, the whole matter is optional; there is no compulsion or restriction; on the title-page of any book to be prepared there must stand (in our judgment) the words "For Voluntary Use in Presbyterian Churches." But over and above this general rubric we feel that there is need of considerable opportunity for variations, in different congregations and on particular occasions, in any form of service which is to be generally acceptable; and this liberty should be expressed, where it is possible, within the service itself.

Unity in the broad outline of the common worship; agreement upon certain simple and universal elements of the service, like the Psalter and the Lord's Prayer and the Creed, which are already part of the standards of our Church; liberty within the broad outline to vary the use of certain forms, the place of certain hymns, the time of the offering, and so on; order without monotony; variety without confusion—these are the features that we have sought to bring into our work, in the hope of preparing a book which might really help the people to join in the service.

It will be seen that such a programme involves a great deal of careful, difficult, protracted labor. To make a book merely to suit our own personal tastes would have been easy. But this was not what we wanted to do. Our desire was to make a book which would suit others, and which would be serviceable for actual use, at least in a great many churches, if not in all.

A collection of books containing the material most likely to be of use was put in the hands of each member of the Committee. We divided the Committee into three Subcommittees, assigning to each the duty of making a first draft of certain services. When a Subcommittee had finished the first draft of a service, it was presented to the General Committee and subjected to the most minute and ruthless criticism. Word by word and line by line it was gone over. The members of the Committee, representing different sections of the country and different points of view, had no diffidence in expressing their judgments. Many of the forms were sifted and revised four or five times. The work was sometimes exasperating, often exhausting, always profitable.

The abundance of material at our disposal added to the difficulty of choice. We have collected much which we have not yet been able to arrange in proper form for practical use. It seemed to us that we should best fulfill the will and instructions of the Assembly by working slowly and carefully. The majority of the different forms which we were instructed o prepare are already under way; several of them are nearly finished; the others need considerable revision and rearrangement. Two forms of service seem to us approximately complete.

There was a difference of opinion in the Committee in regard to the question of presenting these two forms to the Assembly at this time. On the one hand, we felt the serious disadvantage and possible danger of having a "Book of Common Worship" examined and judged in fragments. On the other hand, we wished to keep in close touch with the whole Church by a frank and full showing of the principles on which we have been working, and of the kind of work which we have been trying to do.

The question was settled for us, fortunately, by the last resolution in the charter of our appointment, which says that the Committee "shall submit whatever work they have been enabled to complete to the Assembly for approval and disposition."

In obedience to this instruction we beg leave to present these two portions of our work, with such brief commentary as seems needful to explain and emphasize certain points. We ask you not to consider these services as if they were intended to stand alone, but rather as parts of a structure which is not yet finished. We beg you to read them in the light of what we have said about the spirit, purpose and method of their preparation. We desire, through you, the sympathy and prayers of the whole Church in the continuance of our work, if it shall be ordered. And, finally, we submit to you this "Order for the Administration of Baptism to Infants" and this "Order of Morning Service on the Lord's Day," not as specimens of a required liturgy, but simply as forms which we hope may be found "proper and helpful for voluntary use in Presbyterian Churches."

The Report of the Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce was taken up, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Interchurch Conference, which at first included the representatives of the Protestant Episcopal Church, upon whose invitation the Conference was called; the representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church and representatives of Baptist Churches, now includes, in addition to the Churches named, representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church (South), of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, of the Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, of the Reformed Church in America, of the Congregational Churches, of the Universalist Churches, of the Unitarian Churches, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church (General Synod), and of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

This enlarged representation, which has brought into conference the leading and influential Protestant Churches of America, strikingly manifests the deep and growing interest of representative Christian citizens in the important subject which is under consideration.

The Assembly of 1903 adopted the following Resolution, upon the recommendation of this Committee:

"Resolved, That all ministers under our care and authority are hereby enjoined to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the case of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as Scriptural in the Standards of this Church."

In the conferences of the past year more serious consideration has been given to this question of ecclesiastical authority, and your Committee will recommend further action in this Report. The conviction which underlies the action of the Conference has been that we cannot hope to influence public opinion, and secure stricter divorce laws in the State, until the Standards of our Churches are in conformity with the teachings of Christ, and until the conduct of ministers and members of the Churches is in conformity with the Standards of the particular Church to which they have sworn allegiance. It is a deplorable fact that Christian Churches are contaminated, and that Christian ministers carelessly bring reproach upon the Church by giving the sanction of their office to divorce that violates the law of the Church, and to marriage that the law of the Church prohibits. Civil authority is not sufficient sanction for ministers and members of the Church of Christ. Unless the discipline of the Church can prevent its ministers from putting the seal of the Church upon unholy alliances, and can prevent its members from making such unholy alliances, it will be useless to expect the State to regard our protests or to listen to our appeals for reform.

The subject of State and National legislation has already received careful consideration by the Conference, and is still under advisement. An able Committee of distinguished lawyers has given much time to this subject and a partial Report has been made, which, when completed and adopted, will be given to the public, and submitted to the Church Courts represented in the Conference. When close attention is given to this subject of civil legislation it is found to be full of perplexities, and although the Conference is unanimous in the desire to obtain the best legislation possible, and in the purpose to endeavor to bring the united power of the Church to bear upon those who enact or enforce civil laws, yet we are persuaded that the influence of the Church will be more effective when it may be more respected, and, after careful and patient consideration, may evolve practical reform.

The pending investigation of the situation in Utah by the Senate of the United States, with its humiliating exposures, is alarming and educating the whole nation, and opening the eyes of those who are responsible for the laws intended to promote pure citizenship and to secure the peace and purity of the State. A better and brighter day is dawning, and it behooves the Church to equip herself "with the whole armor of God," and be ready and able to stand "against the wiles of the devil." We want the girdle of truth, the breastplate of righteousness and the shield of our common holy faith. And then with the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God, not only proclaimed but exemplified by consistency and fidelity, we can go forth to battle confident of victory.

Although your Committee is not at present prepared to recommend definite action upon all the questions which have been considered by the Conference, before asking your action upon some matters which we will submit, we desire to express the unanimous conviction of ourselves and of the representatives of the other Churches with whom we have been in conference, that this Interchurch Conference is not alone a significant, providential call to immediate duty regarding the grave questions at first suggested for consideration, but also a providential opportunity to bind together the forces of righteousness, represented by the Christian Churches of our country, for the suppression of other evils and for the advancement of other reforms.

While the Church proclaims the Gospel as the only power unto ultimate salvation, yet the Church is expected to be in the forefront in every battle waged against the Evil One in his plottings to destroy those for whom Christ died.

We submit the following recommendations for the consideration and action of this General Assembly:

1. The General Assembly again enjoins all ministers under its care and authority to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as Scriptural in the Standards of our Church.

2. The appeal and address affixed to the Report of this Special Committee on Divorce and Marriage is hereby endorsed by this General Assembly, and commended to the consideration of all our ministers and congregations. The Stated Clerk is instructed to issue it in such form and to such extent as may seem desirable and expedient, and it is requested that it be read by pastors from their pulpits on some appropriate Sabbath.

3. The Stated Clerk is hereby instructed to call the special attention of Presbyteries to the action of the General Assembly regarding the marriage of divorced persons, and to request the Presbyteries to exercise such needful oversight and discipline as may be required to secure the enforcement of existing laws and obedience to the injunctions of the General Assembly.

4. The Committee on Marriage and Divorce is hereby continued, and instructed to coöperate with the representatives of other Churches in endeavoring to obtain such ecclesiastical unity, such compliance with the laws now in force, and such State or National legislation, as may shield both Church and State from existing and impending perils.

5. That, recognizing the comity which should exist between Churches represented in the Interchurch Conference, acknowledging, as they do, the law of Christ alone as supreme, we advise each minister under the authority of this Assembly to refuse to unite in marriage any member of any such Church whose marriage is known to such minister to be prohibited by the laws of the Church in which such person holds membership, unless such minister believes that in the peculiar circumstances of a given case his refusal would do injustice to an innocent person who has been divorced for Scriptural reasons.

In behalf of the Committee,

CHAS. A. DICKEY, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23d, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of the Board of Missions for Freedmen was held, and addresses were delivered by the Rev. D. J. Sanders, D.D., Rev. Alonzo S. Gray, Rev. Mack G. Johnson, D.D., Rev. Joseph W. Holley, Rev. James J. Wilson, Rev. Job C. Lawrence and Rev. B. L. Glenn.

TUESDAY, May 24th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures beg leave to submit the following partial Report:

It is recommended:

That Overtures Nos. 28–32, from the Presbyteries of Al ahabad, Furrukhabad, Lahore, and Lodiana and the Synod of India, on union with the Presbyterian Church in India and the establishment of a General Assembly, be referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

That Overture No. 69, from the Presbytery of Pemb na, on the multiplication of churches, be referred to the Special Committee on Church Union and Coöperation.

That on Overture No. 63, from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, with reference to the week before Easter as a time of humiliation and prayer, no action be taken.

That on Overture No. 55, from the Presbytery of Monmouth, on reporting in the Minutes members restored, no action be taken.

In behalf of the Committee,

ROBERT F. COYLE, Chairman.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That the time allotted for the presentation and consideration of the Report of any Standing Committee shall be divided, and that the first two-thirds of such time be assigned to the officers, and representatives of that Committee, and the remaining one-third of the time be given to the members of the General Assembly for the free discussion of the Committee's Report, under the usual time limit of one speech of not to exceed ten minutes by any one member, if any other Commissioner desires to be heard.

A Resolution presented by the Hon. Robert A. Brown was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Mr. John Willis Baer, Assistant Secretary of the Board, Rev. C. M. Stelzle, Rev. H. A. Johnston, D.D., Rev. George Knox, Rev. Joseph L. Weaver, Rev. Robert Johnson, D.D., and Rev. A. T. Rankin, D.D., was adopted. The Report is as follows:

Your Committee on Home Missions would respectfully report, that we have examined the Annual Report of the Board of Home Missions, together with the Minutes of the Board, for the year 1903-4. We have also examined the Reports of the Superintendent of Schools, of the Secretary of Young People's Work, and of the Woman's Board of Home Missions.

A reading of these Reports cannot fail to impress one with a sense of the magnitude, many-sidedness and overwhelming importance of the work entrusted to the Board of Home Missions.

It is impossible for your Committee to attempt even a summary of the admirable Report. We ask for its careful perusal. Pastors will find it not only a storehouse of missionary information, but a stimulus as well to missionary interest and energy, and a tonic to spiritual life.

The Board of Home Missions is composed of able and devoted men. There are few who realize how varied and how complicated are the problems which come before it for solution. Questions of finance, of law, of expediency, of organization, of agency, demand constant attention, and these are so satisfactorily met and mastered that its administration challenges the confidence and the admiration of the Church. The hearty thanks of the whole Church are due to the busy men who give so many valuable hours to the work of the Board.

It is with no less pleasure that your Committee commends the wise, efficient, successful, and withal the economical administration of the Secretaries and the Treasurer. A review of the work of these officers shows that they are men who have a firm grip upon the common sense of things. No cause could be more faithfully or skillfully served than the cause of Home Missions has been in the administration of the vast stewardship committed to these men.

During the year the "Angel of Death" has been among the workers on the field; perhaps we had better say the Lord of Life has been standing at the gate, for Jesus has said, "I am alive for evermore and have the keys of death and of the grave." The hand that was pierced holds the key of the death gateway. That gateway has opened six times to our missionary force. We lovingly record the names of those who have passed through into the glory:

Rev. Samuel H. Weller, D.D., Ione, Cal.
Rev. Erwin D. Walker, D.D., St. Louis, Mo.
Rev. John C. Sloan, Alliance, Neb.
Rev. William Webb Percival, Ph.D., Corning, Cal.
Rev. William T. Findley (Indian Mission), Winnebago, Neb.
Rev. William Schiller (Bohemian Church), Hopkins, Minn.

The force now on the field numbers 1180 missionaries and 486 missionary teachers, a total of 1666. The story of the work of these men and women makes the heart throb, and quickens to utmost enthusiasm. Day after day they have carried the Gospel message to sinning, sighing, suffering men, counting no service too much, no sacrifice too great. They are sustained and inspired by a burning passion for souls. They are moved by that spirit of evangelism which pervades our whole Church. While there has not been any general revival, yet from nearly every field come the tidings of spiritual awakening. In a number of the mission Synods the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work has supplied evangelists to assist the pastors in special services, and in every instance the pastors speak well of the work and are grateful for the assistance. As the result of the heaven-blessed labors of our missionaries 7378 persons have united with the Church by profession of faith, and 4759 have been received by letter, a total of 12,137.

It is gratifying to note that during the year 115 churches were organized, sixty-seven church buildings erected, and $68,163 of church debts were canceled. The total membership of the Home Mission Church is 61,813. There are 1627 Sabbath-schools, 226 of which were organized last year. The membership of these schools is 92,557.

The Report of the Treasurer presents a full and clear statement of the financial condition of the Board. The Report has been audited and found correct. During the year there were $820,-606.20 received from all sources. The balance from last year was $8270.71, making the revenue for the year $828,876.91. The expenditures for all purposes were $825,696.65, leaving a balance of $3180.26. Let it ever be borne in mind that the cost of administering this great mission enterprise is only about four and a half per cent. That means that more than ninety-five cents of every dollar given go to the work.

Your Committee notes that the Board has given special attention to the recommendation of the last Assembly regarding work among the foreign-speaking peoples in our country. The Rev. John Dixon, D.D., was appointed by the Board to give special attention thereto. While the foreign-speaking people are scattered over the whole country, yet they most do congregate in our cities and within the bounds of the self-supporting Synods. A plan of coöperation between these Synods and the Board for carrying on this work was adopted at a conference of representatives of the self-supporting Synods and the Board in New York City in October, 1903. According to the plan adopted the self-supporting Synods are to prosecute the work of evangelization among the foreigners within their bounds, and in case any Synod cannot secure the funds for such work, the Board of Home Missions is to coöperate with that Synod upon its invitation and in accordance with its plan. Your Committee finds that an established work is being carried on among sixteen nationalities, that there are 432 churches and stations among these people, with a membership of 26,205. A larger work for the strangers within our gates must be undertaken, for America cannot be evangelized and leave the foreign element out. The action of Wooster University in making provision for such instruction of young people of foreign birth as will fit them to be lay evangelists among their own people, is to be heartily commended.

Encouraging progress has been made in the work on behalf of workingmen who are outside the Church, and who are indifferent to its message. It is to the honor of our Church that she recognizes no distinctions among men, and the services of the Rev. Charles Stelzle have materially helped to bring workingmen to a clearer understanding of the attitude of the Church of Christ toward them.

In a review of the work of the Board special interest attaches to the work in Porto Rico and in the little Republic of Cuba, which owes its life to our America, and to which America owes support and assistance. The problems in those countries are much the same. The grave difficulties in both fields are those which arise from Romanism and ignorance, twin sisters in every land and age. The people of both countries are eager for religious light and liberty. Our missionaries are everywhere received with cordiality. Schools are welcomed. The Gospel is attentively heard. Cuba and Porto Rico are fruitful fields, and already a rich harvest has been gathered. Both countries are being shot through with new ideas of God, of Christ, of the Bible, of the Church and of the Christian life. Though the work was begun in Cuba only two and a half years ago, yet such progress has been made that the missionaries have petitioned this Assembly to be organized into a Presbytery. It is gratifying to know that our Church has now, as a part of missionary equipment in Porto Rico, "The Presbyterian Hospital," which is located in the suburbs of San Juan.

The call from all parts of the field for new work is greater than ever before and never was there a greater demand for additional workers. The keynote of the Report of every Synodical Missionary is, "More men." Minnesota says, "We must be reinforced in every Presbytery." North Dakota asks for twenty-five additional ministers, and South Dakota for twenty-three "consecrated, capable and adaptable men." Washington asks for eighteen new men, and Oregon for sixteen. The same note is struck by all the Synods. From far-away Alaska comes the same call. The Board is anxious to engage at once two men for Alaska; one a medical missionary to relieve Dr. Marsh, who comes down from Point Barrow, and another to go to a new station at the headwaters of Kniakuk, within the Arctic Circle, five hundred miles above Rampart on the Yukon. This call is for men of strenuous build, afire with zeal for Christ, and with love for souls. These men are to be sent at once, and an immediate response to this call is hoped for.

Your Committee feels that mention should be made of the excellent literature which the Board issued during the year. It has the excellency and strength which mark all the other work of the Board. Pastors are urged to avail themselves of this literature freely provided and to use it liberally. We call special attention to the text-books which the Board has prepared for Home Mission Study Classes, and ask all pastors to endeavor to organize such classes among their young people.

The work of the Young People's Societies is worthy of special emphasis. This department is being strongly developed, and its splendid devotion is meeting with gratifying results in arousing an intelligent and enthusiastic interest in Home Missions among the young people. Nearly $90,000 were contributed last year to Home Missions by the Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools.

Your Committee is deeply impressed with the faithful and efficient labors of the noble women of our Church, and calls special attention to the work of the Woman's Board, the central organization of the 130,000 members of auxiliary Societies. This Board is now celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization, and signalizes this event by the contribution of $40,000 (to be increased to $50,000) for the building and endowing of a boys' school at Santa Fé, New Mexico. This great offering has been given as a grateful tribute to the services of the honored President of the Woman's Board, Mrs. Darwin R. James.

The Mormon cancer has been laid bare to the nation. The disclosure has revealed Mormonism as a serious menace to the religious, moral and political welfare of our country. We heartily commend the work of the Christian women of all denominations in carrying on so successful a campaign against this iniquity. The agitation against Mormonism, crystallizing in the effort to unseat Senator Smoot, has increased the difficulty of prosecuting mission work among the Mormons, and our noble band of missionaries in Utah should have the special prayers and sympathy of the entire Church.

Once more, and for the sixth consecutive year, the Board comes to the Church with the cheering message of "No Debt." All rejoice in this. But our rejoicing is somewhat sobered, first, by the fact that this condition is made possible, not by the generosity of the living, but by the provision of the dying. The income from legacies was larger last year than in the previous year, while gifts from churches and individuals were less than in the preceding year. In the second place, even with these larger legacies, the condition of "No Debt" was made possible only by careful management on the part of the Board, by scaling down the appropriations to the Presbyteries, which in most instances means reduction in the salaries of our underpaid missionaries, and by the policy of the Board to enter upon no new work until the receipts would warrant it. There is not much occasion for congratulating ourselves on "No Debt," when to achieve that the Board has been able only to maintain work already established, and has been unable to enter upon a wider aggression for the bringing of America to Christ. Not to advance in this day of opportunity and demand is to retreat. The Board has been loyal to the promise, which it made to the Church five years ago, not to incur any large debt. But to every covenant there are two parties. This promise of the Board implied the pledge of the Church to supply the Board with adequate and increasing revenue for its growing work.

The Church is not giving enough money. Your Committee recognizes with gratitude the generous offerings of some churches, the consecrated gifts of consecrated men and women of wealth, and the self-sacrificing offerings of many of God's dear children who are not rich in the things of this world. But your Committee is convinced that the Church as a whole has by no means responded to the call of this work as it can and should respond. The average gift of the membership of our Church to all purposes was about $17.33. Our Home Mission churches put us to shame in the matter of giving. Out yonder in Indian Territory one church, the Tishomingo Church, gave $175 per member to all causes. Pond Creek Church gave $60 per member, and South McAlester Church gave $45 per member. Either the people of the Tishomingo, Pond Creek or South McAlester Churches are richer than the people in our home churches, or the grace of giving is better developed in them. Had the average contribution of the membership of our Church to all purposes been equal to the average contribution of the members of Tishomingo Church, the receipts of the year, instead of being $17,561,377, would have been $186,808,475.

Our honored Secretary, Dr. Charles L. Thompson, well says in the Report of the Home Mission Board:

"There is no missionary need at the present time greater than a reviving of the spirit of the consecration of money to the service of the kingdom. Our Church is growing in numbers and in wealth; the opportunities for service are enlarging on every hand, but there is not a corresponding growth in the grace of giving. Again we plead for that which shall be individual, systematic and proportionate."

Your Committee is persuaded that the responsibility for securing the necessary money for the work of the Board rests primarily with the ministers. Let the ministers preach on Home Missions, pray frequently and fervently for the cause, talk about it with their people, and soon an interest in the work will be awakened, and out of that interest rich streams will flow into the coffers of the Board. The work of the Board of Home Missions stands at the front of all the agencies of the Presbyterian Church for the upbuilding of the kingdom of Christ in this land. The Board is the ally of the Evangelistic Committee and of the Foreign Board, conserving the work of one and stimulating gifts of the other. All the sacred interests of our Church and country emphasize the call for increased offerings to the Home Board. We are living in the day of munificent gifts to charitable, philanthropic and educational causes, gifts ranging all the way from $100,000 to $5,000,000. Such giving is unparalleled in the history of the world. What magnificent enthusiasm for Christ would be created and what splendid results would accrue to our beloved land if our Christian men and women of wealth would make similar gifts for the purpose of bringing America under the sway of the Gospel of Jesus Christ! If we have millions for education why not for salvation?

The three supreme needs are prayer, money and men. Our one common and comprehensive need is the baptism of the Holy Spirit, with all the wisdom, and power, and love which that involves, so that we may work all our plans and methods with the ability which God giveth. Swept by the mighty inspiration of the Spirit the whole Church will be swayed by a splendid passion that shall finally gather men into a society that will faithfully image the love of God for man, and the love of man for man, the new Jerusalem let down from God out of heaven in which Jesus is King.

We respectfully offer the following recommendations for the action of the Assembly:

Resolved, 1. That the Minutes of the Board of Home Missions be approved.

Resolved, 2. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire with this General Assembly, be reëlected for the term of three years, to wit: Ministers—Revs. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., L. Mason Clarke, D.D., Robert Mackenzie, D.D.; Laymen—Walter M. Aikman, William H. Corbin, Robert C. Ogden, Henry W. Jessup.

Resolved, 3. That inasmuch as the Interdenominational Committee has arranged to celebrate the centennial of the Louisiana Purchase by a convention at St. Louis, on October 29, 30 and 31, we recommend that wherever practicable Sabbath, October 30, be observed in all our churches as a day of thanksgiving for all that has been done in bringing the West to a knowledge of Christ, and that on that day a special offering be taken for the work of the Board of Home Missions.

Resolved, 4. That we commend the liberal use of the literature furnished by the Board and its wide distribution as a means of stimulating interest in the work of Home Missions.

Resolved, 5. That the earnest spirit of the young people of the Church, manifested in their increased gifts, is heartily commended.

Resolved, 6. That we heartily approve of the coöperation of the Home Board with the Evangelistic Committee, and commend the continuance of this coöperation in the work of evangelizing our land.

Resolved, 7. That since at least $900,000 are imperatively needed for the work of the Board next year, an earnest appeal be made for larger contributions on the part of churches and individuals to the work of the Board, and for special gifts for specific objects, such as furnishing the salary of a missionary or teacher, such gifts to be in addition to the regular offerings to the Board.

Resolved, 8. That the General Assembly expresses its hearty appreciation of the efficient services of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, congratulates the Board on the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization, and extends to its honored President, Mrs. Darwin R. James, its grateful tribute for her long and faithful services as President of the Woman's Board.

Resolved, 9. That on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day our Sabbath-schools be requested to make an offering for the mission school work under the care of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, and that on the Sabbath preceding February 22 the Sabbath-schools be requested to make an offering for the Evangelistic Work of the Board of Home Missions.

Resolved, 10. That in response to Overture No. 41, from the Presbytery of Mattoon, endorsed by the Presbytery of Fort Wayne, in reference to the reorganization of the Home Mission Work, no action be taken.

Resolved, 11. That since the demands for new work are far beyond the resources of the Board, Presbyteries be urged to diminish the amounts granted to churches which for years have been receiving aid.

Resolved, 12. That the attention of the Church be called afresh to the urgent spiritual needs of our foreign population, as that population is massed not only in our great cities and manufacturing centres, but also in the mining districts of our country, especially the anthracite fields of western Pennsylvania, where thousands and tens of thousands of Protestant Hungarians (Magyars) afford great opportunity for the instruction and training of our own branch of the Christian Church, and that special effort be put forth by our Home Board to meet their pressing needs, for the kingdom's sake, for humanity's sake, and for our country's sake.

J. F. Carson, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Judicial Committee, through its Chairman, Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee beg leave to report that the following papers have been put into our hands, and we make the accompanying recommendations concerning them:

1. A paper purporting to be an appeal from John E. Whitbeck against the Presbytery of Geneva. We find the paper to be a kind of memorial, not having any of the marks of an appeal, nor accompanied by any papers. We therefore recommend its dismissal.

2. The appeal, complaint and defense of the Rev. J. C. Bose against the Board of Foreign Missions. As this paper is not an appeal from or complaint against the actions of any judicatory of the Church it evidently cannot be entertained as an appeal or complaint. We recommend its reference to the Committee on Foreign Missions for any consideration that Committee may see proper to give it.

3. An appeal of J. J. Simeon against the Synod of India. This is an appeal from the Synod's decision that approved of an election of elders and deacons as held in one of the churches under the direction of the Presbytery of Allahabad. As it is evident from the records that this case did not affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church, the decision of the Synod of India must be held to be final (Form of Gov., Chap. xi, Section 4). We therefore recommend the dismissal of the appeal.

4. Appeal of Rev. Donald Stewart, of Canada, against the Synod of Indiana. As it is evident from the records that this case involves no doctrinal or constitutional question the judgment of the Synod is final, and we recommend the dismissal of the appeal.

5. Three papers growing out of difficulties in the First Church of Boston have been carefully considered. They are as follows.:

(1) A complaint and appeal of Robert J. Todd and others against the Synod of New York;

(2) An appeal of Robert J. Todd and others against the Presbytery of Boston; and

(3) A complaint of Robert J. Todd and others against the action of the Stated Clerk of the Synod of New York.

The second of these papers, called an appeal, complains of the action of the Presbytery of Boston in declining to give to the appellants full copies of all records pertaining to the case, that had recently been decided by the Synod of New York, sitting at Ithaca, October 22, 1903, and against which decision Messrs.

Todd and others gave notice of appeal to this Assembly. As the appeal was against the action of the Synod, it is evident that the Presbytery could not be required to furnish the desired records. We therefore recommend the dismissal of this appeal.

An examination of the records of the case before the Synod of New York, at Ithaca, October 21 and 22, 1903, makes it evident to the Judicial Committee that the sole question before the Synod was, whether a certain agreement entered into by the appellants and the representatives of the Presbytery of Boston, in consequence of which agreement an appeal had been withdrawn by the said appellants, had been kept. As this is not a question affecting the doctrine or the Constitution of the Church, the decision of the Synod was final and neither appeal nor complaint can be entertained (Form of Gov., Chap. xi, Section 4). We therefore recommend that the appeal be dismissed.

With respect to the complaint against the Stated Clerk of the Synod of New York for not furnishing full records of the case to the appellants as soon as they desired to receive them, it may be said that there is no specified time within which he must comply with such a request (Book of Discipline, Sec. 29). And since the Stated Clerk furnished them about five months before the meeting of this Assembly, this must be judged to be a sufficient time.

We therefore recommend the dismissal of this complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

J. D. Moffat, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges, through its Chairman, Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. The Assembly was addressed by the Chairman, by Rev. E. C. Ray, D.D., Secretary of the Board, Rev. W. M. Hayes, D.D., and Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D. Pending a motion to adopt the first eight resolutions, the time allotted to the subject expired and it was made the second Order for Friday morning. It was also ordered that the Report be printed; that the Committee substitute the name of Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., for that of the Moderator as a member of the Board, and another name for that of Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., these two proposed members of the new Board having asked to be excused from serving.

Overtures Nos. 47 and 48, referred to this Committee, were at its request referred to the Committee on Home Missions.

Louis E. Holden, D.D., President of Wooster University, and Rev. S. B. McCormick, D.D., President of Coe College.

Overtures Nos. 28, 29, 30 and 32, referred to the Committee on Foreign Missions, were, at the request of said Committee, referred to the Committee on Church Polity.

The Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries was made the third Order for Friday morning.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Home Missions, and commemorative of the Louisiana Purchase, was held in the Central Presbyterian Church, and addresses were delivered by Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, D.D., Rev. R. F. Coyle, D.D., Rev. R. M. Craig, and Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A Resolution, to be numbered 5, was added to the Report on Marriage and Divorce, previously adopted.*

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., presented its Report. Upon the reading of the list of members, officers and missionaries of the Board who had died during the year, the Assembly was led in prayer by Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D. The Report was received, and after addresses by Mr. Robert E. Speer, Secretary of the Board, Rev. M. W. Graham, Rev. Thomas S. McWilliams, D.D., Rev. C. M. Spinning, Rev. H. C. Velte, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D., and Prof. Mee Kong Chow, was adopted. The Committee was also instructed to communicate to Mrs. Labaree an appropriate expression of the sympathies of the Assembly. The Report is as follows:

Two facts stand out conspicuously after a review of the Foreign Mission work of the Church during the past year. One is the entrance into rest of ten who deserve high honors. The Committee desire that the Assembly rise while the starred names are read, and that a special prayer be offered by Rev. Charles L. Thompson, Secretary of the Home Mission Board:

Rev. John D. Wells, D.D., of New York, for fifty years a member of the Board and for thirty years its President.

Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., for fourteen years Field Secretary of the Board.

Mrs. Kimball Mackay, after one year of service in the Laos Mission.

Miss Emma Alexander, after two years' service in the Japan Mission.

Rev. Charles W. McCleary, after eight years' service in the West Africa Mission.

Rev. Boon Boon-Itt, after ten years' service in the Siam Mission.

Mrs. S. S. Miller, after eleven years' service in the Korea Mission.

Rev. Benjamin W. Labaree, first American martyr of our Church in Persia, after eleven years' service.

Mrs. C. C. Vinton, after twelve years' service in the Korea Mission.

Mrs. W. W. Eddy, after fifty-three years' service in the Syria Mission.

Eight missionaries, whose service in seven lands cover one hundred and eight years.

The second fact is the large reinforcement of the year, the new lives consecrated to the work laid down by those who have been crowned. The recruits of the year surpass in number those of any previous year in the history of this or any Church. Eighty-two new missionaries, together with sixty-six returning, made a total of one hundred and forty-eight during the year. Some hint of the breadth of the field will be found in the simple figures. Every mission has been strengthened: Japan 4, Philippine Islands 5, Mexico 6, Syria 6, Africa 9, Persia 9, Korea 11, South and Central America 14, Siam and Laos 18, India 23, China 43. That we may feel our fellowship with these workers, many of whom are still in the first contact with heathenism, it is desired that we shall join them in a world-wide song of the ongoing army of the Lord:

> "Like a mighty army > Moves the Church of God."

Any study which can hope to give a fair view of our foreign work must fall into three sections. One phase of work is that of the administration; second, the inlook upon the home Church; third, the outlook upon the field.

1. The Administration.—The two great losses, the death of Dr. Wells and the death of Dr. Marshall, cannot be adequately estimated here. Dear to the Church for themselves and for their work, but dearer to the Lord of themselves and their work, they have entered into the untiring service and the eternal joy of the King. Dr. George Alexander has accepted the Presidency of the Board, and should be welcomed by this Assembly in that high office, to which we pray he may long be spared.

The written records of the Board have been reviewed minutely by the Chairman of this Committee as his share of the work. They are carefully and fully kept. Twenty-one formal meetings of the Board have been held, at each of which a bewildering number and variety of mission interests have been carefully considered. An experienced business man said during this week, that nowhere in the world does the whole world come under such constant review as in the meetings of our Foreign Board. We have a more extended field than any other Church in the world. No Church is preaching the Gospel in so many lands as is ours. All these nations have met week by week, even hour by hour, in the office of the Board. Some things in the record would make one's heart ache. A great deal will make one's head ache. But it is all inspiring reading.

The financial showing of the year is good, though a deficit of $40,000 is reported. The accounts have been audited and are found correct. The gifts from Church offerings direct to the Board have exceeded those of any previous year by $3000, and exceed those of last year by $16,000. The deficit is the result of extraordinary demands which are doubtless peculiar to this year. Almost $60,000 went for new missionaries. Over $116,000 were appropriated for new buildings, for the improvement in various ways of the permanent plant of the missions. It is a pleasure to report that the Presbyterian Building in New York has become a source of revenue to the Board, which received last year $15,000 beside the free use of its adequate offices. The falling off in receipts is from legacies. The Board has found it wise to count on the average of the legacies of the preceding five years in making up the budget. This year the average was lower by $45,000 than might have been hoped. Most other lines of revenue have been larger than heretofore. For this we give thanks.

The administrative cost of the Board is low. For common estimate it may be set at 4.56 per cent., but including everything that is not actual field work the cost is only 6.75 per cent. If any business man feels that this is too much, he has only to look into the details of the administration to find it lower than business enterprises can boast. We feel that a policy might well be adopted whereby the receipts from legacies should be used to carry out lines of improvement which do not affect the living work, so that living donors would feel the burden of the present work, allowing the glorified dead to do permanent and final work instead.

We notice in the record an apparent increase in the freedom given to the missions themselves in the administration of their affairs, and the spirit of coöperation rather than control, which is pleasant.

The Forward Movement deserves and herewith receives hearty endorsement. The Secretary has been sustained in his efforts by the Board and the Advisory Council of representative business men outside the Board. The movement involves no financial burden upon the Treasury. There are many delicate problems of relationship, and the whole matter of the living link between the home Church and the foreign field is receiving new attention. The idea is enlarging, and in small ways and great the foreign work is becoming vital to the Church. A full record of the work of the Forward Movement Secretary will soon be added to the literature of the Board.

2. The Inward Facing.—It is a pleasure to record that the interest in the foreign work is increasingly general. In the matter of workers, the East and the West have furnished almost equal numbers, the Western States sending 120 workers in the past five years, and the Eastern States sending 116 into the service. To be sure, twice as many men are needed if the Board's treasury could sustain them. Your Committee feels strongly that the most prominent fact of the year is that suitable workers are not offering themselves in sufficient numbers to meet the demands of the field, and that the Board is restricting its work because of lack of money. It is vastly worse to lack men than money. We are sure that the policy should be sustained by the Church, as it has not been sustained, which involves the sending out of every suitable worker who applies, without debating the state of the treasury. There must be, of course, a definite appeal to the Church to protect the work against financial embarrassment, but we may well glory in a deficit much larger than $40,000 when it means an increased force in a widened field. The Lord who hears prayer in behalf of workers, will hear prayer also in behalf of money to send and sustain them. Here the Forward Movement has been of large help. Under its plan, one of our great churches has borne the entire cost of opening a new mission of five stations in a neglected part of China. Wealthy individuals have taken the financial responsibility for whole departments of work in certain fields. The honored Vice-Moderator of this Assembly has set a good example in the splendid hospital and medical work in Seoul, Korea. Churches have undertaken to provide shares in various lines of work and are being blessed in so doing. And there has still been that steady inflow of lesser gifts, marked often by a greater self-denial and heroism than the larger ones, gifts of the rank and file of the Church which are its hope. It must not be forgotten, however, that there is much need still for general and undesignated money for work which cannot be so specified as to seem attractive to special donors. Foreign missions is larger than one man or one station or one class of work. We may not safely replace, though we may wisely supplement the thrill of its magnitude by the joy of the personal representative.

There are no words unsaid which can adequately characterize the work of the women of the Church. Through their several Boards and Societies they have sustained the work and cheered the workers. Year by year they assume new responsibilities and meet them well. The work of the young people has been in part committed to them by action of the Board, and they are developing their interests steadily. We must soon revise the bachelor Paul, who could only say, "Help those women who labored with me in the Gospel," and we shall say, "Help those women with whom we labor in the Gospel."

Yet the men, not in separate societies, but as individuals or as groups and in the regular Church life, are showing the effect of the teaching of their mothers and wives. We believe the time will come when the income of one million dollars, of which we are now proud, will seem to us, as it is, an absurdly petty gift for such a Church of men and women. Only one contributor gives more than $10,000 to the Board. There were 2668 churches which failed to contribute anything last year. The per capita gift through the congregational offerings was 34⅓ cents, and the per capita gift from all sources, excluding legacies, was 86$\frac{1}{10}$ cents. Of course that is absurd if we had the world vision, and knew the meaning of the cry that comes up from the race of sinning men, and the command that comes down from the regnant Christ. Manifestly we need to see the King in His beauty that we may behold the land that reacheth afar. We could not be petty in our warfare if we knew the greatness of the King and His Kingdom. One defect of our foreign mission teaching is that we do not make the work inspiring by our own sense of its greatness. Children can play at marbles all day. Grown men will soon tire of it. If we run our mission work on the marble basis, we shall pay for it by loss of inspiration. The home Church needs the triple vision of its own great ability and its small accomplishments, of the world that lieth in wickedness needing redemption together with the hosts already at work, and of the Lord who claims right to command and power to save. When we gain that vision, we will count our million dollars a small gift. Years ago we gave half a million. We have gradually increased the gift until we are now safely past the million. The Committee recommend that the Assembly set the mark now at $1,500,000 as the lowest amount that will be fair for the Church to give, and that the Church be called to reach it immediately.

3. The Outward Facing.—The view of the field is always inspiring, always solemnizing. We rise from the reading of the year's record with several deep impressions. Deepest of them is the impression of the variety of our mission enterprises. Here is a great host of 3000 workers, native and foreign, working out from 1600 centres, with more than 50,000 converts, with 823 schools and 27,000 scholars, with eight great mission presses sending out 112,000,000 pages of Christian literature each year, and with 112 hospitals and dispensaries, treating 360,000 patients. We gave to it, everything being counted, $1,131,000; but the native converts gave $117,000, and if equivalent values were reckoned, their gift would mean a million as well as our own. Moreover, the work is interwoven with world-movements whenever they appear. Dr. Archibald Alexander used to read his newspaper to see how the Kingdom of God was advancing. There is no paper whose news does not affect the progress of the Kingdom. If the French Government secures new concessions in Siam, our mission work is at once affected. If the German Government requires its own language to be used in its dependencies, our African Mission is involved. If lawlessness and misrule become rampant in Persia, our Church must wait with aching heart to know the welfare of its workers. We read likely of the Panama Canal, but we do not think how it will be a highway for the Gospel, and we do not see the disturbed imperiled Church in Colombia, where we, and we only, are at work. The Trans-Siberian railway is a matter of Christian interest. A revolution in a South American republic may be only a jest to us, but it may mean the checking or advancing of the mission work of a whole province; the unrest in Beirut calls an American gunboat into the harbor, but the chief interest of Christian people in Beirut is the great educational, publishing and evangelistic work of Syria. Nothing can happen in the whole world which will not concern the Kingdom of God for good or ill. All the great social forces concern our work. All the great leaders hold an attitude, favorable or adverse, to the work we are doing. Foreign Missions is statesmanship, but the State is the Kingdom of God. No Christian can afford to read his newspaper in terms of time alone; it is the essence of our faith that we learn to read the events of time in terms of eternity. The Russia-Japan War is more than strife between nations. It is the driving of the forces of the Kingdom of God toward triumph.

A second impression is of the attitude of the field force. The missionaries in every field seem straining on the leash for a wider range. Hardly a mission which has not pleaded during the year for the right to enter open doors. The list would be too long, but it would bring this Assembly to breathless silence if there could be placed before you side by side the pleas of the field and the answer of the Home Church. Our fellows in Siam see two strategic points. We regret that we cannot allow them to be occupied, for we have no men and no money. The West Japan Mission finds three new points ready to occupy—we have no men and no money. Fields in the Punjab open and our workers plead for the privilege of entering—we have no men and no money. Hainan tells eagerly of two new points—we have no men and no money. One whole island in the Japan group is offered us—we have no men and no money. The Teheran field opens in two directions—we have no men and no money. Doors are flung open in India at a dozen places—we have no men and no money. In certain high churches the Litany is sung, the minister changing his plea, the people ever responding with the same words. This is the world litany. From across the sea a clanging cry of need—now a call for men to take the work of the glorified, now a call for men to enter upon new work—and from this side one response: no men and no money. We might well change our response, saying, "Have mercy upon us miserable sinners!" It is not simply that the heathen need us, but that our brethren whom we sent there are being held back, are being overstrained by being restrained, that God is opening doors and they plead to enter them and we will not permit. We exult in eighty-two new workers, but only the marvelous power of God can make them equal the five loaves and the two small fishes in their feeding of the multitude.

A third impression is of the large plans that are being made for the future of the work. We note a new stress on the training of native workers, and we rejoice in it. From this land we need to send out only the picked, capable leaders. We are not to supply the main working force—the rank and file of the force of the Church must be secured on the field. China is to be won by the Chinese, and Africa by the Africans. We are somewhat behind several other Churches in the number of our native workers, but we shall not long be so. The venerable Dr. Ellinwood, with his ripe experience of foreign work, is crowning his service with plans and inspiration for adequate provision for this need. The Board should be commended without reserve in its large purposes in this regard. Men who are able to duplicate themselves by making it possible to train native workers, should welcome the opportunity by giving largely for the schools which are to be established and developed. In all the missions there is the feeling that as soon as possible the native Church must bear its own load. Korea is only waiting the developments of capable readers to form its own Church. The site and part of the staff for the training school near Manila are already secured. The splendid Silliman Institute at Dumaguete is already under way. The new campus of the Weihsien College is nearing completion. The Siam, the Persia, the India

Missions and others are calling for equipment better and larger than ever before to train native workers. Self-support is pressed and the converts are responding. In Africa the movement is strong. In Korea the native work supports itself almost entirely. In Mexico there is a rising spirit of benevolence. In China the self-reliant Church is developing rapidly. It is no small fact to chronicle the presence in this Assembly of an elder of one of our churches in China, the first in the history of the Assembly. How long it may be before the Lord's will is accomplished in the world-wide proclamation of the Gospel no man can know, but the day is far advanced when men of all nations speak that Gospel to their own fellows.

With these three deepest impressions are those of the several fields. We have read the Reports with quick-beating hearts. We have been touring the world in company with our brethren to see how they fare, and they have told us great things of the triumphs of the Christ.

The story of Africa brings gladness and tears. Our hearts go out to the bride of the beloved McCleary who will not come home, and to the men and women who have borne the fever and the pain of the year. We rejoice with them in the crowding of boys to the schools, in the growth of the Church, and notably in their strong protest against the proposed yielding of the work to other Churches. The attention of the Committee has been drawn to the grievous condition alleged to prevail in the Congo Free State, regarding which the Foreign Mission Committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church, the American Baptist Union and the Foreign Christian Missionary Society have memorialized the United States Congress. Although the Congo Free State is not a mission field of our Church, we feel that in a matter so serious, affecting so deeply the lives of millions of our fellow-men, it is proper for us to express our earnest hope that the government of the United States will examine thoroughly the statements of the condition contained in the memorial, and will discharge toward the people of that State whatever responsibilities rests upon a government which recognizes the State as independent and makes treaties with it.

The blood-watered soil of China is yielding rich harvests. The seven missions might be doubled effectively. The great Shanghai Press is in its new buildings and sent out seventy-six million pages of literature last year. The martyr field is better occupied than before. Fine groups of buildings stand as memorials to the martyrs. New life has come in the wake of death. Paotingfu is busy and blessed. The Southern Missions and Hainan are all overwhelmed with work—resultful, inspiring work. Into this land the Board will pour large reinforcements, and they will be welcomed. No man could read the plea for Shun Tak, as Dr.

Beattie sends it out, without wishing he could help take a whole State for Christ.

And India, with its three great Presbyterian Missions, its splendid Christian Colleges, its problems and its power. Here are one-fifth of the human race, with more gods than men, and little enough of either godliness or manliness. Nothing great has happened this year, except that constant and recurring miracle of the winning of men in increasing numbers from generations of non-Christian life into the faith of Jesus Christ. So has the work advanced that Overtures are before this Assembly calling for the organization of a distinctively Presbyterian Church, General Assembly, Synods and Presbyteries—a union of all Churches of our order in the land. To it we give a hearty Godspeed.

Japan is in the front of the world's thought, but it has been in the front of the Church's thought for years. An opportune hour passed while we were not heeding, but one has come again, and Japan is ready to receive the Gospel as never before. The Christian spirit is more manifest than ever in the knowledge of the workers. The year closed with the war shadow over it, but with Church work in active progress.

Korea is more distressed by the war. It is the grain between the upper and the nether millstones. Twenty years of Christian work have been passed, and the result is marvelous. In September the short history will be reviewed in a special celebration, and the Board will be represented if war conditions permit. The story of Seoul and Pyeng Yang and Syen Chun ought to thrill the Church.

But the outlook is already too long continued. Mexico, with the new national Church; Persia, newly consecrated by the blood of Mr. Labaree, newly deserving prayer, newly opening for the Gospel; the Philippine Islands, with their fine example of Christian comity and the rapidly expanding work; Siam and Laos, weeks apart but united in the love and interest of the Church, whose story for the year is of continued favor from rulers and people, and of richest blessing from God; South and Central America, disturbed by great national movements that have brought the Church into disfavor, but reinforced in their faith by the reinforced workers; Guatemala, revived by the coming of one of our best young home pastors and his associate; Bolivia, turning to one of our American missionaries in Chile to form for it a system of public education; Syria, land of our Lord's earthly life and of His present heart interest; troubled Syria, with its great Press, its wide tours, its splendid force—what could stir the heart if this mere chronicle stirs it not? The Assembly is called to devout gratitude for the outlook upon the field. It is great just to be alive and to have part in such a world movement.

The recommendations are not many. Few are needed. They are:

1. That the Minutes of the Board be approved, and that the following persons be reëlected as members of the Board for three years: Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Mr. Alexander Maitland, Mr. John Stewart, William E. Stiger, Esq. Also that the Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D., be elected to take the place of Rev. Dr. David Gregg, and that the Rev. Dr. Eben B. Cobb be elected to succeed the Rev. Dr. J. D. Wells, deceased.

2. That the Board be instructed to call the attention of the Church to the need for better training in the Sabbath-schools in the work of missions, and to propose such plans for that end as may seem wise, and that each school be urged to send to the work of the Foreign Board an offering secured on the Sabbath nearest to Christmas Day and on Easter Day.

3. That the Board be instructed to arrange a conference with the Chairmen of the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees, and with representatives of the Woman's Boards, on the day preceding the next General Assembly.

4. That the Forward Movement, with emphasis on the work among men, and upon the maintaining of direct connection between the Home Church and the field, be approved, and the plans for its extension under guidance of the Board and the Advisory Committee be commended.

5. That the proposal to increase the equipment for the training of native workers in the various fields be warmly seconded by the Assembly, in the belief that such workers can advance the Kingdom of God more rapidly than others can do.

6. Finally, that this Assembly reiterate the declaration of many previous Assemblies that the Presbyterian Church is a missionary society whose chief business is the propagation of the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth, and that it record anew its purpose to execute the mission speedily and completely.

It was also Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Missions be instructed to communicate to Mrs. Labaree, widow of the martyr, and to the families of those starred in the Report, an appropriate expression of the sympathies of this Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

CLELAND B. MCAFEE, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

In response to Overtures from the Presbytery of St. Paul and the Presbytery of Peoria, on the seating of Commissioners, and also on a Paper referred by the Assembly, on elections of Moderators, it is recommended that the following rules be adopted:

1. That the members of each electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat, in advance of the meeting of the Assembly, by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

2. That the Electing Sections shall meet at the places assigned them, for the purpose of selecting members of the Standing Committees, at the close of the second session of the first day, provided the Assembly adjourns at or before five o'clock; otherwise, the Assembly shall take a recess promptly at eleven o'clock of the second day, and the Electing Sections shall meet for that purpose at that time.

3. Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election shall be by ballot in the following manner:

After the nominations are made each Section shall choose a Chairman and a Secretary, and the Chairman shall appoint two Tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a ticket to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The Tellers shall collect the tickets and count them under the supervision of the Chairman. The result will be recorded by the Secretary on tickets in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

When the reports of the ballots have been issued from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote as cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator will then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one has received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result and declare him to be elected.

On Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Denver, asking the Assembly to request the American Bible Society to use the American Revision of the Holy Scriptures rather than King James' Version, it is recommended that no action be taken.

In answer to the Overture from the Presbytery of Jersey City, on the use of the American Revision of the Holy Scriptures in the public worship of our churches, it is recommended that such use of the American Revision of the Bible be authorized by the General Assembly.

Upon the request of the American Bible Society for a separate column in the Minutes of the General Assembly, in which to record gifts to the American Bible Society, it is inexpedient to recommend any action, inasmuch as the matter of statistics is now before the General Assembly in a Report by a Special Committee.

It is recommended that the Overture from the Presbytery of Geneva, on a rule for miscellaneous gifts be answered in the affirmative. The rule reads as follows: "Report in the miscellaneous columns other gifts of your congregation for religious and charitable causes, outside of your own congregation, provided the donors consent to have them thus reported by the Clerk of Session or by the pastor."

On the Overture from the Synod of Atlantic, against the color line in Presbyteries, it is recommended that no action be taken.

The following resolution was referred to the Committee:

WHEREAS, There appears to be a widespread neglect among the churches in the matter of Catechism instruction in the Sabbath-school; therefore be it

Resolved, That this 116th General Assembly, in session at Buffalo, May, 1904, does hereby emphasize and reaffirm all deliverances of former Assemblies touching the duty of teaching the Shorter Catechism in the Sabbath-school. We strongly recommend its adoption, and that Presbyteries and Sessions use every means within their power to fully carry out the spirit and purpose of this Resolution.

As to Overture No. 64, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, with reference to the seating of Commissioners and the distribution of mail at meetings of the General Assembly, inasmuch as the first part of this Overture has already been acted upon, and as the second part is impracticable, no action be taken.

That the Overture from the Synod of Pennsylvania, requesting the General Assembly to take such action as may seem best to introduce some system of apportionment that will meet the growing needs of the Board of Ministerial Relief, be referred to the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

That the Overture from the Synod of Pennsylvania, requesting the General Assembly to erect a new Synod, to be called the Synod of West Virginia, with boundaries coterminous with the boundaries of the State of West Virginia, and that the General Assembly erect a third Presbytery in the State of West Virginia, to be called the Presbytery of Wheeling, and that in order to the erection of this said Presbytery of Wheeling the General Assembly divide the Presbytery of Washington in the Synod of Pennsylvania on the State line, be referred to the Standing Committee on Polity.

That the Protest of Mr. Woodside against the action of the Presbytery of Allahabad, in the matter of union with the Presbyterian Church of India; the Memorial from the Rev. J. M. Green, D.D., requesting the erection of a Presbytery in Cuba, to be known as the Presbytery of Havana, and the Overture from the Presbytery of South Florida, requesting the organization of a Synod in Florida, be all referred to the Standing Committee on Church Polity.

That the Overture from the Presbytery of Steuben, with reference to the preparation of lessons for candidates for church membership who are between childhood and youth especially, be referred to the Board of Publication.

The Overtures from the Presbytery of Omaha, on the Plan of Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and that of the Presbytery of Yadkin, on the same subject, are reported to the General Assembly without action by the Committee.

That the Letter from the Non-Partisan National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, with reference to the subject of temperance literature, be referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance.

That the Complaint of the Rev. J. C. Bose, a member of the Presbytery of Lahore, against the Board of Foreign Missions, be referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

That the Overture from the Presbytery of Ningpo, as to the reorganization of the Board of Home Missions, be referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

That the Overture from the Presbytery of Ningpo, with reference to the preparation of literature for Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools, be referred to the Standing Committee on Young People's Societies.

That the Letter from the General Assembly of the Trans-Danubian Reformed Church of Hungary, be referred to the Standing Committee on Correspondence.

That the Overture from the Presbytery of Fort Dodge, on Mission Bands and Literature, be referred to the Standing Committee on Young People's Societies.

That on the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Iowa, Monmouth, Waterloo, Springfield, Atlantic, Cape Fear, Catawba and Philadelphia North, bearing upon the matter of union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in view of the fact that a Special Committee will report to the General Assembly, no action be taken.

That the communication from the Society of Friends in America, on the subject of coöperation in the cause of temperance, be referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance.

Respectfully submitted,

R. F. Coyle, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was made the first Order for Friday afternoon, and the Report of the Special Committee on Religious Conditions in State Universities the second Order.

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, through its Chairman, Rev. C. H. French, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Hon. Robert N. Willson, President of the Board, Rev. Joshua L. Russell, D.D., Rev. George T. Dillard, D.D., Mr. William H. Parsons, Rev. Vaclav Vanek, and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

This dual Board conducts its work within three different departments: the department of Sabbath-school and Mission Work, the Editorial department and the Business department.

I. Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.—The one fact written large on every feature of the work of the Sabbath-school and Missionary department of this Board is expansion. The field has widened and whitened for the harvest, the opportunities for active service have multiplied, the demands have increased, the needs grow more imperative, the results are larger, and the obligations to meet these needs and seize these opportunities increase commensurately.

The briefest review of the past year's work presents abundant reasons for thanksgiving and hope. In thirty-seven States and Territories of our own Republic, and in Cuba, the work of the Board has been prosecuted with vigor and zeal. Within the bounds of twenty-seven Synods and 108 Presbyteries, 143 missionaries and colporteurs, commissioned by the Board, have been pushing forward into the field, planting new Sabbath-schools, finding and holding strategic points for the establishment of Presbyterian Churches. They have actually organized 797 and reorganized 355 Sabbath-schools, a total of 1252, with a membership of 40,283 teachers and scholars. Of these schools, or schools previously organized, 106 have grown during the year into Presbyterian churches, or twice as many as in any previous year. What actualities and possibilities are here indicated in 1252 Sabbath-schools and 106 churches! Small beginnings perhaps, but prophetic of great results, fountain-heads of power and grace, "streams to make glad the city of God."

For the use and comfort of these churches and Sabbath-schools seventy buildings were erected at a cost of $83,958.

Besides these direct results, there is a great unknown and unmeasured quantity that must be recognized, but cannot be actually estimated, the result of colportage and evangelistic work, the house-to-house visitation and the circulation of Bibles, tracts, Christian literature: "Leaves of the tree of life for human healing, and seed-corn cast in the furrows to spring forth in future harvests."

A widening field makes imperative an expanding work. The cry comes from many quarters for more workers. The vast area of Texas, into which thousands of men with their households are pouring down from the North and Central West, is without one Sabbath-school missionary of our Board. New Mexico, knocking at the door of the Nation for Statehood, stands waiting at the door of this Board for missionaries for her neglected children. Half a score of the potential empires of life and wealth in the West and South beg this Board to send into their waiting fields "sowers of the Word," into their moral wildernesses shepherds to gather their scattered lambs into the Christian folds.

We shall not as a Church be true to our heritage, our opportunities, our citizenship and, above all, to our Lord and Master, who "set a little child in the midst of His disciples," and made it the central personality of Christian life and work, if we do not rise to the demands and privileges that confront us in the 12,000,000 children, for whose sake this work was conceived and organized. By all the interests of time and eternity compassed in the salvation of children, we call upon our pastors and churches to support this work with a more profound sense of its growing importance and with a more generous provision for its needs.

Educational Work.—We recognize the importance of the educational work of this department, and heartily commend it to our pastors, churches and Sabbath-schools. The pressure of the demand for more teachers and better teachers is never relaxed. The effort of the Board to provide better facilities for the training of teachers helps to solve both sides of this question. Thorough instruction will not only make better teachers, it will induce many to enter the Sabbath-school as teachers who now stand aloof through conscious lack of thorough preparation.

We desire also to emphasize the value of the Home Department, in that it keeps in touch with our Sabbath-schools thousands who will otherwise never develop or lose altogether their interest in this cause.

We recognize the power and need of catechetical instruction. Surely the day has not come in the Presbyterian Church when we may neglect for our children that most excellent summary of truths taught in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments and found in our Catechisms, which made our fathers strong in faith and character, and which have helped to nurture our own spiritual lives.

Most thankfully do we acknowledge the good hand of our God in the work of the Board during the past year. We desire to commend the fidelity and efficient management of the Superintendent of this Department, the Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., and of the whole Board who by their counsels, their support and their wise management have made possible the enlarged and successful work of the past year.

II. Editorial Department.—Your Committee would most heartily commend the efficiency of this Department of our Board, and would especially emphasize our satisfaction with the periodicals and Lesson Helps published.

We would also suggest that all our churches be urged to use the Helps and papers published by our Board, rather than those of other denominations or those offered to us as interdenominational or undenominational.

III. Business Department.—Your Committee has examined the books of the three Departments within which the work of the Board is carried on, and also the volume of Minutes of the Board submitted to us. The Manager of the Business Department, Mr. John H. Scribner, appeared before us and made full and satisfactory explanation of all the work of this Department. We believe that it is worthy of the fullest confidence and approval of the Assembly.

IV. Overtures.—Three Overtures have come into the hands of the Committee requesting Assembly action with regard to publications for the use of our foreign-speaking population. Two of these Overtures are from the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, asking that the Board be instructed to comply with the recommendation of the Assembly of 1902 with regard to such publications. The third Overture is from the Presbytery of Buffalo, asking for publications in the Magyar language. The Board has had this matter under serious and lengthy consideration, and earnestly desires to supply this need, which exists not only in the localities named, but also in many others. Such publications, however, if issued from its own press, would entail a large additional expense, which the present and prospective income of the Board would not meet without the abandoning of work to which the Board is already pledged. The American Tract Society is prepared to furnish such literature as is needed. It is desirable, also, to secure as complete coöperation as is possible with other evangelical Churches in this most important work.

The Committee therefore suggests the action indicated in recommendations 5 and 6.

We would offer the following recommendations:

1. That the following-named ministers and elders, whose terms of office are about to expire, be reëlected as their own successors: Ministers—Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Robert M. Patterson, D.D., LL.D., Louis F. Benson, D.D., Alexander Henry; Elders—Robert H. Hinckley, John H. Watt, William H. Scott, Franklin L. Sheppard.

2. The Board reports the death during the year of three of its members, namely, Rev. Thomas A. Hoyt, D.D., Rev. William L. Ledwith, D.D., and Mr. Samuel C. Perkins, and the election as their successors respectively of Rev. Charles R. Erdman, John B. Laird, D.D., and Mr. Bernard Gilpin. We recommend that the Assembly confirm these appointments.

3. That the request of the board for additional time in which to consider the subject of a change of the name of the Board be granted.

4. That the Minutes of the Board and its several Committees be approved.

5. We recommend that the pastors under the care of our Assembly be urged to press the needs of this work more earnestly upon the churches, and that the churches be urged to give more money to sustain this vital and far-reaching work, and that an unremitting effort be made to secure from churches and Sabbath-schools $200,000 during the year for the work of this Board.

6. We recommend, as in past years, the observance of the second Sabbath of June as Children's Day, and the last Sabbath of September as Rally Day, the contributions secured through the Rally Day offerings to be devoted, at the discretion of the Board, to its work among our foreign-speaking populations. We urge our churches and Sabbath-schools so to coöperate in observing this series of days as to make them most helpful for the purposes for which they are set apart.

7. That the Overtures of the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny upon this subject are approved as to their spirit and purpose, and the Board is instructed, as soon as is practicable, to issue periodicals and other literature, either directly or in coöperation with other religious bodies. And that the Board be instructed specifically to endeavor to perfect arrangements with other religious bodies for the publication, through the agency of the American Tract Society, if possible, of evangelical religious literature in the foreign languages which are most used in our country, the understanding being that this course will secure the results at present desired.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

C. H. French, Chairman.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly expresses its deep sympathy with the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., LL.D., the venerable Secretary of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, in his present illness, and while making grateful mention of his long and valuable services in the Church of which he has been a faithful and honored servant, assures him of its affectionate remembrance, and prays that his life may yet be long spared and that his last years may be filled with the richest blessings of joy and peace.

Rev. Charles S. Richardson, D.D., Chairman of the Committee on Correspondence, introduced as delegates from the Canadian Presbyterian Church, Rev. Donald H. Fletcher, D.D., Moderator of the Assembly, and Rev. Robert H. Warden, D.D., who addressed the Assembly, bearing fraternal greetings from the Church which they represented. The Moderator made a fitting response.

The Special Committee on Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, through its Chairman, Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and made the second Order for to-morrow.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges was recommitted.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions was held in the First Church, and addresses were delivered by Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Dr. Mary Fulton, Rev. D. S. Hibbard, W. J. Wanless, M.D., and Rev. F. G. Coan.

THURSDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

DALLAS, TEX., May 25, 1904.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. of A.:

WARREN E. SETTLE, Moderator.
J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

Rev. Charles S. Richardson, D.D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on Correspondence, introduced the following delegates from corresponding bodies, who addressed the Assembly: From the Reformed Church in the United States, Rev. J. C. Musser, D.D.; from the Free Evangelical Churches in France, Rev. S. Monnier, and from the Evangelical Church of Macedonia and Bulgaria, Rev. S. M. Furnajieff.

The Moderator responded to their salutations.

A delegation of six Magyar Presbyterian ministers in the United States who are connected with our Church was also presented to the Assembly by the Chairman of the Committee on a Ministry for Foreign Immigrants.

The Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, through its Chairman, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. The Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., a member of the Special Committee, was given the privilege of the floor. Resolutions were adopted as follows:

Resolved, That the recommendations of the Committee submitted under the first head of the Report, "Comity and Coöperation," being Resolutions numbered 1–6 inclusive, on pages 44 and 45, be and are hereby adopted.

Resolved, That the recommendations of the Committee submitted under the second head of the Report, "Federation of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches," be and are hereby adopted, and that the action of the joint Conference held in New York, December 9 and 10, 1903, embodied in Resolutions 1–3 inclusive, on the same page, be and is hereby adopted, and the participation of the Committee therein approved as representing the will of this Assembly.

Resolved, That the recommendations of the Committee submitted under the third head of the Report, "Federation of Protestant Churches," be and are hereby adopted.

Resolved, That the portion of the Report submitted under the fourth head, "Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod," and including the proposed Plan of Union, Basis of Union and Concurrent Declarations, be referred back to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, and that said Committee shall report any action taken by it to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That the remaining portion of the Report, submitted under the fifth head, "Reunion with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church," be taken up at this time for consideration, and that it be the special order for the whole of this day and till disposed of; that the Committee have one-half hour for explanation, and that the question of the adoption of this portion of the Report shall then be thrown open to general debate. During such debate the time of each speaker shall be limited to fifteen minutes, and the floor shall be awarded to speakers on the affirmative and the negative sides alternately, if any such shall desire to be heard; but two speakers on the affirmative and two on the negative side shall be permitted to take one-half hour each, if they so desire; and the Chairman shall be allowed one-half hour to close the debate.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to acknowledge the telegram of the Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and to state that this Assembly is engaged in the consideration of the joint Report on Union.

Pending the consideration of the motion to adopt the joint Report on Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 26, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly's action on Union and Reunion was in form the adoption of the following paper by a two-thirds vote.

Resolved, 1. That the foregoing Report and Supplemental Report of the Committee on Presbyterian Fraternity and Union, appointed by the General Assembly in 1903, be received and spread upon the Minutes of this General Assembly, and that the included Joint Report on Union be adopted, and the Basis of Union be and is recommended to the Presbyteries of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for their approval or disapproval.

Resolved, 2. That the Moderator and the Stated Clerk are instructed to submit the Basis of Union contained in said Report to the Presbyteries of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in the usual Constitutional manner, upon receiving official notification of the adoption of the said Joint Report on Union by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

WARREN E. SETTLE, Moderator.
J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

The consideration of the Plan of Union was continued until the hour of adjournment, and made the Order for 10 o'clock tomorrow, and the hour of 11.30 o'clock was fixed for taking the vote.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 27, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented a Supplemental Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Ministerial Relief desires to submit the following Supplemental Report:

1. Upon Overture No. 27, from the Presbytery of Detroit, suggesting a plan of Insurance for Ministers, your Committee recommend that the paper be referred to the Special Committee on Sustentation.

2. Upon Overtures Nos. 25 and 26, from the Synods of California and Indian Territory, requesting (1) "That the name of the Board of Ministerial Relief be changed and be known as the Pension Bureau of the Presbyterian Church," and (2) upon Overtures Nos. 25, 26 and 70, from the Synods of California, Indian Territory and Pennsylvania, "that the General Assembly place an assessment on the churches pro rata, according to membership, sufficient to meet properly the needs of the Board," your Committee would recommend:

(1) That upon the change of name no action be taken, as a similar suggestion has been answered in the negative by a recent Assembly.

(2) That, in the matter of provision to meet the needs of the Board an answer be given in the affirmative, and that an immediate apportionment be made among the churches sufficient to meet the needs of the Board, said apportionment to be determined by the Committee on Sustentation.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. R. ERDMAN, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges, through its Chairman, Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies unanimously report as follows:

The work of the Board during the last ecclesiastical year has gone on with few incidents of especial importance. Its sole President from its organization, Dr. Herrick Johnson, resigned his office, and on June 16, 1903, his resignation was accepted, and he was made President-Emeritus for life. Two lay members of the Board died during the year, the Hon. Dan P. Eells and Mr. Henry J. Willing. Both were active workers and liberal givers.

The receipts of the Board from all sources were $186,262.46, an increase over the previous year of $325.80. Two hundred and forty-four more churches and fifteen more church organizations contributed in 1903–4 than in 1902–3. Nearly all individual gifts and many church offerings being designated for particular institutions, the Board could appropriate only $27,000 for current expenses. This is only one-half the sum urgently needed. The churches gave only $62,551.25 of the $150,000 recommended by the last Assembly. Despite this fact, the Board prosecuted its work so effectively that nine colleges have paid off debts, increased their endowments, or otherwise prospered financially, while two have been reinstated. In all twenty-six institutions have been aided. In net property value there has been a gain of $361,177; in students of all grades 280. Twenty-seven institutions are now under the care of the Board, having property worth $1,841,382; teaching 3904 pupils, of whom 2165 are confessed Christians. One hundred and eighty-six credible conversions have taken place among the pupils during the year.

All this means good work so far as it goes. But it is sadly inadequate to the needs of our great Church and its constituency. This was so deeply felt by the Assembly of 1903 that it created the College Endowment Commission, through which an educational fund of not less than $12,000,000 should be raised within three years. This strong Commission has been at work during the year; its Report is in your hands, and we assume that every Commissioner has read it. It has been referred by the Assembly to this Committee. Without rehearsing the story of the Commission's work, we turn at once to its conclusions, in which the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies fully concur.

These conclusions are that the Board should be reorganized, and the Commission discharged. This reorganization to be under the following plan, which your Standing Committee recommends to the Assembly:

1. The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies to be hereafter named The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

2. Said Board to be enlarged in sphere of operation and executive force so as the more widely to represent the Church, and so as the more directly and efficiently to promote college interests and objects, especially in the matter of endowment, which was manifestly approved by the General Assembly at its meeting at Los Angeles.

3. The headquarters of the Board to be in New York City.

4. The Board to consist of twenty-four members, one-half of whom shall be, and two-thirds of whom may be, laymen. They shall be divided into three classes, one class to be elected each year by the General Assembly.

5. The Board shall elect its own executive officers, and fix their terms and salaries. In view, however, of the long and faithful service of the present Secretary of "The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies," he shall be continued as office Secretary at the pleasure of "The College Board."

6. The Board shall give immediate and special attention to the endowment of our Presbyterian Colleges which come into relations with the Board. It may aid academies in its discretion in the matter of current support, but shall not seek endowment for such institutions.

7. It shall be the settled policy of the Board to limit the number of colleges upon any field to the needs of that field; and in carrying out this policy colleges may be consolidated when deemed advisable by the Board. Colleges coming into existence without the approval of the Board, and colleges which refuse to consolidate when so directed by the Board, may be denied aid from the Board.

8. The Board shall be authorized to call an Annual Conference of Presbyterian Colleges to advise the Board and coöperate in carrying out the ends proposed. This Conference may nominate two members of the Board, to be elected each year by the Assembly.

We recommend that the Constitution of the reorganized Board shall be as follows, subject, however, to amendment by the Board as necessity may require or experience suggest:

1. The name of this Board shall be The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the general work shall be such as is indicated by its title. It may aid academies in its discretion in the matter of current support, but shall not seek endowment for such institutions.

2. The Board shall consist of twenty-four members, one-half of whom shall be, and two-thirds of whom may be, laymen. They shall be divided into three classes, one class to be elected each year by the General Assembly. The Board shall have power to fill vacancies.

3. The officers of the Board shall be a President, Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer.

4. The headquarters of the Board shall be at New York, and the Executive Committee of the Board shall be residents in New York or the immediate vicinity.

5. The province of the Board shall be:

(a) To awaken interest, diffuse information, and stimulate prayer in behalf of the cause with which it is charged.

(b) To coöperate with colleges which come into relations with the Board in securing endowment for them.

(c) To coöperate with local agencies in determining sites for new colleges.

(d) To decide what colleges shall be given annual help for current expenses; and for this purpose,

(e) To secure an annual offering from the churches.

6. The Board shall call an Annual Conference of Presbyterian Colleges to advise the Board and to coöperate in securing the desired results. This Conference may nominate two members of the Board to be elected each year by the Assembly.

7. The funds received by the Board shall be devoted either to the endowment or to the current expenses of colleges, and shall be secured,

(a) By special applications for endowment, under the approval and general directions of the Board;

(b) By annual offerings from the churches.

8. (a) Every college hereafter established, as a condition of receiving aid, shall be organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or by perpetual charter provision shall have two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church.

(b) In the case of colleges already established, and not included under the above provisions, appropriations for endowment shall be so made as to revert to the Board whenever these colleges shall pass from Presbyterian control.

(c) In all other respects the disbursement of funds by the Board shall be wholly discretionary with the Board, both as to amount and direction, subject always to the control of the General Assembly.

(d) The Board shall endeavor to have all gifts for Christian education within our Church either passed though its treasury or reported to it, that its Reports may show from year to year what sums, and from what sources, are given to this cause.

9. It shall be the policy of the Board to limit the number of colleges in any region, so as to secure strong institutions rather than many weak ones, and in carrying out this policy colleges may be consolidated when deemed advisable by the Board. Colleges coming into existence without the approval of the Board, and colleges which refuse to consolidate when so directed by the Board, may be denied aid from the Board.

10. We recommend that the membership of the Board be as follows:

Class of 1906: Ministers—Robert Mackenzie, Cleland B. McAfee; Laymen—Edwin J. Gillies, Alexander McDonald, John H. Finley, George Griffiths, Vance McCormick.

Class of 1907: Ministers—John F. Carson, Charles Wood, Teunis S. Hamlin; Laymen—M. Linn Bruce, Elisha H. Perkins, James B. Dill, H. J. Heinz, Edward O. Emerson, Edward O. Harkness.

And in order that certain of these may serve this very important cause, we recommend that Standing Rule 16 (Minutes of 1903, page 349*l*) be suspended for one year in favor of this Board, in so far as regards the words "or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church."

And we further recommend that in view of the unique relations of the Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., to the organization and conduct of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, and his service therein as President for over twenty years, he be made a special member and President-Emeritus for life of The College Board of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America.

11. We further recommend that the first meeting of this Board be held in the Board room of the Board of Foreign Missions in the Presbyterian Building, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City, on Tuesday, the 31st of May, 1904, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and that the members who may be present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at that meeting.

12. And we further recommend that the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies and The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America be directed to take the legal steps necessary for the transfer of the former Board, and its property, cash and securities.

13. And we further recommend that the thanks of the Assembly be extended to the laymen who have generously contributed to the expenses of the College Endowment Commission, and to all other persons who have aided in the work.

14. And we further recommend that the hearty thanks of the Assembly be and they hereby are extended to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, and to all who have served thereon during the past twenty-one years.

15. In order that the work of this College Board may be promptly effective, and that institutions now in emergency may be timely aided, we recommend as follows:

(1) The churches are earnestly exhorted to bring their gifts for the coming year up to the sum named as a minimum by the last Assembly, viz., $150,000.

(2) Pastors and churches are urged to observe "Education Day" on the Sunday nearest the "Day of Prayer for Colleges," when suitable sermons should be preached, and the intimate relation of education to the evangelization of our land and of the world plainly set forth.

(3) The work of this Board being for the young only, our Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies should feel an especial interest in it, and should be carefully instructed by parents, pastors, Sunday-school superintendents and teachers and other leaders in the vast importance and far-reaching effect of this Board's work.

We have found the Records of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies correctly kept, and recommend their approval by the Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Committee,

TEUNIS S. HAMLIN, Chairman.

The Committee also presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That "The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" be, and it hereby is, instructed to confer with "The Board of Education," to ascertain whether a union of these Boards cannot be effected with mutual advantage, and to the advancement of the great cause of Christian education within our Church; and report hereon shall be made to the next General Assembly.

The Special Committee on Correspondence with the Alliance of the Reformed Churches presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

For some years a Committee of the Alliance on "Church Work on the European Continent" has been addressing letters to the various General Assemblies of the Reformed Faith, pressing home the needs of the native Churches of Europe and also the needs of English-speaking tourists and residents in European lands. The letter of ast year to our General Assembly at Los Angeles contains the following:

"Your attention is once more drawn to the needs of the Reformed Churches on the Continent of Europe, particularly in France, Germany, Italy, Hungary and Russia. Earnest prayer is requested on their behalf, and contributions for the betterment of the congregations connected with them are recommended whenever the requests for aid are properly authorized. Attention is drawn to the need of providing during the summer months stated supplies for preaching stations to be established where American tourists most congregate. There is an increasing demand for temporary religious services at various points on the Continent."

In response to this the General Assembly created your Committee for the purpose of investigation. We have not been asked to provide ways and means for establishing such services, but to present to this Assembly a complete Report of the English-speaking work at present conducted on the Continent. It is impossible to measure the strength, value and needs of English-speaking churches in Europe unless we consider

I.—The General Condition of Protestantism in Europe.

Turning our attention first to France, we find a religious ferment in progress which we have reason to believe will tend to the furtherance of the Gospel. The recent abolition of public instruction by the religious orders of the Roman Catholic Church is, of course, not so much a thrust at religion as at Rome. France is throwing off the yoke of the Vatican, and Protestantism may well rejoice. Evangelical Protestantism is awake in France. There is a quiet but constant recruiting from the ranks of the Romish priesthood. To provide shelter for them a society has been formed in Paris and as a result there are a number of former priests working as colporteurs, evangelists and pastors in the Reformed, Lutheran and Methodist Churches. Entire rural districts are appealing for Protestant services. The Roman Catholic Church, with her hold fast slipping from France, is pouring upon Evangelical Protestantism a torrent of abuse and slander. Tracts and periodicals are flooding the country with misrepresentations of the Protestant movement. The recent political upheavals have created new and critical conditions, but conditions which, if faced by strong and consecrated leaders, will mean a glorious future for evangelical Christianity.

In Switzerland, notwithstanding a certain spiritual decadence, there is a leaven of spiritual life working which is taking the form of aggressive evangelistic effort.

In Austria many thousands of Roman Catholics have left their Church and connected themselves with the Lutheran Church. This movement originated in Southern Austria, which hitherto has been solidly Romanist. Probably twelve thousand Austrians have become Protestants.

In Italy the opportunity is great. The Papal Church, the enemy of the government, is discredited by the mass of the people who call the Church "the Pope's shop." The Italians are weary of a Church that fleeces and does not feed. Multitudes are turning to Protestantism. Petitions are pouring in to the Waldensian Church of Italy begging for Protestant preachers. Single-handed the Waldensian Church is struggling to provide evangelical teaching to thirty-two millions of partially emancipated people. But the force is inadequate. The Waldensian College and Theological Seminary are in desperate need of funds. If the Waldensian Church is adequately supported the evangelization of Italy is only a question of a generation. The Methodists are bringing their evangelistic batteries under the very walls of the Vatican, and have received personal commendation for their zeal from the king himself.

Rationalism in Germany has suffered a reaction, and a return of sympathy with evangelical doctrine is apparent in the universities. The warfare against rationalism, Romanism and the weakening vices of decadent social systems is on. There is every reason for urging just now the American Church to lend her sympathy and aid.

II.—Why We Should Take Up This Work.

1. For the Purpose of Stimulating the Protestant Movement.

We are out of the loins of Europe and are under filial obligations to the mother of us all. Besides, as Europe goes the world goes. Therefore we of the Western Hemisphere should take active measures to coöperate with our English and Scotch brethren in strengthening the Protestant progress of Europe.

Moreover, the Presbyterian Church is indigenous to the soil of the Old World. No other family of Churches has such a natural-born right in Europe as we. Neither Episcopalians nor Methodists nor Baptists nor Congregationalists have the same inheritance. Native pastors welcome Presbyterians above all denominations. If the Reformed Churches of Europe are to be awakened to their present great opportunity, no agency is better qualified to stimulate and encourage than the Presbyterian Churches of Great Britain and America.

2. To Establish Churches for English-speaking Residents.

In Berlin there are upwards of three thousand American residents and one church. In Paris there are upwards of twenty thousand Americans and two churches, one Episcopalian, the other Presbyterian. More and more are the Continental cities filling up with English-speaking colonies. Students of art, music, science, medicine, law and theology are crossing the water in ever-increasing throngs. Representatives of British and American diplomatic and consular service, as well as representatives of American business houses, are members of these English-speaking colonies. For these, permanent chapels open all the year must be established. What centres of influence such chapels are in the midst of the worldliness, the immorality, the lax standards of living to which our English-speaking foreign residents are subjected! If we wish to preserve the thousands of foreign residents from the contaminations of European life we must follow them with religious services that will appeal to them.

3. To Provide Religious Services for Students.

In such cities as Paris, Berlin, Leipsic, Dresden, Heidelberg, etc., there are thousands of young Americans in universities, art schools and ateliers for whom practically nothing is being done. Hardly an English-speaking church in Europe can afford to do any institutional work for students. At best it is a struggle for subsistence. We spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to save the students in American cities from the temptations surrounding them. How much more should we be interested in them when they go abroad and find themselves relieved of all the restraints thrown about them at home.

4. To Establish Preaching Stations for Tourists.

Very little is being done to care for the vast throngs of English-speaking tourists who profane the Lord's Day while in Europe by all manner of promiscuous sight-seeing, using when they return the pretext that there were no English-speaking services. This is not strictly true, for there are a number of such places if only tourists would take the trouble to look them up. But no serious attention has as yet been paid to this matter by American Churches. There are a number of places that should be manned this summer, where live, earnest men should each Sunday gather in the tourists. Shall it be done? The burden rests upon the great Presbyterian Church.

Let us now attend to

III.—What Has Already Been Accomplished.

The Episcopal Church of England has about four hundred places of worship on the Continent, many of them open all the year. She has two societies—the first called "The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts," under the direction of the High Church party, having nearly two hundred places of worship; the other society is "The Colonial and Continental Church Society," having two hundred and twenty-three places of worship. The rivalry between these two societies is intense. Many Presbyterian tourists attend Episcopal services in Europe because Presbyterian services are not provided.

But the Scottish Churches have been at work among the English-speaking people on the Continent for many years. The Established Church and the United Free Church of Scotland have both been active. The latter has two Continental Presbyteries, the Presbytery of Italy and the Presbytery of Spain and Portugal. They have forty-five preaching stations and spend seventy-five thousand dollars a year upon the work. Twenty-two of these churches are open all the year. Some are chapels open only in the summer months, some only in the winter months. If you wish to spend the whole year at Amsterdam, Brussels, Dresden or Naples, you may worship in a Scotch Presbyterian Church. If you wish to spend the winter in Budapest, Nice, San Remo, Montreux or Cannes, you may take advantage of the liberality of the Scotch Church. If you wish to spend the summer in Lucerne, Interlaken, St. Moritzbad or Wiesbaden, it is the Scotch Church to which you turn. It is not with the idea of duplicating the work of the Scotch Churches, but taking up the work in places they have been unable to supply that your interest is enlisted. Why should we not leave the work to our Scotch brethren? Let one of them in an address before the Alliance answer us in his own way:

"You as Churches owe as much to Geneva, to France, to Holland and to Germany as we do. You have Huguenot Churches and descendants of the Huguenots among you still. You have important German Reformed and Dutch Reformed Churches. Some of the best elements in your great Republic are drawn from emigrants from the Continent of Europe. Should you not pay these debts in a Church capacity, not leaving it merely to the good-will of isolated individuals?

"In some important respects, you have facilities for doing this which we in Britain have not. You have in your American and Canadian Churches not a few eminent ministers, gifted licentiates and students of divinity, able to preach with power and acceptance in English, but whose mother tongue is French, or German, or Dutch. These men would be invaluable for work on the European Continent. Could not your Churches, as such, do something to send them to it, and to encourage and support them in it? They would do effective ministerial and pastoral service in an English-speaking congregation on the Continent; and at the same time, being fully in touch with American Evangelical and Presbyterian life and work, they would form the best possible medium for influencing and helping the native Protestant Churches of the countries to which they are bound by ancestral ties and by a common language."

Your Committee cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of providing American services in places thronged by Americans. Why should thousands of our people depend for their English services entirely upon the few scattering Scotch Presbyterian Churches throughout Europe, or be compelled to attend the English Episcopal service? Rather than do this, your American, wedded to his own ways, will find a ready pretext to go nowhere at all. There are three American churches in Europe—the church at Paris, in the Rue de Berri, Dr. Thurber, pastor; at Berlin, Dr. Dickey, pastor; and at Leipzic, Mr. Maxwell, pastor They are union churches, and it is better that they should be, and not under direct Presbyterian control. There is also a promising work carried on for art students in the Latin Quarter of Paris. This enterprise was begun a few years ago by Dr. Charles Wood, of Philadelphia, and is now conducted by the Rev. S. W. Beach, who holds services once each Sabbath in a large atelier with an attendance of about four hundred students.

IV.—Your Committee's Work

has consisted of conferences and correspondence with the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., American Secretary of the Alliance, and with the Chairman of its Committee on Work on the European Continent, the Rev. James I. Good, D.D.; the collection of information, and correspondence with persons in Europe interested in establishing summer preaching services for tourists. Your Committee has opened the way for such a service at Frankfort-on-the-Main, which, under care and direction, may be developed into a work for all the year. The large English and American colony is in great need of help, there being no English service except High Church Episcopalian, supplied at present by an elderly clergyman unable to fulfill all the duties required. A very urgent request has been made by an American who pledges in behalf of the colony every possible help. A King's Daughters' Circle has been in existence there for eight years. The majority of Americans there are Presbyterians (several families from Philadelphia and P ttsburgh); also Methodists, Baptists, and even Quakers are represented. Frankfort is the centre of a touring section that makes it strategic. "We are all," writes our correspondent, "most enthusiastic at the prospect of having our own Church here, even for the summer, and only hope some way may open to allow it to become permanent." Your Committee believes this Frankfort work to be a valuable nucleus for a larger work in the future. Frankfort is surrounded by a number of watering places which would be made auxiliary to the work, such as Ems, Wiesbaden, Mias, etc. The work during the winter might be supplied by theological students studying in nearby universities, and in the summer by visiting ministers. It is the centre from which five or six universities could be reached for work among English and American students. The expense involved in opening this work would be comparatively slight. The cost of a supply only would have to be met. A small part of this could be raised by Sabbath offerings, but the main portion must be supplemented by the American Churches.

The Rev. Dr. Good, representing the Reformed Church, will probably open preaching stations in behalf of his denomination at The Hague and Zurich this summer. A Committee has also been appointed by the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly. It is planned that each of these denominations shall open one English-speaking Church as an experiment. Several other Reformed communions are considering the matter and will probably act favorably.

In conclusion your Committee would recommend:

1. The continuance of this work, either under the direction of a Special Committee of the General Assembly or one of the Missionary Boards of the Church.

2. That an effort be made to organize a preaching station for this summer at Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany, if the way be clear.

3. That those to whom this work is entrusted be instructed to make diligent inquiries as to the needs of Evangelical Protestantism, to learn the attitude of Reformed and Lutheran pastors to the proposed work, and to present a Report, gleaned, if possible, from actual experience upon the field, to the next General Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

The Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was made the first Order for this afternoon.

The Committee on Mileage presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage respectfully presents the following Report:

They have carefully examined and audited the accounts of each Commissioner (except those from the Presbytery of Bellefontaine, which has not contributed to the Mileage Fund), and the same have been paid by the Stated Clerk.

The number of Commissioners on the Roll is 675. The whole number of Presbyteries represented is 237; Presbyteries not represented, 5. Presbyteries exempt from payment of the apportionment for Mileage: Foreign Missions, Indian and Freedmen, and in addition advisory members representing Missions, making a total of thirty-five. The Freedmen and Indian Presbyteries, however, do contribute to the Fund.

The Presbytery of Bellefontaine has not contributed to the Mileage Fund.

The Presbyteries of Bellefontaine and Clarion have not contributed to the Entertainment Fund, and the Presbytery of Huntingdon has contributed in part.

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments,	Mileage Fund	$30,488 04
" "	Entertainment Fund	14,968 78
" "	Contingent Fund	15,738 94

DISBURSEMENTS.

Mileage Bills	$27,305 64
Balance on hand:
Mileage Fund	3,182 40
Entertainment Fund	14,968 78
Contingent Fund	15,738 94
		61,195 76

The Committee repeats the recommendations of the Committee of the last Assembly, as follows;

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all Presbyteries to contribute in full to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

2. That the apportionment for next year be six cents for each communicant, distributed as follows: To the Mileage Fund, three cents; to the Entertainment Fund, one and one-half cents; to the Contingent Fund, one and one-half cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer of the General Assembly, be authorized, at his discretion, to pay Commissioners such further sums as may be considered justly due to them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges or other necessary expenses in returning home.

4. That the General Assembly extend its thanks to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates.

Respectfully submitted,

A Resolution relating to Overtures from Presbyteries and Synods was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Report on Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was taken up, being Part 5 of the Report of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union. Resolutions were moved and seconded setting forth the matters to be voted upon by the Assembly with reference to the Plan of Union. After discussion, the hour fixed for the vote having arrived, the Resolutions were adopted, as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Joint Report on Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be and hereby is adopted.

Resolved, 2. That the following Basis of Union be sent down to the Presbyteries, which shall be required to meet on or before April 30, 1905, to express their approval or disapproval of the same by a direct answer in the affirmative or negative to this question:

Do you approve of the reunion and union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on the following basis: The Union shall be effected on the doctrinal basis of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as revised in 1903, and of its other doctrinal and ecclesiastical Standards; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

Each Presbytery shall, before the 10th day of May, 1905, forward to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly a statement of its vote on the said Basis of Union.

Resolved, 3. That the Report of the vote of the Presbyteries shall be submitted by the Stated Clerk to the General Assembly meeting in 1905, and if said Assembly shall find and declare that the foregoing Basis of Union has been approved by two-thirds of the Presbyteries of this Church, then the necessary steps shall be taken, if the way be clear, to complete the union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly, in connection with this whole subject of union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, places on record its judgment, that the revision of the Confession of Faith effected in 1903 has not impaired the integrity of the system of doctrine contained in the Confession and taught in Holy Scripture, but was designed to remove misapprehensions as to the proper interpretation thereof.

Resolved, 5. That in approving the Overture looking to a change in the Form of Government concerning the territorial bounds of Presbyteries and Synods, this Assembly affirms its complete freedom from prejudice against any race and from any desire or purpose to bring about a separation from our Church, or from representation in the General Assembly, of any class or race of Presbyterians; but, on the other hand, our purpose is to bring together in one Church members of all races and all classes.

The Report of the Special Committee on Coöperation and Union, except the portion recommitted, was adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1903, and the action of that Assembly reads:

"In reply to Overtures Nos. 89–93, 136, 101–105 and 157, relating to closer coöperation or union with sister denominations, said Overtures coming from the Presbyteries of Dayton, Denver, Indianapolis, Mattoon, Southern Dakota, Bismarck, Fargo, Minnewaukon, Mouse River, Pembina and Redstone, and from the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, we recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, The Presbyterian Church holds Christian fellowship with all who confess and obey Jesus Christ as their divine Saviour and Lord, and acknowledges the duty of all Churches that recognize Him as the only Head of the Church Universal to work together in harmony and love for the extension of His kingdom and the good of the world; and

"WHEREAS, This Assembly earnestly desires to commend and promote this Christian coöperation, and also practically to advance the cause of Church Union by confederation, and, where possible, by consolidation among the Churches of the Reformed Faith, which are most nearly akin in doctrine and organization; therefore be it

"Resolved, 1. That a Committee of seven, four ministers and three elders, be appointed by the Moderator to consider the whole subject of coöperation, confederation and consolidation with other Churches.

"Resolved, 2. That Overtures Nos. 89–93, 101–105, 136 and 157 be placed in the hands of this Committee; and that they be instructed to enter into correspondence with any Churches of the Reformed family with whom, in the judgment of the Committee, such correspondence would be likely to promote closer relations; and also to confer with the Congregational Church in regard to the practical improvement of the plan of comity referred to in some of the Overtures.

"Resolved, 3. That this Committee shall report to the next Assembly such plans and measures as seem to them wise, proper and profitable for the advancement of fraternal relations, for the increase of harmonious work, and, if God shall open the way, and incline the hearts of the Churches thereto, for the reunion of those who hold the same faith and order in the service of Christ. Adopted." (Minutes, 1903, pp. 90, 91.)

The Committee has held three general meetings: at St. Louis, Mo., September 30-October 2, 1903; New York, N. Y., December 9-10, 1903; and St. Louis, Mo., February 17-19, 1903. The absent members were as follows: At the first meeting in St. Louis, Drs. Page, Davies and Smith, with Mr. Perkins; at the meeting in New York, N. Y., Drs. Page and Davies, with Elder Wells; and at the second St. Louis meeting, Drs. Davies and Smith, with Elders Perkins and Wells.

At these meetings conferences were had with the Board of Home Missions on the subject of Comity, with the Committees on Union of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and with the Executive Board of the National Federation of Churches and Christian Workers. At the meeting in New York City two ministers of the Committee on Union of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church were present in an informal capacity. These conferences were, without exception, characterized by a remarkable spirit of fraternity, and were to a large degree devotional in character. We place on record our conviction as a Committee that these gatherings have given expression in an unusual degree to the spiritual unity which binds together the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the U. S. A., and which has made itself manifest now for many years by means of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System." This and other movements promise well for the realization in due time of a visible unity through the formation of a National Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. That auspicious result can be secured, however, only through prayer, the cultivation of Christian charity and the blessing of God.

The results of the conferences and deliberations of the Committee are submitted under five different heads:

I. Comity and Coöperation.

Among the papers submitted to the Committee by the General Assembly were Overtures from the Presbyteries of Pembina, Mouse River, Minnewaukon, Fargo and Bismarck on the subject of Comity with the Congregational and other Churches. The Committee consulted on this subject with the officers of the Board of Home Missions, with a Secretary of the Home Missionary Society of the Congregational Churches, and with some of the workers in the Home Mission field. Owing to the fact that the Overtures above named and the action of the Assembly thereupon made reference to comity and coöperation with Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, your Committee gave consideration also to the action of the General Assembly of 1897, establishing a Plan of Coöperation with the Churches composing the Western or American Section of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System." These Churches are:

The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.
The Reformed Church in America.
The Reformed Church in the U. S.
The United Presbyterian Church.
The Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod.
The Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.
The Welsh Presbyterian Church.
The Presbyterian Church in Mexico.

PLAN OF COÖPERATION.

The Boards and Committees of Home Missions, Church Erection, Freedmen's Missions and Sabbath-school Work of the American Churches in "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System," both in the United States and Canada, recognizing with gratitude to God their substantial unity both in faith and polity, do agree upon the following principles of action for their guidance in their work, viz.:

1. That in the work of all these Boards as related to each other the authority of the Church courts is to be recognized as final.

2. That there shall be no interference with Churches, Missions or Sabbath-schools at present existing, unless by voluntary agreement between the denominations directly concerned.

3. That ordinarily no Churches, Missions or Sabbath-schools shall be established in small communities where the field is fully occupied by other Presbyterian or Reformed Churches.

4. That the Supreme Judicatories of the several Churches recommend their Church members, when moving into new communities in which there is no congregation of their own Church, to unite, for the time being, with some other Presbyterian or Reformed Church, if such there be.

5. That if cases of difference of opinion arise in connection with the work, they shall be referred for consideration and amicable adjustment to the missionary authorities of the denominations directly concerned.

It is eminently proper and desirable that these Churches, similar in faith and polity, should coöperate together in every field of labor, not only within the United States but also on the American continent. This they have done for years without any difference entitled to be called friction. When, however, the subject of coöperation is considered in its relation to Churches that are dissimilar to our own either in faith or in government, or in both, the situation which arises is different from that which exists in the case of cognate Presbyterian Churches. Our Church for many years during the nineteenth century coöperated in the Home Mission field with the Congregational Churches through a "Plan of Union." That Plan, adopted in 1801, was definitely abandoned by the denominations interested therein, prior to the Reunion of the Old and New School Presbyterian Churches in 1869. Since that year, and from time to time, Rules of Comity have been adopted by the Boards and Committees on Home Missions of the respective denominations which were in no sense a continuance of the "Plan of Union." These rules were approved by the General Assembly of our own Church and the agencies of the Congregational Churches, simply as expedients made necessary by circumstances. The Rules of Comity at present in force were the result of a Conference authorized by the General Assembly of 1892 between our Board of Home Missions, the Board of Domestic Missions of the Reformed Church in America and the American Home Missionary Society of the Congregational Churches. The agreement between these denominational agencies is as follows:

RULES OF COMITY.

"Each of the Boards or Societies represented has on record rules for the government of its agents in their interdenominational relations on missionary fields.

"The Presbyterian Home Missionary is required by the printed terms of his commission to 'avoid interfering improperly with existing organizations, or multiplying churches from mere sectarian considerations.'

"The Congregationalists, in their printed statement of principles furnished to their Superintendents and Missionaries, say: 'It is the invariable rule of the Society not to plant a Congregational Church or Mission on ground which, in the proper sense of the word, is cared for by other evangelical denominations.'

"The rule adopted by the Board of the Reformed Church is 'not to gather a congregation in any community when the field is fully occupied by other evangelical Churches.'

"The Committee endorse these rules as wise, and sufficient to cover the whole ground, and needing only to be applied as circumstances arise.

"The Committee, therefore, recommend,

"1. That these rules be emphasized as of universal application.

"2. Exceptional cases which may arise shall be referred to Committees of Conference on the field, consisting of the Chairmen of the Local Home Missionary Committees of the denominations concerned, together with the Synodical Missionaries and the Home Missionary Superintendents.

"3. In case of disagreement on the field, the question in dispute shall be referred to the Secretaries of the Home Missionary Societies in New York.

"In regard to the feasibility of uniting small churches, it is recommended that each Board or Society inquire of its field agents what churches, if any, belonging to the different denominations can be served by one pastor or supply, the missionary grant in that case to be equitably divided between the several Boards, and the churches to retain their denominational relations; also that inquiry be made what church or churches should be discontinued, and its members be advised to unite with some other evangelical Church."

In connection with this whole subject it is necessary to emphasize the double need under which every Christian denomination rests of withholding from hasty entrance upon fields seemingly occupied in an adequate manner by another denomination; and also of declining to allow undue claims of monopoly or prior right made by another denomination or its agents. A Christian denomination is under obligation to provide for the spiritual welfare of its own members wherever they may be providentially located, and this obligation is enforced by that right fundamental to the liberties of the Protestant Churches, the right of private judgment. To deny or to minimize the fostering care of a denomination to its scattered members in spiritually destitute regions, on the plea that another denomination can do the work as well or better, is, in the opinion of the Committee, an effort to shift the burden of proper responsibility upon other shoulders, and may in some cases come to look like an attempt to compel on the part of weak churches a change of religious allegiance. The first course named, if taken, may be significant of denominational indolence or weakness, the second may become a serious encroachment on religious liberty. The American Presbyterian Church has always been able to care for its own people—has cared for them persistently—and by its traditions, its history, its intimate relations to and its vital connections with every step in the development of the United States of America, has an enduring spiritual responsibility for every part of the nation's territory from Maine to Alaska, and from Canada to Mexico and Porto Rico. There is no part of our country that is not a portion of its spiritual heritage, and its absence from or weakness in any region means serious spiritual loss to individuals, to communities and to the nation. Our Church, while invariably cherishing a spirit of true fraternity toward all other Christian denominations, is under supreme obligations to prove faithful to duty in the Home Mission field.

It is clear to your Committee that any rules of Comity proposed for adoption must be framed with a view to the principles and facts just stated. It is also clear that the work of the self-supporting Synods, the constitutional rights of Presbyteries and Synods, the Assembly's power of superintendence of the concerns of the whole Church, must be kept in view, as well as the work, rights and rules of the Assembly's Board of Home Missions. In the complex system of management of mission work, which by the provisions of the Constitution and the force of providential circumstances exists to-day in our Church, there is only one way to secure efficient and satisfactory results, coextensive with the nationwide field of work. While there must be due recognition of the constitutional authority of all Church courts, and of the requirements of Christian charity, there must also be continued recognition of the supreme authority of the General Assembly, and of the existence and authority of the Board of Home Missions as an agency of the General Assembly.

Your Committee, after due consideration of all the interests involved, recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly recognizes that God in His Providence has laid upon the Presbyterian Church the obligation of carrying forward the work of evangelization in every portion of the territory of the United States of America.

Resolved, 2. That the work of evangelization under the direction of our Church judicatories, and especially of the General Assembly, should be conducted always with due regard to the obligations resting upon the Church, the constitutional rights of Church judicatories, the unity of the Church and of the work, and the requirements of Christian courtesy toward the agencies of other Christian denominations.

Resolved, 3. That the Plan of Coöperation with the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in America adopted by the Assembly of 1897, be and is hereby reaffirmed as the rule of conduct for all the field work of the Boards of Home Missions, the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and the Board of Missions for Freedmen, in their relations to the work of similar Boards or Committees of the above-named Churches.

Resolved, 4. That the Board of Home Missions be authorized to arrange for Comity upon its field of work with any agency or organization authoritatively representing any one of the Protestant and non-Presbyterian denominations, subject, however, to the provisions of the Constitution of this Church as to the powers of Presbyteries, Synods and the General Assembly; and it is recommended that all Presbyteries and Synods continue cordially to coöperate with each other and with the Board of Home Missions, that the work may be efficiently and successfully conducted.

Resolved, 5. That present Comity relations with the Congregational Churches can be improved only by the cultivation of greater Christian charity, larger forbearance and mutual good understanding on the part of the workers on the field in both denominations; that there are no rules, heretofore laid down or to be laid down, that can, in all cases, guide in that courteous Christian conduct which is becoming in brethren and disciples of our common Lord.

Resolved, 6. That the specific local application and working out of the rules of Comity heretofore laid down or approved by the General Assembly be referred, with large discretionary powers, to the Home Mission Committees of the Presbyteries and the Synodical Superintendents of Home Missions, and where necessary to the Synodical Home Missionary Committees in the self-supporting Synods.

II. Federation of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches.

At a meeting, in New York City, on December 9, 1903, the subject of a Federation of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches was considered. There were present representatives of the Reformed Church in America, the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, two members of the Committee on Union of the United Presbyterian Church in an unofficial capacity, and a majority of the members of your Committee. The Rev. Dr. J. P. Searle, of the Reformed Church in America, was chosen as Chairman of the Conference on the nomination of the Chairman of your Committee, and the Rev. Dr. J. D. Steele, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, was chosen Secretary. A free and friendly interchange of views was had on the subject of the closer relations of the Churches. The Conference continued over into the next day, and the result of the deliberations is contained in the following paper, which is submitted to the Assembly for consideration, and if deemed proper, for adoption·

Resolved, 1. That this joint conference on the closer coöperation of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, composed of Committees representing the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Reformed Church in America, and corresponding members from the United Presbyterian Church, after full, frank and prayerful conference, is unanimously agreed:

1. That some form of union closer and more tangible than any at present existing between the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian order, is desirable for the furtherance of the work entrusted to them by the Head of the Church.

2. That such closer union is possible:

(a) Through the complete consolidation of some of these Churches, and (b) through such federation as shall preserve the identity of the various bodies entering into it, and shall also provide for effective administrative coöperation.

Resolved, 2. That the several Committees constituting this joint conference, not fully instructed upon this point, be requested to report to the bodies appointing them the above conclusions, and to seek further instructions as to which of the lines indicated shall be pursued in the future conferences of these Committees.

Resolved, 3. That this joint conference extends the invitation already given by the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, to the various Churches of the Presbyterian family, to appoint Committees to confer with us upon this great question of closer coöperation or unity.

In view of the action of the Conference it is recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly approves in general of the idea of a Federation or Federal Union between such Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the U. S. A. as do not favor at present an organic union of these Churches, and hereby empowers its Committee on Church Coöperation and Union to proceed with negotiations having in view such Federation or Federal Union, report to be made to the next Assembly.

III. Federation of Protestant Churches.

A communication was received by your Committee from the Executive Board of the National Federation of Churches and Christian Workers, in relation to a Federation of Protestant Churches in the United States. The National Federation is a voluntary organization composed of representatives from several of the Protestant Churches, and having in view chiefly the coöperation of Churches and Christian workers in the cities, towns and villages for moral and spiritual ends. The President of the Federation is Mr. J. Cleveland Cady, of New York, a ruling elder of our Church. The Federation has had opportunity of ascertaining the large extent to which coöperative work is practicable in many spheres of Christian activity, and much good has been accomplished through its influence and work. Deeply impressed with the spiritual unity of the several Protestant Evangelical denominations, as a result of contact with them, the Executive Board of the National Federation has considered favorably a proposition which was submitted to it for the initiation of a movement having in view a permanent Federation or Alliance of these Churches throughout our country. The suggestion made is that a Conference of representatives accredited by the governing bodies or other authorized agencies of the Protestant denominations, meet in New York City, in November, 1905, to organize, if deemed advisable, such a Federation, and to consider other related and important matters. It is understood that the organization, if formed, shall have power only to stimulate and advise the constituent bodies represented, in matters of common concern and of importance to the welfare of the entire kingdom of God. It is recommended that the number of representatives to be chosen from each denomination to the proposed Conference be from five to fifty persons. The number of representatives requested from the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. is fifty. Your Committee believe this proposal to be of great importance and vitally related to the spiritual welfare of the Church and Nation. The following resolutions, therefore, are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly is in hearty sympathy with all movements which seek to bring into closer relations the several Protestant Churches of the U. S. A., believing that they are largely one in spirit, devoted to one Lord, and hold in common essential evangelical doctrine.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union is hereby authorized, if the way be clear, to appoint fifty representatives to a national conference of the Protestant denominations, to meet in New York City, in November, 1905, to organize, if deemed advisable, a National Federation, and to consider such other matters as may properly come before the Conference. It is understood that the organization, if formed, shall have power only to advise the constituent bodies represented, and that its basis shall be one of coöperative work and effort, not one of creedal statement or governmental form.

Resolved, 3. That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union shall report any action taken by it to the next General Assembly.

IV. Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod.

V. Reunion with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The proposed reunion and union of our Church with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church requires that certain of the more prominent facts and circumstances connected with the negotiations be set forth clearly. They are as follows:

1. Meetings.—As already stated, two joint meetings were held at St. Louis, Mo., by the Committees on Union of the two Churches, in October, 1903, and February, 1904. In addition a joint meeting of Subcommittees was held at Cincinnati, O., in December, 1903. Every session of these meetings was opened and closed with earnest and continued prayer for the guidance and blessing of the Spirit of God. This devotional spirit joined with an unfailing courtesy gave to the conferences a delightful and gracious tone, which contributed largely to the harmonious results secured. Frank, free and full discussion of all the interests involved was had, and without a note of impatience or a hint of controversy. Both Committees in all their work consulted and wrought as brethren of one household of faith.

2. Revision.—It was made clear to the brethren of the Committee on Fraternity and Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, at the outset of our conferences, that the Revision of the Confession of Faith recently undertaken by our Church was not occasioned by any pressure from without, but was purely a movement within our own denomination. It was also stated that the purposes of the movement were two: to disavow inferences drawn from certain statements in the Confession of Faith, and also to set forth clearly some aspects of revealed truth which appeared to call for more explicit statement. In addition it was declared that the effect of the adoption of the Declaratory Statement as a part of the Constitution, was simply to give legal standing to interpretations of Chapter iii and of Chapter x, Section 3, which previously had seemed to have merely the force of private opinion, and that the revision of the Confession of Faith had effected no material change in the doctrinal attitude of our Church.

3. Educational Qualifications.—The matter of the qualifications of candidates for the Gospel ministry and of Christian ministers was dealt with frankly during the deliberations. One of the causes which led to the organization of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was the lack of educational qualifications on the part of certain men ordained to the ministry by the Cumberland Presbytery about 1803. At that time there were in our Church no theological seminaries, Princeton, the first in order of time of these valuable institutions, being established in 1811. Theological instruction was given prior to that year either privately or in colleges. For instance, in the College of New Jersey, now known as Princeton University, candidates for the ministry were taught theology by church authority from 1768 to 1811, by the President of the Institution. Since 1812, both Churches have endeavored according to ability to provide institutions for the education of candidates, and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been and is in hearty and growing sympathy with high standards of qualifications for the ministry of the Gospel. Its Committee offered no objection to the provisions as to ministerial qualifications contained in our Form of Government, and gave expression to the opinion that Constitutional Rule No. 1 of our Law, providing for the licensing of local evangelists, would meet the needs of their Presbyteries as to a certain class of workers in the field.

4. Boards and Committees.—The general administrative work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is entrusted to three Boards and four Permanent Committees. The Board of Missions and Church Erection is entrusted with both the Home and Foreign Mission work. In 1902, Foreign Missions were maintained in China (4 missionaries), in Japan (21 missionaries) and in Mexico (4 missionaries). The number of Home Missionaries is 25, and in addition 6 workers in the Chinese Mission at San Francisco, Cal. The Contributions to Home Missions were $91,088, to Foreign Missions $17,306, to Church Erection $6,347. a total of $114,741. The Board of Publication has charge of the Sabbath-school periodicals and other literature of the Church. It is in a prosperous condition, its gross business in 1902 amounting to $112,210, upon which there was a net profit of $11,235. This Board manages for the Church the Publication House at Nashville, Tenn., upon which there is an indebtedness of $60,000, the assets of the House being $197,993. The Board of Ministerial Relief has upon its roll forty-seven ministers and forty-three widows of ministers, and its receipts for the year were $10,637. The Endowment Fund amounts to $25,437. The Permanent Committees are the Educational Society, which has charge of the educational work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and received in 1902, $12,134 for distribution between five colleges and one theological seminary. The Permanent Committee on Sunday-schools has charge of Sunday-school mission work, and also of the preparation of Sunday-school literature. Its receipts during the year 1902 were $3588. The Permanent Committee on Temperance is engaged in the prosecution of the work indicated by its title and its expenses are met by voluntary contributions. The Permanent Committee on Christian Endeavor has oversight over Young People's work, and the Endeavor Societies raised for missions during the year 1902, $5,139.53.

5. Financial Obligations.—The question of the increased financial obligations likely to come upon certain of the Boards was also referred to, more especially as to the Boards of Relief and Home Missions. For the satisfaction of the Assembly in this particular, it is proper to state that the sum contributed during the year ending December 31, 1902, for the relief of ministers in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church amounted to about $66 per capita. To provide for those in that Church who are now entitled to relief, should the union be accomplished, would require, if the allowances were increased to our standard, an annual sum of about $15,000 in addition to the present resources of our Board of Relief. The Board of Home Missions could promptly expend anywhere from $50,000 to $75,000 additional to the contributions from the field. The sums required for other Boards and agencies would be conditioned by the needs of their fields, but would not be burdensome to the united Church.

6. Church Statistics.—The Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been from the beginning of its history an evangelistic Church, and is still such in a marked degree by force of circumstances. The Minutes of its General Assembly for 1903 show that it had in the previous year 2960 churches; that 1470 of these had preaching only one Sunday a month; that those with pastors and pastors-elect numbered 934; those supplied regularly by evangelists and missionaries 1431, and those without regular ministers 595. The total number of ordained ministers was 1616. In this connection attention is drawn to the fact that in many of our own Presbyteries in the West and Southwest, a large number of our own churches are served by stated supplies, home missionaries and pastors-at-large.

The following comparative exhibit of communicants by Synods within common territory, both for the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and our own Church, is instructive:

I. Alabama	7,855
II. Arkansas	11,075
III. Illinois	15,672	73,633
IV. Indiana	5,911	44,243
V. Indianola	3,271	*5,859
VI. Iowa	1,099	44,879
VII. Kansas	2,697	29,964
VIII. Kentucky	16,468	8,258
IX. Mississippi	5,963
X. Missouri	28,342	23,809
XI. Ohio	2,503	103,983
XII. Oregon	1,655	†17,862
XIII. Pacific	2,287	‡25,929
XIV. Pennsylvania	7,480	228,284
XV. Tennessee	41,923	7,232
XVI. Texas	30,908	3,379

* Synod of Indian Territory. † Synod of Oregon and Washington.
‡ Synod of California.

It is evident that the Church occupies a field largely located in the Mississippi Valley, and that union would make our Church strong and potential in the Middle South and Southwest, and also give to it a national character commensurate with its name, its history and its responsibilities. But union would also make necessary strenuous work in evangelization, and a considerable increase in Home Missionary contributions, if the work is to be effectively done. The field is white to the harvest, but the laborers are few.

7. Race Presbyteries.—The question of the relation to the united Church of the colored population is one involving grave issues. While this subject has been referred to another Special Committee of the Assembly, the Committee on the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, it is proper to state that this Committee was in consultation with said Committee through its Chairman, the Rev. S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D. A full exhibit of the matters involved and action to be recommended will be made by Dr. Niccolls' Committee. It is desired, however, by your Committee on Union to place on record its judgment that the time has come to consider soberly and reasonably the question of the propriety of the organization of more than one Presbytery upon the same ground, and solely in relation to the deep spiritual needs of the nations and races whom God in His Providence has called into the unity of the American nation. These races and nationalities are not few in number, and it is probable that their spiritual welfare can be greatly advanced by the extension to Presbytery, and possibly to Synod, of the rule as to organization which has already been applied for more than a generation to congregations. For many years our Church has recognized the value for these peoples of separate church organizations. We have not only congregations of the African, but also of the Mongolian and Indian races, and in addition churches called by the names of the German, Welsh, Portuguese, Spanish, Italian, Hungarian and Bohemian nations. We have also had for about forty years a Presbytery composed of Indian congregations, and at present existing within the bounds of four Synods. All this has been done solely out of a sincere desire to promote the spiritual welfare of these peoples. What is proposed in Recommendation No. 1 is, that where any race or nationality is present in any locality or region in sufficient numbers to make it advantageous to its spiritual welfare and development to have Presbyteries or Synods as well as congregations organized upon race or national lines, then the same shall be done, provided it is desired by the parties directly interested, and is deemed advisable by the superior ecclesiastical body having jurisdiction. This recommendation, it is fully understood by both Committees, applies equally to the white, negro, Mongolian and Indian races, and to immigrants from the different European nations. The proposal is in the form given it, not an attack upon any one race, but an effort to secure for all races and nationalities larger liberty of specific action for their own spiritual development within the Church at large.

No effort was made by the Cumberland Presbyterian Committee to secure any change as to the Church relations of the colored ministers and congregations now in connection with this General Assembly. It was understood that these relations were matters that belonged to our Church alone.

Cordial testimony is borne to the kindly sentiments of the brethren of the other Committee toward the colored people. While since 1869 there has been a separate Church, known as the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, having about 300 ministers, 500 congregations and 35,000 communicants, yet it is aided by the older Church in a fraternal way, and a Committee from the Assembly of the Colored Church appears annually upon the platform of the other Assembly. Further, it is a pertinent fact that in the Chicago Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church a colored congregation and pastor are enrolled.

The Committee in all its negotiations stood firm upon the Scriptural principles of the real unity of the household of faith and the equality of all its members. It was also clearly understood by both Committees that these principles were to control the Church in the future as well as in the past, and that as a result, if Presbyteries were organized on race or national lines, they would be represented, equally with all other Presbyteries, in the General Assembly. This equal representation of all Presbyteries in the Supreme Court will emphasize and preserve the unity of the Church, while allowing, so long as needful, in exceptional cases, separate congregations, Presbyteries and Synods.

8. Doctrinal Agreement.—Matters of vital importance to the proposed Union are found in Concurrent Declaration No. 1. This Declaration is not a part of the Basis of Union. It gives expression to the earnest and urgent feeling of the Committee of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, first, as to the systems of doctrine of the two Churches, and second, as to the liberty of belief within the lines of the Reformed Faith which they regard as assured to them by the Declaratory Statement appended to our Confession. A very considerable period of time was spent upon this Concurrent Declaration. The members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Committee declared that their Church held to the Reformed Faith, that they applied for admission and had been admitted as Presbyterians to the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," and that they believed that they were sufficiently in accord with us to enter into negotiations for union. The language used in the first paragraph of Concurrent Declaration No. 1, declaring that "such agreement now exists between the systems of doctrine contained in the Confession of Faith of the two Churches as to warrant this union—a union honoring alike to both," was primarily the language of that Committee. It is to be interpreted in the light of the fact that preceding it the statement is found that the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is to adopt the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. Whatever the differences between the Churches have been, and there have been decided differences, these brethren must be regarded as giving expression to the sincere conviction that such a doctrinal agreement now exists between the Churches as to warrant their adopting our Confession as interpreted by the Declaratory Statement. Your Committee likewise appreciated the power of this presentation made by the brethren of the other Committee, and while the language of Declaration No. 1 was not satisfactory to them or to us, and effort was made to secure a different phraseology, it was felt by all that some cordial acknowledgment of a sufficient doctrinal agreement to warrant union, should union be deemed advisable, was due to a Church which it is proposed by both Committees should yield its name, adopt our Standards as an entirety, and find complete union with us.

With reference to the declaration as to liberty of belief which is contained in the second paragraph of Concurrent Declaration No. 1, it was understood that no more liberty of belief was expected by the Cumberland brethren, than is now accorded under the Revised Confession to our own ministers and elders.

Reference is made at the close of Concurrent Declaration No. 1 to the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith adopted in 1902, by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., "for the better understanding of our doctrinal beliefs." The brethren of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church understood clearly that the Brief Statement was not a part of the Constitution but simply a doctrinal deliverance, that it had force as interpreting the Reformed Faith only so long as it should be acceptable to the Church, and that it could be altered or rescinded by any General Assembly. Reference to it is made solely in order to give light as to the doctrinal attitude of both Churches. The Cumberland Presbyterian Committee declared the Brief Statement to be doctrinally an admirable document, entirely acceptable to them.

9. The Plan a Unit.—Recommendation No. 2 contains at its close the following statement: "This entire plan of union shall be operative when said Basis of Union, Concurrent Declarations and Recommendation No. 1 shall have been adopted in their entirety and where necessary by Presbyterial action." These words state definitely the fact that it was the desire of the Committee of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to make the proposed union of the Churches dependent upon the adoption of every part of the Plan of Union, especially Concurrent Declaration No. 1 and Recommendation No. 1, and that therefore the Plan should be acted upon as a unit in both Assemblies. If this General Assembly and the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly cannot see their way clear to acknowledge a sufficient agreement in doctrine between the two Churches to warrant the Union, and if this Assembly and Church feel unable to provide in a Constitutional manner for the existence of more than one Presbytery on the same ground, then it is respectfully submitted that the proper course to pursue would be to recommit the Plan of Union with a view to further and modified action.

10. Powers of the Committee.—The Committee in presenting the Plan of Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church respectfully states that it has not regarded itself as possessing the right to reject any authoritative proposal for union submitted for its consideration. It is held that the Committee simply has power to deal with the details of plans to carry forward negotiations so far as deemed wise, and to report the results for action to the General Assembly. It is for this General Assembly to say, not for its Committee, whether proposals for union from other Presbyterian denominations shall be accepted, rejected, modified or referred back for further consideration.

The Report which is now submitted represents not the individual opinions of the members of this or of the other Committee, but the results of much thought and labor, performed by the members of both Committees, under the influence of an earnest desire to bring together long-separated brethren.

JOINT REPORT ON UNION.

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Committee on Fraternity and Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, after a free and full interchange of views, with continued supplications for Divine guidance, earnestly recommend to their respective General Assemblies for their consideration, and, if they deem proper, for their adoption, the accompanying papers, viz.:

I. Plan of Reunion and Union of the two Churches.

II. Concurrent Declarations to be adopted by the respective General Assemblies, meeting in 1904.

III. Recommendations.

I. PLAN OF REUNION AND UNION OF THE TWO CHURCHES.

We believe that the union of Christian Churches of substantially similar faith and polity would be to the glory of God, the good of mankind, and the strengthening of Christian testimony at home and abroad.

We believe that the manifest providential developments and leadings in the two Churches since their separation, together with present conditions of agreement and fellowship, have been and are such as to justify their reunion.

Therefore we cordially recommend to our respective General Assemblies, that the reunion of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be accomplished as soon as the necessary steps can be taken, upon the basis hereinafter set forth.

1. The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, whose General Assembly met in the Immanuel Church, Los Angeles, California, May 21, 1903, and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, whose General Assembly met in the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tennessee, May 21, 1903, shall be united as one Church, under the name and style of THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, possessing all the legal and corporate rights and powers which the separate Churches now possess.

2. The union shall be effected on the doctrinal basis of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as revised in 1903, and of its other doctrinal and ecclesiastical Standards; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

3. Each of the Assemblies shall submit the foregoing Basis of Union to its Presbyteries, which shall be required to meet on or before April 30, 1905, to express their approval or disapproval of the same by a categorical answer to this question:

Do you approve of the reunion and union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on the following basis: The Union shall be effected on the doctrinal basis of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as revised in 1903, and of its other doctrinal and ecclesiastical Standards; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

Each Presbytery shall, before the 10th day of May, 1905, forward to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with which it is connected a statement of its vote on the said Basis of Union.

4. The report of the vote of the Presbyteries shall be submitted by the respective Stated Clerks to the General Assemblies meeting in 1905, and if the General Assemblies shall then find and declare that the foregoing Basis of Union has been approved by the constitutional majority of the Presbyteries connected with each branch of the Church, then the same shall be of binding force, and both Assemblies shall take action accordingly.

II. CONCURRENT DECLARATIONS.

As there are matters pertaining to the interests of the Church which will manifestly require adjustment when the reunion shall have been accomplished, and concerning which it is highly desirable that there shall be a previous good understanding, the two Assemblies agree to adopt the following Concurrent Declarations, as in their judgment proper and equitable arrangements and agreements:

1. In adopting the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as revised in 1903, as a Basis of Union, it is mutually recognized that such agreement now exists between the systems of doctrine contained in the Confessions of Faith of the two Churches as to warrant this union—a union honoring alike to both. Mutual acknowledgment also is made of the teaching and defense of essential evangelical doctrine held in common by these Churches, and of the divine favor and blessing that have made this common faith and service effectual.

It is also recognized that liberty of belief exists by virtue of the provisions of the Declaratory Statement, which is part of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and which states that "the ordination vow of ministers, ruling elders and deacons, as set forth in the Form of Government, requires the reception and adoption of the Confession of Faith only as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures." This liberty is specifically secured by the Declaratory Statement, as to Chapter III and Chapter X Section 3 of the Confession of Faith. It is recognized, also, that the doctrinal deliverance contained in the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith, adopted in 1902 by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, "for a better understanding of our doctrinal beliefs," reveals a doctrinal agreement favorable to reunion.

2. All the ministers and churches included in the two denominations shall be admitted to the same standing in the united Church which they may have held in their respective connections up to the consummation of the reunion.

3. The boundaries of the several Presbyteries and Synods shall be adjusted by the General Assembly of the United Church.

4. The official records of the two Churches during the period of separation shall be preserved and held as making up the history of the one Church.

5. As soon as practicable after the union shall have been effected the General Assembly shall reconstruct and consolidate the several permanent Committees and Boards which now belong to the two Assemblies, so as to represent with impartiality the views and wishes of the two bodies constituting the reunited Church.

6. The institutions of learning, together with the endowment and other property, real and personal, owned by them, which are now under the control of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, shall remain in charge of and be controlled by the Boards of Trustees, or other managers respectively, now in charge of such institutions, endowment and property, or by their successors similarly appointed or elected; and no greater control of such institutions, their property or affairs, shall be exercised by the General Assembly, or other ecclesiastical court or body, of the reunited Church, than is now exercised by the General Assembly, or other ecclesiastical court or body, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Provided, that the governing Board of any of said institutions of learning shall be at liberty to enter into such special arrangement or agreement with the ecclesiastical body controlling it as may enable said institution to preserve its integrity and maintain its present policy. And also provided, that nothing in this declaration shall affect the relationship or control of any of the institutions of learning now connected with the General Assembly, or other ecclesiastical court or body, of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

7. The corporate rights now held by the two General Assemblies and by their Boards and Committees shall be consolidated and applied for their several objects as defined and permitted by law.

8. It should be regarded as the duty of all our judicatories, ministers and people to study the things which make for peace, to guard against all needless and offensive references to the causes which have divided us, and to avoid the revival of past issues.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS.

1. It is recommended that such a change be made in the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as will allow additional or separate Presbyteries and Synods to be organized in exceptional cases, wholly or in part, within the territorial bounds of existing Presbyteries or Synods respectively, for a particular race or nationality, if desired by such race or nationality.

2. The foregoing Basis of Union and eight Concurrent Declarations shall be submitted to the respective General Assemblies of 1904, and the above recommendation, numbered 1, shall be submitted to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, meeting in 1904; and this entire Plan of Union shall be operative when said Basis of Union, Concurrent Declarations and Recommendation numbered 1 shall have been adopted in their entirety, and where necessary by Presbyterial action.

3. That the blessing of the great Head of the Church may rest upon the results of our efforts for Reunion and Union, it is earnestly recommended to the congregations throughout both branches of the Church that they observe Sabbath, September 18, 1904, as a day of fervent and united prayer to Almighty God, that He would grant unto us all "the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord," and in the new relation now contemplated enable us to keep "the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Should the foregoing Basis of Union be sent down to the Presbyteries of this Church, it is understood that the Constitutional majority necessary for its adoption is two-thirds of all said Presbyteries. It is worthy of note that the Joint Report is signed by all the members of the Committee of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Two members of your Committee have declined to sign it, the Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., and Mr. Elisha H. Perkins. Their dissent is printed at the end of the Report.

This Joint Report (Part V of the General Report) was published by the Cumberland Presbyterian Committee, whose Chairman stated that the practice in their Church permitted and the situation required such publication. Your Committee stated definitely that it had no authority to publish.

In bringing this Report to a close, the Committee urges upon the Assembly solemn consideration of the great responsibilities which rest upon it in the Providence of God. The Church of which the Assembly is the Supreme Judicatory is privileged to be the largest of the Presbyterian denominations, not only in the United States, but also in the world. Whatever is done in connection with any of the matters submitted, should be done with a distinct understanding of the obligations imposed by the providential situation. There is a leadership which is foreordained of God, and involves great opportunities of service to the Kingdom of Christ. All action taken it is hoped will be such as to inure not only to the maintenance of the truth in which our Church believes, and the preservation of all things which Presbyterians hold dear, but also to a closer relationship between the Churches constituting our denominational family, the increase of the spread of a true fraternity among the several Christian denominations, and the progressive advance of the Church of Christ in this land and throughout the world.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Chairman.

REV. WM. H. ROBERTS, D.D., Chairman.

Dear Dr. Roberts:—We have most carefully and conscientiously considered the Joint Report of our Committee and that of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church adopted at the Conference at St. Louis in February, and sent to us by you for signature, as we were unable to be present. We regret to inform you and our brethren on the Committee that we find ourselves unable to attach our signatures thereto, but must dissent therefrom.

We dissent from the Joint Report on Union as a whole,

1. Because we fear serious controversy and loss to the Church are likely to arise under the proposed adjustment of property rights and methods of administration, and

2. Because in our judgment the two Churches differ so definitely in traditions, the training of their ministers, their methods of work, their modes of dealing with prominent social questions, and above all in doctrinal belief, as their doctrinal beliefs are set forth in their respective Confessions of Faith, that union between them would not be justified. And we particularly dissent from the first of the Concurrent Resolutions as confused, misleading, and, at least in one of the interpretations, likely to be placed on its declarations, contrary to facts.

With sincere assurance of esteem for the brethren of the two Committees and for yourself, we remain,

Very respectfully,

JOHN R. DAVIES,
ELISHA H. PERKINS.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., gave notice of protest against the action adopting the plan of union.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, in session at Mobile, Ala., and was referred to the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union:

MOBILE, ALA., May 26, 1904.

Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, General Assembly, Buffalo, N. Y.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, wishing to promote closer fraternity in the spirit of love and candor, Resolved to-day to appoint a Committee of nine, who shall be authorized and empowered to confer with similar Committees that may be appointed by other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, when notified that it is the wish of such other Churches to enter into conference with us. This Committee is to confer on the subject of closer relations with such Churches as may enter the conference with a view to discover, first, the real sentiment of the Churches on the subject; second, the leading of God's Providence in the matter; third, obstacles that may stand in the way of closer fellowship; fourth, whether and how such obstacles can be removed, and fifth, what may be the nature and form of the relation which shall best secure effective coöperation, by federation or otherwise, and at the same time preserve loyalty to those great principles for which the various Churches have been called to testify. This Committee shall report to the next meeting of the General Assembly the result of its conferences.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

The Report of the Special Committee on Territorial Limits of Presbyteries was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, appointed by the last General Assembly, would respectfully submit the following Report. To this Committee was referred by the General Assembly the following Overtures:

1. An Overture from the Synod of Tennessee, asking for the rescinding of the rule which forbids the organizing of two Presbyteries in the same territory. The purpose of this is that colored ministers and churches might be organized into separate Presbyteries, when so desired by them.

2. From the Presbyteries of Hannibal, Holston, Kansas City, Kingston, North Texas, St. Louis and Union, with reference to the same general subject.

3. An Overture from the Presbytery of Cimarron with reference to the organization of an African Presbyterian Church.

4. An Overture from the Presbytery of Alton with reference to the consolidation of the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Freedmen.

The Committee met in St. Louis, September, 1903, for the consideration of these Overtures. They also considered at the same time communications which had been secured from ministers in connection with the colored churches, to the end that as far as possible the mind of these churches concerning the matter under discussion might be made known to the Committee.

These communications, while varying in opinion (the majority being opposed to separate Presbyteries for the colored people), were unanimous in expressing their loyalty to the Church, and in deprecating any action that would tend to drive them out of it into a separate organization. Your Committee recognized the fact that the real problem underlying the subject of the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries is the vexed question of the relation of the races. In endeavoring to find a solution of it, so far as it refers to our ecclesiastical polity, we have kept in mind certain great and unalterable principles to which our Church has always borne consistent witness.

1. There is a natural brotherhood of men as the offspring of God, through one common human ancestor. All are in this respect to be regarded as the children of God, and as united in a common brotherhood subject to the divine law which says, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." This natural brotherhood is not to be limited to any race or class, but includes all men.

2. In the new spiritual brotherhood of men in the kingdom of Christ, there is complete equality of standing in respect to citizenship; in it there is no distinction of sex, or race, or condition, but all are one in Christ Jesus, and are under the law of love, which Jesus Christ has given when he said, "That ye love one another as I have loved you."

The natural differences which prevail among men, must all be subordinate to the one supreme relation that binds believers together in one body in Christ. All are members of one family and share in a common life.

3. The government of the Church belongs alike to all who compose it. No one race has a right to rule over another, or treat it as of inferior value in the kingdom of God; and those who are called of God to the exercise of special functions in the Church have equal rights, so far as their ecclesiastical standing is concerned. We hold to the parity of the ministry, and of the different officers of the Church.

In view of these principles no action in this matter is to be thought of which would tend to subvert them. There must be no legislation which would discriminate against any race or nationality, or deny to one the rights and privileges in which others share. But while there must be no yielding of principles, it is also true that there is a wise expediency in their application. No absolute and unyielding rule can be laid down for their administration in all cases. Conditions and circumstances vary, and these must be taken into account in considering methods of action. An inspired apostle writes, "All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient; all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not."

Your Committee, therefore, has carefully considered the conditions in view of which the proposed change in our law with reference to territorial limits of Presbyteries is desired. We find, first, a Presbytery already in existence which appears to be organized contrary to the letter of the law. It is the Presbytery of Dakota (Indian), composed of pastors and churches that use the Indian language. Its boundaries include several Presbyteries composed of English-speaking ministers and churches. The reasons for its existence contrary to our written law are so manifest that there is no need to attempt a justification; but certainly it would be better if its existence were legalized by a change in the rule. The attention of the Committee has also been called to the fact, that the progress of the Church has been hindered in certain cases because pastors and churches speaking other than the English language could not be gathered together in one Presbytery, in which the local administration of the churches would have been in their own hands.

But there are other conditions than those arising from diversity of languages. These exist chiefly in the southern part of our country, and they arise from racial differences. In the South there are living among the whites 8,000,000 of negroes. As a race they are inferior to the whites in culture, mental and moral development, and civilization; and for this reason they have a peculiar claim upon the stronger race for help and guidance. It is only within the past forty years that they have been delivered from slavery, and been permitted to hold property, receive the benefits of education, and exercise the rights of citizenship. While they have made commendable progress in this new condition, and have showed themselves worthy of the sympathy and respect of the white race, it cannot be denied that there is a prevailing unwillingness to accept them on equal social standing. This race feeling, especially in the South, has affected their political and ecclesiastical standing. This is a grave fact which, no matter what our theories of social life may be, must be taken into account, and some solution of the difficulty must be found which will bring the two races together in terms of mutual respect and confidence. Admitting that there are some who have a prejudice against the negro as such, it is far from the truth to attribute such a feeling to the Christian people of the South. They avow themselves to be, and they are, the friends of the colored people. Most of them are profoundly convinced that their best interests are to be secured by their segregation, under certain limitations. They believe that those conditions which will tend to foster a proper race pride, self-respect and independence are best for the development of the colored people. It is as obvious as an axiom that a race which lives in dependence upon or under the patronage of a superior race can never reach its highest manhood.

This view is being accepted by the negroes themselves. Prior to the war, and when in a state of slavery, they worshiped in the same churches with their masters; but since emancipation has been granted them they have formed churches of their own. There is now no such thing as mixed congregations in the South. By a process of natural selection the colored people have chosen their ecclesiastical associations among themselves. This process has resulted, in some cases, in forming independent colored organizations, thus actually dividing the Church on the color or race line. In other cases the unity of the Church, in particular denominations has been preserved through the representatives of the white and colored churches meeting together in the higher courts or Conferences of the Church. But even in such cases there has been considerable friction and misunderstanding. In our branch of the Church the question of separate Presbyteries for colored ministers and churches has to a large degree been practically solved.

The following statistics will show to what extent the process of segregation has been carried on among the colored churches and ministers. The Synod of Catawba, embracing territorially North Carolina and Southern Virginia, has in it four Presbyteries, namely, Cape Fear, with twenty-four ministers, all colored; Catawba, thirty-four ministers, all colored but one; Southern Virginia, twenty-five ministers, all colored but one; and Yadkin, with twenty-four ministers, all colored. There are no white churches in connection with this Synod.

The Synod of Atlantic covers South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and has in its connection seven Presbyteries, five of them being composed of exclusively colored ministers and churches. The two white Presbyteries are in Florida. In connection with one of these (East Florida) are four colored ministers. In the Synod of Missouri there is one Presbytery, White River, covering the eastern half of Arkansas, and composed exclusively of colored ministers and churches. In the Synod of Indian Territory is the Presbytery of Kiamichi, including only colored churches, and excluding white churches. In the Synod of Kentucky there is one colored minister in the Presbytery of Louisville, and three in Transylvania Presbytery. In the Synod of Tennessee there is one colored Presbytery covering Alabama, Mississippi and part of Tennessee. In the other Presbyteries of this Synod there are ten colored ministers, and some of these, so your Committee is informed, are willing to be organized into a separate Presbytery, provided the way is open for them to do so legally. There are no white churches in Presbyteries composed entirely of colored ministers, or where they are in the majority. From this statement it will be seen that our work among the colored people is already substantially organized into separate churches, Presbyteries and Synods. Another very significant fact, which must not be overlooked in this connection, is, that the only advance made in our work among the colored people has been in those localities where their churches and ministers have been organized in separate Presbyteries.

The Reports which your Committee has received from the colored Presbyteries are full of encouragement and hope. On the other hand, where colored churches are associated with white Presbyteries and are in the minority, there has been little or no growth. There have been colored churches in some of our strong Presbyteries, such as Washington, Louisville and St. Louis, for twenty years, but there has been no increase in their numbers. In view of these obvious facts your Committee is of the opinion that it would be wise to allow our colored ministers and churches to be organized into separate Presbyteries, if they should so desire. Such organization, as shown by the experience of the past, tends to deepen a sense of responsibility, stimulates activity, and helps in the development of manly independence. But this liberty of organization in special and extraordinary cases must not be limited to the colored people. Special legislation for any class or race is not to be considered. If a wise expediency may at times demand a separate organization for the colored people in a particular locality, so may it also for the whites. This is apparent in view of the existing condition of society, especially in the South.

The Synod of Catawba covers North Carolina and Southern Virginia; the Synod of Atlantic, South Carolina and Georgia; one colored Presbytery covers Alabama, Mississippi, and part of Tennessee; another the eastern half of Arkansas. In all this vast region it is not possible to organize a white church in connection with our General Assembly, for the reason that such church would be under the care and control of a colored Presbytery. White Presbyterians, seeking such an organization, must ask of the colored Presbytery permission to do so, and come under their control. Say what we please about the evils of social prejudice and racial antipathies, the fact remains that the white churches will not associate themselves with colored Presbyteries. Are we then to give over that vast region exclusively to the colored people, and leave them to determine its destiny so far as our church is concerned? Are we by our laws to draw the color line in that portion of our country, and exclude the whites from our communion? Your Committee, while recognizing and deploring the antagonism which now exists between the races, is of the opinion that a way can be found which will measurably, at least, remove the difficulty, and at the same time protect the rights of both parties. Presbyteries in exceptional cases, in the same territory, one including the colored churches, the other the white, and both connected with the General Assembly, would provide an adjustment under present conditions which would promote harmony and mutual helpfulness. It would enlist the interest of the white Presbyteries in the immediate locality in the work of the colored brethren. It would also give to the colored churches a claim upon the help, sympathy and care of the white churches in the same ecclesiastical connection with themselves, and located in the same territory.

To open the way for such an adjustment, it will be necessary to make an amendment to our Form of Government. The law has hitherto been construed as forbidding the organization of a Presbytery within the bounds of an existing Presbytery; nor can the wisdom of such a rule, in general, be questioned. Any modification of it should be limited to exceptional cases, in which special and urgent circumstances justify a departure from the general rule. Such conditions have justified for years the existence of the Presbytery of Dakota (Indian), although organized contrary to the letter of our law. Your Committee having carefully considered the whole question of the relations of the white and colored races, and of the measures that would tend to bring them into harmonious coöperation in the work of the Church, are of the opinion that the present conditions demand a modification of the general rule. They would therefore recommend that the General Assembly send down to the Presbyteries for their action the following Overture: "Shall Chapter x, Section 2, be amended by adding to it the following words, 'but in exceptional cases a Presbytery may be organized within the boundaries of existing Presbyteries, in the interests of ministers and churches speaking other than the English language, or of those of a particular race; but in no case without their consent'; and the same rule shall apply to Synods."

Such an amendment, if adopted, would give equal liberty to white and colored churches, in cases in which a separate Presbyterial organization was deemed wise and necessary. It lays compulsion on no one; it makes no discrimination between the races; it violates no rights; it secures the unity of the Church in that representation in the General Assembly is not affected. It would not in the least change the present status of the colored Presbyteries; but in the judgment of your Committee it would in its operation be to their advantage, by bringing them into closer relations with white churches and Presbyteries, should they be organized in the same territory.

With regard to the Overture from the Presbytery of Cimarron, asking the Assembly to consider the organization of an African Church, your Committee are of the conviction that no such step should be taken. We have given the African a home and a welcome in our communion, and any action tending to drive him out of the Church into a separate organization would not only be contrary to the spirit and traditions of our Church, but we believe it would also be grievous to the great Head of the Church, who died for all, and whose prayer is that His followers may all be one. These are not times for dividing the Church, but rather for promoting its unity. We would therefore recommend that the Overture be answered in the negative.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

Sam'l J. Niccolls,	L. P. Berry,
Edgar A. Elmore,	Wm. McCallister,
C. H. Uggams,	Frank O. Ballard,

An Overture from the Presbytery of Alton, included in the Report of the above Committee, asking for the consolidation of the Boards of Home Missions and Freedmen, was laid upon the table.

Elder Rufus S. Simmons gave notice of protest against the adoption of this Report.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

To the Presbyterian General Assembly, Mobile, Ala.:

We rejoice to know that you have appointed a Committee of Conference on Closer Relations, and our Committee has been authorized to confer.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, Rev. S. S. Palmer, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully presents to the General Assembly the following Report:

Twelve Theological Seminaries now report to this Assembly—Princeton, Auburn, Western, Lane, Kentucky, McCormick, San Francisco, Omaha, The German Theological School of the North West, The German Theological School of Newark, Lincoln and Biddle. Two of these schools are for the colored race and two for the German population. They are located in a way to meet the needs of the various sections of our Church. That we have fewer students in them than a few years ago is well known. The professors realize it, and in some instances efforts are made to visit colleges and present the claims of the Christian ministry. In reading the Reports your Committee has been impressed with the fact that the Seminaries are rising to meet the growing demands of the Church. Music, elocution, missions, evangelization and foreigners are topics that are mentioned.

It is not the purpose of your Committee to take the Seminaries up one by one and speak of them. The Seminaries have sent in complete Reports, showing the number of students, financial standing of the Seminary, scholarships, work accomplished, work planned and the immediate needs of the work. These Reports will be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes, and can be read.

Your Committee would like to call attention to a few things.

Omaha, our youngest Seminary, needs the Church's sympathy, prayer and money. While it has seemed best to discontinue the Special Committee of the Assembly to secure endowment for this Seminary, we are not to understand that this indicates any lack of interest, but merely leaves the institution free to use its own plans. As in the past the Assembly has repeatedly commended the institution to the benevolences of the Church, so we now again approve the work, and express the hope that each year may witness a substantial addition to the permanent funds, until an adequate endowment for this promising school is secured. We learn with deep regret that Rev. Alexander Gibson Wilson, D.D., died at the closing hour of the Seminary year. He served the institution for two years with conspicuous fidelity and success.

San Francisco Theological Seminary has made marked advancement the past year. This Seminary on our Pacific coast, so strategically situated at the gateway of the Orient, deserves the prayer and the money of the Church.

The Financial Secretary, Rev. C. M. Steffens, of the German Theological School of the North West, is working for permanent endowment for this school, located in Dubuque, Ia. The institution is commended to the liberality of the Church, and the hope is expressed that $100,000 may soon be raised. The Board of Education is requested to extend to the Secretary of this Seminary whatever coöperation and assistance in his work it may find possible under its Constitution.

The Theological Department of Lincoln University has a special claim upon our benevolence. Money is needed at once for the erection of a refectory for the better boarding of the students. This Assembly commends this institution to the Church, and hopes that the friends of the colored people who believe in an educated ministry for them will generously endow this department of work.

What is said for Lincoln is equally true of Biddle. These are our institutions, and we must care for them.

The Seminaries, on the whole, have been careful to carry out the recommendations of previous Assemblies.

One Seminary reports: "Provision is made in the course of instruction for the training of pastors in evangelistic methods. Considerable emphasis is laid on personal work and the method of dealing with inquirers." The Report continues: "Upon learning of the action taken several years ago by the General Assembly on the study of the English Bible, this Seminary immediately took up instruction in the English Bible and has laid considerable emphasis on the subject." We note with pleasure the interest taken by our Seminaries in preparing students to reach our foreign-speaking populations. Three Bohemian students are at present in one of our institutions. One Report says: "Our Seminary is in thorough sympathy with the effort of the Church to provide a special preparation for the ministry to the people of foreign languages." We note with pleasure that our Seminaries are giving attention to church music and elocution. One reports a new department of church music and expresses great satisfaction in the results already obtained. We are glad that in a few instances the students have the opportunity to study elocution. Your Committee feel that even greater attention should be given to the public reading of the Scriptures and the delivery of sermons. Where it is impracticable to secure a special instructor, the professors already in the Seminary should do what they can to meet this need.

Your Committee would submit to the Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That the election of all Directors reported to this Assembly as elected during the past year be confirmed.

2. That the Assembly approves the election of the Rev. David Gregg, D.D., LL.D., to the Presidency of the Western Theological Seminary, and of the Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., to the Chair of Church History in the same institution;

Of the Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., to the Presidency of San Francisco Theological Seminary and the Chair of Systematic Theology;

Of the Rev. Ferdinand Urbach, Professor of New Testament Exegesis and German Language and Literature in the German Theological School of the North West; of Rev. W. O. Ruston, D.D., to the Presidency of the same institution; and of Rev. David A. McWilliams to the Chair of Church History and Sociology in Lincoln University.

We note this record from the Report of McCormick: "Dr. Herrick Johnson presented his resignation from the Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology, to take effect January 1, 1905, on the ground that the impaired health of himself and Mrs. Johnson demanded a more congenial climate during the trying part of winter. A Committee was appointed to confer with Dr. Johnson, and it was agreed to accept his resignation; but to continue him as a member of the Faculty, with a Chair, the name, duties and salary of which are to be hereafter determined, to which Chair Dr. Johnson was elected, his occupancy of it to begin when he vacates his present Chair." The Assembly heartily approves this action of the Board, and expresses the hope that Dr. Johnson may be spared to the work of the Seminary and the Church many years.

3. That the Faculties and Governing Boards of our Seminaries be urged to train the young men in and for evangelistic work, that the students may have practical lessons in opening the Bible and leading souls to Christ. To this end we urge that the English Bible be made a subject of special study in all our Seminaries.

4. It is our judgment that no scarcity of ministers can ever justify the admission of the unworthy to the sacred office. The Professors in our Theological Seminaries, having opportunity for intimate knowledge of the students during the three years of their course, must ever be held responsible by the Assembly and the Church for warning Presbyteries against the immoral and unspiritual, and recommending only those whose character gives promise of usefulness in the ministry.

5. Believing that the extension of Christ's kingdom over the world depends, first of all, in the interest taken therein by our ministers, and that this extension is one of the prime duties of the Church, we recommend to the Seminaries the importance of more instruction in the history of missions and the reflex influence of mission work on the Church at home, in the philosophy of missions, as shown both in the spirit of Christianity and in the lack of redemptive truth in all non-Christian religions, and in the moral obligation to mission effort on account of wrong done to our fellow-man in permitting him to remain ignorant, and to our King in failing earnestly to strive to extend His rightful authority over all nations.

In behalf of the Committee,

S. S. Palmer, Chairman.

The Committee on Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Next Place of Meeting respectfully report, recommending that an invitation from the Winona Assembly and Schools of Indiana to meet at Winona Park, Winona Lake, Ind., be accepted.

The Winona Assembly and Schools agree to furnish, without charge, suitable buildings and equipment with which to conduct the business of the Assembly; to provide for the officers of the Assembly without charge, to comfortably entertain the Assembly at the rate of $1.50 per day for each Commissioner; also to meet the ordinary business expenses of the body. It is understood that the Commissioners who are entertained at the Winona Hotel shall pay the regular rates and shall receive from the Assembly the Commissioner's allowance. This invitation is supported by the Commissioners of the Synod of Indiana in this General Assembly. We further recommend that the Committee of Arrangements be composed of Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., the Rev. Charles Little, D.D. with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Addison Henry, Chairman.

The following, presented by Robert F. Coyle, D.D., was adopted:

Resolved, That the membership of the Special Committee on Church Union and Coöperation be increased to fifteen; that the Moderator, Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., be added as a member of the Committee; that two members of the Committee be excused from service owing to their inability to attend its meetings, and that the Moderator be authorized to appoint the additional members.

The Standing Committee on Finance, through its Chairman, Mr. E. H. Perkins, presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on Finance respectfully submits the following Report:

That your Committee has examined the financial statement of the Trustees of the General Assembly for the year ending March 31, 1904, and from such statement finds and reports that the funds in the hands of said Trustees on that day were as follows:

In bonds and mortgages, being first liens upon property	$844,416 67

Committee on Systematic Beneficence	473 50
Balance of cash on hand, May 9, 1904	1,690 22

The expenses for the year have been $32,392.22 in excess of the income.

The account of the Stated Clerk with the various Boards of the Church for preparing and placing their several Reports in the hands of the General Assembly, for which he has been reimbursed by the Boards, shows an expenditure of $3040.82. There remains in the hands of the Stated Clerk to the credit of the Boards in this fund, $45.77.

Your Committee recommends an assessment of six cents per member to cover the expenses of the ensuing year—three cents for mileage; one and one-half cents for entertainment and one and one-half cents for Contingent Fund.

Your Committee recommends that the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the accounts for mileage of the Rev. Dr. H. C. Minton, Chairman of the Revision Committee, in attendance at the Assembly of 1903.

Your Committee further recommends that the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and that he be also authorized to pay the sum of $765 to the Presbyterian Alliance.

The Trustees report the death of one of their number in July last, the Hon. Samuel C. Perkins, LL.D., and the resignation of the Rev. J. Eliot Wright, D.D., with the request that these vacancies be filled at this meeting of the General Assembly.

Your Committee recommends the election of Dr. George W. Bailey, in the place of Mr. Perkins, and the Rev. William H. Miller, D.D., to succeed the Rev. Dr. Wright.

Your Committee renews the expression of the deep obligation of the Church to the Trustees for their long and efficient service, and to the Stated Clerk for the fidelity and ability with which, during so many years, he has acted as Treasurer of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee,

On motion of the Chairman of the Committee on Finance, the sum of one thousand dollars per annum was added to the salary of the Stated Clerk, Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection, through its Chairman, Rev. Frank S. Brush, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. Erskine N. White, D.D., Secretary of the Board, Rev. H. A. Johnston, D.D., Rev. Joseph L. Weaver, D.D., and Rev. Horace C. Hovey, D.D., was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The work of the Board of Church Erection has had careful consideration. We have examined the Records and the Annual Report and find them worthy of approval.

The Board is to be congratulated on reaching its sixtieth birthday, with a past vigorous and fruitful, and with a future that, by the grace of God, we believe will prove even more useful to the development of our beloved Church. In these threescore years over four millions and four hundred thousand dollars have passed through the treasury into some seven thousand and two hundred Presbyterian churches. This is a noble record with a spiritual significance that passes out into the eternities. For while we can count the dollars and enumerate the churches helped, yet the real value of this work, as an integral factor in Presbyterian Christianity and in the ultimate evangelization of our country, cannot be adequately computed. With God alone is there the possibility of measuring forces such as these with which we are dealing.

The work of this Board is quiet and prosaic. It stands related to the material and business side of church life. But it is none the less important and necessary. The mere presence of a church edifice is a call to worship and adds dignity to any community. From Porto Rico in the extreme southeast to Alaska in the extreme northwest stand church and manse to testify to our Presbyterian faith.

During the single year just closed the benefactions of the Board were scattered through thirty-seven States and Territories. Numerous and various races and tribes occupy the buildings in which it has an interest. Great would be the babel of tongues if representatives of these various nationalities should all appear and speak at once before this Assembly. We should hear as many distinct tongues as those that received the glory of Pentecost.

The work of this Board lies at the foundation of Christian work and progress. It is necessary to the full success of both the Home Board and the Board for Freedmen. It has indeed a peculiar Home Missionary value. Of the $191,000 expended this past year, $125,000, or about two-thirds, was devoted to our interests in the territory west of the Mississippi river. Wrought into the life of the great and fateful West, the gifts of the Board of Church Erection are playing no mean part in moulding the spiritual destiny of our country.

The Manse Fund is of great practical importance in Home Missionary fields. The question of where to live in new and growing towns confronts the home missionary. Rents are often excessive, if indeed a suitable home can be had at any price. A manse makes easier the settlement of a pastor and also encourages permanence in the pastoral relation.

It is hoped that the Board may in the near future be able to add substantially to this Fund.

The work of this Board acts as a spur to Christian giving. For every dollar contributed by the Board from three to six dollars are collected on the field. Nor is it at all true that the money would be collected on the field without the donation. In the majority of cases the inciting cause of church building is the expected help from this source. In many cases the church at first feels unable to build at all, but the lure of $500 from the Board of Church Erection leads it on to contributions that in the end triple and often quadruple the donation. Thus anywhere from twenty to twenty-five millions of dollars have been collected on the field through the stimulus of this Board.

These sixty years of church building may truly excite our imagination. We can but think of the hundreds and even thousands of communities made glad by the erection of a new church. What hopes, what Christian rejoicing, what tears of both joy and sorrow have hallowed these many structures! Nor has it been alone in small communities, the little village in some fruitful valley or the smart Western town on some hillside, but the beginnings of nearly every strong church in every large city of the West are to be found in the gifts received from this Board. This work is indeed of immeasurable value to the advance of our beloved Church and to the Christianization of our great Republic.

There are, however, shadows upon the picture. There has been scarcely any advance in the contributions of our churches for ten years past. Last year seventy-eight churches less than the previous year gave to this cause. It is the endowments of good people who are dead and gone that make the present work of the Board possible. We are thus living on the religion of the past—a blessed heritage it is true—but the present and living Church has its duty and privilege in this connection.

Never before were there so many applications to the Board for help. The growth of our Church is evident in the manifestation of its needs, but while the need of new churches constantly enlarges, there is as yet no increase in the income of the Board. So pressing are the claims from newly opened fields that your Committee recommends a slight modification of one of the time-honored rules of the Board. The great West, and especially the far West, is throbbing with life. Populations are increasing, new communities are springing up. It is a great advantage to be the first in the field with a new church building.

The Committee has heard with sympathy and regret the fact that the mortgages of the Board are being taxed in California. At this stage of the discussion it is impossible to say what relief could or should be given. It is hoped that in the courts of California itself proper legal remedy may be found. The Board is requested to do what it can to find some solution of the problem.

The following recommendations are submitted to the General Assembly for its action:

1. That the Assembly hereby expresses its sorrow and sense of loss over the death of two faithful members of this Board—Ezra P. Hoyt, M.D., and Daniel J. Holden. Both of these valued members of the Board of Church Erection rendered valiant services to its cause.

2. That the Minutes of the Board be approved, with grateful recognition on the part of the Assembly of the services of the officers and members of the Board.

3. That the Board is hereby authorized to apply to the Legislature of the State of New York for such addition to its charter as shall distinctly recognize the Board as a religious corporation under the laws of the State of New York, and also for such additional powers as the Board may deem necessary for the purpose of taking and holding by will or conveyance property to be used in the erection of any church building or manse.

4. That the Board be permitted in newly opened fields and in exceptional cases, upon distinctively missionary grounds, to grant or loan at its discretion, and for the erection of inexpensive buildings, a sum not exceeding three-fourths of the cost of the building, provided the plan and cost of the proposed building be submitted to the Presbytery and approved by a two-thirds vote before the work is commenced.

5. That the following members of the Board: Rev. Samuel M. Hamilton, D.D., Rev. William A. Holliday, D.D., Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., and Elders Frederick G. Burnham, E. Francis Hyde and John Sinclair, whose terms of office expire at this time, be reëlected, and that Everett J. Esselstyn, of the Central Church, New York, be elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ezra P. Hoyt, and Edward C. Van Glahn, of the Brick Church, New York, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Daniel J. Holden.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

FRANK S. BRUSH, Chairman.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., on behalf of himself and others whose names are annexed, presented the following protest:

We, the undersigned, ministers and ruling elders, hereby respectfully record our deliberate and solemn protest against the action taken by the General Assembly in adopting the Report of the Committee on Union and Reunion, so far as it relates to union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; for the following reasons inter alia:

First, and chiefly, because the Plan of Union in its first Concurrent Declaration involves an interpretation of the doctrinal Standards of the Church. We feel that the Constitutional right of the Assembly to make this interpretation is open to grave question.

Apart from this the Declaration affirms an agreement existing between the systems of doctrine contained respectively in our own Confession of Faith and that of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church sufficient to warrant union between the two Churches; whereas, in fact, the two systems of doctrine are antagonistic to each other, especially as to the doctrine of the divine decrees. A union founded on such a mistake is not likely to be permanently satisfactory.

Second. We protest because grave practical difficulties, affecting the well-being of the Church and the orderly administration of its affairs and menacing many sacred and precious interests, have not received from either the Committee or the Assembly such a degree of careful consideration as is demanded by their exceeding importance.

Elder Rufus S. Simmons, on behalf of himself and others whose names are annexed, presented the following protest:

The undersigned, ministers and ruling elders, hereby record our deliberate and solemn protest against the action taken by the General Assembly in adopting the recommendation in the Report of the Special Committee on the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries relating to the amendment of Chapter x, Section 2, of the Book of Government, providing for the organization of separate Presbyteries for persons speaking other than the English language or those of a particular race; for the following among other reasons: because contrary to the spirit of our Church, to the Word of God, and, as we believe, will be grievous to the great Head of the Church.

The Special Committee on Religious Conditions in State Universities, through Charles T. Thompson, Esq., a member of the Committee, presented its Report, and after addresses by Mr. Thompson and Prof. T. E. Hodges, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

The Special Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1903, at Los Angeles, to investigate into the religious conditions of the State universities would respectfully present the following Report:

In order to answer at the outset some objections which have, since its appointment, been raised against the Committee and its proposed work, and to allay some fears which have been entertained regarding them, it is proper, first, to call attention to the circumstances under which the Committee was appointed and the work which was assigned to it.

Some of the members of this Committee were members of the Committee on Bills and Overtures of the General Assembly of 1903. To that Committee were referred several Overtures from Presbyteries in different portions of the country, calling attention to the fact that great numbers of Presbyterian young men and young women were receiving their higher education in State colleges and universities, and that little, if anything, was being done by the Church, in a religious way, for these young people; and asking the Assembly to devise some plan by which the Church could throw around them such safeguards and influences as would keep them under religious control and loyal to their Church, and which might lead some of them to enter the Gospel ministry. The facts presented in these Overtures were so startling, and the whole matter appeared to be of such importance to the Church, that the members of the Committee all felt that they were not competent to adequately consider the matter in the short time allowed them for the purpose, and that it would therefore be unwise to attempt to recommend to the General Assembly any definite plan to meet the emergency. The Committee therefore recommended that the whole matter be referred to a Special Committee to report to the General Assembly of 1904. In compliance with this recommendation the Assembly adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That this Assembly appoint a Special Committee of five, three ministers and two ruling elders, to ascertain to what extent our young people are in State universities, what is being done to give them religious culture and safeguard them for our Church, and what are the best methods for doing this work, the Committee to make full report on the whole subject to the next Assembly" (Minutes, p. 90).

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, which had thus reported, reported also in favor of the appointment of a Committee to raise an endowment fund for the colleges and academies of our Church. These two movements were not designed to be and should not be antagonistic; they are supplementary one to the other; both aim at the same result—the training up of an intelligent Presbyterian constituency which shall not only provide pastors for our churches, but shall also provide an army of educated and efficient lay workers.

The Committee was constituted by the Moderator as follows: Ministers—Andrew C. Zenos, D.D., William A. Hunter, D.D., M. L. Haines, D.D.; Elders—Charles T. Thompson, Reuben F. Smith.

The Committee, being widely scattered, has found it practicable to do its work for the most part by correspondence, and has held but one meeting, to wit, in Chicago, February 10, 1904. The correspondence was voluminous, and was carried on with college presidents and professors, pastors of churches in college towns, and with any others about whom the Committee might hear who were especially interested in the subject and who had given it thought. It was designed to elicit, first of all, full and accurate information from all those educational institutions which are classified by the United States Commissioner of Education as colleges and universities under the care of the several States, regarding religious conditions in these institutions, and especially regarding the attendance of young people from Presbyterian homes. Secondly, it was intended to secure the opinions of leading men in our Church interested in education, especially such as had been or are connected with educational institutions, regarding the best means for securing the object aimed at through the appointment of this Committee.

The Committee also sought the general counsel of the officers of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies through the mediation of the Secretary of the Board, the Rev. E. C. Ray, D.D. We desire to testify, at this time, to the valuable assistance given us by Dr. Ray, and to the courtesy which he has shown us in our investigations.

As a result of the inquiries thus instituted, the situation in the State universities was shown to be as follows. In twenty universities, reporting an aggregate attendance of 30,140 students, there were shown to be 1855 members of the Presbyterian Church, with 1420 other young people coming from Presbyterian homes and reporting themselves as "adherents" of the Presbyterian Church, a total of 3958 students who can be classed as Presbyterians. The last number includes 683 students not directly reported to be from Presbyterian homes, but estimated by the persons reporting to the Committee to be from such homes.

In presenting these results the Committee are fully conscious of and would point out the unsatisfactory nature of the data. To secure full and accurate data it would be necessary to go further into detail, and take more time for the work than the single year given to this Committee. The chief reason for this is to be found in the varying and in some respects confusing and misleading conditions and methods of procedure in the various institutions from which information is sought. From some of the universities to which the Committee applied it could obtain no data of a definite kind, as no religious statistics were habitually kept. The Committee, however, believes that through persistent and appropriate methods of inquiry even from such institutions the data desired might be obtained. Other institutions were only approximate and vague in their responses, while others were quite definite and precise, but differed among themselves as to what must be included and excluded from each class of data.

Notwithstanding the incompleteness and uncertainty of these data, the Committee believes that the information gathered together warrants certain general conclusions with reference to the subject committed to it. First and foremost among these conclusions, the Committee would set down the fact that a very large number of Presbyterian young people prefer, for reasons satisfactory to themselves, to go into the State universities, and that this number is constantly increasing. In the opinion of the Committee, this fact is not to be construed as a sign of dissatisfaction with or hostility to the excellent institutions planted by our own Church, and especially those under the care of our Board of Aid for Colleges, but is due in a large measure to the fact that, especially in the Middle and Western States, most of the primary education is obtained in the public schools, which graduate into the high schools, and that the high schools in turn graduate into the university. It is, therefore, the natural thing for the boy or girl who desires a higher education to seek it in the State college.

Second, it is easy to exaggerate the general laxity from the religious point of view that prevails in these institutions. In the mind of the Committee such exaggeration is unjust and should be deprecated whenever and wherever it is made. The investigations of the Committee have incidentally brought to light the fact that very many of the presidents and professors in these institutions are earnest Christian men, some of them even ministers of the Gospel. The Presbyterian Church especially seems to furnish more than its quota of Christian presidents and professors. In almost all these institutions a strong Christian influence is being exerted by Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations. To denounce such colleges as godless is, therefore, unjust.

The Committee deems it both a duty and a pleasure to emphasize strongly the fact that, without an exception, the university presidents and professors from whom advice and information were sought, were ready and willing to secure for the Committee as fully as possible such desired information. They were also glad to suggest to us plans for reaching the desired result; and to express to us their keen personal interest in the subject. Most of them also expressed a willingness to render to our Church all the assistance in this work which would be proper for them to give under the circumstances. The Committee, after such an experience, is of the opinion that to say that these institutions are irreligious is not warranted by the facts. Undenominational they must be; but they are very far from being irreligious.

Thirdly, however, the facts brought together by the Committee very plainly show that not enough is being done to give our young people the religious culture considered ideal and to safeguard them for our Church. The sense of need, felt at this point rather vaguely by the Church at large, is very acute in those who are in immediate touch with these institutions. Many of the presidents of the State universities have expressed their keen gratification on learning of the Assembly's action with reference to the matter, and have approved of it, in general, as timely and calculated to result in great good. The pastors of the Presbyterian churches in university towns are absolutely unanimous in their desire that something should be done. While emphasizing what has already been said by way of giving credit to the State institutions for the existence in them of wholesome Christian influences, your Committee feel that the fact cannot be too strongly impressed upon the Church, that there is an urgent and large need for special measures for preserving and promoting its interests in these universities.

Following the directions of the General Assembly, the Committee further made some inquiries as to what were considered by those most intimately acquainted with the situation the measures promising the best results in meeting this need. In answer to these inquiries it has received the following suggestions, which it presents, with some remarks showing its estimate of their value:

(1) That the Church make an effort to equip, as far as it can legitimately do so, the State universities with Christian presidents and professors. In the judgment of the Committee, this would be, for the purpose expressly in view, an impracticable and a futile course to pursue. From the nature of the case, there are limitations to the work which Christian presidents and professors can do in institutions supported by the State.

(2) The formation of Presbyterian students' associations, clubs, unions, leagues, etc. That such unions would be beneficial wherever formed there can be no doubt. But your Committee is also quite certain that they could not be maintained and kept in vigorous operation from year to year without some additional agency.

(3) The affiliation of Presbyterian students with the Presbyterian churches located in the university towns. This plan has been tested. In one or two such university towns the pastors established an affiliated membership roll, and induced the Presbyterian students to unite with their churches in this semi-official connection. But the testimony of at least one of these pastors is that its success is not very large.

(4) The holding of Bible institutes or Presbyterian conferences in university centres, for the purpose of so supplementing the work done by the purely secular branches as to inform our young people and stimulate their loyalty to the Church. The Committee deems this, too, a rather impracticable course, inasmuch as the ordinary work of a university course is apt to occupy the full time of the student, and exhaust his energy and interest for such extra curricular, and therefore optional, exercises.

(5) Lecture courses and special sermons by eminent Presbyterian leaders. This, too, while tending in general to produce good results, if properly and judiciously operated, seems to the Committee to involve much labor and to promise meagre results.

(6) The appointment of special ministers who shall reside in and care for Presbyterian students in State universities, very much after the pattern of army and navy chaplains. It is reported that the Roman Catholic Church is using this plan with considerable success in the University of Minnesota. In the judgment of the Committee the plan is worthy of careful consideration.

(7) The Presbyterian Annex. This plan is familiar as the one that has been tried in connection with the University of Michigan. Its main feature is the establishment of an association which shall have charge of and provide for the strictly denominational features of university work, whether by way of supplementing the instruction provided for by the university or by way of attached social features calculated to stimulate denominational loyalty. The objection to this plan is that, wherever the Church has colleges of its own, the erection of such annexes to State universities seems to work toward the diminution of the influence of the denominational colleges.

(8) The reinforcement of the local church. This may be done (a) by the appointment of an assistant to have charge of the college or university branch of the church. In principle this would be the same as plan No. 6, above mentioned, and should be very carefully considered. (b) By supplementing the salary offered by the local church, so that a man of the highest ability and drawing power should be secured as its pastor. The Committee sees a difficulty in the way of this scheme in the case of large university communities where more than one church is equally convenient and accessible to the students, as the question might arise, Which of these should be strengthened in this way? (c) By the endowment and equipment of the local church, so that it should afford social and educational facilities and thus supplement the work of the university. The principle of this scheme is essentially the same as that of the Annex, and it should be considered together with that.

With reference to all these plans, the Committee would submit that they cannot be regarded as calculated to operate themselves. The Committee further believes that the mere passage of resolutions by the Assembly is not sufficient. Nor is the reference of the whole subject to the Synods, with recommendation that they adopt any one of the above-named plans, likely to accomplish the desired result. Such a plan has once been tried without accomplishing much good. The Committee believes that it is not necessary to continue the present Committee or to appoint another for this purpose.

The Church has already in its Board of Aid for Schools and Colleges an efficient organization, having the full confidence of the Church. That Board has charge of the furtherance of measures looking to the education of our Presbyterian young people. It has shown its sympathy with that branch of this work represented by this Committee, and has both the willingness and the facilities to undertake the work begun by it.

The Committee would, therefore, submit the following recommendations for adoption by this Assembly:

1. That the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies be directed, either by the appointment of a special Secretary for that purpose, or in such other way as the Board may deem best, to take up as a part of its regular work, so far as its resources will permit, the provision of adequate means for the furnishing of religious culture to our young people in the State universities and safeguarding them for our Church.

2. That the attention of the Board of Aid be called to the necessity of fuller and more accurate information with reference to religious statistics in the secular colleges and universities. Especially does it appear necessary that agricultural colleges and normal schools should be investigated. These the present Committee considered as lying outside its proper sphere of work.

3. That a conference of representatives of Presbyterianism in the State universities be held under direction of the College Board in connection with the next General Assembly, so that by a face-to-face discussion of the vital interests at stake the cause may be advanced.

Committee.

The following Committee was appointed to prepare an answer to the protest of Rev. John Fox, D.D., and others against the adoption of the Plan of Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church: James D. Moffat, D.D., H. A. Johnston, D.D., and Robert F. Coyle, D.D.

The Committee on Home Missions presented the following Supplementary Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Home Missions would recommend:

1. That the action of the Board in appointing Mr. Frank L. Babbot, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. George R. Lockwood, resigned, be approved. Also the action appointing Mr. Calvin B. Orcutt, in place of Hon. James A. Beaver, resigned.

2. That inasmuch as the action proposed in Overture No. 82, from the Presbytery of Ningpo, has already been taken by the Assembly, no action is necessary.

3. That in reply to memorials from the Presbytery of Washington City and from the Presbytery of Utah, with reference to Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah, we recommend that the care of Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah, be temporarily committed to the Board of Home Missions, with our hearty approval.

J. F. Carson, Chairman.

Orders for to-morrow morning were fixed as follows: First Order, the Standing Committee on Polity; second, the Standing Committee on Young People's Societies; third, the Special Committee on Vacancies and Supplies.

The Special Committee on Judicial Commissions, through the Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, a member of the Committee, presented its Report, which was interrupted by the hour of adjournment.

The Committee on Foreign Missions presented the following Supplemental Report, which was adopted:

The Foreign Missions Committee report that the matter contained in the Memorial of Rev. J. C. Bose, of the Presbytery of Lahore, referred to this Committee, does not in our judgment come under our jurisdiction, and recommend that no action be taken, and that the documents be returned to Mr. Bose, through the Stated Clerk.

Cleland B. McAfee, Chairman.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 27, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Young People's Societies, and addresses were delivered by Mr. Von Ogden Vogt, Rev. J. W. Cochran, D.D., and Rev. C. B. McAfee, D.D.

Also a popular meeting in the interests of Temperance, addressed by Rev. D. Stuart Dodge, D.D., Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., and others.

SATURDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The presentation of the Report of the Special Committee on Judicial Commissions was continued and completed. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Judicial Commissions, appointed by the General Assembly of 1903 (see Minutes, p. 121), would respectfully present the following Report:

The last General Assembly, in an answer to an Overture from the Presbytery of Hudson and two Overtures from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, expressed the opinion that "the provisions of the present chapter on Judicial Commissions have been found incomplete and unsatisfactory." It appointed a Special Committee on Judicial Commissions, consisting of four ministers and three elders, to consider the subject and to report a plan of amendment to this General Assembly, and referred to this Committee the aforesaid Overtures and any "suggestions that might be sent in from the Presbyteries or other parties in the Church."

The Committee met in Chicago on October 6 last, all the members being present. The referred Overtures were presented, also two provisional drafts of Overtures to be sent to the Presbyteries prepared by two members of this Committee, a pamphlet on Judicial Commissions by Rev. Elijah R. Craven, D.D., and a pamphlet on Judicial Commissions by Hon. William M. Lanning, of this Committee. After a meeting lasting a day and a half, the Committee finished its work almost completely and with unanimity. A few details remaining, together with the body of the Report, were referred to a Subcommittee of three, and were afterward adopted by the Committee by means of correspondence.

The subject of amending our methods of judicial procedure has been before the Church for more than fifty years, and several successful attempts have already been made, the last being in 1902, when valuable additions and amendments were incorporated in our governmental standards. The particular matter of Judicial Commissions has been much discussed of late throughout the Church, and therefore it may be assumed that the subject does not require much elaboration on our part at this time. The Overtures sent down to the Presbyteries by the General Assembly of 1901 pertaining to complaints, appeals, dissents, etc., were adopted. The one pertaining to Judicial Commissions failed because, as intimated by the General Assembly, it contained several unpopular features. These were not essential to the plan, and are not included, we believe, in the present proposals. The Committee calls attention to a few particulars:

I. Method of Arrangement.—The instructions of the last General Assembly were to arrange the Overtures so that the part pertaining to the Presbytery and Synod should be separated from that pertaining to the General Assembly. Accordingly we have Overture No.1, Concerning Judicial Cases in Presbyteries and Synods; No. 2, Concerning Judicial Cases in the General Assembly; No. 3, Concerning Non-judicial or Administrative Cases and References in Presbyteries and Synods; No. 4, Concerning Non-judicial or Administrative Cases and References in the General Assembly; and No. 5, on Editing. While the main part of the first four Overtures pertains to Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, the related changes required in other Chapters of the Book of Discipline and in the Form of Government are appended to the latter part of each Overture, where they respectively belong, so that the vote on each Overture covers all the parts that should be considered together. In case any Overture should not be adopted, it will thus be easier and simpler to make further effort to reach a satisfactory conclusion. Also, every section is confined as nearly as possible to a single subject, and begins with the words that indicate the subject to be treated, and the order of the sections conforms with the progress of the case in its course of adjudication.

II. Liberty in Details.—The Committee has kept in mind the advisability of having the largest liberty in matters of detail. Accordingly it is left to the judicatory to decide whether it will transmit a case to a Commission; how large the Commission shall be; when the Commission shall sit; what shall be the powers of Commissions in administrative cases; the filling of vacancies, etc.

III. Relation of a Judicial Commission to the Electing Judicatory.—The whole theory of the Judicial Commission implies improvement. It is set up in order to be a help to the judicatory and an aid to justice. It is very desirable to relieve our judicatories, especially the General Assembly, from the burden of hearing cases; not that other routine may be substituted, but that the great business of the Gospel may have the largest place. It is also desirable that trials should be distinguished by features that are highly judicial. At present it is not uncommon at the General Assembly to find Judicial Commissions not even convened until the latter part of the meeting. Accordingly we propose that the Judicial Commission of a Presbytery or Synod shall be independent of the judicatory creating it, to the extent that its decision shall not be reviewable by the electing judicatory, but shall be held to be the final judgment of that judicatory. Its reporting is largely for record. The decision may be dissented from or protested against by members of the inferior judicatory or of its Commission, and may be corrected by the superior judicatory, either on appeal or on general review and control. This is in accord with the practice of the Church from the earliest times. The "Records of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America" for the years 1706 to 1788 contain many instances of the appointment of Commissions to determine finally both judicial and administrative cases. In 1846 a resolution condemning this practice was referred by the General Assembly to a Committee of which Rev. Dr. Charles Hodge was Chairman. The Report was rendered the next year (see Hodge's Church Polity, p. 354, etc.), and was so effective that the Assembly left the Presbyteries and Synods free to continue the ancient practice. Our proposal is not a new thing, but is an inheritance from the Church of Scotland. The method in the General Assembly provides that the decision of the Commission is the preliminary judgment, and is subject to review by the General Assembly, and may be thereby affirmed, reversed, modified, suspended or remitted for further hearing. If there be no review or no action, the preliminary judgment is held to be the final judgment of the General Assembly.

It is also to be noticed that the plan provides that the meeting of any Judicial Commission may be held at the same time as that of the electing judicatory, or during an interval between the meetings of such judicatory. This permits a case to move forward in any event with the least delay, being subject to appeal, dissent and protest as fully as if it had been tried before the judicatory itself. This also accords with ancient practice. Up to 1774 the General Synod, following the practice of the Church of Scotland, had annually appointed a Commission with full synodical powers to sit between its annual sessions. In that year doubts arose concerning this, but the Synod, upon the Report of a Committee to consider it, resolved as follows: "The Synod . . . . do determine that the Commission shall continue and meet whensoever called by the Moderator . . . . and when met, that it shall be invested with all the powers of Synod to sit by their own adjournment from time to time" (see Records, pp. 452, 459).

IV. Cases for Transmission.—Overtures No. 1 and No. 2 relate to judicial cases before Judicial Commissions, and Overtures No. 3 and No. 4 to administrative or non-judicial cases before such Commissions. It is the firm opinion of your Committee that discretionary power should be given to a judicatory to transmit any case to a Judicial Commission; and for at least two reasons: (1) It is in accord with the early practice of the Church. One instance must suffice. In 1759 the newly united Synod of New York and Philadelphia took the following action: "A complaint against the late First Presbytery of Newcastle by Janet Smith was brought in, but as the matter is not ready for trial, the Synod appoint the present Presbytery of Newcastle and Messrs. Elder (and three others) to be a Committee of the Synod to take such notice of the grounds of her complaint as they shall judge necessary."

(2) It often occurs that the larger part of the business of a judicatory falls into the class of administrative or non-judicial cases. If relief is sought in the field of the judicatory's judicial business, why should not relief, for a stronger reason, be provided in this field also? For these reasons we submit Overtures No. 3 and No. 4, pertaining to non-judicial cases.

It is our earnest hope that the plan of amendment herewith submitted may receive the careful consideration and hearty approval of the General Assembly. We are unanimous in our decisions. We have not only given close attention to matters of meaning, expression, construction and punctuation, but have also gone over the work several times, through our Subcommittee, in behalf of brevity, clearness and consistency. It is our strong persuasion, now that the question of amendment is again before the Church, that it is very desirable that the movement should be continued until a satisfactory conclusion is reached, and that if effort in one direction fails it should be repeated in another.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following Resolutions:

Resolution No. 1. That the following Overtures be sent down to the Presbyteries for action, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter xxiv, Sections 1 and 6 of the Form of Government, and that the Presbyteries be requested to forward with any negative vote a brief statement of their reasons therefor, or any suggestions as to improvement.

Overture No. 1.

(a) Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," so far as it applies to Judicial Commissions of Presbyteries and Synods, be changed to read as follows:

1. CONCERNING JUDICIAL CASES IN PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS.

118. A Presbytery or a Synod may elect from the ministers and ruling elders subject to its jurisdiction a Judicial Commission, which shall be composed of not less than seven members for a Presbytery and not less than eleven for a Synod, a majority of which members shall be ministers. The electing judicatory may transmit to such Commission any judicial case for hearing and decision.

119. The Commission shall elect from its members a Moderator and a Clerk; and, in the case transmitted to it, shall have the powers prescribed by, and conduct its proceedings according to, the Constitution and rules governing the trial of such cases before the electing judicatory, to which, also, it shall make a report.

120. The quorum of the Commission shall consist of not less than two-thirds of the members elected to it, provided that at least one-half the quorum shall be ministers.

121. The meetings of the Commission shall be held at such times and places as the electing judicatory shall direct, or, if no directions shall be given, then at such time and places as the Commission shall determine.

122. The decision of the Commission, sitting in any case at the same time as the electing judicatory, shall be promptly reported to the judicatory, and shall, from the time of the rendering of the Report, be held to be the final judgment of the judicatory. The decision of the Commission, sitting in any case during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, shall, from the time of the announcement of the decision, be held to be the final judgment of the judicatory.

123. The Clerk of the Commission shall keep a full and correct record of the proceedings and decision of the Commission; shall with the Moderator certify in writing such record to be full and correct; and shall forthwith transmit a certified copy of the decision to each party in the case, and file the certified record with the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory.

124. The Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory, upon the request of the Commission in any case, or upon its failure to report the certified record of such case when called for by the judicatory, shall forthwith report the certified record to the judicatory; and shall preserve it as a part of the records of the same, and shall include it in the records sent up to the next superior judicatory for review.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 1, shall Chapter ix of the Book of Discipline be amended, by adding at the close of Section 94, pertaining to Appeals, the following provision, to wit:

When a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission of an inferior judicatory, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, an appeal from the judgment of such Commission may be taken and prosecuted before a superior judicatory, in the same manner as if the judgment had been rendered by the judicatory.

(c) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 1, shall Chapter x of the Book of Discipline, pertaining to Dissents and Protests, be amended by striking out in Section 107 the phrase "under the provisions of Section 120 of this Book," and by adding at the close of Section 107 the following provisions, to wit:

and provided, that when a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, any member of such judicatory or of the Commission may, within ten days after the rendering of the judgment by the Commission, file his dissent from or protest against the judgment, with the Clerk of the Commission; and the Commission or any member thereof may, within twenty days after the rendering of the judgment, similarly file an answer to any protest; and the Clerk of the Commission shall enter upon the record all dissents, protests and answers, or shall forward the same to the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory to be so entered by him.

Section 107 would then read as follows:

107. No one shall be allowed to dissent or protest who has not a right to vote on the question decided; and in judicial cases no one shall be allowed to dissent or protest who did not vote against the decision; provided, that when a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, any member of the judicatory, to which the decision is reported, may enter his dissent or protest or his answer to any protest, in the same manner as if the case had been tried before the judicatory itself and he had voted thereon; and provided, that when a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, any member of such judicatory or of the Commission may, within ten days after the rendering of the judgment by the Commission, file his dissent from or protest against the judgment, with the Clerk of the Commission; and the Commission or any member thereof may, within twenty days after the rendering of the judgment, similarly file an answer to any protest; and the Clerk of the Commission shall enter upon the record all dissents, protests and answers, or shall forward the same to the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory to be so entered by him.

Overture No. 2.

Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," so far as it applies to Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly, be changed to read as follows:

II. Concerning Judicial Cases in the General Assembly.

125. The General Assembly shall elect a Commission, which shall be called "The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly" and shall be composed of eight ministers and seven ruling elders, of whom not more than two shall belong to the same Synod. At the first election fifteen persons shall be elected, five to serve for one year, five for two years, and five for three years, and thereafter five persons shall be elected annually to serve for three years. The terms of the members of the Commission shall begin with the close of the General Assembly at which they are elected. No person having served a full term shall be eligible for reëlection to the term next ensuing. Any vacancy may be filled by the General Assembly at any meeting thereof by the election of a person for the unexpired term. The General Assembly may transmit to this Commission any judicial case for hearing and decision.

126. The Commission shall annually elect from its members a Moderator and a Clerk, and, in the cases transmitted to it, shall have the powers prescribed by, and conduct its proceedings according to, the Constitution and rules governing the trial of such cases before the General Assembly, to which, also, it shall make reports.

127. The quorum of the Commission shall consist of not less than eleven members, of whom at least six shall be ministers.

128. The meetings of the Commission shall be held at such times and places as the General Assembly shall direct, or, if no directions shall be given, then at such times and places as the Commission shall determine.

129. The decision of the Commission in any case shall be held to be the preliminary judgment in that case, and shall be binding upon each party therein until the date of the final judgment of the General Assembly; provided, that the General Assembly may modify or suspend the preliminary judgment in any case remitted by it for further hearing.

130. The Clerk of the Commission shall keep a full and correct record of the proceedings and preliminary judgment of the Commission in each case transmitted to it; shall with the Moderator certify in writing such record to be full and correct; and shall forthwith transmit a certified copy of the preliminary judgment to each party in the case and file the certified record with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

131. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, upon the request of the Commission or upon its failure to report the certified record of any case when called for by the General Assembly, shall forthwith report the certified record to the General Assembly, and shall preserve it as a part of the records of the same.

132. The preliminary judgment in any case may be reviewed by the General Assembly to which it has been reported, and may be affirmed, reversed, modified, suspended or remitted for further hearing. On such review, if the case be not remitted, the decision of the General Assembly shall be held to be its final judgment. If the case be not reviewed by the General Assembly to which it has been reported, or if it be reviewed and no decision be reached, then at the dissolving of the same the preliminary judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission shall be held to be the final judgment of the General Assembly.

133. The necessary expenses of the Commission shall be provided for by the General Assembly.

Overture No. 3.

III. CONCERNING NON-JUDICIAL OR ADMINISTRATIVE CASES AND REFERENCES.

134. A Presbytery or a Synod may transmit to any Judicial Commission elected by it any non-judicial or administrative case founded on complaint, or any reference, or any case arising under Chapter xiv of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Differences between Judicatories," with such powers as the transmitting judicatory shall confer upon the Commission.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 3, Shall Chapter x, Section viii of the Form of Government, pertaining to the Presbytery, be amended to read as follows:

VIII. The Presbytery has power to receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references that are regularly brought before it from church Sessions, provided, that cases may be transmitted to Judicial Commissions as prescribed in the Book of Discipline; to examine and license candidates for the holy ministry; to ordain, install, remove and judge ministers; to examine and to approve or censure the records of church Sessions; to resolve questions of doctrine or discipline seriously and reasonably proposed; to condemn erroneous opinions which injure the purity or peace of the Church; to visit particular churches for the purpose of inquiring into their state and repressing the evils that may have arisen in them; to unite or divide congregations, at the request of the people, or to form or receive new congregations; and, in general, to order whatever pertains to the spiritual welfare of the churches under their care.

(c) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 3, Shall Chapter xi, Section iv of the Form of Government, pertaining to the Synod, be amended to read as follows:

IV. The Synod has power to receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references that are regularly brought before it from the Presbyteries, and to decide finally in such cases all questions that do not affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church, provided, that cases may be transmitted to Judicial Commissions as prescribed in the Book of Discipline; to review the records of Presbyteries and to approve or censure them; to redress whatever has been done by Presbyteries contrary to order; to take effectual care that Presbyteries observe the Constitution of the Church; to erect new Presbyteries and to unite or divide those which were before erected; generally, to take such order with respect to the Presbyteries, Sessions and people, under their care, as may be in conformity with the Word of God and the established rules and may tend to promote the edification of the Church; and finally, to propose to the General Assembly for its adoption such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church.

(d) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 3, Shall Chapter ix of the Book of Discipline be amended by adding to Section 83, pertaining to Complaints, the following provision, to wit:

When a non-judicial or administrative case has been decided by a Judicial Commission of an inferior judicatory, sitting during an interval between the meetings of such judicatory, a complaint against the decision of the Commission may be entered and prosecuted before a superior judicatory, in the same manner as if the decision had been rendered by the inferior judicatory; and if at least one-third of the members of the Commission, recorded as present when the decision was made, join in such complaint, the execution of the decision of the Commission shall be stayed until the final issue of the case by the next superior judicatory.

Overture No. 4.

III. CONCERNING NON-JUDICIAL OR ADMINISTRATIVE CASES AND REFERENCES.

135. The General Assembly may transmit to The Permanent Judicial Commission any non-judicial or administrative case founded on a complaint, or any reference, or any case arising under Chapter xiv of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Differences between Judicatories," with such powers as the General Assembly shall confer upon the Commission.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 4, Shall Chapter xii, Section iv of the Form of Government, pertaining to the General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:

IV. The General Assembly shall receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references, that affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church and are regularly brought before it from the inferior judicatories, provided, that cases may be transmitted to The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly as prescribed in the Book of Discipline. The General Assembly shall review the records of every Synod and approve or censure them; it shall give its advice and instruction, in all cases submitted to it, in conformity with the Constitution of the Church; and it shall constitute the bond of union, peace, correspondence and mutual confidence among all our churches.

OVERTURE NO. 5.

Shall the Committee of the General Assembly to Supervise the Publication of the Editions of the Constitution make such changes in the numbering of the sections of the Book of Discipline as shall become necessary by the adoption of any of the four preceding Overtures.

Resolution No. 2. That this Committee be continued, or another Committee be appointed by this General Assembly, and be instructed to receive from the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly a statement of the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down, and if it shall appear that any Overture is lost, the Committee shall, if warranted by the nature of the answers, prepare another proposal, to be presented to the next General Assembly with a view to resubmission to the Presbyteries; and to make a report upon any related matters to the next General Assembly.

Resolution No. 3. That the Presbyteries be requested to forward to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly their answers to these Overtures, on or before February 1, 1905.

Respectfully submitted,

The Committee appointed to prepare an answer to the protest of the Rev. John Fox, D.D., and others, against the adoption of the Plan of Union, presented the following, which was adopted:

Your Committee appointed to prepare a brief answer to the protest offered by certain members of this Assembly against its action in adopting the Report of the Committee on Union and Reunion in so far as it relates to union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, would respectfully submit the following answer:

1. The protest is made, "first and chiefly, because the Plan of Union in its first Concurrent Declaration involves an interpretation of the doctrinal Standards of the Church." The protestants "feel that the Constitutional right of the Assembly to make this interpretation is open to grave question." Your Committee would answer that this protest asserts in effect that the supreme court of the Church is not competent to interpret its doctrinal Standards. This mere statement is of itself sufficient answer to the protestants. It is not only the right, but the duty of the General Assembly.

2. The protestants assert that "the two systems of doctrine" contained respectively in the Confessions of Faith of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and our own Church "are antagonistic to each other, especially in the instance of the doctrine of divine decrees." This is simply a difference of opinion. The deliberations of the Assembly involved the judgment of the Commissioners as to this very matter. The overwhelming vote of the Assembly in adopting the Report of the Committee indicated that the Assembly as a body does not agree with the protestants.

3. The protestants assert that "grave practical difficulties, affecting the well-being of the Church and the orderly administration of its affairs and menacing many sacred and precious interests, have not received from either the Committee or the Assembly such a degree of careful consideration as is demanded by their exceeding importance."

For answer it should be said that this action of the Assembly is to give expression to the general attitude of our Church toward the proposal of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to effect organic union of the two bodies. Both Churches recognize the fact that numerous details involved in the consummation of this union must have careful consideration after the Presbyteries have taken action upon the Overture sent down by both Assemblies. To withhold our expression of readiness to proceed toward the completion of the negotiations thus hopefully begun, because of details whose consideration would naturally be adjusted by subsequent conference between the two bodies, would be to betray a lack of mutual trust between brethren which we do not entertain.

Let the great fundamental fact be made clear that both bodies desire to advance every possible step toward union, as it has now been announced to the world, and no doubt need be entertained that the Spirit of God will guide the task of harmonious adjustment of all necessary details. Let us give full place to our confident faith in the guidance of the Spirit of Christ and the Christian love of our brethren in Him.

The Standing Committee on Church Polity, through Rev. Israel A. White, a member of the Committee, presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Polity respectfully submits the following recommendation on Overtures which have been referred to it:

Overture No. 43, from the Presbytery of Wyoming, and endorsed by the Synod of Colorado, asking that certain churches within the Presbyteries of Utah and Kendall be transferred from the Synod of Utah to the Synod of Colorado. The Committee recommends that the request be granted, and that the Assembly enact as follows: "That that part of the State of Wyoming lying west of the 110th meridian, with the churches and ministers within its limit, be transferred to the Synod of Colorado, except the churches of Evanston and Cokeville."

Overture No. 39, from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, requesting that the words found in the Confession of Faith, Chapter xxiv, Section 6, "or such wilful desertion as can no way be remedied by the Church or civil magistrate," be stricken out. The Committee recommends that no action be taken.

Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Buffalo, asking whether Presbytery has the power to act by Commission in other than judicial business. The Committee recommends that it be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 59, from the Weihsien Presbytery of the Synod of North China, asking that in cases where the foreign Presbyteries decline to vote, the attitude of these Presbyteries toward the question at issue be considered as neutral, and not negative. The Committee recommends that no action be taken.

Overtures Nos. 33–35, from the Presbytery of Brooklyn, the Presbytery of New York and the Presbytery of Rochester, asking that pastors be requested to report the names of church members removing to the cities to the pastors in such cities. The Committee recommends that the Overtures be approved.

Overture No. 44, from the Presbytery of Porto Rico, asking that the said Presbytery be transferred from the Synod of Iowa to the Synod of New York on the ground of economy. The Committee recommends that the request be granted, and the Assembly enact as follows: "That the Presbytery of Porto Rico be transferred from the Synod of Iowa to the Synod of New York."

Overture No. 40, from the Presbytery of Iowa City, asking that the following words be added to Section 40, Chapter 6, Book of Discipline: "When the accused has been found guilty and suspended or deposed by the Presbytery trying him, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk of said Presbytery to inform the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of said action of Presbytery and reasons therefor. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly shall thereupon inform the ministers on our Assembly's roll of said action and reason, within sixty days of receipt of this information." The Committee recommends that no action be taken.

Overture No. 45, from the Presbytery of East Oregon, requesting a division of the said Presbytery. The Committee recommends that it be referred back to the Presbytery, to be presented to its Synod.

Overtures Nos. 28 to 32, from the Synod of India, and from the Presbyteries of Lodiana, Furrukhabad, Lahore and Allahabad, asking that permission be granted the Synod to unite with the Presbyterian Church in India. These Overtures contemplate the establishment of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in India, by the representatives of the following Churches:

1. The Presbyterian Church of Ireland,
2. The Established Church of Scotland,
3. The Presbyterian Church in England,
4. The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America,
5. The Gopalgunge Presbyterian Mission in Bengal,
6. The United Free Church of Scotland,
7. The Welsh Calvinistic Methodist Church,
8. The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
9. The Reformed Dutch Church now united with the South India Synod.

Of these Churches the proposed union has been approved by the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, the Established Church of Scotland conditionally, the Gopalgunge Mission, and the South India United Church; and in the Minutes of our General Assembly for 1903, page 170, "it was ordered that record be made of the Assembly's approval of the union of the Presbyterian Church in India."

The Committee recommends that the request be granted and that the Assembly enact as follows: That the Synod of India, with its component Presbyteries, be dismissed to unite with the Presbyterian Church in India, said dismission to take effect when the Synod is received into the Presbyterian Church in India.

Paper No. 73, being a statement as to the dissent of a member of Allahabad Presbytery in the matter of Presbyterian Union in India. It is recommended that no action be taken.

Paper No. 74, being a Memorial from the Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., and others, asking the erection of the Presbytery of Havana. The Committee recommends that the Memorial be granted, and that the Assembly enact as follows: That the Presbytery of Havana be and is hereby erected, to consist of the following ministers: Pedro Rioseco, J. Milton Greene, Herbert S. Harris, A. Waldow Stevenson, Evaristo P. Collaro, and also of the churches connected with this General Assembly and its mission on the Island of Cuba. The Presbytery of Havana shall be convened by the Rev. J.

Milton Greene, D.D., and shall meet at such date as may be convenient to a majority of its members. The Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., shall preach the opening sermon and preside until the Presbytery shall be regularly organized. The Presbytery is hereby placed under the jurisdiction of the Synod of New Jersey.

Overture No. 76, from the Presbytery of South Florida, requesting the General Assembly to proceed to organize a Synod in and of Florida. It is recommended that the Presbytery of South Florida furnish the General Assembly of 1905 with the information as to ministers and churches, whereupon to proceed to organize a Synod in and of Florida.

The following Overtures from the Synod of Pennsylvania, dated October, 1903, have been placed in our hands:

First, "That the Synod of Pennsylvania respectfully overtures the General Assembly of 1904 to erect a new Synod to be called the Synod of West Virginia, with boundaries coterminous with the boundaries of the State of West Virginia."

Second, "That the Synod of Pennsylvania respectfully overtures the General Assembly of 1904 to erect a third Presbytery in the State of West Virginia, to constitute a part of the new Synod of West Virginia, to be called the Presbytery of Wheeling; and in order to the erection of the said Presbytery of Wheeling, that the General Assembly divide the Presbytery of Washington, in the Synod of Pennsylvania, on the State line; and those ministers and churches within the State of West Virginia now belonging to the Presbytery of Washington, and as many other ministers and churches and so much territory adjacent as the General Assembly may deem wise, be placed in the said Presbytery of Wheeling."

In accordance with these Overtures, we recommend:

First, That the Presbytery of Washington be and hereby is divided on the State line, and that those ministers and churches which now belong to the Presbytery of Washington, that are in the State of West Virginia, constitute the Presbytery of Wheeling.

Second, That the Synod of West Virginia be and hereby is erected, to consist of the Presbyteries of Wheeling, Grafton and Parkersburg.

Third, That the Presbytery of Wheeling, as so defined, shall meet on the 6th day of June, 1904, at 8 P.M., in the Third Presbyterian Church of Wheeling. The Rev. Charles H. McDonald is hereby appointed Moderator (or, in case of his absence or inability to act, then the oldest minister in commission) to convene the Presbytery, preach the opening sermon, and preside until the Presbytery shall be regularly organized.

Fourth, That the Synod of West Virginia be directed to meet in the First Presbyterian Church of Parkersburg, W. Va., on the eighteenth day of October, 1904, at 7.30 P.M. Rev. J. H. Flanagan, D.D., is hereby appointed Moderator (or, in case of his absence or inability to act, then the oldest minister in commission), to convene the Synod, preach the opening sermon and preside until the Synod shall be regularly organized.

Rev. Howard A. Johnston, D.D., Rev. Henry Forman, D.D., and Mr. William T. Ellis were appointed a Committee to prepare a message to the Synod of India, in view of its proposed dismissal to the Presbyterian Church in India.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was adopted:

I. We recommend that Overtures Nos. 36, 89–90, from the Synod of Illinois, Schuyler Presbytery, etc., asking that delegated Synods be allowed to omit from their Records the names of absentees, be answered in the affirmative.

II. In response to the requests of the American Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System contained in its Report, we recommend—

That Section 1, as to the spiritual welfare of American and European residents in foreign seaports, be referred to the Board of Foreign Missions.

That Section 2, with its Resolutions as to the use of the Bible in the public schools of the United States, be adopted by the General Assembly, to wit:

(a) This Assembly expresses its sincere gratification that so much stress is laid upon sound moral training by our School System, and that the Bible is so largely read in the public schools of this country; and it also expresses the earnest hope that this desirable condition may continue through all the days to come.

(b) This Assembly expresses its regret that confusion should have been introduced into the practice regarding the use of the Bible in our public schools, by reason of the inconsistent decisions by the Courts and the varying interpretations given by school authorities in different places of practically the same constitutional and statutory provisions, and that the Section advises the officers and people of the Churches of the Alliance in this country that they should seek to exert a prudent Christian influence upon public sentiment in their respective localities upon this subject.

(c) This Assembly expresses its judgment that moral instruction and ethical training are necessary for good citizenship, and should have a place in our Public School System, and that this is possible without inculcating any denominational tenets; and, further, that this Section expresses its judgment that the Bible is the very best instrument to impart this moral instruction and training, in connection with our public schools.

That Section 6, touching Sabbath-school Lesson Helps for Hungarian Sabbath-schools, be referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

That Section 8, relative to religious work in the Philippines and Porto Rico, be adopted. Its resolutions are as follows:

1. That we rejoice in the provisions of the Constitution of the United States of America which are designed to aid in the promotion of religious liberty.

2. That we understand that the relation of the Federal Government of the United States to religious work in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico is and ought to be one of absolute impartiality between different religious denominations, and of helpfulness in establishing full religious liberty, limited, however, by the qualification that no religious practices should be tolerated which are recognized by the general consent of the Christian world in modern times as proper matters for prohibitory legislation.

As to the other matters to which attention is called in the paper from the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, no action is needed, as they have been dealt with in other connections.

III. We recommend the adoption of the following:

The General Assembly having heard with pleasure of the work of the American Bible Society, and having received from its Board of Managers an official communication relating thereto, desires again to put on record its hearty endorsement of the Society's work in securing the publication and circulation of the Scriptures in all languages and in all lands. The Assembly rejoices to know of the progress already made in attaining this end, but would remind all our churches and ministers that this work is far from being fully accomplished. We learn with regret that the Society is straitened in its work by the lack of funds. And we cordially renew the recommendations of former General Assemblies, and add to them a recommendation that more efficient measures be taken in all our Presbyteries and all our churches to secure regular annual collections for this object.

IV. In response to the request of the Chairman of the Home Mission Committee of the Synod of Wisconsin, we recommend that as the American Bell of Liberty in its itinerary to St. Louis and The Louisiana Purchase Exposition is to pass through Wisconsin, and be on exhibition on Sunday, June 5, at Milwaukee, Watertown, Portage and other cities, and inasmuch as tens of thousands of people will be gathered at all the stations to see it, the General Assembly records its earnest protest against this desecration of the Lord's Day, and this direct blow at our American liberties of which this bell is an emblem.

V. We recommend that the following Resolutions referred to your Committee by the General Assembly, be adopted:

Resolved, That hereafter all Overtures from Presbyteries and Synods which are to come before the General Assembly shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly, the distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

VI. We recommend that as the Lewis and Clark Exposition is to be held in the city of Portland, Oregon, in 1905, and as it is to be both National and International, the General Assembly earnestly requests the Legislature of Oregon to convene next winter to take action to keep the gates of the Exposition closed on the Lord's Day.

VII. We recommend that the paper from the Rev. W. F. Dunkle, of Indian Territory, as to prohibitory temperance legislation in Oklahoma and Indian Territory, be referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance.

VIII. Communications addressed to the General Assembly have been received from the Chairman of the Executive Council of the National Civic Federation, Ralph M. Easly, requesting the General Assembly to take such action as may enroll the Church among the organized forces actively working for improved relations between labor and its employers; and also from the President of the Arbitration Council, Mr. George May Powell, earnestly memorializing the Assembly to make its influence to be actively felt on the side of both international and industrial peace, especially to the ends of conciliation and arbitration being insisted upon to settle warring interests. The Committee would recommend the following answer:

The Presbyterian Church has always believed, and does now most earnestly and profoundly believe, that the principles of the religion of Jesus Christ are the only basis upon which any true and lasting peace can be established between nations or between men in their industrial and other relations; and so believing the Church offers its earnest prayers and devotes its consecrated energies to the universal establishment of these principles, knowing that when the nations have received and adopted them they will learn war no more, and when men have embraced them they will dwell together as brethren; the employer, remembering that his employees are brethren, will treat them justly and righteously, and employees will remember that the employer has rights which must be respected; and while so believing, the Church rejoices in the efforts of all those who are laboring to apply these principles to specific cases and causes. Believing that the National Civic Federation and the Arbitration Council are working along the lines of these principles, and for high and righteous ends, we most heartily commend their efforts and offer our prayers for their success. Gladly will we hail the day when nations shall settle their differences and men their industrial contentions in the arena of calm, just council and arbitration.

Respectfully submitted,

R. F. Coyle, Chairman.

A paper presented with reference to Reed Smoot, U. S. Senator from Utah, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Young People's Societies, through its Chairman, Rev. J. A. T. McGaw, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, William T. Ellis and Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Young People's Societies submits the following Report:

There have been placed in our hands the Report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, and an Overture from the Presbytery of Clarion, endorsed by eight other Presbyteries, concerning "the necessity of organizing Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies into Mission Bands for the study of the great subject of Missions."

Your Committee recognizes the appointment by the Assembly of a Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies as a distinct advance step in the interest of a too-long-neglected department of our Church work. The interests of our Young People's Societies are surely of sufficient importance to warrant special oversight and guidance from the Church as a whole. The training of the young people of our Church in Christian activity, in public expression of their allegiance to Christ, in private devotion and in a knowledge of their Presbyterian heritage, is a matter of no secondary importance. The promise is "instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth." If the children of the Church are to be fitted for this high dignity, they must be carefully taught and trained. The Young People's Society may be made a most effective training school. The appointment of a Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies means progress in the direction of increasing the loyalty of the young people to their own denomination, without in the least diminishing that blessed denominational fellowship which the Presbyterian Church believes in and seeks to cultivate. It is highly important that our Young People's Societies should be kept in closest relations with the local church and with the denominational Boards and Courts. Presbyterian young people can be trained in loyalty to their own denomination without becoming narrowly sectarian. They should be led into a knowledge of what the Presbyterian Church stands for and of the grand work which it has done and is doing in the world. They should be made to feel that the Church is interested in their welfare, and that she counts on their loyal and loving service. We long to see a quickened enthusiasm on the part of the young people for their own Church, and a quickened enthusiasm on the part of the Church for its young people.

Convinced that the Permanent Committee is working to this end, we take pleasure in approving its Report and recommendations. We believe that its work, especially as projected in its first Report to the Assembly, should receive the Assembly's hearty endorsement, and that its labors should be continued and extended. Whatever support or coöperation it may need from the churches or from any Board should be freely extended to it. We regard as of particular value the work of the Permanent Committee in outlining a course of study for use in our Young People's Societies. It has thus responded to a widespread desire, as indicated by the Overtures which have come to the Assembly from nine Presbyteries. In doing so it has not ventured on an untried course. Almost every large denomination has for years been operating a similar plan, and the results have fully justified the undertaking. Presbyterians young and old are a reading, thinking, studying people, and we are assured that such a course as that outlined by the Permanent Committee will, if properly presented, meet with prompt and favorable reception.

The work of the Permanent Committee cannot be done without expense. All the members freely give of their time and ability to this service. It goes without saying that they should not be expected in addition to bear this expense out of their own pocket. In our recommendations we present a plan by which we believe that the small sum necessary to meet the expenses of the Committee can be met promptly and without imposing a burden upon the Church. The Course of Study outlined by the Permanent Committee will, your Committee believes, be a satisfactory answer to the Overtures of the Clarion and other Presbyteries.

We submit the following recommendations:

1. The Assembly earnestly recommends that every Synod and Presbytery which has not done so, appoint a Standing Committee on Young People's Societies which will be alert to its opportunities and duties.

2. Recognizing the value of such a Course of Study as that which has been outlined by the Permanent Committee, the Assembly urges Synods, Presbyteries, Sessions and Young People's Societies to secure the adoption and prosecution of the Course wherever possible, and as soon as possible.

3. That the expenses of the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies be apportioned among the Presbyteries as follows, it being understood that this action is a recommendation: Presbyteries containing 10,000 communicants and over, to contribute $20 or more each; Presbyteries containing between 5000 and 10,000 communicants, to contribute $10 each; and Presbyteries having under 5000 communicants, to contribute $5 each.

4. That Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., Mr. W. D. Murray and Mr. John Willis Baer be appointed as members of the Permanent Committee, to serve for three years.

5. That in order to secure a constant supply of fresh material in the composition of the Committee, it be hereafter observed in the appointment of members of this Committee that no person who has served a full term of three years upon the Committee shall be eligible to immediate reappointment.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES A. P. MCGAW, Chairman.

The Committee appointed to prepare a fraternal message to the Synod of India presented the following, which was adopted:

Your Committee appointed to send a fraternal message to the Synod of India would respectfully report as follows:

WHEREAS, The Synod of India has overtured this Assembly to authorize its dismissal in order that it may become a part of the Presbyterian Church of India, and this Assembly has granted this request; and

WHEREAS, It would seem becoming to give some adequate expression to our affection for our brethren in India, and our appreciation of their faithful labors; therefore be it Resolved, 1. That we give our hearty thanks to God for His gracious blessing upon the labors of our brethren in India, who now number five Presbyteries, with a membership of about five thousand souls.

Resolved, 2. That we rejoice in the spirit of brotherly love among the various branches of Presbyterians in India, which has drawn them into this unity of church life and work.

Resolved, 3. That we shall continue to cherish our brethren in India as our representatives in that field, and we pledge to them and their work our continued and faithful support.

Resolved, 4. That while this Assembly regrets the sundering of the immediate ties which have bound us hitherto, we rejoice in the conditions which makes the separation wise and best.

Resolved, 5. That we earnestly pray that the blessings of God's abounding and abiding grace may be given to our brethren as they enter this union, and to the Presbyterian Church in India, to the end that it may prove to be an increasing instrument in the mighty hand of the God of our salvation, until India shall be born again and shall rejoice in the blessings of the redeemed.

HOWARD AGNEW JOHNSTON,
WILLIAM T. ELLIS,
Committee.

The Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply presented its Report, which was accepted.

A minority Report was also presented and accepted.

Pending a motion to adopt the minority Report, the subject was postponed until this afternoon.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report upon the paper referring to Reed Smoot, which was adopted:

In agreement with the spirit of the Assembly of 1899 (Minutes, p. 100), 1900 (Minutes, p. 108), 1901 (Minutes, p. 50), 1903 (Minutes, p. 149), relative to the aggressions, crimes and menace of the Mormon hierarchy;

Be it Resolved, That this Assembly most respectfully but earnestly calls upon the people of the United States to use their utmost endeavor, employing all honorable means, to secure the expulsion of Apostle Reed Smoot from the halls of the National Senate, and urges the Senate itself and each member thereof to exhaust all legal means to this end, in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Constitution.

Resolved, That this Assembly also calls upon the people and Congress of the United States, in both Houses, and each member of each House, to employ and exhaust all legal and honorable means to secure such an amendment of the Federal Constitution as shall define legal marriage as monogamic, and make polygamy and polygamous cohabitation under every guise and pretense a crime against the United States, punishable by adequate penalties.

For the Committee,

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Correspondence would respectfully report that although the following action was taken by the General Assembly of 1879, to wit: "The Assembly, with the most cordial esteem for the brethren of the other Presbyterian Churches, will in future decline to appoint any such delegates, and content themselves with the appointment of Commissioners to the General Council of the Alliance," yet whereas this General Assembly has been honored by a fraternal delegation from the Presbyterian Church in Canada, your Committee would heartily recommend that Rev. William Y. Chapman, D.D., of Buffalo, N. Y., and Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., pastor of the American Presbyterian Church, Montreal, be appointed fraternal delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, to hold its sessions in St. John, N. B., June 1, 1904; and that Rev. George L. Shearer, D.D., of the Presbytery of New York, be appointed delegate to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in session at Greenville, Pa.

A fraternal letter from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America has been received. We recommend that this letter be answered by the Stated Clerk.

A letter has also been received from the General Assembly of the Trans-Danubian Reformed Churches of Hungary at too late an hour for the Committee on Correspondence to take action upon the same. We recommend that this letter be referred to the Stated Clerk for answer.

We would recommend that Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., the American Secretary of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System, be heard at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES S. RICHARDSON, Chairman.

The Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., addressed the Assembly, bringing fraternal greetings from the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System.

The Stated Clerk, in connection with the Alliance, respectfully stated that his duty as delegate to the Eighth Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, and his office as American Secretary of said Alliance, would require his presence at Liverpool, England, on June 28, 1904, and therefore an absence from his office for a brief period.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance was made the Order for this afternoon, following the Report on Vacancy and Supply.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 28, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following was adopted:

Resolved, That all further reading of the Reports of Committees which have been printed and distributed amongst the Commissioners be dispensed with, except the recommendations contained in such Reports.

It was ordered that speeches be henceforth limited to five minutes.

The Joint Committee on Psalms in Metre reported progress, and was continued. The sum of $15 was voted for the expenses of the Committee.

The Stated Clerk was authorized by unanimous consent to cast the ballot in behalf of the Assembly for the following members of the Board of the Church Erection Fund: Ministers—S. M. Hamilton, D.D., W. A. Holliday, D.D., Duncan J. McMillan, D.D.; Elders—Frederick G. Burnham, E. Francis Hyde, John Sinclair; to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ezra P. Hoyt, Everett J. Esselstyn; to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Daniel J. Holden, Edward C. Van Glahn. These were all declared duly elected.

The Stated Clerk was also authorized, by unanimous consent, to cast the ballot for the following as Trustees of the General Assembly: William H. Miller, D.D., and George W. Bailey, M.D., who were declared duly elected.

The Reports on Vacancy and Supply were referred to a Committee consisting of Rev. Edwin H. Curtis, D.D., and Hon. Robert N. Willson.

The Standing Committee on Temperance, through Rev. James E. Giffin, Secretary of the Committee, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by said Secretary was adopted. The Report is as follows:

In presenting our Report to this Assembly, no apology is made for asking earnest attention to the subject of Temperance, for no question that has been up before us is of more vital interest to our Church than this. Of all the weapons used against the Church of Christ, we believe intemperance is the most dangerous and deadly; for "No drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven." There is no greater enemy to the peace and happiness of earthly homes than drunkenness, no greater feeder to misery, pauperism and crime than the sparkling bowl. Notwithstanding all that has been said and done by churches, societies and individuals, the enemy of the peace of our homes is still very much alive and increasing in strength.

Ten years ago, in this country, the amount of intoxicating liquors consumed for the year was 16.97 gallons for every man, woman and child in these United States of America. Last year (1903) it was 19.98 gallons, an increase of 3.01 gallons per capita. The revenue collected in 1902 by the Government was $183,312,-634; the amount collected last year was $194,857,625, making an increase of $11,544,991 revenue in one year. The total value of liquors sold in 1902, exclusive of that used in the arts, was $1,173,-200,857. The value of the amount sold last year was $1,242,943,-118, an increase of $69,692,261, which went to swell the coffers of saloon-keepers and to increase pauperism and crime.

The Permanent Committee on Temperance are alive to the situation, and have done noble work during the last year, though they have had much to contend with. The last General Assembly recommended and urged the raising of $10,000 for their work, and the sum of $2681.14 was raised. Comment is unnecessary. And yet, with their hands thus tied, and no office for their work, their output of temperance literature is about 1,500,000 pages. If we include what they have published in the daily and weekly papers and magazines the total would approximate 4,000,000 pages. While they are all busy men and some of them pastors of churches, they have done work in several directions. They conscientiously carried out the recommendation of the last General Assembly in memorializing Congress with regard to the Hepburn Bill, which was finally passed; in laboring to do away with the Army Canteen, and in causing saloon advertisements to be thrown out of no less than sixteen magazines.

You, brethren, may think that $10,000 was a good deal of money to use in the temperance cause, and yet the saloons in this city are being taxed $5 a month each to fight all enactments that have for their object any prohibition of their accursed traffic. And the same thing is also true in many other cities to a large extent. No county in any part of our land can come to a vote on local option, but it will be flooded with literature published by the enemies of temperance and sobriety before the vote is taken.

About one in four of our entire population tipples to a greater or less extent. Twenty millions have listened to the tempter and they are after our boys. Shall they have them? The W. C. T. U., The Anti-Saloon League, and other societies and church organizations are at work trying to save the boys. We have a noble band of workers, this Permanent Committee on Temperance, who gave much of their time last year and hundreds of dollars from their own pockets to help save our boys. Shall we—will we help the Committee in this work? The following resolutions are offered for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That we recommend the raising of $10,000 in money to help the Committee in its work this year, and that the Board of Publication and S. S. Work, if the state of its treasury permits, give favorable consideration to the request of the Committee for $1000 worth of literature for the work of temperance.

Resolved, 2. That after having carefully examined the books and papers of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, which we find well and carefully kept, we recommend their approval and the adoption of their Report to the General Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That we recommend the reappointment of Charles S. McClelland, D.D., T. B. Anderson, D.D., and William C. Lilley, whose terms of office expire at this time. Also the appointment of R. Van Eman Johnson to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Cyrus L. Rose, the veteran member of the Permanent Committee from 1886 until March 15, 1904, when he died. We also recommend the appointment of Paul H. Gaither to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. M. Ewing, Esq.

Resolved, 4. That as the Permanent Committee on Temperance have no office or room for their Secretary, or for their supplies, they be instructed to secure a suitable room for the office of the Secretary; and as he is pastor of one of the churches, and a busy man, that he be authorized to employ a clerk.

Resolved, 5. That if the funds warrant it we recommend the employment of Temperance missionaries, not to exceed five in number, and that two of them shall be colored men, who will labor among their own people.

Resolved, 6. That we recommend the work of Temperance to our Sabbath-schools, by instruction in connection with the temperance lesson, the use of tracts, signing of the pledge, roll of honor, and any practical or effective means of imparting the principles of purity and sobriety to our children. All this work to be controlled by the superintendent, under the direction of the Session.

Resolved, 7. That we deplore the use of tobacco in any form by the membership of our Church, and especially by the ministers and elders, and would urge the importance of the careful instruction of the youth of our land on this subject. We favor the legal suppression of the manufacture and sale of cigarettes.

Resolved, 8. That we commend to our people and pastors all organizations having for their object the restriction and suppression of the liquor traffic, advising them to ally themselves with these organizations and coöperate with them as they have opportunity.

Resolved, 9. That Temperance Day be changed from the fourth Sabbath of November to the third Sabbath of October.

A communication having been referred to the Standing Committee on Temperance in regard to a concerted action on the part of the religious bodies of the nation to memorialize Congress to insert in the Statehood Bill or Enabling Act for the admission of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory as one State a provision for the maintenance of the prohibition law of Indian Territory, enacted by Congress and now strictly enforced for that part of the State now covered by the Indian Territory; therefore,

Resolved, That this matter be referred to the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and that it be authorized to memorialize Congress, in harmony with the above request, if, in its judgment, it seems wise to do so.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID A. JEWELL, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence, through its Chairman, Rev. Corliss B. Gardner, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

We have had before us the Twenty-fifth Annual Report of the Assembly's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, setting forth work done, principles inculcated and objects sought by this important arm of Church service. We find this Report worthy of careful reading and full consideration. An unique feature of it is its résumé of what has been done, with the approval of the General Assembly, in the past decade for the development of Systematic Beneficence in the churches, by way of apportionment of sums to be raised by Presbyteries in their churches for the Boards of the Church; providing pledge cards for all Sessions willing to make a canvass of their congregations, to reach every communicant for weekly offerings for the Boards; correcting by roll call in Presbytery and correspondence neglect on the part of churches to contribute annually to each of the Boards, and delay in forwarding collections; securing instruction in theological seminaries on the subject of Systematic Beneficence, also the history, object and operations of the Boards of the Church; and promoting in a general way by printed matter an increase in the number and amount of contributions. Thus a wide field of theoretical and practical work in the cause of Church Benevolence has been cultivated. We recognize the value and importance of such a work. Money is needed largely in the aggressive warfare of the Church against sin, error and unbelief; and is best obtained through systematic effort by education and training. It is not thought, however, that Systematic Beneficence has to do with the obtaining of money alone, but that it has in view the cultivation of the proper spirit and purpose of giving; and this involves spiritual life and prayer. In many enterprises the raising of funds is only a secular undertaking; in this it is eminently religious and spiritual. Let it not be forgotten that if the heart is made right and the spiritual life improved, the grace of giving is perforce developed and amplified.

The Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence has this important work in charge. This Committee is much like the spring of a clock, which exerts its energy through various wheels and pinions upon the ticker which governs the movements of the pendulum beating out the time, in that it aims through various organizations, methods and individuals to reach all the churches, and sets every member on tick to mark time for the forward march of God's elect to the conquest of the world for Christ.

I. Our System of Boards and Its Efficient Operation.—The Benevolent Boards of our Church are wisely planned and exceedingly well adapted to the work for which they were created. The whole system of Boards is a growth and not a theoretical development. The Boards themselves came into being one after another as exigencies arose and needs required. There is a reason for the existence of each and every one of them, and a Scriptural ground. If they had no Biblical basis or authority we might not feel under the same obligation that we do now to sustain and advance them. They may have seemed at times more in number than necessary, distracting attention, clashing somewhat in their interests, and entailing unnecessary expenditure for their maintenance. But it should be remembered that the field of benevolent work to be cultivated is vast, the services to be rendered are diverse, and the cost of administration is moderate, in comparison with other agencies of equal moment. If, however, the General Assembly shall ever see fit in its wisdom to merge or combine any of these benevolent agencies, it will be done undoubtedly with due regard to strength and efficiency. We are in duty bound for the sake of Benevolence to execute our work of beneficence as economically as possible. As it is, these Boards make their appeal for financial support to the entire membership of the Church with a grip of obligation as strong as Scripture truth and Church authority can make it. Our Church believes in Systematic Beneficence, and more than most others cultivates it. Her doctrine requires it and her polity fosters it. Our people are a giving people, their benevolences flow widely and fructify abundantly even beyond the pale of our own Church. They are outdone by none in this regard. To give abroad is well, but we are under the strongest obligation to contribute to benevolent work through the agencies under our own control. Though much is done in this direction, there is a capacity and need for great increase of gifts and offerings for the work of our Boards. These Boards are the arms of the Church, by which she wields her spiritual weapons against the foes that dispute the progress of the kingdom of God; or, speaking more numerically, they are the palms and fingers of her hands, by which she lays hold of her task of enlightening, purifying and saving the world, by preaching the Word, lifting up the fallen, relieving the oppressed, delivering the captives, healing the sick, comforting the afflicted, and rescuing those who are in the path of misery and the way to destruction. For this great philanthropic saving work the rich should give much—without their munificent gifts the Church would often be crippled in her work—the great middle class of the well-to-do should give liberally, and the poor should give something. The efficiency of these Boards as agencies is shown by the extent of their operations covering the land and the world, by the amount of money expended in this work, by the wider outlook obtained through their activities, and the increasing demand made by their services upon the monetary resources of the Church. Their efficiency is also shown in the small expenditure required for their administration, as compared with successful business enterprises of the world.

The percentage of expense in relation to sums administered and successes reached is much less than in other corporations of equal or greater volume. Some people suppose and claim that a very considerable portion of the contributions of the Church is consumed in transmission to the point of benevolent application. They could make no greater mistake or falser assertion. It is time that this empty excuse for small contributions or no contributions at all were beaten to flinders and obliterated.

II. Means and Measures for the Maintenance of the Work of the Boards.—The Boards themselves suitably make their appeals in various ways directly to the churches for contributions in support of their work; but the Special Committee on Beneficence has in charge the work of devising means and methods of promoting in the churches the habit of giving regularly to the work of each of the Boards. There are several things to be aimed at in this work. It is needful—

1. That the people give intelligently. They must be informed about the work for which they give. They should have some knowledge of its scope, its necessity and its value. They should be made acquainted with the facts and the situation and the demands of it.

2. They should be taught to give conscientiously. The conscience is to be educated in respect of this grace of giving. The people should be led to see what is duty in this matter, and to feel the grip of obligation.

3. It is needful that contributions be made with regularity, that the giving be not merely by fortuitous impulse or of a spasmodic character. Our great object is the creation of the habit of giving methodically.

4. Contributions should be in amount according to ability. No particular percentage can be enjoined upon the contributor. He is to be left to his own free and hearty decision as to what the amount of his contribution shall be, but he is to be taught that it should be according to ability. And his gift should be with prayer as unto God. These are the main principles to be instilled into the mind.

When it comes to means for bringing this about and of promoting systematic giving, the minister in charge and the Session of the church are the most important agencies. It is difficult to reach the people over the heads of the minister and Session. If they are indifferent or neglectful or antagonistic little or nothing can be done. It is permitted us to think that pastors generally are awake to this subject and are faithful in the fulfillment of their obligation. But there may be, and probably are, a good many exceptions.

The printed page or leaflet is of much value in the work of cultivating beneficence, and in educating, inciting and directing. But type can never take the place of speech and personality. Much of the reading matter distributed is rendered nugatory and lost. Many find no time to read it, many have no taste for it and rather spurn it. But what comes from the lips and magnetic personality of the preacher and the canvasser must be heard, and will have the promise of being heeded. Our ministers should preach and speak often on the needs of the Boards and the benevolent work of the Church. Presbyterial Committees also have a service to perform and a responsibility to meet in this particular. Popular meetings for the discussion of Systematic Beneficence in Presbyteries and in churches are useful. As to methods for gathering contributions, no one scheme is likely to be made to prevail in all the churches. Liberty of choice must be granted here as in other things.

The ideal to be reached, universal uniformity of method, we can hardly expect; but unanimity in effort and purpose we may hopefully seek and possibly attain. The pledge card method of canvassing has proven most successful, and is probably the best of all methods. It is to be commended to all. The method of stated collections, carefully provided for and announced, has been found most successful by many. The special field of service plan furnishes a powerful incentive and generally meets with a successful result. But whatever method be employed the cause will not prosper without "line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little." The ideal to be realized is a contribution from every church, and all the communicants, annually, to each and all of our Boards.

III. A Statistical Summary of Results.—A summary of the amounts received up to March 31 of the current year shows that

The Board of Home Missions has received an increase of $4,454 over last year, though the increase is due to legacies, to which were credited nearly $44,000.	$820,606
The Board of Education has received nearly $7,000 less than last year.	65,214
Publication and S. S. Work has received	147,090
Church Erection has received	174,618
Ministerial Relief has received more than $35,000 less than last year.	197,008
Freedmen has received	183,015
Colleges and Academies has received	186,262
Foreign Missions. (April 30) has received an increase of $16,377 over last year.	1,131,510
Total	$2,905,323

Percentage for administration:
Home Missions entire	6.25
S. S. Missionary	5.05
Ministerial Relief	4.9
Colleges and Academies	4.50
Foreign Missions	6.25
Amount needed for next year's work for all Boards together	$3,500,000

To meet which we have 7,835 churches, 1,085,000 members, and need about $3.22 per member.

This year averaged about $2.70 per member; one cent a week from every member will more than meet the requirement.

We have to recommend:

1. That Presbyterial Committees on Systematic Beneficence urge Sessions to canvass congregations each year, to ascertain in advance the amounts that can be depended upon by different Boards from the churches.

2. That Presbyteries and Synods hold popular meetings on Systematic Beneficence, and that Presbyteries urge Sessions to do the same.

3. That all our Theological Seminaries be urged to present the subject of Systematic Beneficence to their students, and that pastors speak and preach frequently on the same subject.

4. That Presbyteries instruct Sessions to urge the treasurers of all church societies to send their contributions soon after these have been received, if possible within one month.

5. We urge Presbyterial Committees to secure from Rev. William H. Hubbard, D.D., Auburn, N. Y., or from Adam Campbell, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City, subscription blanks, envelopes and leaflets on the subject of Systematic Beneficence, and distribute the same among the churches under their care.

6. We further recommend that the Special Committee of last year be continued for the current year.

The Committee has audited the financial Report of the Treasurer of the Special Committee and find it, with the vouchers, correct.

C. B. GARDNER, Chairman.

The Committee to which was referred the Reports on Vacancy and Supply presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Vacancy and Supply respectfully reports that it was continued by the last Assembly, to further investigate the conditions prevalent in the Church as to the employment of unemployed ministers and the care of vacant churches.

The Committee submits for information the statistics of ministerial employment and of the condition of the churches, as shown by the Reports of the Presbyteries for 1903. They are as follows:

EXHIBIT—MINISTERS.

Pastors	3534
Stated Supplies	1428
Home Missionaries	264
Foreign Missionaries	223
Honorably Retired	465
Professors and Teachers	285
Evangelists	450
Without Charge, etc	777
Ecclesiastical Officers	176
In transitu	96
Suspended	7
Total Ministers	7705

EXHIBIT—CHURCHES.

With Pastors	3805
With Stated Supplies	2777
Total Churches	7822

These figures show that about May 1, 1903, there were in the Church 1227 ministers who were designated as evangelists or without charge. The vacant churches at the same time numbered 1240, an increase over 1902 of 108. The number of ministers without regular employment was thirteen less than the number of vacant churches.

The Committee finds but little advance in the number of self-supporting churches. Of the total of 7822 churches, only 3431, or 43.9 per cent., contribute sufficient sums for the whole of their support.

Further, of the 1227 ministers who were not in regular employment, not more than one-third were so situated as to be able to render continuous service in the pastorate.

The situation has been made more difficult by the decline in the number of students and candidates for the ministry. The following figures are from the official returns of the Presbyteries and theological seminaries. In 1896, we had in our seminaries 921 students; in 1903 we had 636, the decrease being 285. In 1896, the graduates in our theological seminaries numbered 287; in 1903, 167, the loss being 120. In 1896, we had 1508 candidates for the ministry; in 1903, 779, the loss being 729. This condition of affairs is one which afflicts many other Churches both in Europe and America. It has been made the subject of serious thought on the part of the Executive Commission of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System." The Alliance has found that the great majority of the Protestant Churches in all countries find themselves confronted with an insufficient supply of ministers for their congregations, and in addition with a decreasing number of candidates for the ministry.

The situation as to ministerial supply is most serious and needs both prayer and effort for its solution. Differences of opinion and of methods prevail throughout the Church, and other circumstances, which do not need to be stated, make it unwise for the Committee to make further efforts in the line of its appointment. The importance of the matter of Vacancy and Supply, and of the related subject of an increase in the number of candidates for the ministry, cannot be overestimated. The latter, in the Committee's judgment, should be dealt with promptly and thoroughly by the Assembly's Board of Education; the former for the present can best be left to the practical wisdom of the Presbyteries.

The Committee regrets that it is not able to submit details of the work accomplished by the Presbyteries in caring for the vacant churches under their control and in providing for the employment of unemployed ministers.

The following recommendations are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Education be charged to make an inquiry into the conditions prevalent in the Church as to candidates for the ministry and the methods which should be adopted to increase their number.

2. That a Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply be constituted, consisting of nine members, five ministers and four ruling elders, and that the following compose the Committee, the Moderator to select out of their number the Chairman of the Committee: Ministers—E. H. Curtis, D.D., A. B. Meldrum, D.D., W. H. Roberts, D.D., W. P. White, D.D., James E. Moffatt, D.D., and R. N. Adams, D.D.; Elders—George E. Sterry, Louis H. Severance and Robert N. Willson.

3. That this Committee, through the Stated Clerk, be instructed to make thorough investigation of any and all existing methods, however and wherever conducted within the bounds of our Church, and of the methods of other denominations which may have been found to be effective.

4. That they prepare a plan of Adjustment, comprehensive enough to cover the entire field of our Church, making it harmonize with existing local organizations to the fullest extent possible, consistent with efficiency, and that they report the same to the next Assembly.

5. That the Report now under consideration be committed to the Special Committee provided for in the second of these Resolutions.

The Moderator appointed Rev. Edward H. Curtis, D.D., as Chairman of the Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply.

The Standing Committee on Narrative, through its Chairman, Rev. Frank E. Moore, presented its Report, which was approved.

The Ministerial Necrology for the past year was read by the Stated Clerk, and Rev. A. N. Keigwin, D.D., upon invitation of the Moderator, led the Assembly in prayer.

The Narrative and the Necrology were ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

It was ordered that the portion of the first recommendation in the Report of the Standing Committee on Temperance, relative to an order on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, be referred to that Board, with the recommendation that such favorable consideration shall be given to the matter as the condition of its treasury will permit.

The Docket as presented by the Stated Clerk was made the order until the completion of the business.

The Special Committee on Church Statistics presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee was continued by the Assembly of 1903, and consists of William H. Roberts, D.D., John F. Patterson, D.D., and Mervin J. Eckels, D.D.

The various matters with which it has been entrusted are presented seriatim.

1. The Committee was authorized to communicate with the Director of the United States Census in order to give expression, for one thing, to the appreciation by the General Assembly of the decision of the U. S. Government to gather the religious statistics of the nation; and for another thing, to transmit to the Director of the Census the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Committee be directed and authorized to coöperate with the Director of the U. S. Census, so far as feasible, in the gathering of statistics of this Church, and that the Committee be empowered to use the facilities of the office of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly for that purpose."

To these communications the Director of the U. S. Census responded, expressing thanks for the action of the Assembly, but failing to adopt up to this time any practical measures having in view the results sought by the Church. It is, however, important that certain statistics of our Church should be gathered in detailed and accurate form. If the Government cannot act at present, the Church can secure the facts desired. The following items of information would be well worth securing, viz., the number of adherents in each congregation, number and seating capacity of church edifices, number of manses, value of church property, etc.

Authority is therefore requested that if these statistics be not included in the religious census to be made by the U. S. Government, that the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be authorized to secure them during the present year from the congregations, report to be made directly to his office, and at a time to be by him determined.

2. An overture from the Presbytery of Detroit was referred to the Committee asking for changes in the blanks for the annual Church and Sabbath-school Narratives. The Committee respectfully draws attention first to the fact that two of its members are pastors in charge of churches, the third member being the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. After having given renewed and careful study to the annual Church Narrative of the State of Religion, a study based upon practical knowledge of need, it is recommended that certain questions in the same be altered to read as follows:

Under Head 1, CONGREGATIONAL SERVICES, and in Question 5, insert the word "regularly," so that it will read:

"5. What meetings for worship are held regularly on days other than the Lord's Day, and what is the average attendance?"

Under Head 2, SABBATH-SCHOOLS, and in Question 7, insert the word "branch" so that it will read:

"7. Are they church, branch, union or mission schools?"

Under Head 4, SPIRITUAL CONDITIONS, and in Question 21, omit the words "if any," so that the question will read:

"21. What unusual religious interest has there been in the congregation?"

Under the same head, and in Question 23, substitute for the words "are there" the word "indicate," so that the question will read:

"23. Indicate difficulties peculiar to your field in the way of the progress of religion."

Under Head 5, BENEVOLENCES, and in Question 32, omit the words "or suitable," so that the question will read:

"32. Is adequate provision made for the poor of the church? If not, why not?"

Under Head 6, FAMILY RELIGION, and in Question 35, omit in the first clause the words "Is the Session diligent in carrying out," and insert instead the words "Does the Session through its power of supervision," so that it will read:

"35. Does the Session, through its power of supervision, carry out the requirements of Chapter X, Section 1, of the Directory for Worship?"

Under Head 7, MISCELLANEOUS, and to Question 39, add a clause after the word "October," so that it will read:

"39. Are the special days appointed by the Assembly observed in the congregation, viz.: Prayer for Colleges and Education in January; Sabbath Observance in April; Children's Day in June; and Temperance in October, or are the several causes represented by these days faithfully presented at some time each year?"

With reference to the annual Sabbath-school Report to the Presbytery, we recommend that the column entitled "Home Department" be transferred to the end of the columns of statistics in said Report, that the column headed "Total Membership of School, including Home Department," be omitted, and that the column headed "To Sabbath-school Work of the Presbyterian Board" be headed "To Sabbath-school Work." All the changes thus recommended are, in the judgment of the Committee, wise, and tend to greater accuracy in returns.

3. The last Assembly referred fifty-seven Overtures of Presbyteries to the Committee, all asking for a change in the arrangement of the Home Mission columns in the Annual Report of the churches to Presbytery. The Committee have given this matter special consideration. It is fully recognized that the column headed Synodical Sustentation is in reality a Home Mission column, and that it would be advantageous to have all Home Mission contributions, either in one column or in two columns, side by side in the Statistical Reports. The Committee recommend that hereafter in the Annual Reports of the churches to the Presbyteries, the column headed Synodical Sustentation be stricken out, and that the report of Home Mission contributions be made in two columns, to be, however, under the one head, "Home Missions," with two sub-heads, the first worded "The Board and Miscellaneous," the second "Presbyteries and Synods." The columns will appear in the new form both in the Church Reports to Presbytery and in the Statistical Reports of Presbyteries to the General Assembly for the year 1905.

4. The question has been referred to the Committee as to whether a place can be found for a column for the American Bible Society in the Statistical Reports of the Presbyteries as printed in detail in the Minutes. The Committee regret to state that there is a serious mechanical difficulty in the way. It is not possible to increase the number of columns on a page of the Minutes at present. To add even a single column means going to large additional expense and might involve an increase of the number of pages in the Assembly's annual volume of Minutes and Statistics. In addition, two important Permanent Committees exist, either of which is entitled, to say the least, equally with the Bible Society to a column in the Statistical Reports, viz., the Committee on Temperance and the Committee on Young People's Societies. Besides, the contributions to the American Bible Society and to the Permanent Committee on Temperance are both now printed in full in the Minutes, and appear in the volume for 1903 respectively on pp. 321 to 329 and 313 to 320. Earnestly desiring, however, to give to these two most worthy causes a yet greater prominence in the mind of the Church, the Committee recommends that in the Comparative Summary of contributions, which appears each year in the printed Minutes at the close of the Statistical Reports, the names of the Permanent Committee on Temperance and the American Bible Society be inserted immediately after the names of Boards, with the amounts of total contributions opposite thereto. It is this Comparative Summary which is published in all the papers, and which is the document most widely distributed throughout the Church in connection with the Report of the Annual Contributions. The appearance of the names of these two agencies in this Summary will meet, it is believed, many of the requirements of the situation.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

MERVIN J. ECKELS.

The Special Committee on Providing a Ministry for Hungarians, etc., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Rev. Julius Hamborsky was adopted. It is as follows:

The Special Committee on Providing a Ministry for Hungarian and Other Immigrants respectfully reports that it was appointed by the General Assembly of 1902, and continued by the Assembly of 1903. It has had one meeting during the year, on November 27, 1903. A large part of its work was reported upon to the last Assembly, and action in connection with the mission work in the United States was referred to the Board of Home Missions.

At the November meeting the following resolution was therefore adopted:

Resolved, That this Committee will confine itself to receiving and securing information as to available candidates, ministers and other workers for the foreign-speaking peoples in the U. S. A., and also as to the training courses in the Theological Seminaries, leaving the carrying forward of the work in the field to the Boards directly interested.

Report is made upon the several matters considered by the Committee as follows:

A. The Work in the Field.—The Board of Home Missions, we were officially informed by the Rev. John Dixon, D.D., Assistant Secretary, who was present with the Committee on November 27, 1903, held a conference with the representatives of the self-supporting Synods, on October 28 and 29, 1903, at the Presbyterian Building, New York City, at which workers from the field were also present. As a result of the conference a plan of coöperation was agreed upon between the Board and the Synods for work among the immigrant populations, one of the resolutions reading as follows:

"4. That it is the sense of this conference that the Home Mission Board should secure suitable persons of the various nationalities to visit, investigate and report upon this work in the different parts of the country; and also to organize such work, when requested by the proper ecclesiastical body."

The Church is to be congratulated upon the harmonious results reached through this mission conference.

At the meeting of the Committee, the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work was represented by Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., the Secretary of the Board, and Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Superintendent of Sabbath-school Work. The subject of the employment of colporteurs and Sabbath-school missionaries for the welfare of the non-English-speaking immigrants was considered. The Committee was informed that the Board had given earnest attention to the needs of these peoples for some time past, and would be glad to do all within its power for their evangelization and instruction.

B. The Hungarians.—In the Report presented last year to the Assembly, the following resolutions appear, viz.:

"Resolved, 2. That the first duty of the Church, in the present emergency, is the provision of a ministry for the immigrants from Hungary holding the Reformed faith and the Presbyterian order.

"Resolved, 3. That to secure the performance of this duty a deputation be appointed who shall visit Hungary, if the way be clear, to obtain a suitable person or persons to work among the Magyars in the United States, the expenses to be provided by special contributions, and the deputation to be appointed by the Committee in its discretion."

In accordance with this direction the Committee has given special attention to the Hungarian situation.

A deputation was appointed to visit the Reformed Church of Hungary, in order to ascertain what could be done in the way of securing ministers for the numerous Hungarian Calvinists in our land. The Rev. Ferdinand von Krug, a member of the Committee, and the Rev. Julius Hamborsky both visited Hungary, and after consultation with representatives of the Hungarian Church and several of the Theological Faculties of the Church, reported that a number of ministers might be secured to supply the fields in the United States, provided the necessary funds were furnished. They also reported a very considerable interest in our work for the Hungarians. The expenses connected with the visits of these brethren were borne in part by the benevolent laymen of our Church.

In relation to the correspondence conducted by authority of the General Assembly with the General Convention of the Reformed Evangelical Church of Hungary, we have to state that a Committee of five was appointed by said General Convention, in April, 1903, to investigate the situation in the United States. The members are Rev. Prof. Joseph Pokoly, of Kolosvar, Chairman; Rev. Prof. Louis Csiky and Rev. Prof. Bela Sass, Debreczen; Chief-Judge Aladar Szilassy and Hon. Andrew György, Budapest. As is well known, quite a number of churches composed of Hungarians are connected with the Reformed Church in the United States, commonly known as the German Reformed Church. Communications from representatives of the General Synod of the Reformed Church, as well as the Stated Clerk of this General Assembly, were before the Hungarian General Convention. At a meeting of the Convention held in December, 1903, inasmuch as the Committee of five had failed to report, pending the presentation of such Report, the Convention empowered its two Presidents, Rt. Hon. Baron Desiderius Banffy, late Prime Minister of Hungary, the secular President, and the Rt. Rev. Bartholomew Kun, ecclesiastical President of the Convention, to delegate some one member to go to the United States, with a view to reporting upon the condition of affairs. The two Presidents delegated Count Joseph Degenfeld, Curator-General of the Trans-Tissian Synod, to this duty. Count Degenfeld spent several weeks in the United States during the present year, visited the Hungarian congregations of different States, conferred with the Chairman of this Committee, and held a conference with many of the Hungarian ministers, both Presbyterian and Reformed, at Johnstown, Pa., on April 6, 1904. Count Degenfeld submitted, in all his interviews and conferences, a plan for the establishment of a branch of the Reformed Church of Hungary in the United States, guaranteeing that where $450 per annum was contributed for the salary of a pastor, that an equal amount would be given by the Hungarian Church, to which the latter would add $500 for each congregation to build a church. The financial help was conditioned upon acceptance of a connection with the Hungarian Church. Other conditions were included in the proposal, but do not need to be stated. At the conference held at Johnstown, Pa., there being present five Presbyterian and thirteen Reformed Hungarian ministers, the proposal of Count Degenfeld was rejected by a decisive vote, and it was agreed that a connection with the Hungarian Church was unacceptable and inadvisable. It was also recommended that the work of the two American Churches should remain in statu quo, and that if the Hungarian Reformed Church desired to take further action in the premises, that said Church should enter into direct communication with the American Churches interested.

There are now eight Hungarian Presbyterian ministers at work within our bounds, among whom are Rev. Julius Hamborsky, in charge of congregations at Peckville, Scranton and Wilkesbarre, Pa.; Rev. Joseph Kozma, at Perth Amboy and New Brunswick, N. J.; Rev. Bela Csekes, at Buffalo, N. Y., and vicinity; Rev. Bela Sass, at Youngstown, O.; Rev. Julius Hanko, at Philadelphia, Pa., and Rev. Zoltan Domeny, at Sharon, Pa.

The Committee has secured from competent persons suggestions as to the best methods of procedure in connection with the provision of a ministry for Hungarian Presbyterian Churches. It is their judgment that the entire Hungarian interests of our Church should be concentrated in the hands of one special agency, with authority and means to act immediately when action is decided upon. This agency should act in harmony, in securing and appointing ministers, with the General Convention of the Evangelical Reformed Church of Hungary, whose good will is essential.

C. The Bohemians, Italians and Other Immigrants.—We find, after communications, correspondence and conferences with persons either representing or interested in the evangelization of other immigrants than the Hungarians, that the condition as to candidates for the ministry in European countries is not encouraging.

In Bohemia, for instance, which country as well as Hungary was visited by the Rev. Vaclav Losa, there is a dearth both of ministers and of theological students. So serious is the condition that it was stated to our representative that it might be necessary to endeavor to secure the return of Bohemian ministers now in the United States. It was this condition of affairs, along with the fact that it was possible for our Church in part itself to supply the needs of the mission fields, that led the Home Mission Conference of October 28 and 29 to advise "that the attention of pastors be called to the duty of seeking out young men of foreign parentage who may be put in training for the work of the Gospel ministry, or as lay workers among their own people." We cannot afford to depend, either solely or in large part, upon European Churches for ministers for American fields. That there is a widespread need in Europe, for which there is but scant supply, is clear. The situation there as to candidates for the ministry is similar to that which prevails in the United States and in Canada. Few young men, comparatively speaking, are offering themselves for the work of preaching the Gospel. One European Church, however, is a notable exception. The Rev. Luigi Angelini, of the Waldensian Church of Italy, reported to the Committee that the historic Church of which he is a minister, is prepared to supply as many candidates as may be needed for the Italian work in this country. The Waldensian Church has a theological institution located at Florence, with a competent and orthodox Faculty, and the statement was made that if funds to the extent of $100 per person could be furnished, that candidates for the ministry from five to twenty-five in number, in every way well qualified, could be secured and trained in Italy for work in the United States. To train them in this country would cost a much larger sum. We already have upon the roll of the General Assembly nineteen Italian ministers, ministering to that number of congregations. But the opportunity for work among the Italians grows with the increasing immigration, and our Church should use the opportunity thus afforded to secure ministers.

D. The Board of Education.—The Committee corresponded with the Board of Education with reference to the support of candidates for the ministry drawn from the ranks of the immigrants, and educated either in the United States or in foreign lands. The Board has had the matter under careful consideration, and will report thereupon to the Assembly, requesting "permission to make certain unusual exceptions for the present emergency, at the discretion of the Board."

The Committee having drawn the attention of three of the Boards of the Church to the needs of the non-English-speaking peoples in the United States, having corresponded with the theological seminaries, and also with the authorities or representatives of certain of the European Churches interested, feels that the work entrusted to it has been sufficiently performed, so far as the way seems clear for action by a Special Committee. There are established agencies of the General Assembly fully competent to carry forward the work in all its branches from the point now attained, and able to secure or to provide means for the education of candidates for the ministry, and to support colporteurs, missionaries and ministers among the foreign populations. The Committee feels that it is wise and best for the work to be entrusted in the future to these agencies.

E. Theological Seminaries.—Last year the Committee reported that the German Theological Schools at Bloomfield, N. J., and Dubuque, Ia., were both greatly crippled by reason of lack of means, and that Bloomfield for this cause had been obliged to discontinue the training of young men for work among the Italians. This condition of things still continues. These institutions were established for the purpose of training candidates for the ministry among our foreign populations. Their Directors and Faculties are fully advised of the great needs of the work, and are prepared to use economically and advantageously any funds which may be provided. The Western (Allegheny) and Omaha Theological Seminaries are also giving special attention to students of foreign nationalities, and all the theological seminaries express great interest in this work and earnestly desire to coöperate in the provision of a ministry.

The following recommendations are offered for adoption:

1. That the Board of Home Missions continue its general oversight of mission work among the foreign-speaking peoples in the United States; organizing work among them where it has authority so to do; seeking for ordained ministers for the fields either in the United States or in Europe; and presenting to the General Assembly each year a full Report of all the mission work carried on among these peoples either by the Board or by Synods and Presbyteries. In all its work for this cause the Board should give due regard to the rights and powers of the several Church judicatories.

2. That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be and hereby is urged to give increased attention to the work of organizing Sabbath-schools and distributing religious literature among the foreign-speaking peoples, under the same regulations as indicated for the Board of Home Missions in Resolution No. 1.

3. That the Board of Education is authorized to do what it can, in coöperation with the ecclesiastical courts, to develop a more active interest in securing candidates for the ministry among the foreign-speaking peoples, and is also empowered to make the cases of such candidates somewhat exceptional, as concerns the rules laid down for the guidance of the Board by the General Assembly.

4. That the Theological Seminaries which are providing facilities for the training of young men of foreign nationalities as workers among their own people, be commended for their efforts in this cause, and be urged to emphasize this form of their work.

5. That in view of the pressing present emergency for laborers in the field, our colleges and seminaries, so far as practicable, be urged to train men from among the foreign populations for service as lay workers and as local evangelists.

6. That the Committee be discharged.

Respectfully submitted,

The Committee was discharged.

The Special Committee on the Forward Movement in Christian Education presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Fathers and Brethren:

Your Committee on "The Forward Movement in Christian Education" would respectfully present the following Report:

The Committee originated in the following action of the Assembly of 1903. Certain Overtures on "Christian Education," "Sabbath-school Lessons," etc., having been put into the hands of the Committee on "Bills and Overtures" of that Assembly, that Committee recommended:

"That the Moderator appoint a Special Committee of nine—six ministers and three elders—to take into consideration the whole subject, and report to the next Assembly; and that the Overtures above mentioned be referred to said Committee."

This recommendation having been adopted, the Moderator subsequently appointed the following persons to serve upon this Special Committee: Ministers—Eben B. Cobb, D.D., Elizabeth, N. J.; James R. Miller, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Charles P. Cheeseman, D.D., Pittsburg, Pa.; Edgar P. Hill, D.D., Portland, Ore.; G. Walton King, D.D., Athens, O.; Robert W. Peach, Camden, N. J.; Elders—James Yereance, New York, N. Y.; John C. Vanatta, Brookston, Ind.; Louis H. Severance, New York, N. Y.

The Committee, thus appointed, having received the Overtures submitted to it, which proved to be twenty-nine in number, and having classified and printed these Overtures, discovered that no fewer than seven subjects had been referred to the Committee for its consideration:

1. The importance of "More thorough instruction in the 'Word of God'"—(a) In the family, (b) In the Sabbath-school, (c) In the Young People's Association, (d) In colleges, and (e) In Theological Seminaries.

2. "The whole question of Bible instruction in our Sabbath-schools."

3. "The need of 'A graded course of Bible study for the Sabbath-schools.'"

4. The preparation of a "Supplemental Series of lessons for candidates for church membership."

5. The question whether the "American Revised Version" should be exclusively used in all Lesson Helps.

6. The relation of the "Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work" to this "Forward Movement"; and

7. The advisability of inviting the coöperation in this work of "sister Evangelical Churches," and "particularly of the other branches of the Presbyterian Church."

Recognizing the magnitude of the task assigned to it, the Committee transmitted printed copies of the twenty-nine Overtures to each of the Presbyteries joining in sending up one or more of them, with the statement that the Committee would be glad to receive specific suggestions from these Presbyteries as to what they would like to have the Assembly do. Further, the Committee also sent the Overtures to about two hundred ministers and Christian workers throughout the country, soliciting from them any suggestions which they might be pleased to make.

From the answers thus received three things were made apparent:

1. That there is a deep and widespread conviction throughout the Church that something ought to be done by the Church, especially along the line of the more thorough instruction of the young in the "Word of God."

2. That there is not as yet within the Church any clearly defined, and hence widely accepted, conclusion as to what the something is which ought to be done.

3. That there is, in many parts of the Church, no little ignorance as to just what the Church, through its organized agencies, is at present attempting to do toward meeting this widely recognized need.

Increasingly impressed, therefore, by the magnitude of the task assigned to it, the Committee, at its meeting in November, 1903, divided itself into Subcommittees, to which various parts of its subject were assigned, with instructions to report to the General Committee at its next meeting.

Reassembling in March last, it was at once apparent that, notwithstanding all the time and thought which members of the Committee had given to the subject, the Committee would not be able to present to the Assembly of 1904 a final and satisfactory Report. It was therefore unanimously decided:

(1) To report to the Assembly what the Committee had thus far discovered;

(2) To recommend that action be taken by the Assembly upon certain points upon which an agreement had been reached; and

(3) To ask that the Committee be continued for another year to complete its work.

In pursuance, then, of the purpose to make known to the Assembly what it had discovered in the prosecution of its work, the Committee reports:

1. That it found the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work keenly alive to the needs of the situation, and ready to coöperate with the Committee in every possible way in meeting these needs.

2. That while the Board in its Sabbath-school literature still held firmly to the "International System of Lessons" as, in its judgment, the best system which had yet been devised, it was, with the aid of the very best available expert help, carefully grading its treatment of these "uniform lessons," so that it now issued Quarterlies not only for the youngest beginners, but also for the Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Senior and Home Departments of the school.

3. That the Board was revising and reissuing a series of supplemental graded lessons, covering important subjects and intended to take a few minutes of the lesson time, thus further meeting the desire for graded instruction in the Sabbath-school.

4. That the Board was preparing a Manual for Teacher-Training, this manual to be issued in two small volumes, and to include a two years' course of forty lessons each, the purpose being to have teacher-training classes formed in different churches under the direction of the pastor or some other qualified person. This manual has already been submitted to expert workers all over the country, the desire being to make it as nearly perfect as possible. And it is hoped that it will be ready to be issued in time for the work of the coming fall.

5. That the Board is already printing the "American Revised Version" in parallel columns with the "King James' Version" in many of its Lesson Helps.

6. That the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Young People's Work has taken up with vigor and intelligence the task of preparing suitable literature for the training of the youth in our Young People's Societies.

7. That many of our colleges and theological seminaries are giving increasing attention to the study of the English Bible, and to the preparation of their students in the principles and methods of Sabbath-school work.

8. That there is a specific demand in the Church for a Manual for Candidates for Church Membership; and

9. That at least five of the Churches belonging to the Western Branch of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," namely, "The Presbyterian Church in Canada," "The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," "The Presbyterian Church in the United States," "The Cumberland Presbyterian Church," "The United Presbyterian Church" and "The Reformed Church in the United States," are already coöperating in the preparation not only of the Manual for Teacher-Training mentioned above, but also of a series of advanced lessons for Sabbath-schools.

In view of these facts your Committee presents for your adoption the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly having heard that the "Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work," by a careful grading of its Lesson Helps, the revision of its present series of Supplemental Lessons, the preparation of a Manual for Teacher-Training, etc., etc., has already taken steps toward meeting in part at least the desire of the Church for a "Forward Movement in Christian Education," commends the Board for this action, and urges it to press on in the same.

2. That in reply to certain Overtures asking the Assembly to require the "Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work" to print exclusively the American Revised Version in all Lesson Helps, a negative answer be given, because (1) it has never been the policy of the Presbyterian Church to recommend the exclusive use of any version, and because (2) the Board is already printing the "American Revised" and the "King James" Versions in parallel columns in many of its Lesson Helps.

3. That in view of the fact that the Assembly has appointed a "Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies," to which Committee all matters pertaining to the religious instruction of the members of these Societies may properly be referred, and in view of the further fact that this Permanent Committee has already begun the preparation of literature looking to the training of our youth in the "Word of God" and in other important subjects, such parts of the work of this Special Committee as pertain to Young People's Societies be referred to that Permanent Committee.

4. That the Assembly rejoices to know that in several of our theological seminaries instruction is being given in the principles and methods of Sabbath-school work, in teacher-training, and in evangelistic work, and recommends that all our seminaries give instruction in these important lines.

5. That in response to a specific demand for a Manual for Candidates for Church Membership, the Assembly authorizes this Committee to prepare such a Manual, and directs the "Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work" to publish the same.

6. That the Assembly is pleased to learn that our Church is coöperating with other Churches belonging to the Western or American Branch of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churche throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System" in the preparation of a Manual for Teacher-Training, and of a series of advanced lessons for Sabbath-schools, and prays that the blessing of God may attend such coöperation.

7. That the whole question of means and methods looking to a "Forward Movement in Christian Education" in the family, in the local church, the college and the theological seminary, and especially the subject of graded lessons in the Sabbath-school, upon which matters the Committee is not yet able to present a satisfactory Report, be referred back to the Committee for further investigation, and that to this end the Committee be continued, with instructions to report to the Assembly of 1905.

In behalf of the Committee,

EBEN B. COBB, Chairman.

The Special Committee on the Indebtedness on the Witherspoon Building presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Indebtedness on the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa., respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the Assembly of 1903, as appears from the following action, extract from the Minutes, pp. 99-100, viz.:

"Resolved, 1. That a Special Committee of five ministers and five elders be appointed by the Moderator for the purpose of securing contributions for the discharge of the indebtedness resting upon the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia.

"Resolved, 2. That this Committee shall coöperate with the Business Committee of the Board of Publication, of which Mr. John H. Converse is the Chairman, and that any and all action taken in connection with the discharge of the mortgage upon the Witherspoon Building be the result of joint action by these two Committees.

"Resolved, 3. That the expenses of the undertaking shall be provided for either by private subscription or from contributions made for the discharge of the indebtedness."

The Moderator of the Assembly appointed the full quota of the members of the Committee, but it was found that two of them were unable to serve, one being the Chairman, Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D. At the request of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, the Moderator appointed the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., as Chairman of the Committee, and the appointment was accepted after due consideration of the matter. The Committee as at present organized consists of the following persons: Ministers—W. H. Roberts, D.D., David Gregg, D.D., W. R. Notman, D.D., Richard S. Holmes, D.D.; Elders—Robert Pitcairn, Hugh H. Hanna, William A. Brodie, George E. Sterry, S. S. Marvin and Charles S. Holt.

By the action of the Assembly, the Business Committee of the Board of Publication and S. S. Work was associated with the Assembly's Committee, with the understanding that any and all action taken should be the result of the joint action of the two Committees. The Business Committee of the Board is composed of the following persons: Mr. John H. Converse, Chairman; Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Rev. J. Stuart Dickson, Mr. John H. Watt, Mr. William H. Scott, Mr. William W. Allen, Thomas W. Synnott, Esq., Mr. Henry T. Shillingford, George Stevenson, Esq., Franklin L. Sheppard, Esq., Hon. R. N. Willson.

Several consultations were had between the Chairman of the Assembly's Committee and the Business Committee of the Board, with the result that it was decided to do nothing more than arrange a plan of operations, to be put into effect after the termination of the sessions of the present Assembly. The unsettled financial condition of the country, and the fact that the Committee on the Presbyterian Building, New York, was engaged in its final effort to clear away the indebtedness on that edifice, were the principal reasons for this action. It is believed that a concerted effort made during the present ecclesiastical year will result in a considerable advance in connection with the work of the Committee.

The Committee presents the following reasons why the Church should earnestly endeavor to discharge this indebtedness:

1. The Witherspoon Building is the property of the Church as a denomination. All the Presbyteries have an interest therein.

2. The Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work is an agency of the whole Church. It is impossible to estimate in money the good which has been accomplished for the Church through the work of the Board from its first establishment in 1838. This is true both as to the literature published by the Board and as to the work of its Sabbath-school Department. The work done has inured to the benefit of the entire Church.

3. The indebtedness represents the value of those parts of the Building which are devoted, rent-free, to benevolent and missionary Church uses. The space thus allotted, without any charge for either rent or management, is of the annual value of $27,440, while the interest upon the mortgage of $470,000, at 5 per cent. per annum, amounts to $23,500. The free space in the Building is occupied by the Missionary Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, the Boards of Education and Minis- terial Relief, the office of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, the Presbyterian Historical Society, the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, the Home Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Philadelphia and the Evangelistic Committee of Presbytery. In addition, adjoining Presbyteries use the smaller Auditorium in the Witherspoon Building for their sessions whenever desired. An appeal, therefore, for the discharge of this indebtedness is an appeal to the friends of the causes above mentioned.

4. The discharge of this indebtedness will add considerably to the sums of money to be each year expended upon Sabbath-school missionary work. The Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work has for years, under the direction of the General Assembly, appropriated two-thirds of its profits from business operations to the Sabbath-school Department. This has been done because of the great importance of Sabbath-school work both to the Church and to the nation. To discharge the indebtedness resting upon the Building would therefore be to give two-thirds of the cost of carrying the debt—about $15,000—each year to Sabbath-school work, in addition to the sum now given.

We submit to the Assembly the resolution of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, adopted April 26, 1904, said resolution having been recommended to the Board by its Business Committee. It is as follows:

Resolved, That this Committee recommends to the Board that it express its strong approval of the efforts to be made by the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to secure funds for the purpose of discharging the indebtedness still remaining upon the Witherspoon Building; and that this Business Committee be instructed to coöperate with the Assembly's Committee, so far as possible, in making the effort successful, so soon as it shall be deemed best to enter vigorously upon the undertaking.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly recommends to all our ministers and members, earnest coöperation with the Committee on the Indebtedness of the Witherspoon Building for the discharge of said indebtedness within the next three years, and for the reasons stated in its Report.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee on the Witherspoon Building be and hereby is continued to report to the next General Assembly.

Wm. H. Roberts, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Sustentation presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Sustentation respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1902, continued by the Assembly of 1903, and was entrusted with the whole subject of Ministerial Sustentation from two viewpoints—first, as to ministers in active service, and second, as to a fixed provision for honorably retired ministers. Upon the first matter, final report was made to the Assembly of 1903, and the Committee was continued to report upon the second to this Assembly.

Being deeply impressed with the importance of making due provision for the honorably retired ministers of the Church, the Committee felt that it was necessary to secure information which would furnish proper data for a Plan. The compilation of the data needed was entrusted to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, and involved the securing of as many records as possible of the ministers of our Church, including dates of birth, ordination, death, disability and retirement; also the name of the theological seminary where graduated. The records were made up from the General Catalogues of Princeton, Auburn, Western, Lane, McCormick and Union Seminaries, and from the Minutes of the Assembly. They included 5862 ministers, and were transmitted to Mr. L. G. Fouse, a member of the Committee, and President of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., and under his direction were carefully examined and classified. The cordial thanks of the Assembly are due to Mr. Fouse and those persons associated with him for the work performed.

The results were stated in a Report made by him to the Committee, and these will be of great service in formulating an equitable and scientific plan of sustentation or annuity. The Committee, therefore, submits a brief description of the work which has already been done.

The Stated Clerk furnished the records of 5862 ministers, giving date of birth, date of ordination; if dead, date of death; if disabled, date of disability; if retired, date of retirement; name, and seminary graduated from. These were grouped according to age of exposure, making in all 164,255 years, being an average duration of 28 years, and affording sufficient data as a basis for a mortality table.

The death and disability rates were then ascertained at each age of exposure in order to make the results available. Of the entire number (5862), 1506 died, 989 became disabled (of whom 822 afterward died), and 3367 undisabled were still under observation April 30, 1903, when the experience closed.

For the purpose of calculating commutation tables, the ordinary method of constructing mortality tables was resorted to, beginning at age 21 with 100,000 exposed, to which the decrement, as determined by the experience, was applied, and thus a rate of mortality and rate of disability determined. The data for disability beyond age 75 were too meagre to justify an extension of the disability rate beyond that age.

Observations as to mortality have been made heretofore of professions or special classes, but this is the first recorded instance of the compilation of a disability rate developed from the experience of any profession.

The Committee submits herewith a table, marked Exhibit "A," showing the death rate, and disability rate, exclusive of mortality, of Presbyterian ministers, as developed by the investigation made. The mortality among the Presbyterian ministers, except at ages under 25, is lower than that indicated by any of the standard mortality tables, and lower than the recorded mortality of any of the professions. The low mortality of the Presbyterian ministers is closely followed by the published experience of the mortality among the Church of England clergymen insured in the "Clergy Mutual" office, London, although the latter lives are selected by medical examination.

A graphic illustration is submitted for information, marked Exhibit "B," giving the mortality curve of the Presbyterian ministers, in comparison with the mortality curve of the clergymen of the Church of England. As already stated, there is no recorded disability rate with which to make comparison, but the illustration also shows the curve of the combined mortality and disability experience of the Presbyterian ministers.

Explanation of Illustration or Diagram Marked Exhibit "B."

The ages are measured horizontally and the rate of mortality vertically. The figures representing the rate of mortality are given vertically on the left of the diagram up to age 65, and on the right for age 65 and over.

Curve (a) shows the probability of dying at each age, according to the Presbyterian ministers' experience.

Curve (b) combines the probability of becoming disabled with the probability of dying at each age, according to the same experience.

Exhibit "B"

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly hereby approves of the preparation of a Plan of Sustentation for ministers who are honorably retired by action of Presbytery, either at the age of 70 or at disability prior to such age duly certified, and also for the widows of ministers.

Resolved, 2. That the cordial thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to Mr. L. G. Fouse, President of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, and Mr. William Young, F.F.A., Actuary of the Company, and to other persons who assisted, for the very large amount of voluntary, exacting and skillful labor performed in connection with the work of the Committee on Sustentation.

Resolved, 3. That the Special Committee on Sustentation be and hereby is continued, that to said Committee all the details of such Plan are hereby referred, report to be made to the next General Assembly, and that the Board of Relief be directed to coöperate with the Committee when requested so to do.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

HOWARD DUFFIELD, Chairman.

The Records of the following Synods were approved without exception: Atlantic, Baltimore, Catawba, Illinois, India, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North China, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas and Washington.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of North China presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Minutes of the Synod of North China are written and printed in the native tongue; your Committee has not read them. However, a translation of them has been transmitted to the Assembly and placed in the hands of your Committee.

Because of distance and expense and slow method of travel the Synod meets but once in five years. The next meeting will be in 1908.

The movement toward union of the various Presbyterian bodies in China is much in advance of the similar movements at home. The Synod of North China favors this union, and has appointed a Committee to act with the General Committee on the proposed union.

A movement has also been inaugurated for the "Federation of the Protestant Churches in China." The Synod regards this movement as a most desirable one, and has appointed a Committee to represent the Synod in further conferences on the subject.

The Minutes in the hands of your Committee cover the period in which the Boxer movement raged, and make record in brief, pathetic story of that storm unrestrained, in which the looter was followed by the torch and pitiless sword, until five missionaries and their children and one hundred and seventy-seven baptized Presbyterian Christians and an hundred or more adherents, in the expressive words of the narrative, "passed through fire to heaven." Of twenty-seven native helpers in the Peking Presbytery only five remained; twenty-one having ascended to a martyr's crown. Your Committee would not feel justified in taking the Assembly's time in rehearsing these facts—as well known as they are, sad to all—but to call attention to the notes of joy and hope and faith and love, even unto murderous enemies, permeating the whole of this simple narrative, made pathetic by throbbing hearts and moistened by the tears of our brethren in Christ in China.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following:

First, That the translation presented to the Assembly, in lieu of the printed copy of the Minutes of the Synod of North China, be accepted and approved.

Second, That the Synod of North China be requested hereafter to transmit to the Assembly a printed copy of the Minutes in the native tongue, together with a translation thereof.

Third, That this Assembly heartily approves of the movement toward the union of the Presbyterian bodies in China, provided only it can be consummated under conditions acceptable to our Board of Foreign Missions and to this Assembly, when the time for the consummation of such union shall arrive.

Fourth, That this Assembly approves of the proposed Federation of the Evangelical Protestant Churches in China, provided only the objects contemplated in the said proposed Federation, and the details thereof, are approved by our Board of Foreign Missions.

The Records of the Synod of California were approved, with the exception that it is suggested that Form of Government, Chapter 11, Section 5, indicates that it would be best to open as well as close every particular session with prayer.

The Records of the Synod of Colorado were approved, with the following exception, viz.: The appointment of a Commission of twelve to act upon the matter of the reappointment of the Synodical Sabbath-school missionary, such Commission to convene at a time specified by the Clerk of the Presbytery of Gunnison (see pages 65 and 83). It is the opinion of your Committee that inasmuch as judicial questions were involved, this action is irregular for the following reasons: First, It violates the principle that original jurisdiction in relation to ministers pertains to the Presbytery (see Book of Discipline, Rule 18). Second, It is contrary to the provision that Commissions shall sit at the same time and place as the Synods appointing them (see Book of Discipline, Rule 119).

The Records of the Synod of Minnesota were approved, with the exception that the Report of the Committee on Aid for Colleges is not recorded.

The Records of the Synod of Wisconsin were approved, with the following exceptions: On page 9, Articles of Incorporation, the title of the Presbyterian Church should read "The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America"; the same error in the use of the preposition "of" occurs also in the certificate of incorporation as given on page 10.

The Records of the Synods of Montana and South Dakota were approved, with the suggestion that the regulation as to certification etc., be complied with.

The Records of the Synods of Central and Southern China and Utah were not submitted for review.

The following Report, presented by the Stated Clerk, was approved:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly upon the following matters:

1. Notices as to the circulation of the Assembly Herald were sent to the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries as directed.

2. The following new Presbyteries have been erected by the Synods since the last meeting of the Assembly:

Synod of Pennsylvania, Presbytery of Grafton.

3. The Reports of the Boards were distributed as usual in bound form to ministers and churches.

The following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the General Assembly is responsible only for the expenses of its Commissioners and officers in connection with its annual meetings.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the ruling elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; Provided, That the ruling elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk prepare a new edition of the Manual for the use of the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to distribute in the customary manner seven thousand copies of the Reports of the Boards, the expense to be borne by the Boards, and that he be empowered also to edit the Presbyterian Handbook.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence presented its Report, which was accepted and ordered to be printed in the Minutes. It is as follows:

terial Relief, Freedmen, Aid for Colleges, Correspondence, Benevolence, Narrative, Leave of Absence, Young People's Societies, Mileage and Finance.

Hospitality certificates were declared good until Monday morning, May 30.

The following Resolutions of thanks were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the grateful appreciation of this Assembly is tendered to the Moderator for his able, faithful and genial performance of the duties of his high office, and for his uniform courtesy to every member of the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That the thanks of this Assembly are also tendered to the Vice-Moderator, the Stated Clerk, the Permanent Clerk and the Temporary Clerks, for their courtesy and efficiency in the discharge of their several duties.

Resolved, 3. That the thanks of the Assembly are also extended to the following persons and organizations:

To the pastor of the Lafayette Avenue Church, the Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, the Rev. William Young Chapman, D.D., with the officers and members of the church, for the use of their commodious and beautiful house of worship, and all the splendid provision they have made for the entertainment of the Assembly and for the dispatch of its business; to the Hospitality Committee, the Rev. R. V. Hunter, D.D., Chairman, for its painstaking labors in providing entertainment for Commissioners and the women who have also been the guests of the Presbyterians of Buffalo, and to the people of our Buffalo churches for their cordial welcome in many of their Christian homes; to the Entertainment Committee, the Rev. S. V. V. Holmes, Chairman, for the generous provisions for the delightful and inspiring visit to Niagara Falls, and the most enjoyable reception tendered the Assembly at the Twentieth Century Club; to the Committee on Printing, the Rev. Henry B. Master, Chairman, for its thoughtful provision of the various helpful programmes and announcements of the meetings during the Assembly; to the Committee on Assembly Meetings, the Rev. Henry Ward, D.D., Chairman, and the people of the Presbyterian churches of Buffalo, for the use of the various churches for the popular meetings and other gatherings in connection with the Assembly; to the Committee on Pulpit Supply, the Rev. Edwin H. Dickinson, D.D., Chairman, in its cordial consideration of the convenience of Commissioners in all their appointments; to the Reception Committee, the Rev. Robert B. Adams, Chairman, for its untiring attention to the members of the Assembly, not only as guides to homes and hotels, but as ushers and messengers, who have been so ready to respond to every call; to the Post-office Department, for its convenient mail facilities and the patience and courtesy of its employes; to the Marine National Bank, for its kindly services in connection with the payment of the mileage of Commissioners; to the Press Committee, Rev. Charles E. Rhodes, Chairman, and to the Press of Buffalo, for its splendid, careful and generous reports of the proceedings of the Assembly; to the Finance Committee, Mr. S. M. Clement, Chairman, for its generous service in securing the funds to defray the expenses of the entertainment furnished by the people of Buffalo; to the Music Committee, Rev. C. F. Hubbard, Chairman, for furnishing the choirs which have been so helpful in the service of praise at all the popular meetings; to the Young Men's Christian Association of Buffalo, for its tender of its building for the various services rendered therein to the Commissioners of the Assembly; to the railroads, which have given us reduced rates and special consideration on our journeys; to the telegraph and telephone companies, who have accorded us every possible accommodation; and also to the sexton of the Lafayette Avenue Church for his faithful services.

We join to these expressions of grateful appreciation, as we say farewell, the prayerful hope that the visit of the Assembly to Buffalo may prove a blessing to the beautiful city which has been our gracious host.

Appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. W. Y. Chapman, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and the Moderator.

The Minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

The calling of the Roll was omitted.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying, "By the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the grounds of the Winona Assembly and Schools, Winona Lake, Indiana, on the third Thursday of May, 1905."

The sessions were closed with prayer and the apostolic benediction.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1904.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative would respectfully present the following report:

Your Committee had an unusually large number of replies presented for its consideration, since only a few of our Presbyteries failed to make response.

But clerks of Presbyteries almost universally avowed their inability to make satisfactory reports because so many of our churches presented fragmentary statements and quite a number furnished no data whatever.

In one Presbytery of 54 churches only 37 reports were presented, and in very few Presbyteries were all the Sessions faithful in this matter.

Manifestly, therefore, your Committee find it an impossibility to present trustworthy statistics and must be content with general statements.

1. Regular Services.—Almost all of our churches have had services; comparatively few have had only occasional services, while the overwhelming majority report the usual services on the Sabbath and at the mid-week prayer meeting. Gratifying uniformity marks the report of full attendance upon the regular Sabbath morning services, and alarming uniformity attends the complaint of small audiences at the services on Sabbath evening and the weekly prayer meeting. Some Presbyteries, however, report equal numbers in morning and evening worship on the Sabbath, and a very few report larger attendance at night than in the morning. The evening service is evidently still a momentous problem to most of our pastors, and the Narrative reveals conscientious attempts to solve this problem by special song service, by use of the stereopticon, by mass meetings, by evening street-corner services, or out-of-door services at the church doors or upon the adjoining lawn.

2. The Sabbath-School.—Christian hope and enthusiasm always revive when we study reports from our Sabbath-school work.

This year is certainly one of the banner years. We can rejoice on account of increased attendance; more generous contributions; more practical methods; the enlargement of the scope of Sabbath-school work in establishing our schools amongst exceptional populations in our own land, and in quickening the interest of our children in the salvation of children throughout the wide world. But, above all, we rejoice in the report of large numbers added to the Church from the Sabbath-school on profession of faith.

In some Presbyteries, where no special evangelistic services are reported, almost the entire number added to the Church on profession of faith came from the Sabbath-school, and where special meetings were held frequent mention is made of large numbers from our Sabbath-schools accepting their Saviour and confessing their faith by uniting with the Church. Almost all of our Sabbath-schools use our own Lesson Helps and Church literature.

3. SPECIAL SOCIETIES.—Women's Societies for Home and Foreign Missionary work are found in most of our churches, and their enthusiasm and consecration have had signal recognition from the Master during this year. Special offerings swelled their contributions to the missionary work of the Church, and we devoutly pray "God speed the day when every congregation will have a live missionary society." Through the Ladies' Aid and kindred societies an invaluable service has been rendered by the women of our Church. Very few kindred societies exist for our men, but where they have been organized and faithfully maintained such encouraging results have attended their work that your Committee is hopeful that ensuing years may see a general movement toward such organization throughout our Church and especially in the cities. Young People's Societies send encouraging reports. The year has been marked by deepening of the spiritual life rather than by remarkable increase in the number of new societies, or by increased membership in societies already organized. Encouraging attention is being paid to organizations for our children, such as Junior Endeavor and Children's Missionary Bands.

4. SPECIAL SERVICES.—The Narrative gives most profound joy in the record of God's blessing upon evangelistic services in a number of our Synods. The entire West has had a spiritual awakening through the extraordinary campaign so successfully carried on in the State of Kansas.

The Synods of Illinois and Ohio were profoundly moved by the meetings in Chicago and Columbus, while the union services held in the city of Pittsburgh yielded visible and practical results in accessions to membership beyond any similar movement perhaps in the history of our Church.

Your Committee repeats and emphasizes the endorsement given in past years to the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work. Each successive year reveals more clearly the necessity of just such work as that Committee has so zealously undertaken and so successfully accomplished.

Although we have meagre reports from Presbyteries in foreign lands, such word as is at hand justifies our general impression that this has been a year of glorious advance in all missionary enterprises.

SUMMARY.—At home and abroad, therefore, in all departments of church work, and along all lines of Christian development, we find occasion for thanksgiving for blessings past, and of well-grounded hope for grander victories for our King in the near future; and so we thank God, take courage, and press forward towards His Coronation Day!

In behalf of the Committee,

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The Western or American Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System respectfully presents to your venerable body its Annual Report.

The Commission has held during the past ecclesiastical year one meeting, at Toronto, Canada, January 27 and 28, 1904. The meeting was well attended, and had as distinctive features a popular meeting on Wednesday evening at the Bloor Street Presbyterian Church, at which addresses were made by the Rev. Dr. Caven, the President of the Alliance, who was in the Chair, and also by Drs. Kerr, Black, Good and Roberts. On Thursday evening the members of the Commission were the guests of Hon. Wm. Mortimer Clark, Lieutenant-Governor of Canada, and Mrs. Clark, at the Government House, Toronto.

The following matters, duly and carefully considered by the Commission, are submitted to you for deliberation and action.

1. The question of the spiritual welfare of American and European residents in foreign seaports has received from the Commission considerable attention from time to time. We find the evidence clear that many English and American residents residing in the seaports of China, India, Siam and Japan, who have been professors of religion in the countries from which they came, or are regarded as representatives of Christianity, live largely or wholly neglectful of all the outward forms of religion, and in their general deportment so misrepresent the Christian faith as to greatly obstruct all mission work, suggesting comparisons of the heathen and Christian religions, to the great disadvantage of the latter. Much is being done to counteract the evil influence of these actions, but falls far short of the urgent need. There are only three settled ministers of union evangelical churches in any of the ports from Seoul to Singapore. In Shanghai, Tientsin and Hong Kong there are ministers; Manila is partially supplied, while Yokohama and many other ports have no pastors. The missionaries have done what with their many duties and restrictions they could do, but increased evangelistic effort by ministers specially set apart to the work should be made in behalf of the communities of English and American residents in these and other great centres. The Commission respectfully requests that you take measures to provide, so far as possible, for the supply of this great need.

2. The matter of the use of the Bible in the Public Schools of the United States was considered by a Committee of which the Rev. F. R. Beattie, D.D., of Louisville, Ky., was the Chairman. Copies of the Report of this Committee are herewith submitted, and it is respectfully requested that you give the matter the serious consideration which it needs. The following Resolutions are suggested for adoption:

"(a) We recommend that this Assembly expresses its sincere gratification that so much stress is laid upon sound moral training by our School System, and that the Bible is so largely read in the Public Schools of this country; and it also expresses the earnest hope that this desirable condition may continue through all the days to come.

"(b) We recommend that this Assembly expresses its regret that confusion should have been introduced into the practice regarding the use of the Bible in our Public Schools, by reason of the conflicting decisions by the courts and the varying interpretations given by School authorities in different places of practically the same constitutional and statutory provisions, and that the Church advises its officers and people that they should seek to exert a prudent Christian influence upon public sentiment in their respective localities upon this subject.

"(c) We recommend that this Church declares that moral instruction and ethical training are necessary for good citizenship, and should have a place in our Public School System, and that this is possible without inculcating any denominational tenets; and, further, that the Bible is the very best instrument to impart this moral instruction and training, in connection with our Public Schools."

3. In connection with the great work of Home Missions, the Commission respectfully submits to you the following action taken by it:

"The American Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of Reformed Churches, having received reports from all the Churches represented in it, is deeply impressed with the greatness of the work of Home Missions and the richness of God's blessing upon it, and respectfully suggests that a service of special thanksgiving for the increase of the spirit of fraternity among the Churches, for the increasing spirit of missions in all, and for the continued blessing of God, be held in each General Assembly and General Synod."

4. It is respectfully requested that the second Sabbath of September be set apart by you as a Day of Prayer for the public schools of the United States. A majority of the General Assemblies and the General Synods of the Presbyterian and the Reformed Churches in the U. S. A. have made this appointment and with beneficial results. It does not interfere in any respect with the Day of Prayer for colleges in January of each year, and is for an entirely different and far more numerous class of persons. The Day of Prayer in January is for college and university students; that in September is for the children in the day schools, both public and private. The number of college students is about 107,000, the number of school children 15,925,000. It is believed to be a wise and helpful appointment at the period of the year when the public schools begin their sessions.

5. Last year the Commission reported to you on an Advanced Course of Sabbath-school Lessons, and it gives us pleasure to report that the supreme judicatories of the following Churches acted favorably on the same:

Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.,
Cumberland Presbyterian Church,
United Presbyterian Church,
Reformed Church in America,
Reformed Presbyterian Church, and empowered the Boards and Committees having in charge Sabbath-school work to act in the matter. The Sabbath-school Board of the Reformed Church in the U. S. also took favorable action; the Synod of that Church having had no meeting last year.

6. The Sunday-school Board of the Reformed Church in the U. S. has addressed a communication to this Commission with reference to Lesson Helps for Hungarian Sunday-schools and asking the several Churches of the Alliance to enter into correspondence with said Sunday-school Board for the purpose of uniting together in this work. It is recommended that this be done.

7. The Board of Publication and S. S. Work in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., through the Rev. J. R. Miller, D.D., Editorial Superintendent, has drawn the attention of the Commission to the fact that said Board is preparing a Normal Outline Course to be used in Teacher Training, and that the Presbyterian Church, South, and the Presbyterian Church in Canada have already signified their desire to unite in the publication of this Manual. United action by the Churches of the Alliance is suggested also upon this important matter.

8. The subject of the relation of the U. S. Government to religious work in the Philippines and Porto Rico has received from the Commission very serious attention. The Committee of the Alliance on the subject submitted a report to the last meeting of the Commission, which was adopted, and is signed by Hon. William M. Lanning, Gen. Ralph E. Prime, Hon. George F. Baer, and the Rev. Drs. A. G. Wallace and R. F. Sample.

Copies of the Report are herewith submitted. It is a most valuable document, highly pertinent to the needs of the hour and bringing out facts vital to religious liberty. The Resolutions with which the report closes are as follows:

First—That we rejoice in the provisions of the Constitution of the United States of America which are designed to aid in the promotion of religious liberty.

Second—That we understand that the relation of the Federal Government of the United States to religious work in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico is and ought to be one of absolute impartiality between different religious denominations, and of helpfulness in establishing full religious liberty, limited, however, by the qualification that no religious practices should be tolerated which are recognized "by the general consent of the Christian world in modern times as proper matters for prohibitory legislation."

We invite action by your venerable body on this subject.

9. In the matter of Marriage and Divorce, the Commission respectfully reports that it has appointed delegates to represent it at the Interchurch Conference on Marriage and Divorce. They are as follows: Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., and Hon. William M. Lanning, Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.; Rev. D. J. Burrell, D.D., LL.D., Reformed Church in America; Rev. James I. Good. D.D., Reformed Church in U. S.; Rev. J. C. Scouller, D.D., United Presbyterian Church.

This Interchurch Conference has now in its membership the representatives of fourteen leading Protestant Churches. As stated last year, it was initiated by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the U. S. The Chairman is the Rev. W. C. Doane, D.D., Bishop of Albany, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the Secretary is the Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. The Conference has issued an Address and Appeal to the Christian Public, copies of which are herewith submitted. It has also recommended for consideration and, if deemed proper, for adoption by Church Judicatories the following Resolution:

"Resolved, That in recognition of the comity which should exist between Christian Churches, it is desirable, and would tend to the increase of a spirit of Christian unity, for each Church represented in the Conference to advise and, if ecclesiastical authority will allow, to enjoin its ministers to refuse to unite in marriage any person or persons whose marriage, such ministers have good reason to believe, is forbidden by the laws of the Church in which either party seeking to be married holds membership."

If the way is clear, kindly approve the foregoing Resolution, and direct that the Address and Appeal be read from the pulpits of your churches by the pastors. In the judgment of the Conference, the time has come for united striving by Christians "for the things which are pure and true, for the sanctity of marriage, for the permanence of the family, for the preservation of the home and for the perpetuity of the State."

10. Your venerable body is reminded that the Eighth Council of this Alliance meets at Liverpool, England, June 28, 1904. You have already appointed representatives. Your prayers as well as your sympathies are invited in behalf of this great gathering of representatives of ninety Presbyterian and Reformed Churches found on all the six continents, and representing wherever found our faith, our polity, and human progress along moral and spiritual lines.

11. The matter of the needs of the Reformed Churches on the Continent of Europe are dealt with in the Report of a Special Committee of this Assembly, appointed to conduct correspondence with the Alliance. Reference as to spiritual conditions in Europe are made with some fullness in that Report, and the hope is expressed that the Committee will be continued.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the payment of the apportionment of your Church for the annual expenses of the Alliance. The amount is $765.00 and should be sent to the Treasurer, F. K. Hipple, LL.D., President Real Estate Trust Co., Philadelphia, Pa. We are glad to report in connection with the expenses of the Alliance that every obligation resting upon the Churches in the Western or American Section of the Commission have been fully discharged.

The Alliance has appointed as a delegate, to carry to your venerable body fraternal greetings, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D.

Invoking the blessing of God upon your deliberations and upon the church work of your own and allied Churches, we are

In behalf of the Western or American Section of the Commission of the Alliance,

Yours fraternally and respectfully,

R. P. KERR, Chairman;
WM. H. ROBERTS, Secretary.

ADDRESS AND APPEAL TO THE CHRISTIAN PUBLIC.

On behalf of the representatives of the fourteen Churches composing the Interchurch Conference, which, during the past two years, has held frequent meetings for the consideration of the important subject of Marriage and Divorce, we have been instructed to issue this first general address and appeal.

It is proposed to issue other appeals, as occasion may require, in the hope that the influence of this representative Conference may be brought to bear effectively upon ecclesiastical and civil courts and legislative bodies, for the securing of better conditions and for the deliverance of the Church and the State from impending evils.

Before any civil legislation can be enacted which will be operative, and quite apart from the accord which we are seeking to secure in the marriage regulations of the Christian Churches, must come the leavening of the minds of men and women which shall lift them toward a recognition of the noblest dignities of life.

First of all we plead for the cultivation of the grace of purity; for the careful guarding of children within the atmosphere of home by parents; and for the realization of the dignity of our physical nature lifted to such high honor by the Incarnation.

We plead for a recognition of the sanctity of marriage. We are facing a condition in our country to-day which threatens danger to the most sacred things. The very sanctuary of human life and of human love is assaulted and profaned. Manhood, womanhood and childhood, the home and the family, are involved; and neither civil legislation nor ecclesiastical discipline can save them, until and unless the conscience of Christian humanity is reached. Behind the monster of polygamy, behind the spectre of the lax divorce Court, with its collusions, its corruptions and its contagion, stands the sad fact of the low ideal of marriage. It is true that the element of mutual consent and the element of legal contract enter into it; but underneath and behind these, as the sure foundation, stands the revelation of God's Holy Word. God at first "brought" a woman to a man, one woman to one man, to whom he shall cleave, so that in God's purpose and God's sight they are one flesh. The primal marriage was followed by centuries of hardened hearts and laws lowered or lost, until at last Christianity was connected by the voice of the Divine Law Giver with the old law which He laid down at the creation: "Have ye not read that He which made them at the beginning, made them male and female, and said, 'For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and cleave unto his wife, and they twain shall be one flesh.'"

Marriage is a holy thing. Marriage is the institution of God Himself and is sanctified under the solemnities of the old sanction by our blessed Lord. This is the root of the matter. Reformation must begin here. Children must be taught it. Young men and young women must be made to feel it. Protected in purity, boy and girl, man and woman alike, must be trained to look with reverent eyes upon the holiness of this estate; upon its mysteriousness as something higher and deeper and larger than can be measured or reached by the low ideas of convenience, of worldly advantage, of the gratification of passion, or by the light and easy estimate of the consent of the passing personal fancy and the mutual recognition of the civil contract.

The hope of curing and crushing the horrible tendencies to facile and frequent divorce rests, we believe, upon impressing and inculcating such an intense conviction of what marriage is, and of what marriage means, that it will cease to be entered into "unadvisedly or lightly": that the festivity which accompanies it shall be sobered and consecrated by the conscious presence of Him "Who adorned and beautified the marriage at Cana in Galilee by His presence and first miracle that He wrought": that neither man nor woman shall dare to enter the precincts of betrothal without the tested certainty of love; without the full recognition of the mutual duty of service, forbearance and faithfulness which it involves.

What words can we find to express the abhorrence which ought to rise in righteous indignation against the present possibilities and the existing facts of the divorce habit in America! Just now polygamous Utah looms large and ugly in our minds. But we must look nearer home to realize the true condition of things. The proportion of divorces to marriages in 1902 in eight States reporting statistics is as follows: In Maine, 1 to 6; in New Hampshire, 1 to 8.3; in Vermont, 1 to 10; in Massachusetts, 1 to 16; in Rhode Island, 1 to 8; in Ohio, 1 to 8.8; in Indiana, 1 to 7.6; in Michigan, 1 to 11. In these States, there has been a steady and rapid increase in divorces during the decade, and this increase is believed to be true of the country at large.

We are setting ourselves earnestly to study what best methods the Churches can adopt and what wise measures should be asked in civil legislation to abate this disgrace. The results of our study we hope to present in subsequent statements and appeals. But this appeal is to the conscience of Christian people to cleanse and purify the atmosphere of public opinion and social recognition. The fear of legalized polygamy in one State is enhanced by the fact of unholy divorce in many States. The faces of Christian people must be set against this. The voices of Christian people must be lifted against this, not only to secure civil legislation, not only to enforce Church discipline, but to correct the tendency, to control the inclination and to condemn the fact. We are pleading for the home, for the family, for the children born and to be born, for the protection of society, and for the preservation of the State. We ask you to unite with us in earnest effort, so that more and more the manhood, the womanhood and the childhood of America may make itself heard and felt, in the determined purpose to stem the currents which are sapping the foundations of all that is best and holiest and dearest in human life. Let us strive unitedly for the things which are pure and true, for the sanctity of marriage, for the permanence of the family, for the preservation of the home, and for the perpetuity of the State.

Seven of these new students lack an academic degree. J. J. Duncan pursued selected studies for three years in Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, and continues as a special student here; S. Edgar is a graduate of the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary, Allegheny; W. W. S. Marple falls a little short of completing the academic course in the University of Pennsylvania; R. H. Morris is an ordained minister of the Presbyterian Church, South; A. A. Baillie pursued a special course in Princeton University, while T. Robinson studied for three years in Pacific University and T. Rowan for four years at Mount Herman.

Eleven matriculants were enrolled as graduate students: Johannes R. Albertyn and Hendrik J. Rust, graduates of Stellenbosch Seminary, South Africa; William Brown and John W. Watson, graduates of Allegheny United Presbyterian Seminary; David Browne, a graduate of New College, Edinburgh; Samuel Edgar and Julius A. Kempf, graduates of Allegheny Reformed Presbyterian Seminary; George C. Fisher and George T. Hackett, graduates of Western Theological Seminary; Stanton Olinger, a graduate of Omaha Seminary, and David P. Pressley, a graduate of Erskine Seminary.

To the Senior Class there were admitted, after completing two years at the Seminaries named, H. M. Campbell, from the Western Theological Seminary; A. H. Doak and John Baxter Meacham, from Columbia Theological Seminary; G. A. Foote, from Wittenberg Theological Seminary; W. W. S. Marple, from the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Philadelphia, and C. E. Raynal, from the Seminary of Southwestern Presbyterian University.

With the Middle Class there were enrolled C. A. Brewer, from Mc-Cormick Theological Seminary, and S. T. Foster, from Boston University.

The classified enrollment has been:

Fellows and Scholar,	3
Other Graduate Students.	21
Senior Class,	37
Middle Class,	52

The Stone Lectures were delivered by the Rev. D. James Orr, Professor in the Glasgow College of the United Free Church of Scotland. The Rev. Dr. Arthur Judson Brown, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, delivered the Students' Lectures on Missions. Three lectures were given on Biblical geography. The Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman made two addresses on Evangelistic Work. A religious conference was conducted under the auspices of the Board of Directors. This conference has become an annual conference and is much enjoyed by all the students of the Seminary.

The two hundredth anniversary of the birth of Jonathan Edwards was celebrated by the Seminary, an address being delivered by the Rev. John De Witt, D.D., LL.D. The Rev. Dr. David J. Burrell was appointed lecturer on Homiletics for the ensuing year. The Board of Directors desire to lay certain data before the Assembly as an interesting and gratifying exhibit of the Seminary's progress during the past decade:

I. The staff of instructors has grown from eleven in the Seminary year of 1893–94 to seventeen in 1903–4.

II. The annual course of lectures delivered before the Seminary by specialists on invitation of the Faculty has been increased by a course of stereopticon lectures on Biblical geography.

III. Provision has been made for instruction in vocal music.

IV. An additional fellowship has been established, making three in all, awarded on the basis of a thesis and examination, and enabling the holder of it to spend a year in advanced special study, either in this country or in Europe.

V. A course in Foreign Missions has been added to the curriculum. It comprehends a study of the place of Foreign Missions in comparative religion, the universalistic element in Biblical theology, the history of missions from the close of the apostolic period to the evangelical revival of the eighteenth century, the history, methods and results of Protestant missions, and practical theology in relation to Foreign Missions.

VI. The extra-curriculum courses of study have been organized into a system; they have been increased from seven during the year of 1893–4 to thirty-four in 1903–4, and a school of advanced study has been developed, in which the degree of Bachelor of Divinity may be earned during a fourth year of residence or its equivalent.

VII. An annual conference has been introduced into the Seminary life within the decade, at which eminent Christian workers discuss current religious themes.

Mr. Kerr Duncan MacMillan was elected instructor in Semitic Philology.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred upon the following students, who have done approved work under the Faculty of Instruction, and were recommended to the Directors and Trustees of the Seminary for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, and the President of the Faculty was authorized, on the part and behalf of the Faculty, to subscribe his name to the diplomas conferring the degree.

Johannes Rudolph Albertyne, a graduate of Huguenot College and Stellenbosch Seminary, South Africa.

Howard Moody Frank, a graduate of Washburn College and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
John Thomas Hackett, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College and Western Theological Seminary.
Ralph Kiddoo Hickok, a graduate of Wooster University and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Henry George Howard, a graduate of the University of Texas and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Joseph Eakers James, a graduate of Oxford College and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Leonard Zachariah Johnson, a graduate of Lincoln University in Arts and Theology.
John Warren McComb, a graduate of the University of Durham and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Alec Orm Macdonald, a graduate of the University of Manitoba and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Charles Curtis McIntire, a graduate of Park College and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Stanton Olinger, a graduate of Kansas State University and Omaha Theological Seminary.
David Peden Pressley, a graduate of Erskine College and Seminary.
Robert Robinson, a graduate of New York University and of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Hendrick Jacobus Rust, a graduate of Victoria College and Stellenbosch Theological Seminary.
Gerrit Verkuyl, a graduate of Park College and of Princeton Theological Seminary.

The George S. Green Fellowship in Old Testament Literature has been awarded to Henry George Howard, a graduate of the University of Texas; the Alumni Fellowship in the New Testament studies and the Archibald Robertson Scholarship to Gerrit Verkuyl, a graduate of Park College; and the William Henry Green Fellowship, which is conferred this year in the department of Apologetics, to Harold McAfee Robinson, a graduate of Park College; the first Carter prize to Henry George Howard, a graduate of the University of Texas, and the second to Matthew Foster Johnson; the Benjamin Stanton prize to Henry Peter De Pree, a graduate of Hope College, Mich.; the first Maitland prize to John Gresham Machen, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University, and the second to John Van Peursem, a graduate of Hope College.

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

REPORT OF THE GOVERNING BOARDS.

THE Governing Boards of the Theological Seminary of Auburn, in the State of New York, report as follows for the year ending May 5, 1904, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Through the liberality of one of its friends, the Seminary was enabled to purchase a house to be used as a student clubhouse. Its object is to provide good board for all the men and to furnish a centre for the social life of the Seminary. The clubhouse will be ready for occupancy in the fall. Assistant Professor Reed was granted a year's leave of absence for study in Germany. Rev. Halsey B. Stevenson was secured as Instructor in Hebrew during the second term. During the past year there have been sixty-four lectures and addresses by thirty-four speakers supplementing the curriculum, to which a full course in Religious Pedagogy has been added. Authority to confer the degree of Bachelor of Divinity has been obtained, and it will be granted to fully qualified students who have satisfactorily taken additional work equivalent to a fourth year.

1. THE GOVERNING BOARDS OF THE SEMINARY.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. ANNUAL REPORT OF DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Seventy-seventh Annual Report.

Since the last Annual Report the following students have been matriculated:

William Reed Craig, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.
Thomas Ewing Duffield, a partial student of Grove City College.
Stanislav Bohumil Hochman, a graduate of Gymnasium Pilsen.
Christian Edward Ludwig, a partial student of Washington and Jefferson College.
Alexander Nizankowski, a partial student of Gymnasium Buczacz.
Merrill Peter Steele, a graduate of Lafayette College.
Edward E. Streeter, a graduate of Wooster University.
Theodore Scott Stuart, a graduate of Grove City College.
Homer Swaney, a graduate of Grove City College.
Jerome Delbert Ulay, without a college education.

Mr. John Morton Espey, a graduate of Wooster University, was admitted to the Middle Class on letter of dismissal from Princeton Theological Seminary.

Mr. H. N. Campbell was dismissed at his own request to the Senior Class of Princeton Theological Seminary.

Messrs. Streeter and Swaney withdrew from the Seminary after a brief period of study.

The total attendance for the year has been forty-four. Of these three were enrolled as post-graduates, thirteen as Seniors, fifteen as Middlers, nine as Juniors and four as special students.

These students represent eleven countries and States, and fourteen colleges.

Attention is especially called to the presence of three Bohemian students in the Seminary, one of whom came to us without a word of English, but is in the opinion of the Faculty in the front rank.

The student body as a whole has been faithful in daily classroom work, and their deportment as Christian gentlemen has been exemplary. The relation between the Faculty and students has been cordial and sympathetic. On the whole the health of the students has been excellent. No single case of serious illness was reported during the year.

Special lectures have been delivered on Missions and Evangelism. Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., gave three lectures as follows:

1. Our Problems in the Philippine Islands.
2. The Transformation of China.
3. The War between Russia and Japan.

The Rev. W. P. Chalfant gave an illustrated lecture on China; Rev. James E. Adams addressed the students twice on his work in Korea; Rev. James B. Ely, D.D., delivered a course of three lectures on Evangelism; Rev. Edward P. Cowan, D.D., lectured on the Work of the Boards of the Church and their Relation to One Another; Rev. Samuel J. Fisher, D.D., lectured on Poetry as Influenced by Christianity.

A course of six lectures by the Rev. Hugh Black, of Edinburgh, has been arranged for. They will be delivered at the opening of the next session.

The work in the new Department of Church Music has proceeded satisfactorily under the direction of Prof. Boyd. A generous friend of the Seminary has offered the Faculty $500 toward the expense of this Department for the next year, expressing great interest in its continuance. In view of this generous offer the Board of Directors recommended the continuance of the services of Prof. Boyd, with a request to the Board of Trustees to provide an additional $100 toward his support, if the way be clear.

The Property Committee of the Board of Trustees has refitted the room used as a gymnasium, and the students are unanimous in their testimony as to the beneficial influence of the gymnasium work which they have been enabled to do.

The ladies of the Faculty coöperated with the same Committee in re-furnishing the Seminary parlor. At the reopening of the parlor the students held a reception for the Faculty and their friends. The room has become a social centre for the students and has been a source of great pleasure to them.

The Post-Graduate Scholarship of $400 was divided between Messrs. A. I. Keener and D. E. Culley, inasmuch as they had an equal standing in all departments, and a recommendation was made by the Faculty to the Board of Trustees to increase their appropriation to this Scholarship for the next year, on account of the necessity of dividing the stipend.

Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., recently of Lane Theological Seminary, was elected Professor of Ecclesiastical History and History of Doctrine, in the place of Rev. William H. Jeffers, D.D., LL.D., resigned.

Rev. David Gregg, D.D., LL.D., Pastor of Lafayette Ave. Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., was elected President of the Seminary, at a salary of $5000 a year for four years, this amount having been guaranteed by individual friends of the Seminary for that length of time.

The formal induction of Drs. Schaff and Gregg to the respective positions to which they have been elected in the Seminary awaits the approval of their election by the General Assembly.

The Board of Directors at its last annual meeting expressed its judgment that the time had come to seek a new location for the Seminary, if the way be clear, and the whole matter of the advisability and expediency of moving the location or improving the present property, and safeguarding all the property interests, was referred to the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, with a request to the Board of Trustees to appoint a like Committee from their Board to meet in joint meeting with the Committee from the Board of Directors, if they deem it wise.

The closing exercises of the Seminary were held this year on the evening of May 5, in the Central Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, Pa. Rev. David A. Cunningham, D.D., LL.D., presided, in the absence of Dr. Kennedy, who was prevented from being present by illness, and the diplomas were delivered to the students by Dr. Gregg, the President-elect.

William Paul Benedict,
Victor Bucher,
David Ernest Culley,
Theophilus John Gaehr,
Orrville Joseph Hutchison,
Harry Elmer Kaufman,
Andrew Ivory Keener,

V. GENERAL STATEMENT.

The Seminary, during the year, has been favored with addresses from Rev. W. M. Morrison, D.D., of Luebo, a missionary from the Free Congo State in Africa, and from Rev. A. L. Phillips, D.D., the Secretary of the Sunday School Work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The student body has been of a high order during the session that has just closed. Nearly all of them were either graduates or had been for a term of years in attendance at college or university.

The Board takes peculiar pleasure in reporting to the Assemblies that two sections of the contemplated new buildings will be completed by October 1 and in time for the next term. One of these buildings is a dormitory and is to be known as "Haldeman Hall." The other is to be the refectory.

A gift of $25,000 has been recently received from Elder J. H. Barret, of Henderson, Ky., for a new memorial library building. The plans for this are nearing completion and the building will be immediately erected.

It is the hope and belief of the Board that before the year closes a new chapel will be under construction.

With the new buildings in readiness for the next term, the Board of Directors and the Faculty face the opening of the session in October, 1904, with bright hopes and prospects.

2. Executive Committee of the Board.

Hon. Thomas Dent, William Robson Notman, D.D.,
Cyrus H. McCormick, W. O. Carrier, D.D.,
J. H. Holliday, Henry Webb Johnson, D.D.,
James G. K. McClure, D.D.

II. TRUSTEES.

Edward M. Teall, President.
Ira J. Geer, Secretary.
Eugene H. Fishburn, Treasurer.

Harold F. McCormick, Onward Bates,
Henry P. Crowell, Edward A. Halsey.

Owing to continued ill health, Rev. Ira W. Allen, Jr., was compelled to seek a more genial climate, and his resignation from the office of Assistant in the Department of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology was reluctantly accepted.

III. FACULTY.

Rev. Willis Green Craig, D.D., LL.D., Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology, 1048 North Halsted Street.

Rev. David Calhoun Marquis, D.D., LL.D., Professor of New Testament Interpretation, The Plaza.
Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology, 1070 North Halsted Street.
Rev. Andrew C. Zenos, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History, 2 Chalmers Place.
Rev. Augustus Stiles Carrier, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and the Cognate Languages, 1042 North Halsted Street.
Rev. Benjamin Lewis Hobson, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and Missions, 1 Chalmers Place.
Rev. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis, 10 Chalmers Place.
Rev. Samuel Dickey, M.A., Adjunct Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, The Plaza.
Edward Munson Booth, M.A., Instructor in Elocution and Voice Culture, 471 Fullerton Avenue.

Dr. Herrick Johnson presented his resignation from the Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology, to take effect January 1, 1905, on the ground that the impaired health of himself and wife demanded a more congenial climate during the more trying part of winter. A Committee was appointed to confer with Dr. Johnson, and it was agreed to accept his resignation, but continue him as a member of the Faculty, with a Chair, the name, duties and salary of which are to be hereafter determined, to which Chair Dr. Johnson was elected, his occupancy of it to begin when he vacates his present Chair.

5. Change in Plan of Seminary.

The Synod of California, in session at Calvary Presbyterian Church, San Francisco, October 24, 1903, by an unanimous vote, so changed the plan of the Seminary as to provide for the election of a President.

On November 3, the Board of Directors unanimously elected Prof. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., to this position.

February 4, 1904, Dr. MacIntosh was inaugurated as the first President of the Seminary and as Stuart Professor of Systematic Theology.

Mr. J. W. Richards, of Berkeley, President of the Board of Directors, presided and propounded the Constitutional questions. Rev. John Hemphill, D.D., of San Francisco, read the Scripture, and Prof. William Alexander, D.D., the senior member of the Faculty, offered prayer. The charge to the President was given by Rev. E. E. Baker, D.D., of Oakland, and the charge to the Professor by Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D.D., of Portland, Ore. Rev. William K. Guthrie, of San Francisco, offered the installation prayer. The subject of President MacIntosh's inaugural address was, "Science, the Ally of Theology."

This was a notable event in the history of the Seminary and attracted a large number of the friends of the Seminary and representative educators from this section of the Pacific Coast.

6. Special Features of the Year.

a. Opening Address.

Wednesday, September 16, at 11 o'clock, the opening address was given by the retiring Chairman, Prof. Warren H. Landon, D.D., on "The Need of a Painstaking Ministry."

b. Bible Conference.

A Bible conference, arranged and conducted by Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., and the Faculty of the Seminary, was held at the Seminary, October 26–29, 1903. About one hundred and fifty ministers of our own and other churches participated in the services. A large number of other Christian workers were present. The entire Conference was so helpful that it has been decided to hold another at the Seminary during the fall of 1904.

c. Alumni Conference.

The Second Annual Conference of the Alumni was held February 2–4, 1904. Papers were read by Rev. David H. McCullagh, '98, on "Evangelism in the History of the Church"; by Rev. Robert S. Eastman, '00, on "The Psychology of Conversion"; by Rev. Charles G. Paterson, '98, on "The Testimony of Archæology to the Integrity of the Old Testament"; by Rev. James G. Anderson, '97, on "The Province of Christian Dogmatics"; by Prof. Charles G. Buck, on "A Study in Hymnology"; by Rev. G. Eldredge, '96, on "The Bible as Literature"; by Rev. H. N. Bevier, '93, on "The Death of Christ: Its Place in the Christian Scheme," and by Rev. R. C. Stone, '96, on "The Progress of Christianity: Its Continuity and Its Variety." Popular addresses were delivered in the evenings by Rev. Thornton A. Mills, Ph.D., of San José, and Rev. Edward K. Strong, of San Francisco.

d. Report on Changes in the Curriculum.

The new department this year instituted as the "Department of the English Bible" has proved a great success, surpassing far the expectations of the Faculty. Two hours a week has been required of all students during the session. The deepest interest has been shown, not only by the attention of the men in the classes but also by their careful preparation for each day's new study. Special emphasis has been placed by each professor upon a thorough mastery of the English Bible, and without hesitation it can be affirmed that a new love for the Word of God has been produced and both joy and enthusiasm shown in its study; manifestly a long-felt want has been thus met. Beyond all question the most happy results in both the pulpit and pastoral work of those who have taken this course will be shown in future years.

A special course on "Evangelistic Theology, Preaching and Methods" attracted great attention. The students of the second and third year hailed with gratitude these lectures; and at the close, by formal vote, returned emphatic thanks for the instruction thus imparted.

During the year regular and systematic work has been carried on in the city of San Francisco, training the students in all forms of street preaching and city missions; the testimony borne to this practical instruction has been constant and emphatic.

Every Monday evening there has been held a conference of the Faculty and student body, at which full reports regarding the work done during the preceding week have been presented. Special discussions have been held and earnest prayer made for the work of evangelization and the extension of Christ's kingdom. The Faculty has resolved to prosecute with greater zeal than ever this important and much needed training in active, aggressive evangelistic work.

We have to report the signal success which has attended the opening of our Post-graduate Correspondence Course. Quite a number of the younger ministers and busy missionaries have availed themselves of this opportunity to carry on advanced studies in Biblical and theological subjects. Our list of enrolled post-graduate students presents the names of men found in every part of the West and Pacific Slope. Every week brings to us inquiries regarding our work and our methods. But our very success has brought us face to face with a serious and urgent necessity. We need immediately funds to provide a circulating library made up of the best and the freshest books which, on the payment of a small sum, may be lent to struggling ministers who wish to keep themselves abreast of the finest thought and yet are unable to purchase for themselves the necessary volumes.

We have been much cheered by the hearty and unsought commendation of the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., the Corresponding Secretary of the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work, who has been pleased to say among other laudatory statements: "Indeed, so far as I can see, San Anselmo is an ideal Seminary. It is such an institution as many in the Church have been praying for for a long time. Without in the least lowering its scholarship, it is becoming a great centre for evangelistic and missionary effort; quite a number of the students with whom I conversed assured me that they were receiving the greatest possible help in every way from their instructors, and that they expected to go forth preachers of the Gospel and winners of souls, all because of what they have received in this school of the prophets. With all my heart I thank God for San Anselmo."

9. General Statement.

As stated by my predecessor, we have great reason for gratitude in the great opportunities before this Seminary, and for its bright prospects, and this remark is, if anything, more true now than it was one year ago. Although the endowment of the Seminary has been considerably increased since last report, nevertheless it needs further additions in order to carry forward successfully the increasing work now in hand, and that which seems to be indicated for the future on this coast.

We hope for the earnest sympathy, the heartfelt prayers and the ready gifts of our Church. The annual commencement exercises were held at San Anselmo, Thursday, April 28, 1904, and the address was delivered by Rev. Hugh W. Fraser, D.D., of Oakland, Cal., subject, "The Mission of Christ."

Very respectfully submitted,

J. W. RICHARDS, President.

6. General Remarks.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the following Directors, whose term will expire in April, 1907, were reëlected: Rev. Jacob Conzett, Rev. Henry Schmitt, Rev. J. K. Fowler, D.D., Rev. H. A. Van Griethuysen, C. Loetscher, Esq., Rev. John E. Drake, W. L. Green, Jr., Esq., and Henry Moring, Esq. Rev. W. O. Ruston, D.D., was made Honorary Director, and in his place, in the Class of 1905, Rev. J. M. Robinson, D.D., LL.D., was chosen. Rev. Frederick L. Wolters was chosen in the place of Rev. Ferdinand Urbach, resigned, in the Class of 1906. We ask the General Assembly to approve this action.

After twenty-one years of service, Rev. Prof. Adam McClelland, Ph.D., D.D., offered his resignation. During these years Dr. McClelland has been a power in the Faculty, and has by his teaching gifts and strong devotional character left an indelible impression upon the German ministry. In accepting his resignation the Board elected him Professor-Emeritus of Church History, and made provision for his support during his natural life.

During the summer Rev. N. M. Steffens, D.D., presented his resignation as Van Vliet Professor of Theology, in order to accept a professorship in the Western Theological Seminary at Holland, Mich. At the same time a communication from the Rev. John Jaeger, of Embden, Germany, was received, declining the call to the professorship of German Language and Literature. A special meeting of the Board was held, at which the resignation of Dr. Steffens was accepted and the duties of the Chair of Theology were distributed among the Faculty. Rev. Ferdinand Urbach was chosen Professor of New Testament Exegesis and German Language and Literature. It is desired that this action be approved.

In view of the increasing importance of the work and the enlargement of the School, the Board was impelled to provide an executive head and elected the Rev. W. O. Ruston, D.D., to be the President of the School. The General Assembly is asked to approve this election.

The enlargement of the curriculum, as reported to the last General Assembly, has proved beneficial, and the students have gladly availed themselves of the new privileges. This has, however, weakened the theological classes, as the students have gone back in their course to secure the fuller collegiate discipline. In the end it will be found that a much abler and more efficient ministry will be trained for the German work. It is now designed to revise the theological curriculum, so that nothing shall be wanting to a thorough preparation for the ministry.

The Financial Secretary, Rev. C. M. Steffens, has wrought faithfully and successfully, but has not yet secured the desired endowment. The way has been carefully prepared and it is expected that the coming year will show larger results. As it is, nearly ten thousand dollars have been added to the invested funds, and promises of as much more will doubtless be redeemed within the next month. It is desired the General Assembly shall continue its recommendation for our cause. The German people must have a cultured ministry. Our School must be able to give a good education to its students, and to send them forth with an intellectual equipment sufficient to cope with the difficulties of German evangelization. To do less than this is to give up the problem. Our German people demand as well trained a ministry as the English-speaking churches. No school can give a thorough education without endowment. This year should see our invested funds more than doubled, and we confidently plead for the continued interest of the General Assembly in our work.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, a course of instruction in evangelistic methods and the preparation of evangelistic sermons has been arranged. Provision has also been made for thorough discipline in both the German and English Bible. Greater emphasis will be placed upon missions in the new curriculum, although our German pastors and churches are preëminently noted for their missionary spirit. A canvass of the German churches, which form the constituency of this School, has been begun, for the purpose of increasing the number of students, and we have reason to believe that this canvass will be successful.

The Board also desires to assure the Assembly that, so far as its means will permit, the School is ready to coöperate in any plan which the Assembly may approve for reaching our foreign-speaking population. If other nationalities can be reached through this institution provision will be made to the extent of our ability.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Directors,

Middlers,			19

Of the Seniors, Messrs. Martin L. Bethel, Theodore T. Branch, John T. Colbert, Philip J. A. Coxe, Joseph J. Creigh, John H. Fort, Albert B. McCoy, James M. Morton, Monroe E. Powell and William E. Starks have been licensed to preach the Gospel by the Presbyteries of Carlisle and Chester.

The whole class has been appointed to some form of ministerial work. One member of the Junior Class died in a hospital in Philadelphia at the close of the year, of general tuberculosis.

The theological course is a post-graduate course, requiring the degree of A.B. or an equivalent in preparation for its successful prosecution.

The curriculum of study includes thirteen courses, distributed through three years, as follows: English Bible, Homiletics, Apologetics, Archæology, Christian Ethics, Systematic Theology, Pastoral Theology, Church Government, Polemics, Church History, New Testament Greek, Hebrew, Ecclesiastical Latin.

The following course of studies, distributed through three years, has been arranged for a few students whose preparation restricts them to the English language: English Bible, Homiletics, Apologetics, Sacred Geography, Biblical Antiquities, Christian Ethics, Systematic Theology, English Literature, General History, Pastoral Theology, Church Government, Church History, Polemics.

The English Bible is so taught that no student shall be graduated from the Theological Department without acquiring a thorough knowledge of both the Old and New Testaments. The students are required to read the whole Bible carefully and to commit to memory such passages as may be assigned to them. The authorized English Version is the text-book of this course. Emphasis is laid on the life of Christ and the Epistles of Paul. The Historical and Prophetical Books of the Old and New Testaments are assiduously taught. The study is conducted in a devout and practical form, that it may be of service to the graduates as teachers, preachers and pastors. This study has a sensible effect in quickening the spiritual life of the theological students and in qualifying them for evangelistic work. Our most scholarly and efficient graduates, writing from their fields of ministerial and professional labor, often testify that their course of study in the English Bible has proved to be in fact and relatively of the highest value to them in their school and church and pastoral work.

One writes: "For the good of my race, to which Lincoln is a great benefactor, my hope and prayer shall be that the English Bible shall always be a part of her curriculum, and that she may ever live to send forth her sons deeply imbued with its heavenly knowledge and spirit."

THE CHAIR OF CHURCH HISTORY AND SOCIOLOGY.

We take pleasure in making known to the General Assembly that, through the favor of God upon the zealous and wise efforts of Prof. David A. McWilliams, the Chair of Church History and Sociology has been prospectively endowed. One warm-hearted friend of the negro and of our work in his behalf has pledged, upon conditions which we are glad to fulfill, the sum of $25,000, whose income we are already receiving. Other friends have increased the amount to $30,000. The chair has been courteously named after the President of the University. We still need and lack $5,000 for the residence of the Professor.

The Board of Trustees, on accepting the gifts which constitute this endowment, and the annexed conditions, unanimously elected the Rev. David A. McWilliams, a graduate of McCormick Theological Seminary, and recently pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Chester, Pa., to be the incumbent of this Chair. The Chair for the present carries with it a course of instruction in General History and Political Economy in the Collegiate Department.

We therefore respectfully ask the General Assembly to confirm the election of Prof. McWilliams to the Chair of Church History and Sociology in Lincoln University.

The following additions to the permanent funds of the University have become available during the year, and are in their application to theological education subject to the oversight of the General Assembly:

The Isaac N. Rendall Chair of Church History and Sociology,	$30,000 00
The Mrs. Charles Henry Scholarships,	5,000 00
	$35,000 00

In addition to these sums, the Board of Trustees have received $8,000 from the estate of Mrs. Mary McCauley for the general fund of the University, which they propose to apply to the erection of a Refectory for the better boarding of the students. For this purpose we need at once $5,000 more.

RELATION OF THE THEOLOGICAL TO THE COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

All the resources and property of the University are subservient to the Theological Department. Candidates for the ministry, with other students, have the benefit of endowed instruction in the college classes and of dormitory rooms and instruction halls made free from rent by the generosity of the patrons of Lincoln University. There are now sixty candidates for the ministry in the Collegiate Department. These, together with the sixty-one in the Theological Department, make a total of 121 candidates for the ministry under our care during the year just closed.

5. Wants of the University.

ENDOWMENT.

The Theological Department of the University is under the control of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. This control of the General Assembly necessitates the full and separate endowment of the Theological Department. To carry this plan of the Assembly into practical effect in Lincoln University, the General Assembly which met in Winona, Ind., in 1897, took the following action:

"Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby expresses its deep interest in Lincoln University, and especially in its Theological Department, and commends this school of learning for young colored men to the churches for the liberal support of its whole work, and for the separate endowment of its Theological Department."

This separate and adequate endowment and equipment of the Theological Department would require about $250,000. A beginning could be made with any contribution to the Professorship Fund, the Scholarship Fund or the Building Fund.

SPECIAL WANTS OF THE THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

A Dormitory for the Students,	$25,000 00
A Recitation Hall,	25,000 00
A Chair of Christian Ethics,	25,000 00
The more adequate endowment of six existing Chairs, each,	10,000 00
Towards a Refectory,	5,000 00

Jubilee exercises were held on the 10th and 11th of May, 1904. Graduates from Massachusetts to Florida, from Illinois to Texas, and from California to New York, and the States between, were represented at the jubilee, in person and by letter. There was but one voice and spirit among them: gratitude to God for the work of Lincoln University and for their life and education here, cordial loyalty to their Alma Mater, hope for the race dominant over all discouragements, and trust in God for all good obvious or latent in His promises.

We could desire no stronger evidence of the exceeding value of our educational work than the voluntary testimony sent to us by ministerial brethren in the Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Episcopal Churches of the Southern States. These brethren write in high praise of our graduate workers for their trained competency in instruction, for their honest devotion to the spiritual and moral elevation of their people, and for their peaceful influence along the line of race distinctions. They say, "We attribute the absence of race antagonism in our vicinity to the healthful Christian influence of our students," is the testimony of many. Also, "Lincoln University, which has trained and sent forth such men (and so long as it shall do so) deserves the hearty and liberal support of the Christian people of the country, who desire to aid in the real elevation and the more thorough evangelization of the colored race."

The Synod of Pennsylvania, which annually sends a delegation of ministers and elders to inspect our work and report their findings, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, "That Lincoln University stands for all that is evangelical and progressive in the line of fitting men for both preaching and lay Christian service."

That Synod recommends "That Lincoln University be made an object of prayerful interest and of liberal financial support, and that the churches be instructed in its usefulness and requirements."

All men regard the negro as the proper subject of civil and moral law. Both by his just punishment and by his legal protection he is rated at a full manhood. The judgment of man is corroborated by the Providence of God. He is multiplying their numbers. He enstamps upon them His image. He is not ashamed of His likeness in them. Grace works in them all its saving effect. We are working in the line of God's purpose when we are organizing the agencies which promote their knowledge of saving truth and their fitness to proclaim it. Lincoln University is a child of the Presbyterian Church and a co-worker with God.

Lincoln University cordially and earnestly invites the Moderator of the General Assembly of 1904, its Stated and Permanent Clerks and the Secretaries of all its Boards of Home and Foreign work, to fix a date during the Academic year of 1904-1905, when they will meet together in Lincoln University and see for themselves, and as representatives of the Church, what God is working here for the glory of His name in the salvation of the Negro race.

In behalf of the Faculty of Theology in Lincoln University,

ISAAC N. RENDALL, President.

Biddle University is still being greatly favored by the Head of the Church. In many respects the year just closed has been unprecedentedly prosperous. The total enrollment is 240, with 18 in the School of Theology, all having taken a college course with one exception. The three graduates for this year have already found fields of labor, and arrangements are about perfected for the Middlers and Juniors to engage in active preaching service and other Christian work during the approaching vacation.

The demand for a well-trained, consecrated ministry for the colored race becomes more and more urgent with their increase in numbers and the exclusive dependence of this people upon their own ministry.

The preparatory and college work of the school is being conducted along the well-defined and tested lines hitherto approved by the Church and which all along have borne satisfactory results, and the heart culture of the student at every stage of his progress receives definite and purposeful attention. About 95 per cent. of the students are professing Christians, and many of those in the advanced classes engage in Christian work in the churches of the community. In the college and preparatory departments there are 46 avowed candidates for the Christian ministry.

The new Industrial Building is completed, and with its equipment the facilities for training in this respect will become all that is desired. Thus Biddle University is bearing a large part of the responsibility of extending the opportunity of the greatly needed threefold education to the people for whose special benefit it was established.

The next Annual Commencement will be held Wednesday, June 8.

Very respectfully,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

XIII. OMAHA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

THE Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, Neb., respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Thirteenth Annual Report, for the year ending May 4, 1904, and asks approval of its acts.

1. BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

2. THE FACULTY.

Rev. MATTHEW B. LOWRIE, D.D., President, and Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.

Rev. ALEXANDER G. WILSON, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Missions.
Rev. JOSEPH J. LAMPE, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Hebrew, Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. DANIEL E. JENKINS, Ph.D., Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.
Rev. CHARLES A. MITCHELL, Ph.D., Professor-elect of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.

NOTE—The subjects of Apologetics, Church Government and English Bible were distributed among the Professors.

With deep regret and sorrow we report the death in the very closing hour of the Seminary year of the Rev. Alexander Gibson Wilson, D.D., Professsor of Ecclesiastical History and Missions. Dr. Wilson had been a member of the Faculty of Omaha Seminary for a period of ten years, serving in the Chair of Apologetics and afterwards in the Chair of History. His work was characterized by great fidelity and unselfish devotion to the interests of the Seminary during these early years of its history.

Twenty students were in attendance during the last year, the number being the same as reported a year ago.

Herbert Moore Course was received upon a letter of dismissal from Auburn Seminary, and Ivan G. Martin upon a similar letter from Princeton Theological Seminary, both into the Middle Class.

The entering class numbered five: Hiram Louis Denton, a graduate of Bellevue College, 1901; Henry Willard Lampe, a graduate of Knox College, 1901; Howard Lucius Smith, a graduate of Coe College, 1903; and James Hamilton and David Sharp, neither of whom had received a full college course.

The following members of the Senior Class, having completed the full course of study, were on recommendation of the Faculty granted the usual diploma:

James Clark,
Thomas C. Osborne,
John Elton Youel,
Amadeo Maes,
Richard L. Purdy,
Emery E. Zimmerman.

One other member of this class was prevented from taking the examinations by reason of sickness, and still another, Kersey J. Cardy, was given a testimonial representing the studies pursued.

The Board is pleased to report that notwithstanding the stringency of financial conditions, which made it unusually difficult to secure current support, it has been possible to complete the year with all obligations paid and no debt of any kind, and in addition that the year has brought some increase in permanent funds, through the liberality of Mr. S. P. Harbison, Pittsburg, Pa., who has given to the Seminary fifty shares (par value $5,000) of stock yielding six per cent. annual dividend, thus increasing the regular income $300. It is hoped the year to come will include many similar contributions and bring the institution nearer to the possession of the much-needed endowment. The urgent need for this Seminary becomes more apparent as the years go on. The demands for the men for mission fields constantly increase, and this year in particular the calls for students, both graduates and undergraduates, have come in larger number and greater urgency than ever before. These calls come from Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Colorado and further west. Again we appeal to the General Assembly for sympathy and help, that the interest of the Church may be aroused and the needed contributions secured to put the work upon a permanent and stable basis.

Signed by order of the Board of Directors,

MATTHEW B. LOWRIE, President.

ABSTRACT OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions herewith respectfully submits to the General Assembly the One Hundred and Second Annual Report of its work:

We mourn the loss of the following men who have been called from their

Rev. Samuel H. Weller, D.D., Ione, Calif.
Rev. Erwin D. Walker, D.D., St. Louis, Mo.
Rev. John C. Sloan, Alliance, Neb.
Rev. William Webb Percival, Ph.D., Corning, Calif.
Rev. William T. Findley (Indian Mission), Winnebago, Neb.
Rev. William Schiller (Bohemian Church), Hopkins, Minn.

The Board records its grateful appreciation of the service these servants of Christ were permitted to perform for His Kingdom, and extends its respectful sympathy to their families and kindred in their sore bereavement.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

The last General Assembly took action directing the Board "to designate an officer to have oversight of mission work among the foreign-speaking peoples in this country in all the Synods directly connected with the Board." In accordance with this direction the Board appointed the Rev. John Dixon, D.D., to give special attention to this work along with the other duties assigned to him.

The following statement sets forth the work now being done by our Church among the foreign-speaking peoples in our country, not including the Philippines or the Hawaiian Islands:

A year ago the Board called attention to a new departure. The Rev. Charles Stelzle, of the Markham Memorial Church of St. Louis, was appointed to a special mission for workingmen. We are now able to report encouraging progress.

Mr. Stelzle has held conferences with churches and workingmen's associations and delivered addresses on the relations of the workingman to the Church in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Des Moines, Missouri Valley Junction, Denver, Cripple Creek, Joliet, Duluth and Chicago. He has remained in each city from a few days to several weeks. He has had the sympathetic interest of the churches he has addressed and of the workingmen in the associations where he has spoken.

It is believed that already the workingman has come to a better understanding of the attitude of the Church of Christ toward him, and the Church has been aroused to some deeper interest in seeking the salvation of the sons of toil and their co-operation in building up the Kingdom of the Carpenter.

One of the good results is that in several of these cities the ministers' associations have appointed representatives to be members of the Union labor organizations of workingmen and to participate in their councils. It is proposed to extend this work in various parts of the country during the coming year.

Our campaign of education and inspiration among contributing churches has been a feature of each of the last three winters. From their duties at the front, and full of that conviction of need which is back of all eloquence, three home missionaries came last autumn to tell of results of past home mission service and of urgent opportunities waiting only for men and money.

With the approval of the Home Mission Committees in the Presbyteries of Westminster, Chester, Lackawanna, Rochester and Chemung, a comprehensive campaign has been carried on within their bounds. In addition to these, with the cordial co-operation of the pastors, other appointments have been met in cities as well as in country communities in the Synods of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Largely as a result of this effort the home mission offering of many churches has increased. Forty-three churches have this year been linked to the firing-line by their "own" fifty missionaries, reaching probably twice as many distinct home mission stations, and two individuals have each undertaken the support of a missionary.

AMONGST THE OLDER SYNODS.

The Board of Home Missions for a number of years has been carrying on work within the bounds of two Presbyteries in the Synod of New York. One of these is the Presbytery of Boston. Vigorous effort has been made, extending over a third of a century, to provide for the spiritual need of the comparatively large number of English-speaking Presbyterians who have come into New England from Canada and abroad.

Within the Presbytery of Buffalo is to be found the remnant of Iroquois Indians. During the past year a remarkable work of grace has been in progress amongst them. After many weary years of patient and prayerful sowing of the good seed of the Word a harvest has been garnered which fills the hearts of the missionaries with deepest joy.

Within the bounds of this same Presbytery is to be found a large number of Magyars of the Reformed faith. At the request of Presbytery the Board has commissioned Rev. Bela Csekes, who has begun work among his countrymen in Buffalo, Tonawanda, and other places. We have great hope that the success of this movement will be both immediate and marked.

SOUTHERN SYNODS.

Our home mission work in Florida is conducted in two Presbyteries, the Presbytery of East Florida, extending principally along the eastern portion of the State, and the Presbytery of South Florida, embracing the remainder of central and southern Florida. It is composed of twenty ministers, thirty-seven churches (including three colored) and a membership of twelve hundred.

The Southern Presbyterians have double the number of churches, and, with the advantage of location in the largest towns in the State, have four times as many members as our Church. Fraternal relations of the most delightful character have always existed between the two bodies.

Conditions in Kentucky are changing each year. In the central parts of the State we are doing little more than holding our own. In the eastern and northeastern parts we are making decided progress. In the mountain communities population and capital are coming in rapidly. Large tracts of land are bought, new towns spring up, new railroads coming in, and the coal, coke, oil, clay and timber interests are concentrating the attention of capitalists in eastern Kentucky.

This has been a building year in the Synod of Tennessee, fourteen houses having been erected and some repaired or enlarged. Among these are schoolhouses, teachers' homes, churches and manses.

SYNODS OF THE NORTHWEST.

In the Synod of Minnesota we had a larger working force in our mission field last year than in any previous year in our history. There were one hundred and four missionaries commissioned by the Board, three more than in the previous year and twelve more than were employed in any other dependent Synod.

In the Synod of North Dakota two churches have come to self-support, nineteen ministers have come to the State, and thirty-two students have been employed, most of them only for summer work. We have organized twenty-eight churches, erected eighteen church buildings, improved, enlarged and beautified as many more, built and improved manses, and, best of all, there has been a good spiritual result in the work as a whole.

Within three years we may be said to have added fifty churches to the roll, and brought as many new ministers to the State and brought eighteen fields to self-support.

The Synod of Montana celebrated last year its tenth anniversary. Ten years ago we had thirty-three churches, with 1,681 members, of whom 130 had been received during the year on confession of faith.

To-day we have forty-eight churches, eight being self-supporting, with a membership of 3,128, of whom 450 have been received on confession of faith.

CENTRAL WESTERN SYNODS.

The Synod of Missouri has appointed the Rev. John B. Hill, D.D., son of the late Timothy Hill, D.D., of blessed memory, its synodical missionary. Dr. Hill takes up this work with zeal and affectionate devotion. We are confident that every home missionary and every home mission church within the bounds of the Synod will have in him the warmest and truest friend.

The Synod has had under consideration the matter of self-support. Favorable action was taken upon the subject at the last meeting of the Synod, and their final decision is to be given next fall.

SOUTHWESTERN SYNODS.

For several years the Indian and Oklahoma Territories have been amongst our most attractive home mission fields; the probability is that they will continue to be so for years to come.

Here is an illustration of the progress of home missions: Ten years ago the Cherokee Strip in northern Oklahoma was opened to settlement with a great rush. Kay county was settled that day; two home mission churches were shortly started at Newkirk and Ponca City. Since then those two churches, or rather their pastors, organized the Blackwell Church, working this field together. Then the Newkirk pastor organized Middleton, a country point; then recently Gray Norte was organized by him, ten miles northeast of Newkirk. He will soon organize about eight miles east of Newkirk. The presbyterial missionary organized at Kaw City. The Blackwell pastor organized recently a church at Tonkawa. The Ponca City pastor organized a church ten miles east of his home. Aside from this, one Newkirk pastor three years ago organized a self-supporting academy, which now has a good building, about one hundred students, and a great future. So after ten years of missionary work in Kay county our two home mission churches have grown to seven —three of them self-supporting—and a self-supporting academy. This is the banner Presbyterian county in the Synod, but others are following after.

We have grown in Texas. The El Paso Church, so lately out of the hands of home missions, made a net growth of fifty last year. That means vastly more than fifty received, as people are there for their health.

There has been special growth in our possibilities. The talk of Cumberland union has brought us into close touch with several of their churches. Instance Lampasas, we had too many to abandon there and too few to regularly supply.

During the past year there has been a marked material progress in different parts of the Synod, which includes the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona.

Towns not in existence five years ago now number their thousands of population. And as at different points the Government builds the reservoirs for which appropriations have already been made, homes will be found for tens of thousands of settlers as well as for the present populations.

Amongst the Navajos the Rev. Charles Bierkemper has been busy learning the language, laying plans and now carrying these plans into effect. On account of the unusual water supply, a large number of Indians have located at the Cornfields, some nine miles south of Ganado, and to these he has been giving a good deal of attention. Two Sabbath-schools have been organized with an average attendance of forty-five. The people are beginning to show a deep interest.

The Rev. and Mrs. Claude R. Brodhead, at Jewett, among the Navajos, in northwestern New Mexico, have continued their consecrated and fruitful labor.

Additional buildings have been secured, an irrigation plant has been authorized, rendering eighty acres productive and making possible a large and important industrial work. A hospital and boarding-school have been opened. The fourfold mission now carried on is abundantly justifying the cost of its establishment.

With all this in process, we are as yet only touching here and there the 40,000 Indians within the bounds of the Synod. In New Mexico there are 10,000 amongst whom nothing is being done by Protestant missionaries, except what we are doing at Laguna.

For several years the Papagos in the southeast of Arizona have been a source of anxiety. No one could be found to undertake the work of missionary to these scattered villages. Early last year Mr. Frank S. Herndon, superintendent of our Tucson Indian School, impressed with the need of the Papagos, volunteered his services, was accepted by the Board and entered upon this new field. He has built a home for himself and his family in the Papago village near Tucson, and uses a tent for church services.

A year ago we reported the opening of the mission among the Mojaves in western Arizona. The Rev. Alfred C. Edgar continues his work among this roving tribe, having been supplied with a tent, with which he can follow his people and hold services wherever they may be gathered. He has also been holding service at Fort Mojave.

THE MOUNTAIN SYNODS.

As is well known to the country through the medium of the press, the State of Colorado has been the storm centre of long continued labor difficulties. They have seriously affected many communities in which our churches are located. In every case our ministers in charge have maintained their church work and rendered magnificent service to those who have suffered under these untoward conditions. Not a man has deserted his post, and not a man has lowered his standard of truth and righteousness. Several have suffered financial loss. More have been made anxious because of inability on the part of their people to meet promptly their obligations.

In the Synod of Utah we have thirty-six ministers engaged in preaching in this vast territory, which is twenty thousand square miles larger than all of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania—just thirty-six men, all told, from St. George on the south to Solomon on the north.

With more than two hundred towns untouched by our Gospel message, we are preaching in our little chapels to small companies of believers here and there who venture to assert their faith. And now, beloved brethren, you ask us to "Sing one of the songs of Zion." Well, we are singing and praying, and wielding the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. We are holding the fort in the assurance that our Captain is coming, and that some day when some of us have fought our last battle the Presbyterian Church, which you brethren are trying to arouse, is coming. It is going to be done sometime, somehow—God knows when and how.

SYNODS OF THE WESTERN COAST.

In the Synod of Washington the year has been one of marvelous development commercially. Government land which has value for farming or timber has nearly all been taken. Lands which a few years ago were considered valueless are now being cultivated. Five new church buildings have been erected during the year and one purchased. Two manses have been erected. Five churches have been organized; a number of outstations have been established.

In the Synod of Oregon there were substantial accessions to the churches. Five new churches have been organized, all in destitute places.

Except in one of these new fields no work is done by any Church. One region has eighteen hundred people and no church; one has several hundred and no church; one is a mining district with three thousand men.

In the Synod of California we have two synodical missionaries. Dr. Noble says: In the part of the Synod which forms my field the year has been characterized by an unusual demand for the organization of churches. I have tried to be conservative and to hold back from undertaking new work which there might not be funds to support. Nevertheless, in following up the labors of our Sabbath-school missionaries, and in response to requests coming directly from new fields, I have organized since the first of last April ten churches, with a total membership of 190.

Mr. Gerrior took up his new duties November 1st. In his report he says: I believe good work has been done throughout our Synod during the past year, but the results have certainly not been startling. A number of Sabbath-schools and six new churches have been organized and several hundred members added to our churches.

PORTO RICO.

San Juan.—Our work in this island has had another year of marked prosperity. Important among its events is the progress made by the English Presbyterian Church of San Juan, organized a year ago and under the care of the Rev. Robert McLean until October, 1903, when the Rev. William Lloyd Roberts became our missionary to that congregation, releasing all of Mr. McLean's time for the native work, for which especially he went to Porto Rico.

A Spanish church was organized in San Juan in March and about twenty were received as charter members. It has a fine Sunday-school, the credit for the organization and discipline of which is due to our faithful teacher, Miss Annie T. Aitken.

Under Mr. McLean's supervision services have been opened in two neighboring villages—Toa Alta, where Mr. José A. Lopez, a native helper, studying for the ministry under the care of Presbytery, is employed; and Corozal, where the Rev. Howard T. Jason (colored) is in charge.

Special mention should be made of the new hospital. To the aid of Dr. Grace W. Atkins, who was formerly our only medical worker, have been sent Miss Jane H. Harris, M.D., and two nurses, Miss Sarah Burns and Miss Sarah L. Bogert. The erection of three buildings for housing the hospital has been the achievement of the past year. The thorough equipping of our medical missionary plant is a matter of rejoicing in Porto Rico. As an investment for home mission funds it will pay large dividends.

Isabela.—At Isabela a church was organized in June, having now twenty members and one elder. This mission has had a heavy blow and the missionary an irreparable loss in the death in March of Mrs. McAllister, whose missionary service and Christian influence will long remain among the people to whom she had dedicated her young life.

Aguadilla.—In the three years since the organization of our church in Aguadilla, our missionary, the Rev. Judson L. Underwood, has received into the church three hundred members, all save two on profession of faith. This church has made good its reputation as a missionary church—out of its poverty contributing last year about four hundred dollars for all purposes.

Mayaguez.—Mayaguez is the third largest city on the island. Our work there under our missionary, the Rev. Milton E. Caldwell, D.D., has had the most prosperous year of its history. Ninety-one members have been added on confession of faith. A new and commodious church building was dedicated September 6, 1903, a credit to our work and an ornament to the city. Here and in the neighboring country we have four places of worship and four Sabbath-schools, with a total enrollment of more than four hundred pupils.

The Rev. Roy Cecil McAdie has been conducting the work at Playa, the seaboard port of Mayaguez, and also helping in the work at Añasco, a town eight miles north of Mayaguez. It is the centre of a population of more than thirteen thousand people. The church, organized in July, 1903, has a membership of sixty-eight.

San German.—San German is an inland town reached by a short railroad ride from Mayaguez. It is the oldest town on the island, lacking only seven years of being four hundred years old. Our centre here is manned by the Rev. James Greer Woods, who has already reaped large harvests from his three years' service. We have an organized church at San German, with a membership of sixty-four. A cottage prayer meeting is held on the outskirts of the town every Monday afternoon. Every Monday evening services are held in a country settlement where about forty people gather regularly in a little house.

CUBA.

Havana.—The Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., who is the superintendent of Presbyterian missionary work in Cuba, has immediate charge of the services in the capital, where the mission centres, including two under the care of the Sabbath-school Board, are now four instead of three, as reported last year.

Guines.—Under the missionary leadership of the Rev. A. Waldo Stevenson the Guines Church was organized in July, 1903. It has four elders, strong and intelligent men, and an increasing membership now numbering fifty-seven. The Sabbath-school is characterized by an unusual love of Bible study, even the smaller boys and girls committing and reciting portions of the Sabbath-school lesson each week. An active Christian Endeavor Society has been organized and many of the young people take part promptly.

Sancti Spiritus.—At Sancti Spiritus the Rev. Herbert S. Harris last August organized a church having now a membership of eighty-two with two elders. The property we have rented was originally a Jesuit convent, one of the principal educational institutions of the island.

Mr. Harris has opened a second permanent station in another part of the city.

Westward Extension.—In March of this year halls were rented at Artemisa, San Cristobal and Candelaria, towns of from two to five thousand people. An idea of the welcome that awaits us in those towns may be gathered from Dr. Greene's account of the opening services in San Cristobal and Candelaria.

ALASKA.

Saxman.—The Board has just appointed as medical missionary at Saxman John L. Myers, M.D., who is a graduate of Park College and of the Kansas City Medical College. He enters upon his work in April, and will have a field of large and pressing usefulness.

Haines.—The industrial features at Haines are being developed as rapidly as possible. The practical training of the hand as well as of the head and heart renders a needed threefold help toward the Christian development that the Indians must have to take their true part in this town of increasing commercial prominence.

Skaguay.—The church at Skaguay has agreed to be self-supporting this year and is much to be praised for its brave work under adverse conditions.

Eagle.—The Rev. Charles F. Ensign and his wife have continued their service at Eagle, the principal event of the year being the organization of a native church. The name of the church is this: Tsheh-tut-thut-tlui (che-tu-thut-ii), or Big Rock. It is the Indian for Eagle Rock, referring to the big rock at the edge of the town which turns the current of the river. The missionary expresses the hope that the church may be as the rock, turning the current of men's thoughts toward better things. They have one elder and thirty members.

Rampart.—The Rev. M. Egbert Koonce, Ph.D., has had varied experiences in and around the camp at Rampart. A comfortable little house has been built, so fitted up that in it the missionary and his wife provided entertainment during the long winter evenings for the homeless and lonely men.

Point Barrow.—When this report was written there had been much sickness and many deaths among the natives in Point Barrow. The work has gone on with the usual difficulties, encouragements and discouragements. The total membership of the church at last accounts was fifty-four and the average attendance at the Sabbath-school about thirty.

We were in much anxiety regarding the condition of our missionaries at that station when tidings came to us last fall that the revenue cutter "Thetis" had failed to get through to Point Barrow. The supplies which we had put on board therefore could not reach their destination. We were relieved, however, a few months afterward to hear that the missionaries had been able to secure supplies from a passing whaler sufficient to put them through the winter.

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT.

The number of requests received by mail from all sources is 14,653, or 2,893 more than last year. Besides these, 2,460 requisitions for leaflets and envelopes for churches have come from the Chairman of the "Committee on the Distribution of Literature," and 665 churches have ordered leaflets on the regular monthly topics.

During the year our department has issued 11,080,132 printed pages, which have been bound together in 1,529,175 copies of leaflets and pamphlets treating various fields and phases of home mission work. Of these large totals 4,764,772 pages, or 465,605 copies, represent the leaflet publications of our Woman's Board; and 6,315,360 pages, or 1,063,570 copies, those of the Board. In addition, 104,475 copies of leaflets and programmes made up of 431,900 pages have been sent out for the Young People's Department.

Our Board has printed and distributed 310,000 collection envelopes, the Woman's Board 485,572, and the Young People's Department 24,000.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

That the Young People's Department is a live adjunct of both the Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board, organized for the purpose of presenting the entire work of Home Missions to the young people of our Church, seems a fact necessary of repetition each year.

The Board entrusts this department with the salaries of about thirty missionaries who are assigned among the Synods as general objects. Shares in the salaries of the missionary, pastors or teachers, and in the general work of a mission school or scholarship in same, are also assigned on application from societies, Sabbath-schools or groups of either.

The demand for our printed letters increases every year, and over 21,000 have been furnished from the New York office to contributing societies. In addition to the general letters from the Alaskan, Indian, Mexican, Mormon and Mountain fields, and the Sitka letter for the Juniors, several thousand copies of duplicated letters from special workers have been supplied.

WOMAN'S BOARD.

This strong arm of our service has closed a prosperous year which has been marked by two principal events:

First, the observance of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Woman's Board by the contribution of $40,000 (to be increased to $50,000) for the building and endowing of a boys' school at Santa Fé, N. M. This great offering has been given as a grateful tribute to the long and signal services of the President of the Woman's Board, Mrs. Darwin R. James.

The second notable event of the year was the election and induction into office of the new Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ella Alexander Boole, the successor of the lamented Mrs. F. H. Pierson. She began her responsible duties October 15, 1903, and the Board wishes for her a happy and useful career in the great work to which she is called.

Our societies have contributed for the support of seven schools and 122 teachers under the Freedmen's Board, details of which appear in the report of the Secretary of that department.

We rejoice that the hospital at San Juan, Porto Rico, is finished, and it was formally dedicated February 26.

We are pleased to report also that the hospital at Jewett, N. M., has been opened, and that our medical missionary, matron and teacher are working among the Navajo Indians.

Of the new work among the Papagos we speak with thanksgiving, and for it we ask your prayers.

We rejoice that Pierson Hall, at Albuquerque, N. M., is completed, having been dedicated March 25, 1904, and provision made for fifty additional students among the Mexicans. The Evangelistic Training Class in connection with this school continues its usefulness, and promises rich results in Christian workers.

With gratitude to God we record the fact that seven new churches have been organized this year as the direct fruit of the school work, making a total of 105 church organizations in the quarter century.

The presence and power of the Holy Spirit has been marked in the schools during the year, and especially so in the work among foreign-speaking people, and with profound thanksgiving to God we report that 1,153 souls have been born into the kingdom.

MISSIONARY BOXES.

The auxiliary societies have continued to supplement the salaries of the Board's missionaries by the preparation of boxes, and this year 470 have been sent to the field. Many of these contained new clothing and household necessities, and many missionaries testify they could scarcely have cared for their families without the help of the boxes. Three hundred and seventy-eight boxes of clothing and Christmas gifts have been pledged for the schools under the care of the Woman's Board; fifty-six carpets, seven flags and twelve wonder-bags for teachers.

* Of these, six are synodical missionaries, twenty-eight are ordained missionaries and thirteen are unordained native evangelists and interpreters, whose salaries are paid in whole or in part by the Woman's Board, and who are included in the number of the Board's missionaries. In addition there are two commissioned speakers.

THE OFFICE.

We report with regret the retirement from the office of Mrs. John F. Pingry, who for eight years gave earnest, consecrated, faithful service to the work of the Woman's Board. While no longer officially connected with us, she will still be closely allied to the work of the Board through her connection with various important committees.

The present Corresponding Secretary entered upon the duties of her office October 15, 1903. We report, also, the resignation of Mrs. S. B. Brownell as Recording Secretary of the Woman's Board, which position, with a few years' interim, she had held for nineteen years. She carries with her the gratitude of all for her valued service. Mrs. Augustine Sackett was elected Recording Secretary December, 1903.

The Treasurer's report at the end of the first full year of our organization showed not quite $11,500 had passed through her hands. This year the total amount was $459,436.48, while if we add the totals for all the years it makes $6,758,800 that the women of the Presbyterian Church have contributed through the Woman's Board.

CONCLUSION.

The Board received with profound regret the resignation of the last charter member of the Board, Mr. George R. Lockwood, who, on account of increasing years, felt called upon to retire from the service. It desires to place on record its grateful acknowledgment of his fidelity and usefulness during the many years of his membership with us. Mr. Frank L. Babbot was chosen to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Lockwood.

The Hon. James A. Beaver, feeling himself unable to attend the meetings of the Board on account of distance and the pressure of official duties, tendered his resignation, which was regretfully accepted. Mr. Calvin B. Orcutt has been chosen to fill the unexpired term of Gen. Beaver.

The terms of service of the following members of the Board expire with this General Assembly :

Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D.,	Walter M. Aikman,
Rev. L. Mason Clarke, D.D.,	William H. Corbin,
Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D.	Robert C. Ogden,
	Henry W. Jessup.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

†These missionaries in New Jersey and Pennsylvania are specially provided for by the Phineas M. Barber Fund.

‡These missionaries are in the Indian work and work among foreigners in Buffalo and Westchester Presbyteries, and negro work provided for by the Barber Fund.

§Of these six are synodical missionaries, twenty-eight are ordained missionaries, and thirteen are unordained native evangelists and interpreters of the Board, whose salaries are paid in whole or in part by the Woman's Board, who are included in the number of the Board's missionaries.

The Following is a Summary of the Results of the Work of Self-supporting Synods:

Note.—This summary embodies the figures furnished by the respective Synods, and covers the period of twelve months ending October 1, 1903, excepting the figures given for the Synods of Wisconsin and Iowa, which are for the year ending April 1, 1904.

The annual election of officers is held on the first stated meeting in June.

Communications relating to the missions should be addressed to the Foreign Secretaries. Communications regarding candidates, literature and missionary speakers should be addressed to the Secretary of the Home Department of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Letters and all other matters relating to the pecuniary affairs of the Board, or containing remittances of money, should be sent to Charles W. Hand, Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Certificates of honorary membership may be had on the payment of $30; and of honorary directorship on the payment of $100.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In making its Sixty-seventh Annual Report to the General Assembly, the Board of Foreign Missions would gratefully acknowledge the kind Providence of God in the encouragement and success which have attended its efforts.

Meanwhile it is with sorrow that it records the death of its beloved President, Rev. John D. Wells, D.D., who suddenly but peacefully passed away on October 31, 1903.

Dr. Wells had been connected with the Board of Foreign Missions since 1854, at which time he was appointed a member of the Executive Committee, as the Board was then constituted. Since 1884 he had presided over its counsels. Though he frequently requested permission to resign, he was entreated by the unanimous voice of his associates to continue, which he did until the time of his death. While Dr. Wells was greatly valued as a presiding officer, he was chiefly beloved as a man. His strong faith in God, his unfailing charity, and the humility with which he bore himself, were influences of inestimable value.

We would also report the death of Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., who for nearly fourteen years represented the Board as Field Secretary, with headquarters at Chicago. Having previously served with efficiency as a home missionary and as a synodical agent of home missions, and having spent eighteen months in visiting the foreign mission fields of the Far East, he was eminently qualified for the work which was committed to his care. Close contact with the wants and woes of the benighted millions of the Far East had rendered him an eloquent advocate of foreign missions.

Mrs. F. S. Miller, appointed October 6, 1892; died at Seoul, Korea, June 14, 1903.

The Rev. C. W. McCleary, appointed March 4, 1895; died at Elat, West Africa, June 25, 1903.

Mrs. Campbell Mackay, appointed April 7, 1902; died at Lakawn, Laos, November 14, 1903.

Mrs. C. C. Vinton, appointed February 2, 1891; died at Seoul, Korea, December 5, 1903.

The Rev. Benjamin W. Labaree, appointed 1893; died near Salmas, Persia, March 9, 1904.

Mrs. W. W. Eddy, appointed 1870; died at Beirut, Syria, April 14, 1904.

The Rev. Boon T. Boon-Itt, died at Bangkok, Siam, May 7, 1903.

Miss Emma Alexander, appointed June 2, 1902; died at Tokyo, Japan, February 23, 1904.

The death of Mr. Labaree, who was murdered by a Moslem fanatic on March 9, 1904, has filled the mission and the Board with horror and deepest sorrow. At the time of the writing of this report the circumstances of his death are known only by brief cablegrams, but the fact alone of so cruel a martyrdom can hardly admit of further aggravation.

Early in the year, acting upon earnest appeals from its chief mission fields for 200 reinforcements, and upon the recommendation of the last Assembly that the theological seminaries and the churches earnestly endeavor to secure the same number for the mission fields, the Board issued an appeal which was sent to the seminaries, the Synods and Presbyteries, and the summer schools, calling for volunteers with approved qualifications for the ever-expanding work. At the same time a corresponding appeal was made to the churches to so increase their gifts as to provide for this enlarged force. Up to the time of closing this report, however, only twenty-five men and thirty women (including wives) have been appointed and assigned to the missions.

Another great demand is to be met, namely: that of an increased and more thoroughly trained force of native preachers. If the supply of missionaries from this country is so inadequate, a larger force of natives on the mission field must be trained for service or the work will languish at all points. There is an additional reason for increasing the force of native preachers, namely: that with a given limitation of funds, a much larger number can be maintained. The cost of one missionary would support several native helpers. It is very evident that this resource must be more extensively resorted to in the future expansion of the missionary enterprise. Some of our missions are thoroughly awake to its importance. At a recent annual meeting of the East Persia Mission the subject received marked attention, and great emphasis was given in a special report unanimously adopted in favor of training a larger number of men to act as pastors and evangelists. A report from the Philippines emphasizes the same necessity.

The Presbyterian Board is below the average of the large missionary organizations in the proportionate number of its native preachers. But how shall a native ministry be supplied? There is abundant material, but we lack the means of thorough training. There is great need of institutions in which the chief attention shall be given to the preparation of Christian helpers of all kinds, men and women. The Board is always straitened for the means of erecting buildings and supplying equipments. This year it has been found necessary to strike out all estimates for new property of any kind, except in the few cases where special gifts have been received for the purpose. The situation, therefore, is a grave one. How is the difficulty to be met, how are necessary educational structures to be provided?

The Board is constrained to appeal strongly for some special provision which shall enable it to greatly increase its force of native preachers, and to enlarge and foster native effort in all directions. To this end it would suggest that appeal be made through the Assembly's Standing Committee on Foreign Missions to individual contributors of large means for special gifts for training schools in the mission fields.

With reference to this subject the following specific action was taken by the Board at its regular meeting, April 4:

"Resolved, 1. That the report of the Board to the General Assembly shall present the great need of more native preachers and other workers, and the importance of providing facilities for the training of such agents.

"2. That the representatives of the Board at the General Assembly urge this matter upon the attention of the Assembly through the Committee on Foreign Missions."

The Board would invite the prayerful study of this difficult problem, so essential to the future progress of the great missionary work of the Church, and would earnestly solicit generous gifts from the possessors of large means that its necessities may be provided for.

In July, 1903, Dr. Alexander, as a representative of the Board and as President of the Board of Trustees of Mackenzie College at Sao Paulo, visited Brazil at his own charges, and attended the triennial meeting of the Synod of Brazil, rendering to the Board on his return a valuable report of conditions and progress in that mission field.

He brought encouraging accounts of the Synod with its 100 churches and between 10,000 and 12,000 communicants. These churches, which since 1888 have constituted an independent Synod, are the fruits of the two missions of the Northern and Southern Presbyterian Churches. Autonomy, self-government and self-support have reached a higher mark in Brazil than in any other mission field, and but for an unfortunate secession of a minority of the churches, which occurred at the time of the late meeting, the outlook would be altogether hopeful. Chiefly on technical or extraneous issues, a considerable minority withdrew, though there were few evidences of animosity attending the schism. A reunion is hoped for in the not distant future. The year has been marked by unusual activity and success in the Central Brazil Mission.

The Board is happy to report encouraging progress in the general mission work of the year.

The Missions in China seem to have more than recovered from the disheartening results of the Boxer movement of 1900. The indemnities claimed for the loss of mission property have in most cases been paid, and although there is in some provinces evidence of dissatisfaction with the general indemnity tax, yet the attitude of the people towards missions is more favorable than it has ever been in the past. In the Canton Mission the number of accessions to the membership of the Church continues to be large. The interest shown by the Chinese Christians themselves, and by their fellow-countrymen in California and other countries, has continued to be manifest in the generous contributions made for the erection of chapels.

The Fati Training School for boys has by its normal training classes furnished scores of out-stations with effective laborers, so that the missionaries in charge of country work are virtually bishops superintending the efforts of native preachers.

The Hunan Mission has made auspicious beginnings at Siangtan, Hengchow and Chen Chow. Each of the three Stations is manned by at least two missionaries, who have made substantial progress, though not without peculiar difficulties. The Hunan Mission has consummated a basis of friendly comity and co-operation with the London Missionary Society and the China Inland Mission.

A great advance has been made in the plant of the Peking Mission in the erection of a church, a street chapel, two hospitals, and five dwellings, all rising out of the ruins of the Boxer movement. Far better accommodations, a more wholesome sanitation have been secured by these changes. A corresponding interest is seen in the spirit and renewed interest of the people. The beautiful new church is thronged with listeners. More than fifty men have professed their faith in Christ, and new doors of influence are opening in all directions.

An account of the resurrection of Paotingfu Station reads like a romance. An attractive church, five residences, two hospitals, one for men and the other for women, a union school for the higher education of girls, and a primary school for boys are either completed or in process of erection. The new church, dedicated several months ago, has been filled steadily from the first, The moral and spiritual soil not only of Paotingfu but of the outlying villages seems enriched by martyr blood.

The year has been signalized in the Peking Mission by the opening of a new Station at Shuntefu, the support of which has been undertaken by the Fifth Avenue Church of New York.

The missionaries of East and West Shantung have continued their steady, faithful work with a high degree of success. Everywhere the work interrupted by the Boxer movement has been re-established. The transfer of the Shantung College from Teng Chow to Wei Hsien is to be made this summer, and although needing further supply of funds for the erection of buildings, it will enter upon a new and a large sphere of usefulness. The winter training classes have continued to be held for the improvement of the native preachers and helpers. In some cases, particularly at Chining Chow, large additions have been made to the churches, and the general outlook throughout the entire province of Shantung is exceptionally promising.

The present condition of Japan must awaken the deepest interest in all who love the progress of the Redeemer in that remarkable Empire. A conflict between Japan and Russia, which has long been foreseen, is taking place in a startling manner. We can do little but pray that the God of the nations may bring forth good out of evil, and guard the interests of His own Kingdom. At the same time that the clash of arms is heard throughout the Far East, in all of which Japan is so deeply interested, it is important to note that there has never been a greater readiness to receive the Gospel than during the past year. All accounts indicate the general prevalence of deep solemnity. During the year many addresses were given by Rev. Drs. Charles Cuthbert Hall and George F. Pentecost to large and interested audiences. Reports from the field speak highly of these discourses, and the general interest exerted by these brethren in the interest of Christian thought and life.

The Church of Christ in Japan has shown advancement in established faith and order, and, withal, a commendable missionary spirit. A special movement has been made toward the establishment of a Mission in Formosa, where two congregations have already been formed. The Japan Mission has asked the Presbyterian Board to establish a Station in that island.

The Korea Mission has maintained its high place as one of our most aggressive and successful missions. Not only in the north, where so great a work has been carried on for several years, but in the south and central portions most encouraging results have appeared, and that notwithstanding the diminution of the missionary force by sickness and necessary furloughs. New interest has been shown in the matter of higher education, and steps have been taken not only at Pyeng Yan, but at Seoul toward meeting the demands for the training of the native ministry. Generous gifts have been made by the family of the late President of the Board, Dr. Wells, toward the erection of suitable buildings for this purpose at the capital.

Unfortunately, as the year closes, a heavy war cloud has overhung Korea and led to serious apprehension as to its effect upon the Mission and the native churches. It is a time for earnest prayer that the evil may be overruled for good.

The India Missions have made no great and unusual advances during the year, but along all lines have reported faithful and earnest work. A perusal of their reports will lead to constant surprises at the variety and extent of service. There continues to be increasing attention given to evangelistic work, and in some cases large numbers have been baptized.

In Lahore College there are evidences of an increasing spirit of inquiry on the part of students whose antecedents have been connected with some of the Somajes. Two conversions are reported of young men formerly connected with the Arya Somaj.

In the Furrukhabad Mission, Allahabad College has shown considerable advance in the acquisition of land for college purposes, and also in the recognition which that institution under the presidency of Dr. Arthur H. Ewing has gained among the higher institutions of the country.

The Siam Mission shows advancement in all its Stations and in all departments of work. Having in charge the only missionary work of any account in Siam, it is extending its influence in all directions. The Mission continues to enjoy the favor of King, princes and high officials. The King during the year has generously given 4000 ticals ($1120) toward the erection of a hospital at Nacon. The field reports speak of several noblemen who have embraced the faith, and on all sides the influence of the Mission is being more and more recognized. Itineration and general evangelistic work have been prominent and fruitful. Laudable efforts have been made by the people in various places in the erection of buildings for the prosecution of the mission work in schools and hospitals.

The Laos Mission holds a high relative place as an aggressive force in a field where it is the only representative of the Christian faith. It has gathered many converts into the Church, notwithstanding its great need of recruits. Several of its stations are manned by only one or two missionaries, though trying each to occupy a large district.

The East Persia Mission has struck a keynote which ought to resound through all the mission fields and through the home churches. It is a call for the raising up of a large and efficient force of native preachers and helpers. In a special report it says: "The East Persia Mission has no greater need to-day than that of a corps of spiritually-minded native helpers, and it may be that we are not doing our duty to meet this want."

The Syria Mission has passed through a year of unusual difficulty, partly connected with the health of some of its veteran missionaries, and partly by the social and political disturbances which culminated in mob violence in Beirut. It is evident that the irrepressible conflict between Mohammedanism and Christianity is still rife. The censorship of the Press still continues, and there is a spirit of unrest, social and political. Many thousand citizens fled from the city during the riots in August and the general interest of the community has suffered irreparable injury. A serious outbreak of cholera in northern Syria swept away 15,000 victims. At the same time, the work of the Mission, though embarrassed by endless limitations, made fair advance. A good work is being done in the schools, and the work of the Press has exceeded all its former issues. The organizations of the mission churches into Presbyteries, with the new responsibility of self-government, has developed a more stable and virile type of Christian life.

The West African Mission has made a new departure. A year ago the Board seriously considered the question whether, in view of obstacles interposed by the local French and German governments, the entire work should not be handed over to the Protestant Churches working under the French and German flags, while some new field should be undertaken by the Board in other regions on or near the Western Coast. So strong a protest, however, was made by the West Africa Mission that the project was abandoned and the work is being carried on with increased resolution and efficiency.

The Philippine Mission has moved forward with unchecked zeal and success. Three new Stations have been opened during the year in the southern part of the Island of Luzon. One of these commands the inland sea, known as Laguna de Bay, whose coast cities and villages comprise a wide and most inviting mission field.

Among the salient events of the year was the visit of Dr. Pentecost, who spent several weeks preaching at the most important centres, and whose discourses were of an earnest evangelistic character.

The dedication of the Tondo church, a beautiful structure, the first Protestant church in the islands, was a memorable event. All the other Missions attended the service and tendered congratulations to our Mission and the church. In and around Manila are other small congregations, some of which have erected small chapels. The native evangelists employed by the Mission are most earnestly commended by Missionary Rodgers for their courage amid "perils by robbers." In September a normal class for the training of evangelists was attended by fourteen representatives of the churches in other parts of the country, and by an equal number from the city. It is the purpose of the Mission to repeat this experiment every six months.

The American church has received 87 communicants during the year. The average attendance has increased from about 50 to 140. During the year the Board sent out Rev. Stealy B. Rossiter, D.D., of New York City, to take charge of the English-speaking congregation at Manila. This was done upon the urgent representation of the needs of some adequate provision for American residents at Manila, who under proper direction and encouragement might soon build up a strong Presbyterian church at that influential centre. Before Dr. Rossiter left New York, several thousand dollars were contributed by generous individuals for the erection of a suitable church to cost not less than $25,000. It is to be hoped that this amount will soon be completed and that a building worthy of such an undertaking may be erected. Earnest Christian work has been carried on at Iloilo and in the surrounding country, both on evangelistic and medical lines.

The Silliman Institute, at Dumaguete, with 100 students, has already become a recognized power and has been spoken of by disinterested persons as the best school in the islands. The more recent Station of Cebu has also made a fine beginning in evangelistic work and in the medical department.

The Mission in Colombia has been unfortunate in the past year, owing to the necessary withdrawal of some of its most experienced missionaries on account of failing health. Moreover, political disturbances, always existing in greater or less degree, have recently been increased by diplomatic conflicts between Colombia and the United States. But as the influence of this country seems likely to increase in Central and Southern America, there is reason for increased missionary effort and influence in Colombia.

The Chile Mission has continued to prosper in the current work of the churches, and particularly in the development of higher education. The Instituto Inglis, at Santiago, has won a high position and an international influence.

The work of the Mexico Mission is gradually assuming more complete organization and is developing an aggressive home missionary spirit. Since the consummation of a union between different Presbyterian Missions, the independent Mexican Church has inaugurated missionary work by its own representatives in the hitherto unoccupied State of Chiapas.

The Eleventh Interdenominational Missionary Conference was held in January, 1904, and was entertained by the American Baptist Missionary Union. Twenty-three Boards and Societies were represented, the number of Commissioners in attendance being seventy-one. In the importance and interest of its discussions, and in the earnest spirit of the sessions, this Conference was unexcelled by any that preceded it. The practical science of Missions has been steadily evolved by these Conferences, and the question of comity is making progress.

The services of Mr. William Henry Grant are invaluable as a secretary of these Conferences, while his chief attention is given to various duties as Librarian of the Presbyterian Board, and as Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Christian College in Canton.

Mr. David McConaughy, whose work is supported by special contributions outside of the finances of the Board, has labored assiduously and with a good measure of success as representative of the Forward Movement in connection with the work of the Board. Dr. T. H. P. Sailer, who renders his services gratuitously, has been indefatigable in promoting and systematizing Study Classes throughout the Church in Foreign Missions.

The recommendations of the last Assembly in regard to the Christmas and Easter offerings have been earnestly pressed upon the churches by the Home Department.

The Home Department Committee, composed of members of the Board and others, has given much attention to the various measures proposed to increase the missionary intelligence of old and young, and the systematizing of missionary effort along all lines.

The women of the Church connected with the various Boards and Societies which have so long been an important element in foreign missionary work have continued unabated. These seven organizations stand for systematic giving, for earnest personal prayer, and for that immeasurable influence which attends their sympathetic correspondence with the fields.

In response to a communication received from the General Evangelistic Committee, the officers of the Board sent to all of its Missions a request to unite with the home churches in a general and extended season of daily prayer for an increased evangelistic spirit and for the speedy conversion of souls.

The Treasurer's report will show a general advance in all classes of contributions except that of legacies. The increase, however, is not commensurate with the inevitable growth of the work, and it must not be forgotten that, while the churches and the Missions are praying for a great enlargement of the work, there must be a corresponding increase in the consecrated gifts of the Church.

Treasurer's Report.

The books of the Foreign Board were closed Saturday evening, April 30, with a deficiency of $40,690.39. For six years the Board had been free from debt. While a debt is to be regretted, be it large or small, it is to be hoped that in this instance it may prove to be a call to our great Church to meet the emergency and make a fresh start to a more loyal and enthusiastic support of the work. The deficiency reported is not due to extravagance or unwise expenditure. The successes on the field have demanded every cent of the large appropriations, the largest in the history of the Board, and amounting to the magnificent sum of $1,161,893.89. Of this amount $59,961.72 was appropriated for the salaries, outfit and expenses of new missionaries, while $116,719.63 was appropriated for new buildings, including those for the Shantung College at Wei Hsien, the Severance Hospital at Seoul, and the completion of the restored compounds at Peking, Paotingfu and Wei Hsien. More new missionaries were sent out than during any other year in the history of the Board.

The receipts from living soures, an increase all along the line, give cause for encouragement and hope, the increase from churches alone being $17.327.64; from individual and miscellaneous sources, $12,066.21; from the Sabbath-schools, $3,873.97. The only falling off has been from legacies, and that amounted to $45,310.64, a sum in excess of the deficiency. A substantial gain was reported from the Synods of Baltimore, California, Colorado, Minnesota, Missouri, New York and Ohio. A falling off was reported from the Synods of Illinois and Pennsylvania.

The number of individuals contributing direct to the Board was 858, an increase of 205 over the preceding year.

The per capita amount received through congregational offerings was thirty-four and one-third cents.

The per capita amount received from all sources, excepting legacies, was eighty-six and one-tenth cents.

The Shanghai Press.

The cost of this plant was approximately $30,000, and it is expected that the entire amount will ultimately be refunded to the Board from the annual earnings of the Press.

THE PRESBYTERIAN BUILDING.

The profit from operating the building (the share of this Board) was, for the year ending December 31, 1903, $14,325.62, and for the four months ending April 30, 1904, $5,153.89. The mortgage indebtedness on the one-half interest of the Board of Foreign Missions, which was originally $500,000, is now $70,000, and there is $7,400.36 in hand applicable to the further reduction of the mortgage.

The accumulated profits from operating this building are nearly sufficient to wipe out the total deficit of the operating account of the first years of occupancy, and taking this account, together with the surplus rentals of sundry other real estate (which have been held as a reserve against the Presbyterian Building Operating Deficit), there was sufficient to eliminate the deficit and carry into the current receipts for the year, as income from real estate, the sum of $853.12.

In December, 1903, the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions were notified that the dwelling house, No. 5 West Twentieth street, immediately adjoining the west side of the Presbyterian Building, would be sold. It was evident to the two Boards that the purchase of the property was an imperative necessity, as a tall building erected on that side of the Mission House would shut out the light from the westerly wing and reduce the income of the building about $10,000 per annum. Aside from preserving the westerly light, the purchase appealed to the Boards as a good investment of the Boards' funds. The property was purchased and transferred to the two Boards, January 15, 1904.

This purchase resulted in the permanent investment of $36,674.66 of the Board's Funds, and a corresponding amount has been transferred from the General Reserve Fund to the Board's Funds invested in the Presbyterian Building and the Twentieth street property, as the former account represents the Board's reserve in the form of current assets and should naturally be reduced when any of these assets are converted into a permanent investment.

The transactions relating to the Board's General Reserve Fund during the past year are as follows:

Balance May 1, 1903, as per last year's report,		$88,449 78
Reimbursement of deficit from operating Real Estate, formerly deducted from this account,		13,002 43
		$101,452 21
Amounts transferred to permanent investment of Board's Reserve Funds as follows:
Cost of 5 West Twentieth street,	$36,674 66
Improvements to Presbyterian Building,	1,100 00
Total amount transferred,		37,774 66
Balance of General Reserve Fund April 30, 1904, Schedule 1,		$63,677 55

This transfer does not affect or change the total amount of the Board's Reserve Fund, but it does change the amount applicable for current purposes as distinctive from that permanently invested. The account to which this amount was transferred is as follows:

BOARD'S FUNDS INVESTED IN PRESBYTERIAN BUILDING, ETC.

Amount transferred from General Reserve Fund as shown above,	37,774 66
Balance April 30, 1904, as per present report, Schedule 1,	$229,607 19

EXPENSES.

An analysis of the expenses of the year will be found in Schedule 5 of this Report. The percentages of disbursements in New York to the total sum received are as follows:

Administrative expense,	4.56 per cent.
Disbursements not administrative,	1.47 "
	6.74 "

The increase in expenses has been due chiefly to the much larger demand for the literature of the Board. During the past year there have been issued, under the supervision of Dr. Halsey, five bulletins. These have contained fresh information from the field and have been widely distributed. There has also been an increased demand for the Christmas and Easter Services prepared for the churches and Sabbath-schools. A total of 1,100,000 leaflets has been distributed.

ABSTRACT OF EIGHTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Education respectfully report to the General Assembly that they began the year with a cash balance in bank of $1,330.18 belonging to the current account, and that they have received in the course of the year from all sources $65,214.63, of which $49,344.50 came from churches, Sabbath-schools, young people's societies and individuals, being an increase of $293.19 as compared with last year's contributions from these sources. The Board have paid out to candidates $57,956.44, being $8,611.94 more than the total receipts from the sources just mentioned. As the receipts from legacies were not enough to make up for this deficiency, it became necessary to draw upon the reserve fund, held for such emergencies; but not for any large amount. The year has thus closed without the necessity of borrowing money.

MEMBERSHIP.—The year has been marked by a great sorrow. The President of the Board died, December 17, 1903. He had been a member since March 8, 1886, and was elected President, June 17, 1889. At the annual meeting, June 25, 1903, the officers of the Board were re-elected. On the 14th of March, 1904, James M. Crowell, D.D., was elected President in place of Dr. Baker, deceased. On the 11th of April, 1904, Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., was elected Vice-President in place of Dr. Crowell, elected to the presidency. Dr. Baker's place as a member of the Board has been filled by the election of Joseph W. Cochran, D.D.

CANDIDATES.—The total number of candidates enrolled under the care of the Board during the year is 608, of whom 174 are new candidates and 434 are "renewals." The total number enrolled the year before this was 612. The number of negro candidates this year is 92, an increase of five over the previous year. All but six pursued their studies at Biddle University or Lincoln University, the latter of which institutions has just concluded a half century of interesting and important history, for the due celebration of which careful preparations were made. The intimate relation of the Board of Education to the inauguration and perpetuation of the work done there with so much success makes proper a special mention of the jubilee in this report. The institution which had a feeble beginning under the name of Ashmun Institute they now greet, in the day of its strength, under its new name of Lincoln University, and ask afresh for it the benediction of the Almighty.

Thirty German, seven Spanish-speaking candidates, and several Hungarians and Bohemians, besides an Indian or two, have been enrolled during the year. The problem of providing a competent and sufficient ministry for the constantly increasing numbers of immigrants to America, speaking strange tongues, has continued to occupy the attention of the Board in consultation with the Special Committee of the General Assembly on this subject, and with several of our theological schools. The Board have, in particular, considered the question how, and to what extent, they can afford assistance in educating ministers to serve these exceptional peoples. They have found it necessary, in view of the highly exceptional features of many of the cases likely to be presented to them, to be allowed to vary somewhat from the strict letter of the law laid down for their guidance. They do not wish to lower the standard of education, being convinced that ministers for these peoples from foreign lands should be thoroughly educated for their work. They venture therefore to ask the Assembly that they may be allowed to use a measure of discretion in the application of the rules in such cases, with the understanding that the exceptions shall be such only as relate to the peculiarities of students in preparation for this particular work, and that no vital principle shall be infringed.

Method and Means.—It is the firm conviction of the Board that ministers for such work as has been just described should receive their education, in whole or in part, in some institution of our own Church. Those partly educated in Europe should, under all ordinary circumstances, spend at least a year in one of our own American Presbyterian institutions. Those derived from congregations of foreigners in this country should take a full and consistent course of probably eight years in an institution with a curriculum especially adapted to their peculiar needs. Our Church has two such schools: one at Bloomfield, N. J., and one at Dubuque, Ia. They were organized to meet the exigencies presented by the case of Germans in America, and the plan devised has proved eminently successful. The graduates have gone forth with ability to meet the foreigner sympathetically on his own ground and in the use of his own language, with a good prospect of being able in due time to lead him over to American ground and the use of the English tongue. Into such schools we are persuaded, as a result of our correspondence with them, that other foreigners besides Germans can readily go; although some special instruction will be needed for them on account of their probable imperfect acquaintance, at the start, with the English language. It is well understood, however, that these institutions cannot well afford the additional expense which would be involved, and the Board suggest to the Assembly that they can probably most effectively help in the matter if they are permitted to make somewhat larger contributions for the benefit of such candidates, with the stipulation that the additional amount allowed shall go toward the additional expense incurred.

Italians.—In this connection it may be noted that the school at Bloomfield, known as the German Theological School of Newark, is situated in a central position with relation to an Italian population of about 427,000.

Constitutional Rule III.—Practical difficulties have been experienced in the application of this rule from the time of its enactment. They venture to suggest that the proper measures be taken for such simple modifications as shall prevent it from lending encouragement to the habit, already too common among candidates, of pursuing studies preparatory to the ministry entirely independently of the control of Presbytery; and shall, further, make it reasonably certain that the notification of the candidate's intention to apply to be taken under care of Presbytery may go into the hands of the Education Committee, in order that they may devote the interval before the next meeting to a consideration of his fitness. These objects can be attained by a very slight change in the wording of the rule; and certain hardships, which have been quite annoying in the past, may be avoided by making provision for any really necessary exceptions with the general consent of Presbytery.

Responsibility of Presbyteries.—Success in the prosecution of the work depends largely upon the intelligent zeal of Presbyteries through their Education Committees. The Presbytery of St. Clairsville is added to the list of those which are making provision for more careful watch and care of candidates for the ministry. The plans which they have adopted are in print, and may well serve as suggestion to others who may be desirous of improving their methods and increasing their efficiency.

The "Banks Scholarship" is held by Mr. S. V. Bergen, of Washington and Jefferson College.

The "Mutchmore Scholarship" has been awarded to Mr. Martin L. Bethel, of Lincoln University.

The "Newberry Scholarship," held at present by Mr. George C. Fisher, a graduate of Western Seminary, and now pursuing post-graduate studies at Princeton Seminary, will be thrown open for competition, next fall, to students, not from one seminary alone, as hitherto, but from all the seminaries of the Church.

DAY OF PRAYER.—The Board recommend that the Assembly appoint the last Thursday of January, 1905, as a Day of Prayer for a revival of true religion among students and for an increase of candidates for the ministry.

DEATH OF DR. SPEER.—In conclusion the Board call attention to the death of the Rev. William Speer, D.D., at the advanced age of eighty-two years. He was the predecessor of Dr. Poor as Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Education, but survived him seven years. He was in the service of the Board from 1865 to 1876, and they owe to his pen the very valuable report of their Semi-Centennial Celebration. He was author of China and the United States, and other important publications.

By order of the Board,

EDWARD B. HODGE, Corresponding Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

MISSIONARY WORK.

In 37 States and Territories, and in Cuba, the Board has now at work 110 Sabbath-school missionaries and 11 colporteurs, laboring within the bounds of 27 Synods and 108 Presbyteries. Of these 15 are Synodical and 106 are Presbyterial workers, being 12 more than in the previous year. The total number of Sabbath-school missionaries and colporteurs who have been in commission during the year is 143. They have organized 797 new Sabbath-schools and reorganized 355 schools, a total of 1,152, into which have been gathered 3,880 officers and teachers and 36,403 scholars, making a total membership of 40,283.

Our missionaries have also cared for and nurtured 2,346 Sabbath-schools which they had organized in previous years. The membership of these schools is 89,822.

These missionaries have made 111,297 visits to families and have held 4,919 evangelistic services, in which 2,390 conversions came under their observation. They have distributed large numbers of periodicals and tracts; and, in addition, have sold and given away 16,835 volumes. They have also distributed by gift and sale 3,733 Bibles and Testaments.

The number of Presbyterian churches developed by our missionaries from their schools during the past year is 106. The number of Presbyterian buildings erected last year as the outgrowth of the labors of Sabbath-school missionaries is 70. The cost of these buildings was $83,958. Thus, through the efforts of our Sabbath-school missionaries, over 55 per cent. of the entire cost of the Sabbath-school and missionary work was returned to the Presbyterian Church in the money value of the buildings erected.

These workers have wrought unobtrusively for sixteen years. In that time 810 Presbyterian churches have grown from these missions, an average of 50 new churches every year. Other denominations also have shared in the fruits of the work and have gathered from them 477 churches. The whole number of churches, therefore, thus organized since 1887 is 1,287, an average of over 80 churches every year.

FORWARD MOVEMENT.

The Forward Movement originated in the hearts of those who were stirred by the Spirit to desire a part in this mission work. No fewer than 38 of our Sabbath-school missionaries are now supported by some Presbyterian or by a church or Sabbath-school, or in some cases by the Sabbath-schools of a Presbytery.

MISSIONARY COLPORTEUR WORK.

In obedience to the instructions of the Los Angeles Assembly, this Board immediately set about the work of engaging missionary colporteurs to take the Gospel to the foreigners in our land. It was found necessary to appeal for special funds for this work, and Rally Day was decided upon as a suitable time to bring the need of the 16,000,000 of our foreign population before our Sabbath-schools. About $6,000 have been received from Sabbath-schools and individuals.

The work has been successfully inaugurated, and we now have 11 missionary colporteurs at work among foreigners of different nationalities.

In this connection, however, the Board desires to bring specifically to the attention of the General Assembly another matter, which, in the judgment of the Board, requires special consideration and prompt action on the part of our Church. The subject is sufficiently set forth in a report of a Special Committee, which was adopted by the Board. It is as follows, viz.:

"To the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work:

"Your Committee which has had under its consideration for a considerable period of time matters relating to work among foreign-speaking peoples and the publishing of literature in foreign languages, beg leave to report:

"1. That we deem it to be of extreme importance, in the interest of religion and of enlightened patriotism, that special attention should be given by our Board to the Sabbath-school and missionary work in and among the numerous foreigners who have come to our country for homes, and are not able to speak the English language; and, also, as far as our Church will furnish the means for the purpose, to the publication of evangelical literature for use among the same classes of people.

"2. That a promising beginning has been made in the line of missionary work through colporteurs who have been appointed by the Board and are now at work in various fields, but that this kind of effort should be largely increased as soon as the treasury of the Board will permit the necessary expenditure.

"3. That thus far your Committee has not felt justified, notwithstanding its earnest desire so to do, in recommending any plan for issuing new publications in foreign languages. Earnest appeals have been made for such publications, and we have been disappointed that the responses from the churches to the commendation of this special work by our General Assembly have not as yet been sufficient to enable the Board to take it up, without running into debt—a course of action which this Board has carefully tried to avoid, and which we believe to be a bad and mischievous policy. We may emphasize this point, for the reason that we are thoroughly satisfied that the regular work of our Board in the destitute parts of our country ought not to be curtailed, but rather enlarged, as soon as that can be done.

"4. After considerable correspondence and study of the question, we have reached the conclusion that, in the interest of economy and of fraternal church unity, it is desirable and may be practicable to bring about a coöperation among several evangelical religious bodies in the publication of periodicals and other literature for such uses as are essential among people of foreign birth and languages.

"5. We, therefore, recommend, if the Board shall agree with and approve the foregoing portion of this report, that an earnest appeal shall be made to the General Assembly to urge upon the churches of our denomination to make large additions to their contributions to this Board, in order that the efforts above referred to for the elevation and Christianization of the foreign-born people who dwell in our country, and are not able to speak the language of the country, may be prosecuted more vigorously, without contracting the work among our own native-born or English-speaking people.

"6. It is also recommended by us that the General Assembly be asked to authorize the Board specifically to endeavor to perfect arrangements with other religious bodies for the publication of evangelical religious literature in the foreign languages which are most used in our country.

"7. In order that the whole matter may be made clear and complete, we recommend that this report, if adopted, shall be incorporated in the Board's Annual Report to the General Assembly.

"JOHN H. CONVERSE,
"JAMES A. WORDEN,
"J. R. MILLER,
"JOHN H. SCRIBNER,
"LOUIS F. BENSON,
"ROBERT N. WILLSON, Chairman."

GRANTS.

Grants amounting in value to $9,640.35 were made as follows:

Periodicals, books and tracts to churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals,	$8,032 59
Bibles, as rewards for reciting Shorter Catechism,	1,307 76
To aid in the publication of religious literature for our "foreign population,"	300 00
	$9,640 35

Contributions to the amount of $2,920 were made through the Board to aid in the erection of chapels and for other special objects as designated by the donors.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

Sabbath-school Membership.—According to our last statistical report, the net gain in the membership of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools, including the Home Departments, was 10,012.

The past decade has witnessed startling changes in the Sabbath-school membership of all denominations. In view of these conditions it is cause for gratitude that our Church has not only not lost, but actually increased the numbers enrolled in its Sabbath-schools.

Church Membership.—Reports published in the last Minutes show that there were received from the Sabbath-schools into the full communion of the Church last year 36,758. The total number received from Sabbath-schools into full membership of the Church since the first publication of the Reports in the Minutes in 1884 is 583,426—an average of over 22,171 each year.

Teacher Training.—Within three years the Board has inaugurated a movement for the instruction of Sabbath-school teachers. The object of the movement is twofold: the training of teachers for the Sabbath-school and the promotion of Bible study among our young people.

Home Department Work.—Of equal importance is Bible study in the home. To promote this is the aim of the Home Department. Hundreds of our Sabbath-schools are promoting this method of study.

The membership, according to last reports, is 65,800.

Catechetical Instruction.—The Board has continued its offer of an Oxford Teacher's Bible as a prize to scholars under eighteen years of age for correctly reciting the Westminster Shorter Catechism. The number of prizes thus awarded last year is 977; and the total number of Bibles thus distributed during the past fourteen years is 24,846.

The number of Sabbath-schools reporting to their respective Presbyteries, for the year 1902–1903, that they teach the Shorter Catechism is 3,675.

Children's Day and Rally Day.—To the celebration of these days a large part of the offerings to Presbyterian Sabbath-school missions is to be credited. From these sources last year the amount received was in excess of $60 000. The total amount received in like manner since 1887 is over $650,000.

II. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

Reprints of Former Publications. Of these, 72 editions of books and tracts have been published.

Periodicals.

THE LESSON HELPS.

The Westminster Teacher is a monthly magazine specially prepared for teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools. It is used also in many adult classes. It contains full and varied expositions of the International Bible Lessons. This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing from 48 to 60 pages, with cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is prepared for older scholars and is used also in adult classes. Each number contains full lesson work for three months, with Orders of Service, Maps, Bible Dictionary and other valuable matter. Each number contains 42 pages. The price is so low as to bring the Quarterly within the reach of all. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of intermediate grade. It contains full lesson text with notes, questions and practical teachings. In it are found also Maps, Orders of Service and Bible Dictionary, the same as in The Senior Quarterly. It is the same in size as the Senior, each number containing 42 pages, and is furnished at the same low rate—school subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly is prepared for the use of those who, though unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath-school, yet desire to study the lesson week by week. It has been increased in size so as to provide room for Sabbath Readings, for forms of family prayers, suggestions as to Christian home-making and family worship. The Home Department Quarterly contains in each number 46 pages and is the same in price as the Senior—12 cents a year for school subscriptions to one address; 20 cents for single copies separately mailed.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is designed for younger children in the Junior Department. From many primary workers in all parts of the country it receives strong commendation. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is for the little folks of the youngest grade. It contains explanations of the lessons, with hymns and music, and is beautifully illustrated. It contains 38 pages and is issued at the same price as the other Quarterlies. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents each.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly was issued only to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes. This course has been completed and the eight quarterly numbers are still furnished to those desiring them. The price is 40 cents a year for a single subscription; two or more subscriptions to one address, 24 cents each.

The Westminster Beginners' Lessons comprehends the Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age. The lessons are arranged with reference to the seasons. They can, therefore, be taken up at any time.

The Westminster Beginners' Lessons, issued as a quarterly of eight illustrated numbers, began with September, 1903, but with the completion of the course in August, 1905, it will be issued in permanent form.

Accompanying the Westminster Beginners' Lessons is a series of large picture cards (12 x 15 inches in size), especially prepared for this course. Both the quarterly and these cards are solely for the teacher's use in teaching the lesson. For the scholars there are smaller Golden Text picture cards to be given out each Sunday.

Running parallel with the Beginners' Lessons is a series of Supplemental Beginners' Lessons, which are to take the place of the formal opening exercises used in the other departments of the school. This Supplemental Course, which covers a period of ten months only, includes a series of lessons for the teacher, published in pamphlet form, elaborating the Supplemental Lessons, and a series of large pictures for use in teaching the Supplemental Lessons (7 x 9 inches in size). For the scholar there are small cards to be distributed the last Sunday of the month, giving the thought for the month, with a Bible verse and the words of a song.

The complete equipment for the Beginners' Department, therefore, is:

For the Teacher—

1. The Supplemental Lessons. Price, 25 cents.
2. The Westminster Beginners' Lessons in quarterly form. Price, 50 cents a year, 12½ cents a quarter.
3. Large Picture Cards for the teacher's use in the development of the lesson in each course. Price, $3.00 a year or 75 cents a quarter for the cards used with the regular Westminster Beginners' Course, and $2.00 for the complete set of 43 cards accompanying the Supplemental Course.

The teacher will also need a copy of "Song Stories for the Sunday-school." Price, 15 cents.

For the Scholar—

1. Golden Text Illustrated Cards, one for each scholar, every Sunday. Price, 24 cents a year; 6 cents a quarter.
2. Small Cards to be given out the last Sunday of the month. Price, 5 cents for the Course, September to June, inclusive.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so prepared that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Notes on the Lesson, Questions and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year; single copies, 10 cents.

The Westminster Junior Lessons is a neat leaf adapted to the little people of the Junior Department. Illustrated. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as The Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card contains a brightly-colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story and Questions. It is adapted in grade to younger children and to primary classes. The price for school subscriptions to one address is 10 cents a year. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Bible Roll. Lesson pictures, the same as those on the Lesson Cards, but greatly enlarged, prepared as wall roll for Primary Department. Price, $3.00 per year; 75 cents per quarter.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward is known everywhere as our popular young people's paper. Every effort is made to make it a paper of the highest class. The circulation has increased 16,000 in the last year. While intended primarily for older classes in Sabbath-schools, Forward is adapted also for young people in the home and everywhere. It has a Christian Endeavor Department with terse notes on the weekly topics and many articles on the work of Christian Endeavor societies. The low price at which Forward is furnished brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. Single subscription, per year, 75 cents; subscription for two or more copies addressed to one person, 50 cents a year each.

The Sabbath-School Visitor is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter. It is published weekly. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 30 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade and style as The Visitor, but it is only half its size. It is issued every week. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year; school subscriptions to one address, 15 cents.

Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. It is attractive not only in its appearance but also in its contents. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year. School subscriptions to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are, first, the manufacture of books, tracts and periodicals; and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

There have been published during the year 1,694,548 copies of books and tracts and 46,502,713 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,500 copies of the Annual Report,* make an aggregate of 48,205,761 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in Chicago, New York, St. Louis and San Francisco, and six other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 192 Michigan Avenue.
New York, N. Y., C. W. Hippard, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
St. Louis, Mo., D. R. Williams, Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
San Francisco, Cal., L. H. Cary, Manager, 23 Grant Avenue.

The other houses referred to are these:

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colporteurs, 712 Penn Avenue.
Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 14 Paternoster Square.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $260,907.49. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The sales of periodicals for the year were $324,492.68.

* This refers to the number of copies of the Report for the year ending March 31, 1903.

of the main house, and of the depositories and other houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.*

Net Profits.

The net profits of the year were $29,191.23. Of this sum two-thirds, or $19,460.82, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third or $9,730.41 has been added to the capital.

Capital.

This, at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $240,185.84. In consequence of the addition of one-third of the profits of the year, or $9,730.41, together with the sum of $5,034.60 received from an endowment policy on the life of C. H. Whiting, a debtor to the Board, the capital is now reported at $254,950.85.

ABSTRACT OF THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board has been deeply bereaved during the year by the loss of two of its most valued members, Ezra P. Hoyt, M.D., a member since 1897, and Daniel J. Holden, Esq., a member since 1895. Appropriate minutes have been placed upon the records.

APPLICATIONS.

It is sometimes alleged that the hold of the Christian faith upon the people of the twentieth century is weakening and that the progress of the Church is faltering. These views find no support in the facts that confront the Boards of our Church. The applications that every month reach this Board from young congregations striving to secure church homes indicate a constant growth of the Church and an advance of its lines equal to that of any past period. These applications in all departments during the year now under review were 285, and the total amount of aid asked either as grants or loans for church buildings and manses reached the sum of $247,435. In both number and in amount this demand exceeds that of any previous year in the history of the Board, thus emphasizing the constant advance of the Church to which reference has been already made.

Of the 285 applications thus noted, 168, aggregating $112,742, were to the General Fund either for grants (141, $88,981), loans without interest (19, $11,595), or for both grants and loans (8, $12,166); 28, aggregating $73,500, were for loans from the Loan Fund; 62, aggregating $31,893, were to the Manse Fund for loans, and 3, amounting to $2,100, to the same fund for grants; and 23, aggregating $25,700, were to the Raynolds Fund for loans for manses, and one, $1,500, to the Barber Fund.

INCOME.

The following table gives the income of the Board from all sources, and following the statement is a full explanation of the source and function of the different funds named:

As compared with the previous year there was an advance in the total number of churches aided and in the amounts appropriated from all the funds excepting the Loan Fund. The total number of churches exceeded that of the year before by sixteen, but owing to the smaller amount from the Loan Fund the total appropriated was slightly ($1,706.45) less.

These appropriations have reached 37 States and Territories and 120 Presbyteries.

During the year there have been reported as completed without debt 213 churches and manses of an aggregate value estimated at not less than $667,317. The total receipts in all departments were $187,104 and the disbursements $206,018. The alphabetical and synodical tables and the map appended to the report indicate the wide distribution of appropriations throughout the length and breadth of the land.*

THE UNIQUE CHARACTER OF THE BOARD'S WORK.

In the report of the Board a year ago, attention was called to the constant broadening of the sphere of the Board and to the very much more complex character of its work than was contemplated when first it was organized to receive the contributions of the churches and distribute them among the proper applicants for aid. It is not necessary to repeat what was then said, but when it is borne in mind that in addition to its original function, now represented by its General Fund, it has no less than three distinct loan funds amounting in the aggregate to $400,000, the most of which is now distributed in small loans in every part of the land; that it has funds of more than $150,000 invested for revenue; that it holds trust funds to the extent of more than $50,000, upon which annuities are paid; that it maintains insurance policies amounting to nearly $2,500,000; that it holds mortgages giving it a reversionary interest to the extent of $2,000,000 upon some 4000 properties; and that it furnishes to such churches as need them architectural plans for building at a nominal price, it may be said without exaggeration that it combines to some extent in its activity the functions not only of the almoner of contributing churches, but of a trust company, an insurance agency, a conservator of property for the Church at large and an architectural bureau. As a matter of fact a very large proportion of what are sometimes designated as administrative expenses is due to the Board's responsibility in these conservative directions.

THE OUTLOOK.

The constantly growing demands upon the Board have a twofold significance. As was suggested in the opening sentence of this report, they emphasize most encouragingly the fact that our Church is advancing, and as its progress is typical of a similar forward movement among all branches of the one visible Church of Christ, of which it is a part, this growth is a sufficient answer to those who sometimes assert that Christian faith upon the earth is waning. There are doubtless, in different eyes, diverse ways in which the power and the advance of the Master's kingdom are manifested, but there is no surer gauge of steady even if quiet progress than the number of new churches organized and of houses dedicated to the worship of God.

In the increased demand upon our Board as thus significant we may well rejoice; but the question instantly presses, How is that demand to be met?

The reply is: Only by increased contributions from the churches. The resources of the Board from the invested benevolence of our predecessors have been drawn upon to the utmost. Legacies are a very uncertain dependence. The only constant and living source of supply is the income received from church offerings and from the personal gifts of individual men and women who know the value of this work in the establishment of the kingdom of the Master.

The Board asks the General Assembly to remind the churches that their contributions have for ten years made no substantial advance, and unless their interest in this branch of the Church's missionary work becomes speedily more vital and fruitful there is danger that the onward march of the Church will halt and congregations already gathered upon the advanced line be disintegrated and lost for want of church homes in which to be housed and maintained.

Abstract of the Forty-ninth Annual Report.

ROLL.

We have had upon our roll for the year ending March 31, 1904, 925 names: 388 ministers, 482 widows, 33 orphan families, 1 medical missionary and 1 widow of a medical missionary, 7 women missionaries and 13 guests in the Merriam Home at Newton, N. J. In the year 1889 the rule was adopted allowing ministers who are 70 years of age and who have been 30 years in active service in the ministry of our Church to be placed on the Honorably Retired roll of the Board, to be granted, without being annually renewed, an annuity of $300, when they certify that they need that amount. Since then 323 ministers have availed themselves of this privilege. 17 names have been added to this roll during the past year; 15 ministers whose names were on this roll have died during the year. During the past year we have had 164 Honorably Retired ministers on the roll, and their average age has been 78.4 years, and their average active service has been 44 years. 40 of these men were over 80 years of age, and 11 of them were over 90. The amount paid to Honorably Retired ministers the past year was $47,720.

During the past year we have added 92 new names to the roll of annuitants: 48 ministers, 39 widows, 3 women missionaries and 2 orphans. 58 of those who were on the roll have died during the year: 35 ministers, 20 widows, 2 orphans and 1 medical missionary. One of those who died during the year was a guest at the Merriam Home, Newton, N. J.

The average amount paid widows last year was $150.

Excluding the cost of the guests at the Merriam Home and the annuitants on the Honorably Retired roll, the average cash payment last year was $166.

The average cost of all in the Home, and all upon the cash roll, except those on the Honorably Retired roll, was $169.

The average paid all on the cash pay roll, excluding those at the Home, was $188.

The average cost of all upon the roll of the Board was $191.

The average paid those on the Honorably Retired roll was $291. These ministers did not all ask for the full amount they are entitled to receive.

COMPARATIVE RECEIPTS FOR THE YEARS 1902-1903 AND 1903-1904 (NOT INCLUDING RECEIPTS FOR THE PERMANENT FUND).

We have received during the past year collections from 4,341 churches; 3,292 churches have failed to send any contributions to this hallowed cause during the year. The non-contributing churches are nearly all what we call non-self-sustaining churches.

Besides the cash contributions to the Board from churches and individuals, the Ladies' Aid Societies of our Church have sent to families on our roll gifts of money and boxes of clothing and groceries amounting to the value of $5,734.21.

THE COST OF ADMINISTRATION

during the past year has been but 4.9 per cent. of the receipts of the treasury.

THE HOMES.

By the authority of the General Assembly the Board closed the Westminster House at Perth Amboy, N. J., on the 16th of September, 1903, and transferred the guests from Perth Amboy to the Merriam Home at Newton, N. J.

An agreement has been made that when the Westminster House shall have been sold, the Board is to receive a handsome sum from the heirs of Dr. A. M. Bruen, who gave the property to the Board, which sum is to be added to our Permanent Fund and to be known as "The Bruen Memorial Fund," the interest of which is to be used for the work of the Board.

At the request of the Board of Relief, the Presbytery of Newton has appointed such a Committee as Mr. Merriam had in mind to take the oversight and care of the buildings and real estate of the Merriam Home, under the title of "The Presbyterial Committee of the Merriam Home." This Committee consists of the following gentlemen: Rev. C. W. Rouse, Chairman, ex-officio; Ministers—E. A. Hamilton, J. C. Chapman, E. A. McLaury; Ruling Elders—M. N. Armstrong, M.D., Treasurer; Hon. Henry C. Hunt, Secretary; Mr. J. D. Flock.

This Presbyterial Committee have most generously agreed to take the general charge of the Merriam Home as a Board of Managers, and they have appointed an Executive Committee, which is charged by the Presbyterial Committee with the special oversight and management of the Home during the intervals of the meeting of the general Committee.

The following persons constitute the Executive Committee:

Rev. C. W. Rouse, Chairman; Hon. Henry C. Hunt, Secretary; M. N. Armstrong, M.D., Treasurer.

We believe that this arrangement of having a local Committee to exercise a watch and care over the Home will secure to the Church the most efficient and economical management of the Home and will prove most satisfactory to all concerned.

SALARIES PAID OUR MINISTERS IN 1873.

In the years 1872 and 1873 the General Assembly's statistics give us the salaries paid our ministers, and we have gone over the report for 1873, when the salaries were greater than in 1872, and have prepared the table which we herewith present, in order that the members of our Church may see the small salaries paid thirty years ago to many of our ministers.

We do not know how perfect the reports on salaries paid in 1873 really were, but we compile the table given from the reports of salaries paid as given in the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1873.

The table of ministers' salaries herewith presented shows the exceedingly small amounts paid by a large number of our smaller churches for pastoral services thirty-one years ago, and it is largely because of these small salaries then paid that so many of our aged ministers and the families of deceased ministers are dependent upon the Church at large for the means of their support.

Study this table carefully and learn the facts to be gathered from it, and you will probably be greatly surprised.

24 received from	5,000 to	5,500
41 received from	4,000 to	4,500
71 received from	3,000 to	3,500
267 received from	2,000 to	2,500
860 received from	1,000 to	1,500
598 received from	550 to	950
373 received from	400 to	500
923 received less than		400

Abstract of the Thirty-ninth Annual Report.

For the fifth time, in regular succession, the Board has closed its year's work without debt.

It has been able to do this not because the churches and societies on which it depended and from which it received the larger part of its income gave us their expected support, but because of an unanticipated increase in the help that comes to us from miscellaneous sources and legacies.

The church collections fell behind $2,322, and from the other regular sources of income, including Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies and Woman's Societies, we received $3,605 less than the year before.

Our receipts from legacies this year exceeded those of last year only by the small sum of $704, but the receipts from miscellaneous sources, which include interest from invested funds and individual gifts, were $5,283 larger than the year before. The sum total of our receipts from all sources was $60.36 more than last year. Considering all the exceptional difficulties encountered and overcome during the year, the Board considers itself fortunate in being able to make as good a showing as it does.

The work has in no way been hindered, but in a number of ways has been materially improved and enlarged. Four much-needed and important improvements, which for years have been written about and talked about, are now accomplished facts.

A new wing to the Main Building at Ingleside Seminary, Burkeville, Va. was completed in time for the Seminary to avail itself of its much-needed additional room by the first of last December.

At Brainerd Institute, Chester, S. C., a new Institute Building has been finished, giving ample chapel accommodations and all the classroom facilities that the school will need for many years to come.

At this same place a large annex has been added to the original Homestead Building, bringing great relief in the way of better dormitory, dining-room, laundry and bathroom appointments.

At Biddle University a new Industrial Building has been erected, giving accommodations under one roof for the first time in the history of the institution to various trades that have been taught there under great disadvantage almost ever since the school was established, including carpentering, shoemaking, bricklaying, plastering, masonry, painting, printing, etc.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way was 4,955, being a loss of 40 as compared with last year.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,118, being a loss of 17.

The number of Sabbath-schools that contributed to our work direct was 408, and the number giving through the Woman's Board was 356, making a total of 764.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing to our work direct was 77, and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 999, making a total of 1,076.

The amount of money given by the patrons and friends of our school work on the field is reported this year as amounting to $48,465.55.

The amount given in church work toward self-support, as reported by our ministers on the field, is $42,850.99.

The total amount of both church work and school work is $91,316.54, none of which passed through the treasury of the Board.

The colored people under the care of the Freedmen's Board are to-day in possession of and occupy 306 separate buildings for church worship, and the value of these buildings as reported to our Board amounts to $245,000. They also occupy 30 manses valued at $23,800.

The following are the amounts given by our colored churches toward the support of their own ministers for the last five years in succession: $33,981; $37,226; $38,946; $40,634; $42,850.

The colored churches under the care of the Board gave through annual collections $750.37 to the Freedmen's Board, and $1,954.20 to the other Boards of the Church.

With a view to a closer watch upon the field and a more vigorous pressing of our claim upon the heart and conscience of the Church, Rev. H. T. McClelland, D.D., for twenty years a member of the Board, and for eleven years its President, has been appointed Field Secretary.

Rev. Samuel J. Fisher, D.D., for nearly thirty years a member of the Board and for most of this time its Recording Secretary, was chosen as President, of the Board in the place made vacant by the resignation of Dr. McClelland.

Mrs. V. P. Boggs, who for the past year has been Acting General Secretary of the Women's Department, was made General Secretary of the same.

On behalf of the Board,

EDWARD P. COWAN,

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

The extraordinary interest in the educational institutions of our Church manifested by the General Assembly at Los Angeles last year, and the unprecedented actions taken by that Assembly, especially the appointment of the College Endowment Commission, filled this Board with new courage and hope, and sent it into the work of the year with new devotion and enthusiasm. There are many tokens that our Church has felt the impulse of these things. The Board seems to have reached the condition described by the prophet Amos: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the ploughman shall overtake the reaper." We are gathering harvest from earlier sowings, and we are at the same time preparing ground for great future ingatherings.

Reaping.—Huron College, South Dakota, after twenty-one years of heroic struggle, the last five being years of rapid growth and special effort to secure endowment, succeeded on the last day of the old year, with the help of the Board, in making its first $100,000, about one-half of which comes from its own Synod and one-half from the East. Alma College, Michigan, has secured during the year the larger part of an additional $50,000 of endowment, all from its own Synod. Buena Vista College, Iowa, is gathering in the $50,000 endowment subscribed from its own Synod. Hastings College, Nebraska, has secured nearly all its desired $50,000 subscriptions, probably all by the time this will be read, and nearly all from its own city. Occidental College, Los Angeles, is rapidly putting up the beautiful Hall of Letters, ground for which was broken by the Moderator of the General Assembly a year ago, and expects to secure $200,000 endowment in a year, more than one-third of the amount being already pledged. Whitworth College, Washington, has begun a steady effort for endowment, members of its Board of Trustees having subscribed a large part of the first $100,000. Greeneville and Tusculum College, Tennessee, and also Stanley McCormick School, in North Carolina, rejoice in new buildings and equipment, these being provided by a long-time and generous friend of this cause. Princeton Collegiate Institute, Kentucky, has at last, with the Board's help, paid off its indebtedness, which antedated the organization of this Board. The College of Emporia, Kansas, having a noble record of ministers, missionaries and candidates furnished to our Church, has laid aside the large bonded debt which long beset it and now seeks endowment. Carroll College, Wisconsin, under a new president, is taking long steps upward on the path in which it has for years been led and, indeed, almost lifted, by its retiring president, and seeks additional endowment.

Ploughing.—We use the scriptural spelling because we would emphasize the scriptural idea and ideal. The scriptural idea is that the blessing of God so rewards the labors of His people in the latter day, that from earlier ploughing wondrous harvests shall be gathered; and the scriptural ideal is that the Church, glad and grateful and expectant, shall hasten to plough more land for similar harvests in the future.

From our Church's ploughing with this Board these twenty-one years notable harvests are now annually gathered: Twenty-three Western colleges where there were five; thousands of students where there were hundreds; more than a million and a half of dollars in new property values, and every year many converted and consecrated young people graduating into usefulness to our Church. The scriptural ideal is that the Church, glad and grateful and expectant, shall increase its ploughing for future harvests. But in fact the increase is slight—the ploughman does not overtake the reaper. Note the

It is greatly to be desired that the churches should provide $150,000 in church offerings this year, and that individuals should add large amounts. Not thousands only, but millions are needed. Our colleges, making their painful way year by year to better buildings, larger faculties and more students, must have endowment. Some are making noble beginnings of endowment in their own regions, making such a record as the colleges of no other denomination have made in securing endowment from their home fields. But they cannot get enough there. Help must come from the richer parts of our Church.

NOTE.—The General Assembly adopted unanimously the report of its Standing Committee on this Board, renaming the Board "The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," transferring its headquarters to New York City, directing it to come into relations with all our colleges and to try to secure endowment for them, enlarging its executive force and appointing a new membership. The office will be in the Presbyterian Building, 156 Fifth avenue, New York City.

In this respect it is quite different from the operations of the Boards and other agencies of the Church. For example, the Foreign Board, at the close of each year, is able to point with pride to the number of missionaries in the foreign field, the new workers commissioned and the stations opened. The results are thus visible and tangible.

It is likewise so with the Home Board, with the Boards of Church Erection, Publication and Sabbath-school Work and other agencies. Of all these it may be said that, to a greater or less extent, their work stands out in clear light before the eyes of men.

When we come to the work of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence it is quite different. There is little spectacular about the operations of this Committee, and it is difficult to point to visible results. Yet, indirectly, we seek, in every possible way, to stimulate the grace and privilege of giving to God's work in its varied forms, and how long could the agencies of the Church carry on their work unless Christian people gave money?

Though Systematic Beneficence may be considered a prosaic and commonplace subject, still all rejoice in what it is able to accomplish in securing the necessary supply of funds; and the subject is all the more of vital importance in a country where the Church has no revenues from public taxation, but must depend upon the generosity of its members. The right motive, theory and plan of giving secures the material means necessary to success. There is a close connection between the secular and the sacred. It requires gold to preach the Gospel throughout the world. The annual budget of a church or a church board is as important to it as the annual appropriation bill is to the welfare of the nation. It is impossible to carry on a war without money, and we are at war with the forces of sin in the world!

Systematic Beneficence deals with great principles—property, ownership, accountability, consecration. It teaches Christian people the duty, privilege and method of giving back to God what He has given to them, and doing this methodically, proportionately, gladly. This is something that must be learned by the Christian, guided by the Holy Spirit. "Conscientious and generous giving is not a natural growth. Inherent selfishness checks and dwarfs its development. Like any other fruit of the Spirit, it needs cultivation. It must be built upon love and supported upon the one side by principle and upon the other by habit."

Your Committee finds it increasingly difficult to present "some new thing" each year. In order to be of service we seek to offer, if possible, new suggestions year by year. To show what has been done, we propose to make a "series of observations" extending over the past ten years, for only in this way can we determine our latitude and longitude on the sea of Systematic Beneficence; a sea at times calm, but often troubled, as it was in 1893, when the Committee said, "Not for a generation has there been direr financial distress. It has severely tested the faith of God's people and their love for His work."

We propose now to make a rapid survey of the work done by the Assembly's Committee covering a period of ten years.

1894. The report of that year dwelt largely with the subject of apportionment. It was resolved that—

"The General Assembly expects each of its Synods, Presbyteries and Churches to give its just share of the funds needed to prosecute the work of the Boards of the Church."

1895. The report again dwelt upon the subject of apportionment, and the Assembly urged each Presbytery through its Committee on Systematic Beneficence, or in such other way as in its wisdom it may deem best, to undertake the raising within the bounds of the Church such a sum as it considers, in view of its ability and their needs, its fair share of the whole amount required; and that each church be informed by Presbytery of the sum requested from it for each Board.

We find that the principle of apportionment received the approval of many of the large Synods of the Church.

1896. The report gives statistical tables showing the gifts to the Board for the past ten years. The conclusion was reached that there was a large field unworked, and it was strongly recommended that "the Committee be authorized to furnish pledge cards free to all Sessions of churches that are willing to make a faithful canvass of their congregations for weekly offerings to be divided among the Boards of the Church, on the basis of the General Assembly's apportionment of undesignated funds."

1897. The report deals with the gifts to the Boards through church offerings and from all sources, and the result of apportionment as compared with the voluntary system. It was also reported that the Committee had presented to Presbyteries 100,000 subscription blanks.

1898. The report gives elaborate statistical tables; shows that a small proportion of churches contribute to all the Boards; and the somewhat startling statement is made "That not more than seventy-five churches pay distinct annual offerings for each of the eight Boards." The Committee also called attention to the fact that nearly a third of the gifts of the Boards through church offerings was received during the month of March.

1899. One of the important matters brought to the attention of the Assembly was that of defining Systematic Beneficence. The following was commended: "By Systematic Beneficence is to be understood the making of gifts, from love to Christ, as an act of worship, in aid of those benevolent causes accredited and conducted by our Church as a whole for the spread of the Gospel, according to some plan or system as regards the regularity of contribution and according to ability as the Divine rule for amount thereof."

Another important matter was brought to the attention of the Church in this recommendation: "That the Assembly take steps to enact such legislation as shall require the special treasurer of the Beneficent funds of the Church to forward them to their destination as far as possible every month, and in all cases as often as once a quarter."

1900. The report shows that the Committee dealt largely with the matter of harmonizing the views and methods prevailing in the Church on the matter of Systematic Beneficence. In the opinion of the Committee, no scheme could succeed which failed to recognize certain fundamental facts:

(1) The primary end to be sought is not so much to obtain funds for the Boards, or for any special object, as to inculcate principles and foster habits which shall actuate all giving.

(2) Everyone must be left free to give according to his own views of personal duty.

(3) Individual churches must be allowed the same liberty.

The following was the new item of the report for the year:

"We recommend that theological seminaries give full instruction on the subject of Systematic Beneficence, and upon the history, objects and operations of each of the Boards of the Church."

1901. An examination of the report shows that the Committee made it a part of its work to correspond with Presbyterial Committees on Systematic Beneficence, urging them to secure in their several Presbyteries the adoption of the following rule, or something equivalent, viz.: That it be made a regular order each year at a fall meeting of Presbytery to call the roll of the churches, that responses may be given from every church on these points:

(1) "Is the congregation afforded opportunity to contribute each year by some regular plan to all the Boards of the Church?" and—

(2) "Do the pastor and Session supply the families of the congregation with the printed statements of the Boards, as these are now furnished without charge on application to the Committee on Distribution of Literature?"

1902. We find in the report of this year that out of 208 Presbyteries, 189 had Committees on Systematic Beneficence. The Assembly was requested to urge all Presbyteries not having committees to appoint them at once. The report also states that "This year, for the first time, a definite attempt was made to comply with the direction" that the several Treasurers of the Boards give to the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence, on or about the 1st of March, a list of churches which shall not as yet have sent offerings to them, and that the said Committee make earnest efforts, in co-operation with the Boards, to secure offerings from such churches before the close of the fiscal year.

The Committee also recommended that the Assembly counsel churches which support themselves on the envelope plan to include envelopes of another color for the offerings of the Boards.

1903. The special feature of the report was the attention called to the ten leaflets which the Committee had prepared and were ready to distribute.

During the past year the Committee has carried on an extensive correspondence with Presbyterial and Synodical Committees, has distributed tens of thousands of leaflets, and has sought in every way possible to be of service to the Church and to give an impulse to the cause of Systematic Beneficence.

Finding a constant demand for good literature, we issued one new leaflet, The Financial Problem, by Dr. Swartz, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and are about to prepare others. We suggest the following recommendations:

1. That Presbyterial Committees urge Sessions to canvass congregations anew in order to ascertain in advance about the amounts that can be depended upon by the different Boards of the Church.

2. That Presbyteries and Synods hold popular meetings on Systematic Beneficence, and that Presbyteries urge Sessions to do the same.

3. That all our theological seminaries be urged to present the subject of Systematic Beneficence to their students, and that pastors speak and preach frequently on the same subject.

4. That Presbyteries instruct Sessions to urge the Treasurers of all Church Societies to send their contributions soon after these have been received; if possible within one month.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID G. WYLIE, Chairman.

Abstract of the Twenty-third Annual Report.

Again the Permanent Committee on Temperance has the sad report to make of the taking away by death of a much-beloved member and officer, Mr. Cyrus L. Rose, who during eighteen years has rendered faithful and efficient service till March 15, 1901, when he was called to "come up higher."

A second vacancy has resulted from the resignation of R. M. Ewing, Esq.

No. 56. Temperance Action of the General Assembly of 1903.
A Problem in Exegesis.
Temperance Catechism.
Facts, Figures and Ideas on the Temperance Reform.
Temperance Exercise. A Lion in the Way.
Pledge Cards.
Constitution for Church Temperance Society.
Suggestions for Sessional Temperance Committees.
Suggestions for Temperance Secretary in Woman's Missionary Society.

We also now have several additional tracts in foreign languages; one for distribution among the people of Bulgaria and Macedonia, others in the languages of the millions around us who have come from lands where temperance instruction has never been enjoyed. Some of our leaflets also reach many Bohemian readers through the columns of a periodical in whose publication the editor, Rev. V. Losa, is aided to a small extent from the treasury of your Committee.

We estimate the year's output of literature approximately at 1,500,000 pages. Should we add the space occupied in presenting temperance truth in the columns of various periodicals, the service which the printing press has rendered to this cause, through your Committee, cannot fall much short of 4,000,000 pages. The temperance literature which we have been able to issue, though superior in quality, is as yet meagre in quantity and variety. In this conflict with the powers of darkness the estimate which the Church puts on the printing press as an engine of war seems to be greatly exceeded by that of the enemy. A single liquor organization reports 2,500,000 packages of literature mailed last year, and the vast sums spent on liquor advertisements and in disseminating "the instruction that causeth to err" cast into contemptible insignificance the expenditure of all Christendom on temperance literature.

CORRESPONDENCE.

This department of your Committee's work grows steadily from year to year, both in volume and in the range of its subjects. Many hundreds of letters of course relate to the distribution of literature. In the past year national legislation, to which attention was directed by the last Assembly, was the theme of several hundred letters.

Having been directed by the General Assembly of last year (Resolution) to memorialize Congress for the passage of the Hepburn Bill, a memorial was sent to the United States Senate and a duplicate to the House of Representatives, presentation of which was made to the Senate by Hon. Boise Penrose and to the House by Hon. E. F. Acheson.

In the interest of this national legislation, which, if secured, must prove of the highest value to the cause of temperance, our chairman has twice visited Washington and addressed the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives at a hearing given for discussion of the measure.

The will of the General Assembly has also been carried out by the presentation to Congress of a memorial in behalf of the Gallinger Bill.

Pursuant to the order of the General Assembly (Resolution 8), correspondence was opened with officers of the judicatories of sister Churches. A letter was addressed to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America and a duplicate thereof to the officers of each of seven other sister Churches. (See full report of Committee in volume of Reports.)

Some correspondence had already been maintained with the Permanent Committee on Temperance of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal and the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

From six of the eight bodies addressed replies have reached us, all cordially fraternal in tone. The Stated Clerks of the United Presbyterian and Cumberland Presbyterian General Assemblies report the existence of permanent Committees on Temperance or on Reform, and we have assurance that the request of our General Assembly for the constituting of such committees will be presented to the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church, to the General Synod of the Reformed (German) Church, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and to the National Council of Congregational Churches, all of which bodies will hold meetings in the near future. It is the purpose of your Committee to seek correspondence with other Churches, when the addresses of the proper officers shall have been secured.

May not the hope be indulged that the movement which our General Assembly has thus started shall ere long bring about the consummation devoutly to be wished for—mutual conference and combined effort against our common foe, the liquor traffic? Then shall come the triumph of our King and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

But meantime a great work devolves on those whose hearts the Lord has touched concerning this question.

A letter was sent to the publishers of thirty magazines, in the hope of securing such responses as should enable us to prepare and present to Presbyterians a list of magazines of high literary excellence, free from demoralizing liquor advertisements.

After a lapse of a month replies came assuring us of the strict exclusion of all liquor advertisements from the following magazines, viz.:

Success, The Country Gentleman. Ladies' Home Journal, The Eclectic, Our Day, Saturday Evening Post, Everybody's Magazine, Littell's Living Age, Woman's Home Companion, McClure's Magazine, The Cosmopolitan Magazine.

It is gratifying to find that from nearly all the magazines on this list patent medicines are declared to be excluded, since many of them contain a large percentage of alcohol.

Two weekly literary journals which have been reported to us by the publishers are with pleasure also placed on this list.

The editor of the National Magazine and publisher of the Pacific Monthly each write that whiskey advertisements are excluded. Substantially the same is said by the Current Literature Publishing Co.

The World's Work and Outing admit no whiskey advertisements, but discriminate in favor of beer. The Metropolitan "accepts advertising of every description if honest."

THE FINANCES.

By the appended statement of our Treasurer it will be seen that our receipts for the year have been $2,681.14. The General Assembly at Los Angeles took action recommending the Permanent Committee to make special effort to raise the sum of at least $10,000 for the year's work. To make clear the attitude of the Committee, we beg to present some articles from a circular issued three months ago:

"Should the $10,000 recommended by the last General Assembly for the work of its Permanent Committee on Temperance be supplied by the churches, what would the Committee do with it?"

I. The Permanent Committee is homeless. We need an office and depository for our stock of printed matter, etc.

II. Our members being busy men and our Secretary having the cares of a pastoral charge, clerical help is imperatively needed which the state of our treasury has never permitted us to employ.

III. The work demands the preparation and issue of tracts and other printed matter in great variety, suited to young and old, on all phases of the subject, plain and illustrated, attractive in mechanical execution and in various languages.

IV. The work of the Permanent Committee and the cause entrusted to it by the General Assembly should be presented, not only before that body, but at all synodical meetings and as often as practicable at Presbyterial meetings also.

V. Temperance institutes and conventions have in former years been used with good effect by the Committee.

VI. The temperance missionary work in the South, which from lack of funds we were compelled to suspend, ought to be resumed and extended.

VII. We begin to realize that the printed page must be supplemented by the living voice. We have, therefore, under advisement the project of placing in the field temperance evangelists.

Last year the receipts of the Treasurer of the Permanent Committee were $2,180, while solicitors for outside agencies, visiting our churches, have gathered about six times as much. Has not the Presbyterian Church occasion to say, "They made me keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard have I not kept?"

And now that the General Assembly asks on its Committee's behalf that it be given that which it has never yet had, an equipment in some measure adequate to its most important work, is it not the part of loyal Presbyterians to make prompt and generous response?

ADVOCACY BY PUBLIC ADDRESS.

It is, of course, not possible to report on how many thousand occasions, in our Church, there has been public presentation of the subject of temperance during the year, nor how largely this discusssion may have been promoted by your Permanent Committee. It has been at the solicitation of this Committee that nearly every Synod and Presbytery now has a Committee on Temperance, and that consequently once each year or oftener in these bodies there is more or less discussion of this vital theme.

In addition to this, special presentation of the work of the General Assembly's Committee was made last autumn at the Synods of New Jersey, Baltimore, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Colorado, Tennessee, Kentucky, Catawba, Missouri, Texas and Indian Territory. In this work three members of the Committee, our Chairman and Rev. Drs. Calhoun and Worrell, were engaged.

We were also permitted to avail ourselves of the valuable servies of the following friends of the cause: Rev. J. L. Weaver, D.D., who addressed one Synod, and Rev. H. N. Mount, Rev. T. F. Dixon and Hon. H. P. Faris, who each addressed two or more Synods. The following Presbyteries have been addressed by members of the Committee: Shenango, Steubenville, Blairsville, Washington, Pittsburgh, visited respectively by Rev. Dr. T. B. Anderson, Rev. Dr. C. S. McClelland, Mr. W. C. Lilley, and the Secretary, who also has addressed various conventions and other meetings.

TEMPERANCE MISSIONARY WORK AMONG COLORED PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH.

This work has not been entirely suspended. Our Missionary, Rev. R. W. Holman, who is also Chairman of the Temperance Committee of the Presbytery of Atlantic, is constantly attempting some temperance work in addition to his pastoral labors.

THE TEMPERANCE REPORTS.

Nearly 8,000 copies of the report blank were sent out in February, the aim being to reach every Session in our entire Church. These should come back to us summarized by the Presbyterial Committees. We are compelled to proceed with this report, however, with only a small fraction of the Presbyterial reports yet in. Sessions are tardy in making returns. The reports make manifest the fact that there is some increase in the number of Temperance Committees. The insistence on this point of the General Assembly, the Synods and Presbyteries and of the Permanent Committee has not been wholly unavailing. Through the efforts of the Woman's Temperance Committee of the Synod of Pennsylvania many Temperance Secretaries have been appointed in the missionary societies who are diligently at work on various lines, especially in disseminating our literature and securing the circulation of the pledge.

Answers to our inquiry as to temperance instruction from the pulpit are almost unanimously affirmative and some are uttered with emphasis. Unquestionably our Churches are being heard from by Congress more frequently than heretofore. More and more Christian people are discovering that such efforts are not in vain; that our National legislators desire to know the mind of their constituents, and especially when legislation is pending involving moral issues, petitions potently influence the result.

Vigilance and diligent effort will be imperatively necessary regarding the temperance instruction in the public schools. It is surely of unspeakable importance that the 22,000,000 children of school age shall be faithfully taught the truth regarding the laws of health, including those relating to the use of alcoholic drinks, tobacco and other narcotics.

To the wise, persistent, prayerful efforts of Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, of Boston, Mass., our country is indebted for securing the enactment of the laws requiring the instruction, and for most of what has since been done to render them effective; and unquestionably back of this movement have ever been the prayers of a vast number of godly mothers' hearts.

Your Committee is at the present time seeking to enlist the services of five gentlemen eminent in medical science and of unquestioned integrity, professors in medical colleges, to act in conjunction with those who already constitute the Advisory Board of the Bureau of Scientific Temperance Investigation, examining and pronouncing upon the scientific accuracy of the school physiologies, and formulating a standard of truth to be taught, to which text-books should be made to conform.

We are in receipt of a request from the Presbytery of North River, through the Chairman of its Temperance Committee, Rev. Dr. W. P. Swartz, which is herewith presented: That in designating an annual Temperance Day a Sabbath in October rather than in November be named, for the reason that the autumnal local option contests are over before the arrival of the November Temperance Day.

Rev. Thomas J. Stevenson, D.D., Chairman of Committee on Temperance, Presbytery of Hannibal, has also addressed your Committee relative to a conference with the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work, advising us also that an overture relative to this matter has been sent to the General Assembly.

We are profoundly interested as individuals in the great work of soul saving, for the forwarding of which the Evangelistic Committee of our Church was constituted. We recognize also the intimate mutual relation subsisting between the Evangelistic and the Temperance work. The same all-animating voice which penetrated the closed tomb and the death-sealed ears with the command "Lazarus, come forth!" commands also "Roll away the stone"; "Loose him and let him go."

The work of the Anti-Saloon League is referred to in many reports. In Ohio encouraging success has attended its efforts for improved legislation. In Pittsburg, Pa., large sums have been contributed and a determined contest waged in the license court, resulting in the defeat of many applicants for license. The good temperance women seem to be ubiquitous. From all quarters the reports tell of the W. C. T. U., which reaches "far as the curse is found." The superintendent of the Bureau of Reforms and of the A. S. League at our national capital have labored assiduously, but at this writing Congress seems about to adjourn without having passed any of the pending temperance legislation except that by which the canteen is banished from State Homes for old soldiers.

This is another important step toward that goal toward which we must ever struggle—the complete separation of our National Government from complicity with the robber traffic. Our navy is free from the grog shop and the saloon has been driven from the army. Our Capitol building has been purged from this pollution; so has the immigrant station, and now in the old soldier's homes the aged defender of his country will no longer be entrapped. Shall we not "thank God and take courage?"

We would have our General Assembly reiterate with emphasis the warning it has addressed to successive generations against even the so-called moderate use of strong drink and against even the less strongly alcoholic beverages.

We would have every Church judicatory utter its warning, which pulpit and press should reiterate, regarding the perils of opium and other narcotics, the use whereof is spreading fearfully. Perhaps appeal should be made to the physicians of America for simultaneous effort to stem this sweeping tide of ruin.

SOME SIGNIFICANT FACTS AND FIGURES.

Mr. F. N. Barrett, the well-known statistician, having kindly furnished us an advance proof of his annual estimate of the drink bill of the nation, some of the following figures are from that source.

Bringing together the items of the estimated cost of all alcoholic beverages, we have as the retail cost to the American people of alcoholic stimulants for the year ending June 30, 1903, the following:

Beer,	$727,042,245
Whisky (exclusive of quantity used in arts),	417,915,513
Wines,	97,985,360
Grand total 1903, estimated cost,	$1,242,943,118
Grand total 1902, estimated cost,	1,172,565,235
Grand total 1901, estimated cost,	1,094,644,155
Grand total 1900, estimated cost,	1,059,563,787
Grand total 1899, estimated cost,	973,589,080

The total revenue of the United States Government in 1903 from spirituous and malt liquors, licenses, etc., was $179,501,328—a per capita tax of $2.24, or $11.20 for every family.

Total production of distilled spirits, gallons, .	132,843 802	148,206,875
Total production fermented liquors, barrels, .	44,478,832	46,650,730

If, as has been estimated, the proportion of liquor users to the whole population be one in four, the average cost to each during 1903 was $79.92.

According to an estimate by Dr. Dawson Barnes, in the London Times of a month ago, the per capita average expenditure for drink in Great Britain in 1902 was $20.82.

The Mosely Commission, consisting of twenty-three representatives of various British industries, came to America to discover, if possible, the secret of America's success in outstripping other peoples in industrial and commercial competition. In their report the comparative sobriety of American artisans is emphasized, and that is being credited by British speakers and writers to the temperance teaching in the schools. A movement for a similar system is being started, and a petition for a temperance educational law has been addressed to Parliament with the signatures of 15,000 physicians.

While the figures show increased drinking, the percentage of advance in per capita consumption of strong drink is less in the last decade than in a like period immediately preceding, and probably the temperance effort put forth would ere this have turned the tide but for the fact that each year there have been poured in upon us nearly half a million immigrants, almost all of whom are recruits for the great drink army.

The report just comes to us that every minister in the State of Texas has recently been the recipient of a gift from some source of three volumes issued by the Committee of Fifty—rather expensive campaign documents, but the case is desperate. Unless the ministers can be converted from their total abstinence and prohibition fanaticism, the saloon may be hurled out of that whole vast State.

The National Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, at their meeting in the city of Pittsburg last October, voted unanimously to raise $5,000,000 for defensive purposes. They recognize their peril. Despite their millions, they and the brewers and distillers are ill at ease.

As intercessors for the oppressed and helpless we should be day and night crying mightily unto our God, but now let this General Assembly once more utter its testimony characterizing the liquor traffic as the atrocious crime that it is, and say to our Government, You ought not to license it, and if our God-given influence as a Church can avail, you shall not continue to license it!

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Permanent Committee,

Abstract of First Annual Report.

This Committee was created by the General Assembly of 1903. There have been two meetings of the entire Committee during the year, and both the attendance and interest of the members have been excellent. Without the help of a paid secretary and with very limited financial resources, we have endeavored to carry out faithfully the instructions of the Assembly.

In order to further the Assembly's recommendations with reference to Sessional, Presbyterial and Synodical oversight and leadership in Young People's work, an address has been prepared and sent to the Chairmen of Presbyterial and Synodical Young People's Committees. Another address has been sent to Presbyteries and Synods without Presbyterial and Synodical organization, and a third address has been sent to individual pastors. We have good reason to believe that something has been accomplished in this way, but it is evident from the reports which have come in that the work of our Young People is not receiving, as yet, the attention on the part of the pastors and elders which it ought to have, and must have, if the Church is to fulfill her mission.

The Committee has given much time and study to the preparation of a suitable training course for our Young People. We have carefully investigated what is being done in other denominations and have conferred with representatives of our own Boards. As both the Home and Foreign Boards have been conducting systematic courses of mission study, and are prepared to continue this educational policy, it was deemed advisable to make these courses a part of the general plan of the Committee. It was the judgment of the Committee that instead of recommending an elaborate course of training, a simple yet comprehensive course of study should be suggested for a beginning. After a faithful consideration of the whole matter in all its bearings, it was decided to prepare a training course with the following suggestions:

1. The study course year to continue from October to May inclusive.
2. That studies be arranged so that the text-books adopted may be used as reading course by individuals or for class work by groups of persons, and that supplemental reading for more thorough treatment be suggested and encouraged.
3. That studies be so arranged as to fit in with a series of bi-weekly meetings; that is, at least sixteen meetings per year.
4. That the order of departments be Biblical, Historical, Doctrinal (including Polity) and Missionary.

5. That programmes for each meeting be prepared, with suggestions as to treatment, preparation of time, methods, etc.

6. That the following persons be requested to act as a Committee to edit the programmes and other matters required in this course, either by doing so themselves, or at their discretion calling others to their assistance: Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, Rev. John Timothy Stone, Mr. William D. Murray.

7. That the following subjects and text-books be adopted for the year 1904–1905, to wit:

Biblical, . . .	"How We Got Our Bible," Patterson Smyth.
Historical, . .	"Landmarks of Church History."
Doctrine and Polity,	"The Creed Tested by Its Fruits." Second and Third Chapters of Smith's book on the Presbyterian Creed.
Missionary, . .	For class work, the programmes and plans suggested by the Home and Foreign Boards.

We recognize the fact that the conduct of these courses of study must be left to the direction and oversight of the pastor, who must use his own option as to when and how classes should be organized and systematic study pursued.

In connection with this proposed plan of study, the Executive Council of the Foreign Board proposed the following recommendations to our Committee, which were adopted:

"That the topics be treated consecutively instead of simultaneously. This would probably make it possible to allot four meetings of each of the courses to Home and Foreign Missions respectively. From an educational standpoint, a much greater impression would be made by a subject presented thus consecutively than by one which was treated in a half or a third of a monthly meeting, with another meeting of entirely different character intervening. The plan already adopted by the Foreign Board is that of weekly courses once a year, covering about eight weeks. If the above recommendations were adopted, the Foreign Board could doubtless persuade many classes to interpolate meetings, and would, therefore, obtain just what it now seeks, a weekly course for eight weeks. It would then be recognized that about two months of each year was a special time for a campaign of Foreign Mission study, and the same would be true of the study of Home Missions."

Mr. James Yereance, as representative of the Assembly's Committee on the Forward Movement on Christian Education, by invitation attended one of our meetings, when the subject of training courses for Young People was discussed, and a copy of the general plan for systematic study was placed in his hands, to be presented to this Committee.

In compliance with the instructions of the Assembly, we have prepared uniform blanks for the reports from Presbyteries and Synods, which were duly printed and distributed by the Stated Clerk. The accompanying summary of reports received shows that all the Home Synods, with one exception, have been heard from. But out of the 223 Presbyteries only 144 have responded, and, in many instances, the information has been of a meagre and uncertain character. It is quite evident that, because of the neglect either of the local Session or of the Presbyterial Committee, a large number of societies have not been reported to us. The Home Board reported last year (Minutes, p. 76) that it had received contributions from Young People's Societies to the extent of $53,000, while all that is reported to us this year amounts to about $36,000, and in our 7,822 churches there are surely more than 4,695 Young People's Societies. Making due allowance for any mistakes which may have been made, a careful study of the reports received by us (and many have failed to report) reveals the deplorable fact that the young people of our Church are not enlisted in the work of extending Christ's kingdom as they ought to be. The societies are too few, the membership in existing organizations is too small, and their contributions to benevolences, while large in totals, are yet not what they ought to be, especially when we think of the large numbers of young people who properly belong to our Church membership, many of whom are not yet enrolled in any young people's society. The fault for this in large part rests with the pastor and Session. The small amount of information which our inquiries have secured reveals an inexcusable lack of knowledge and interest on the part of those who have the responsible oversight of the young people's life and work. It is also evident that a large number of Presbyteries either do not have Committees on Young People's Work, or those which have been appointed do not appreciate the importance of the duties entrusted to them. We cannot escape the conviction that to-day, in spite of its strategic importance, the most neglected field in the life and work of our Church is to be found among the young people.

As the Assembly authorized us to receive contributions for the necessary expenses of our work, in the letter to Sessions and Young People's Societies we requested a contribution of one dollar from each church or Young People's Society. The Treasurer's report shows that scarcely any attention has been given to this appeal. Deducting the generous gifts of five individuals or churches, that is, $155, only $61.50 have been received from the Church at large. Nearly all of the money contributed has been spent in printing, and we have received nothing with which to pay for postage, stenographers' services and the traveling expenses of the members of the Committee. While the Committee is willing to serve the Church without salary, it believes that the Assembly should make adequate provision for the payment of necessary expenses.

Although our report is not as encouraging as we should like to make it, it justifies the wisdom of appointing a committee "in order that the young people of our churches may receive the benefit of the guidance and inspiration of the Church as a whole as represented in the Assembly."

The time of the Committee has been largely spent in getting our bearings, formulating plans and in preparing for a campaign of agitation and of education. In the light of our first year's experience we would respectfully call the Assembly's attention to the following matters:

1. There is evidently great need in many of our churches of interesting and enlisting the young people in active Christian service. The responsibility for leadership must rest upon the pastor and Session, and the results of our investigations clearly show that the youth of the Church are loyal and quickly respond to sympathetic and efficient guidance and oversight. As a rule the interest and activity of the young can be measured by the zeal or indifference of the church officers on their behalf.

2. If pastors and elders are to be stimulated and guided in caring for the religious welfare of young people, it is essential that each Presbytery should have a well-informed, deeply interested and forward pushing Young People's Committee. Instance after instance could be given of revivals of youthful zeal and service through the instigation of an active, efficient Presbyterial Committee. In spite of Assembly action already taken (Minutes of 1903, p. 64), it is evident from the reports that a large number of Presbyteries have failed to follow the instructions given.

3. In view of the widespread desire for a systematic course of religious instruction for our young people in addition to what is received in the Sunday-school, and since the real need for such a course is generally acknowledged, it is hoped that the Assembly will approve of the plan of study suggested by our Committee, and will urge it upon the attention of all our churches.

4. As it will not require more than $1,000 to defray all the expenses of the Committee, and it has not been possible to secure this amount from the churches, we would suggest the advisability of having this expense account met by the Assembly itself, as in the case of Special Committees.

5. The terms of office of the following members of the Committee expire with this meeting of the General Assembly: Rev. Maitland Alexander, D.D., Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, Mr. W. D. Murray, Mr. John Willis Baer.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

J. Ross Stevenson, Chairman.

Mr. JACOB WILSON, Recording Secretary.
FRANK K. HIPPLE, Esq., LL.D., Treasurer.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in accordance with the ninth section of its Charter, respectfully reports to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the exact state of the accounts of the Corporation for the year ending March 31, 1904.

These accounts are herewith presented, and made part of this report, and consist of the Treasurer's annual account of the principal and income, showing the receipts and disbursements of both funds, together with the balance of each on hand at the end of the fiscal year, together with the investment of the principal.

These accounts are accompanied by the reports of the Committees of the Board on Finance and on Accounts, with the usual certificates of these Committees as to the condition of the finances and the investments of the funds as shown by the accounts, and the audit of the Treasurer's account.

The certificate of Horace Hill, Public Accountant, as to his examination of the accounts, cash and securities of the Corporation, is also appended.

During the year the Corporation has received the following legacies:

For the Mariner's Church, Philadelphia:

Legacy under the will of E. S. Farr, deceased, paid direct to Geo. Griffiths, Esq., the Treasurer of the said Mariner's Church, and by order of the Board of Trustees of Mariner's Church turned over to the Trustees of the General Assembly, to be added to the Jos. Eastburn Fund, and the income applied for the benefit of said Mariner's Church, . $2,500 00

For Sundry Funds:

On account of residuary legacy under the will of Phineas M. Barber, deceased, ... 50,574 35

For Maryville College:

Specific securities turned over to the Trustees of the General Assembly by the Board of Directors of Maryville College as an equitable share from and out of its endowment fund, the income to be paid to the Board of Missions for Freedmen of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America for the education of colored youth in Swift Memorial Institute at Rogersville, Tenn., so long as the Swift Memorial Institute is in connection with the Presbyterian Church, and is not an unfit or unworthy recipient of the income aforesaid, ... 25,000 00

The disposition made of the income received upon the various trusts will be seen by reference to the Treasurer's accounts.

Samuel C. Perkins, Esq., LL.D., one of the Trustees, died July 14, 1903; and Rev. J. Eliot Wright, D.D., has resigned. These vacancies thus created should be filled at the annual meeting of the General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted for the Corporation by

JOHN H. CONVERSE,
President.

JACOB WILSON, Secretary.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to three cents for Mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all four and one-half cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the clerks of the Assembly.

☞See, also, Minutes of 1904, p. 118.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1904 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries. A supplementary number of the Minutes will be issued in January, 1905, showing ecclesiastical changes to date, and can be had on application to the Stated Clerk.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 399*i* of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1902, p. 23, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1895, can be had from the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞399*i*, Minutes, 1904, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution, Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the Losses to the Church, distinguish between (1) those dismissed, (2) those deceased, and (3) those suspended, erased or placed upon the absentee roll.

(9) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, 1871, p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. (a) Board and Miscellaneous. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any general Home Missionary operations, including value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc. (b) Presbyteries and Synods. To include all contributions for Presbyterial and Synodical Home Missions.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

9. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

10. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts and current expenses.

11. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence. Report also in this column all miscellaneous and outside gifts of the "congregation for religious and charitable causes, provided the donors consent to have them thus reported by the Clerk of Session or by the Pastor." [Minutes, 1904, p. 97.] This applies to individual gifts as well as to collections.

12. Temperance. Contributions to any Temperance causes. These amounts to be included under "Miscellaneous" in the Statistical Report of Presbytery, but to be also reported separately.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(10) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(12) Annex a statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of churches; also, any changes in the names of churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(13) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(14) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25, but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the causes of Young People's Work and Temperance.

5. For the purpose only of electing Standing Committees, the General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections of, as nearly as practicable, equal size, by combining the smaller Synods and dividing the larger by Presbyteries where necessary. The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and Finance, shall be numbered consecutively; the Electing Sections shall be numbered in like manner.

The Standing Committees shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman, except the Committees on Mileage and Finance, which shall each consist of twelve elders. Eleven members of the Committees on Mileage and Finance and eleven ministers and eleven elders of the other Committees shall be chosen by the Electing Sections as herein provided. The Moderator shall, as soon as possible after his election, appoint a member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof; provided that he shall not appoint more than one member and Chairman from the same Electing Section, and that he shall always appoint the retiring Moderator as a member and Chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

If the Moderator shall appoint as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee any one chosen by any Electing Section as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Electing Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee caused by the Moderator's appointment.

On odd-numbered years each odd-numbered section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed

After the election of a Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. The Stated Clerk shall designate one Commissioner in each Section to receive any necessary papers for the Section.

The members of each Electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat in advance of the meeting of the Assembly by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

The Electing Sections shall meet at the places assigned them for the purpose of selecting members of the Standing Committees at the close of the second session of the first day, provided the Assembly adjourns at or before five o'clock: otherwise, the Assembly shall take a recess promptly at eleven o'clock of the second day and the Electing Sections shall meet for that purpose at that time.

Reports from the sections shall be handed to the Stated Clerk as soon as the Electing Sections adjourn. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be the same in number as the quorum of the Assembly, viz., fourteen.

6. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Young People's Societies, second Thursday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Benevolence, Second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.
Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

7. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance, Aid for Colleges and Young People's Societies, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour, and that the remainder of the time allotted to the Committees be assigned to the Commissioners and to the agents from the fields of service.

8. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

9. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

10. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

11. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

12. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

13. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

14. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

15. In all regions, where through the organization of Union Presbyteries or the existence of Missions without Presbyterial organization, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each Mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

16. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1898, p. 132].

17. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

18. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

19. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

20. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination by the General Assembly is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

21. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

22. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

23. All Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, and shall be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions [1897, p. 144].

24. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

25. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place or meeting for the General Assembly.

26. The Moderator shall be elected in the following manner:

Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election shall be made by ballot in the following manner:

After the nominations are made each Section shall choose a Chairman and a Secretary, and the Chairman shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a ticket to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the tickets and count them under the supervision of the Chairman. The result will be recorded by the Secretary on tickets in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

When the reports of the ballots have been issued from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator will then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one has received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result, and declare him to be elected.

27. Hereafter all overtures from Presbyteries and Synods which are to come before the General Assembly shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly. The distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he does not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes, or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
